

Work Of H. D. Clubs For 1947 Chronicled

During 1947, the 135 home demonstration women of Terry county worked to improve their homes and their yards, while 142 4-H girls grew gardens and learned to do their own sewing. The women improved 57 living rooms, 63 kitchens, 50 bed rooms and built or otherwise improved 25 bath rooms. Twenty-one kitchen cabinets; 52 woolen bed covers and 1932 cotton household articles were added in the homes. The women reworked their furniture by refinishing 51 pieces; reseating 35 chairs; reupholstering 40 chairs and sofas.

Together, the women and the girls learned to weave a new kind of rug from jersey loops or used hose. They made a total of 69 of these rugs in colors to harmonize with the furnishings in living rooms and bed rooms.

In connection with the yard improvement work, the women arranged and furnished 7 outdoor living rooms, and added 14 pieces of recreational equipment. Seventeen lawns and 12 walks were made. Three windbreaks, of at least 100 trees were planted and are growing. One hundred and ninety-five shrubs were planted and growing, and 31 shrubs or trees have been successfully grown from seeds or cuttings.

Together, the women and the girls have made a total of 4279 new garments, and have made over 563. They cleaned 949 garments at home and dyed 69. They built 25 new closets for their clothes storage and remodeled 17.

In order to have better and more productive gardens, 9 inoculated seed with nitrogen and 100 disinfected seed before planting to guard against diseases. Forty-four frame or tub gardens were made and planted to give early in the spring and for the less productive times of the year.

The women and the girls have canned 9,987 quarts of fruits; 14,167 of vegetables; and 87 of meats. One thousand three hundred and fifty-two quarts of vegetables were preserved by bringing; and 750 pounds were dried. Seventy-four pounds of fruits; 342 vegetables; and 12,907 meats were preserved by freezing. Seven thousand, five hundred and six pounds of meats were cured.

The girls, not only learned to produce vegetables but they learned to make and serve dishes from them. They planned 1020 meals and served 851, including vegetables they produced.

Some special activities of the clubs are as follows:

Two clubs helped in the establishing of school lunch programs and are now sponsoring them. On Armistice Day, the women held a county-wide tour, visiting the homes of club members. They saw the work of 10 members in 8 clubs, as a means of getting better ideas of the accomplishments of club work throughout the county.

Late in November, six clubs placed educational exhibits in the show rooms of the Portwood Motor company, depicting information they had gained through club work and through home nursing courses they had taken.

In cooperation with the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, three girls, outstanding in 4-H accomplishments, were selected to receive $25.00 each and thus become members of the county talent club. One girl received $25.00 at a banquet held in Amarillo during August, as a reward for club achievements, entitling her to become a member of the district talent club.

A two day camp was held during August, when the girls learned to tool leather. Two girls taught the group in this handicraft, and two others conducted the recreation.

Twenty-nine girls took part in a county dress revue, and the winner of the older age group styled in the state dress revue.

In addition to the state dress revue, three girls clothed one girl in an orphan's home during the entire year.

W. A. BELL LOSES SISTER IN MARSHALL

Mrs. A. S. Hawkins, sister of W. A. Bell of Brownfield, died suddenly at her home in Marshall early this week. Mrs. Hawkins, a widely recognized artist and musician, visited Mr. Bell here last summer.

Miss Margaret Bell and Milton Bell attended the funeral which was held at Marshall. Mr. Bell was unable to attend because of illness.

The election recently to vote $150,000 bonds in Dawson county for farm to market roads, carried.

Farm Cash Income Reaches New High

Prosperous Texas farmers took in almost two billion dollars in the first 11 months of the year, and prospects for the immediate future revealed no signs of a let-down, according to reports of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

November farm cash income totaled $199,744,000, a 47 per cent gain over November intake last year, as prices of most farm products continued to mount during the month.

Farmers in Texas, as elsewhere in the nation, realized that both demand and prices for farm products are increasingly subject to fluctuations resulting from uncertainties in the national and foreign situation.

Winter vegetable crops were in excellent condition, the State looked to the biggest cotton crop since 1937, and the citrus season was humming along. Fruit and vegetable marketings pushed farm cash income in the Lower Rio Grande Valley 142 per cent above October totals for the greatest monthly gain in the State. The South Plains district came in second, chalking up a 47 per cent hike. These were the only increases in the State, as income in other sections dropped below November's record levels.

The overall 58 per cent dip in farm earnings between October and November was more than called for in the seasonal pattern, and the Bureau's seasonally adjusted index sagged 26 per cent below October's mark.

WTCC Offers Most Ambitious Program

The most ambitious program ever offered by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce affecting the economy and social welfare of more than one hundred counties making up the area, has just been announced by President C. P. Dodson, in releasing the 1948 work program of the organization.

This program worked out by the officers committee following the adoption of the general outline at the November referendum meeting, calls for increased activities in fields vitally affecting conservation and social relations.

Two of the projects, for which commissions have been set up in the organization, have to do with soil and water.

First is the conservation commission, which is charged with the immediate task of studying the proposed diversion of the state's general revenue ad valorem tax to soil conservation and farm to market road purposes, and to draft a proposed enabling act assuring the expenditure of soil conservation funds so as to supplement and augment the programs of other state and federal agencies.

Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, is chairman of this committee, with Sterling Williams, Snyder, vice chairman; W. R. Cusenberry, Sonora; J. G. Nisbett, Dumas and Walter R. Humphrey, Fort Worth.

Next is the water resource development commission which is charged with the responsibility of studying the conservation and maximum utilization of both surface and underground water, such studies to be conducted with the aid of professional engineers, and in cooperation with other agencies with findings and recommendations to be reported to the Board of directors.

Heading this committee in Winfield Holbrook of Plainview, with James N. Allison, Midland, vice chairman; W. O. Fortenberry, Lubbock; Charles L. South, Coleman and C. E. Coombes, Stamford.

Affecting the social life of West Texas is the West Texas Spanish-American relations commission, charged with fostering projects common to both West Texas and Mexico, developing good will and working for maximum trade relations with Mexico.

Heading this commission is C. W. Meadows, San Angelo; Tim B. Cobb, Del Rio, vice chairman, L. D. Aston, Cleburne; Ed Nunnally, Bronte and Charles Stuckey, Monahans.

In addition various other commissions, which already have done some work, will continue to function, according to General Manager D. A. Bandeen. Their program was worked out by the officers' committee, composed of Dodson as president with vice presidents John D. Mitchell, Odessa; J. M. Wilson, Floydada, and B. P. Bludworth, Brownwood and Malcolm M. Meek, Treasurer, Abilene.

Brownfield Banks Break All Records In December Call

Public Health Report For 1947

Summary of Public Health work and health conditions in Terry county and the City of Brownfield for the year 1947 submitted by the South Plains Health Unit.

The public health work and general health conditions showed marked improvement during 1947 according to Dr. Frank P. Miller Director of the South Plains Health Unit. The public health work which made outstanding progress was the immunization against communicable disease which amounted to Diphtheria, 183; Smallpox, 378; Typhoid, 898; Pertussis, 93. Examination of school children in all first and fourth grades amounted to 259 with recommendations being made for correction and corrections underway at the end of the year.

In tuberculosis work x-ray survey was made and there were 188 x-rayed with 5 new cases being discovered.

In the crippled children's division the outstanding program of the first few years was continued with treatment of 35 children in Crippled Children's Hospitals and with aid being given through the State Department of Health for rehabilitation and in case finding work in the crippled children's division.

In the sanitation program a definite improvement was made in milk supplies with local raw-milk dairymen reaching the A raw milk with bangs disease being completely removed from all grade A dairies. A satisfactory supply of grade A pasteurized milk has also been furnished the city and the per capita consumption of fluid milk has reached an all time high so far as record shows.

In the plague and typhus control works outstanding progress has been made by the far advanced work in rat stoppage of all business buildings in the city to safeguard against the spread of plague.

The city of Brownfield made outstanding progress in the control of flies and by the elimination of odor nuisance at the sewage disposal plant. The city officials have shown good progress by winding up the year with the greatest improvements in sanitation for any previous year. The city officials are to be highly complimented and the Director of the Unit expresses his appreciation to them in the fine work they have done in fly control, sewage disposal and the progress which is being made in the new sewer system which promises to make Brownfield one of the cleanest towns in West Texas. The Director expresses his appreciation to those helping to make this progress and to make these items of public sanitation possible.

Education program such as Food Handler's Schools and Dental Health was given throughout the unit area with appreciation by all participating, valuable information received from the different programs will be perpetuated.

For many years now, even with the prolonged drought of the past two years, 1945-46, the Brownfield banks have shown a hefty condition. With what to Terry county people was not only the record, but the only wheat crop on record harvested in the spring, amounting to some 750,000 bushels. On top of that, we have had the best cotton crop since 1937, which may run some over 50,000 bales, and aside from that, one of the best maize harvests in the history of the county.

Despite the two years of drought prior to 1947, the bank resources and deposits had grown from year to year, but this year, every good break on record seemed to favor Brownfield, Terry county and the trade territory in particular. Not only was there a good harvest, but each bale of cotton, bushel of wheat or pound of maize meant real gold. Not only that but milk, cream and eggs brought in real dough, and a fat yearling swelled the bank account.

We don't like to brag or boast too much, but folks, the gravy train really hit this section this year on products and prices. Yes, we know the cost of living is high but most people who have really tried have the means to buy what they wish, and we don't hear too much complaint in this area. As stated above, this prosperity has been reflected in the local bank statements as never before.

Below, for your benefit, we are giving you the combined resources, deposits, cash and exchange, and the loans of the Brownfield State and the First National banks. You will note that it is far away from the same statement of December 31, 1946:

Resources	$13,228,335.07
Deposits	12,830,775.75
Cash-Exchange	10,723,290.48
Loans	2,426,071.59

Note the loans are unusually low just now, as most people have plenty money. As spring approaches, people will need to borrow, and loans will shoot up some.

Death Claims Mrs. A. L. Walker, Terry Pioneer

Last rites were read last Saturday for Mrs. A. L. Walker, 72, who died Friday in the local hospital after being brought from Hot Springs, N. M. earlier that morning following an illness of several days. Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church in Brownfield at 3 p. m. by Rev. A. A. Brian, followed by interment in the Meadow Cemetery under the direction of Brownfield Funeral home.

Survivors are three sons, Scott of Hot Springs, N. M., Lee of Meadow and Boots of Brownfield. Three daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Plain of Hot Springs, N. M., Mrs. Ona Gore, and Mrs. Mary Gildon of Lubbock. Also by nine grand children, including Mesdames Darrell Moorhead and Sammy Teague of Brownfield and six great grand children.

Pall bearers were Claudia Gore, Ellis Ray Walker, Vance Hyatt, Darrell Moorhead, Sammy Teague and Earl Odle, all grandsons. Mrs. Walker, with her husband, the late A. L. (Lee) Walker, were among the first settlers in Terry county, homesteading some school land four miles west of Meadow in 1901, three years before organization of the county. This has been the family homestead since, except a brief period when they moved to the Spur section. Several years ago, after returning to Terry county, Mr. Walker died of a heart attack.

Since that time, Mrs. Walker lived for several years at Meadow, coming to Brownfield some three years ago, and lived here until she moved to New Mexico.

Thus passes another grand old Terry county pioneer.

S. H. Holgate, former business man of this city, now of San Angelo is here this week visiting relatives and attending to business.

Babson Further Discusses 1948

WASHINGTON, D. C. January 9 —In addition to my formal Forecasts which were in this newspaper last week, I want to add something for readers to think over.

GENERAL OUTLOOK

As heretofore stated, 1948 will be much like 1947,— at least up to November 2. With most manufacturing companies enjoying large unfilled orders, there can be no depression in 1948. There, however, will be an increase in war preparations. This will mean the shifting of employment and credits from one industry to another. For instance, we may expect some slackening in industries devoted wholly to unessential peace work. Industries which were booming during World War II, such as aircraft manufacturing, machine tools and shipbuilding, should pick up again during 1948.

If you are undecided as to how some special business will act in 1948, just consider how that business acted in the years 1938 to 1940. If the business prospered during those years, it will probably show increased activity during 1948. If it suffered, it may show a decline in 1948. There will be no World War III in 1948, but there will be marked preparation for it.

WHAT ABOUT INFLATION?

During 1948 there will be much talk in Washington about "checking inflation," but any attempts will be largely of the eyewash variety and not fundamental cures. It is sound legislation to allocate materials to the more important industries. Doubtless certain allocations will be instituted during 1948. It also would help to reduce taxes so as to force people to leave the government employ and to produce. The only solution for inflation, however, is to discourage consumption and encourage production. Unfortunately, when the Government attempts to decrease consumption, people get panicky and increase their purchases; while controls tend to reduce production.

All Government attempts to interfere with the basic laws of supply and demand fail in their purpose. The only cure for rising prices is to let them rise to a point where production will be so profitable that it will increase to an amount which will be in excess of demand. This causes an abrupt decline in prices and in employment also. This cure is unpopular politically, and we will not see it before November 2, 1948.

Beyond allocating materials and reducing taxes, the only fundamental cures which the Government can provide are: (1) putting an embargo on exports, (2) suspending the agricultural price supports, (3) freezing wages and profits, (4) causing interest rates to rise sharply, and (5) reducing Government expenses. These movements would be unpopular politically, and I doubt whether we shall see them in 1948.

All of us are selfish. We don't want the Federal Government to shut off the exports of OUR goods, to suspend price support of OUR products, to freeze OUR wages or profits, to raise the rate of interest which WE are paying,— or to discharge some relative of ours whom we must support,— even although these things would be for the good of the nation as a whole. Hence, I again say,— "only a spiritual awakening can prevent another severe bust."

Political Leaders Lack Courage

Members of Congress and the Administration know what to do. Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board has given Congress excellent advice, as reported in the morning papers of November 26. These recommendations, however, are unpopular. Even Congressmen are putting their own selfish desires ahead of the nation's good.

Congressmen are fearful of labor leaders. They are fearful of veterans, thus, unwilling to take a courageous stand on housing and rents. They are fearful of the bankers, in fact, of all pressure groups in Washington. Hence, 1948 will witness more or less of a do-nothing Congress. I visualize that economic conditions will continue about as at present during 1948; but as a fever is necessary to cure many diseases, so economic distress seems necessary to bring people to their senses and to their knees.

Discharged Service Men Must Have License

A. A. Eggin, local highway patrolman has been advised that the rule exempting service men from procuring drivers license for a certain length of time after discharge, has expired.

All discharges are now required to obtain a drivers license immediately on discharge, or be subject to penalties if they drive.

Local Business Man Killed In Plane Crash

Jimmy Ira Wright, 36, was instantly killed Sunday evening about 5:30 when the small plane he was piloting crashed on the Terry-Lynn county line three miles south of West Point. Boyd Wilson, a passenger in the plane, sustained a broken leg and severe bruises and lacerations. He is in the local hospital and expected to recover in time.

P. D. McMillan who lives near the scene of the crash saw the plane fall and notified the sheriff at Tahoka, who sent an ambulance which later brought Wilson to Brownfield. A Brownfield Funeral home ambulance brought in the body of Wright. McMillan said the plane fell from low altitude in rough pasture land, necessitating carrying the injured a quarter of a mile to the ambulances.

The plane did not burn but was so badly wrecked the rescuers had difficulty in extricating the victims. Wilson, after regaining consciousness, could not explain the cause of the crash. It is believed they were hunting coyotes, having left the south airport here only a few hours before.

Wright, who lived at 317 East Hill, came here in 1939 and operated a radio shop in partnership with Euland Eaves. He was a member of the Baptist church, active in Masonic work and was scoutmaster of Boy Scout troop 45. He is survived by his wife, Catherine and a daughter, Jean Marie, aged 14. Also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wright of Nebraska, two brothers, one in Kansas and one in Nebraska and the sister in Nebraska. All arrived here Tuesday afternoon.

Wilson was reared in this county and lives at 621 East Broadway with his wife and two small children. He is a well known employee of Teague-Bailey Chevrolet Co.

Funeral services for Wright were conducted by Rev. A. A. Brian at the Baptist church Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial was in the Lorenzo cemetery with the Brownfield Masons conducting rites at the graveside.

Charley Moore Gets Quite A Scare

One night recently Charley Moore woke up and found his hands pinned down. He tried to shake off the man, and at the same time keep his head shielded from a possible blow. He finally yelled out, and his wife turned on the light in her room.

She later suspected something other than a possible nightmare was troubling Charley, and turned on the light in his room. She ordered the man out of the house. The man admitted he did not belong there, and left. Both said he did not appear to be drunk, and had little to say.

Charley admitted that he did not really get scared until the man left. Neither had ever seen the man before or since. Just a loose nut prowling the country, we guess.

Lilly Explains Federal Insured Farm Loans

The first insured loan in Texas was made to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Churchwell in San Saba county on December 9, when the check for the loan was delivered to Mr. Churchwell by Mr. Dofflemeyer, President of the San Saba National Bank. The New Federal insured farm mortgage program of the Farmers Home Administration is now in effect throughout the county, Dennis Q. Lilly, County Supervisor, said today. Several applications for such loans to buy farms have been received so far in this county.

Mr. Lilly explained that this new program supplements rather than substitutes for the agency's direct farm purchase loan program in operation for the past ten years. The insured loans are advanced by private lenders.

Applications are accepted from qualified veterans and from tenants, share-croppers, farm laborers and owners of inadequate or underimproved farms—provided they cannot obtain needed credit in any other way. The applicant must have farming experience and be of good character. He must know of a suitable place he can buy at a reasonable price, and be able to pay down at least 10 per cent of the price of the farm and of the cost of any needed improvements. This 10 per cent investment gives him an equity in the place. He borrows the remaining 90 per cent from a private lender such as a bank, insurance company, investment firm or individual, and the Farmers Home Administration guarantees the loan's repayment.

The farmers have 40 years to pay off the loan, if he needs that long, and he pays two and one-half per cent interest. In addition he pays 1 per cent mortgage charge at the beginning of each year, including the first, to the Farmers Home Administration. The farm he selects to buy must be appraised on the basis of long-time average prices for farm products, to be sure it is worth what it costs.

"We learn heavily on county committees for advice and assistance in insuring loans," Mr. Lilly said, "just as we do in making direct loans. In the matter of farm purchases the committee certifies as to a farm's sound value, and passes on the applicant's qualifications. Committee members for Terry county are Lois R. Riney, Eugene D. Nettles and John R. Bingham.

Dallas Banks Nearing Billion In Deposits

Speaking of bank deposits, and what paper is not, for just about every city, town, village and hamlet in Texas, perhaps the USA are experiencing the greatest bank deposits in history.

In a recent issue of the Dallas Morning News, we counted 12 Dallas and suburb banks with statements in the News. Carefully adding the amount of deposits of the 12 institutions, we came up with a total of 903-million-plus dollars on deposit in these banks.

Grand Jury Returns Five Bills

Judge Louis B. Reed held a session of district court here Monday empanelling a new grand jury for ensuing six months, composed of W. R. Tilson foreman, R. A. Whitley, W. B. White, Vernon Whitaker, Alton Webb, Pierce Warren, Jack Van Ness, J. M. Trussell, C. L. Truly, Homer Slaughter, Claude Merritt and James Martin.

The grand jury spent a busy day on investigations of offenses, and returned five indictments; two against a local man for aggravated assault, growing out of an affray in Charley's Cafe Dec. 24, and three against T. D. Hauser, charged with forging checks which he cashed with local merchants. Hauser has been in jail here since a week after the alleged forgeries. He will likely be tried on January 19th.

Judge Reed also ordered a special venire of 60 men, summoned to appear Jan. 15 from which a jury will be selected in the trial of Santos Alonzo, a Mexican charged with slaying Joe Merritt, Oct. 19 at Patricia in Southwest Dawson county.

Portwood Announces 1948 'Bonus Built' Ford Trucks

The first public showing in Brownfield of the new 1948 model Ford trucks will take place January 16 at an "open house" to be conducted by the Portwood Motor Company.

With the streamlined new trucks—the first post-war products of the Ford Motor Company—as the main attraction, the Portwood Motor Company will welcome the public to its showrooms, service, parts and accessory and used vehicle departments.

"We arranged an 'open house' program for public announcement of the 1948 truck line because we feel that this is the most important new truck showing in Ford history," said Mr. John H. Portwood. "We are entering the greatest truck market of all time with the widest range of models and capacities Ford has ever produced. We expect to receive trucks during the coming months in quantities increased sufficiently to permit us to meet the heavy demand."

Century Old Hand Scales Will Weigh

Some weeks ago the Herald announced in these columns that Mrs. Geo. E. Tiernan had presented us a pair of old hand scales, which were the property of her step-father's daddy, which were bought more than 100 years ago.

This old gentleman lived down about Grayson county, if we remember rightly. They have been the property of Mrs. Tiernan many years.

The scales were cleaned, repaired and repolished by Pedro Zant, and not only look well, but are still pretty accurate. Of course we will not use them—just a keep sake.

Candidates A Bit Slow Getting Started

Candidate were a bit slow getting started the first week of the year. Maybe they had not recovered from Christmas and New Year. Then again, a guy or lady for that matter, has to have some time to consult with friends to help them make up their minds.

But they are coming in again this week, and with the farm crop about disposed of, we imagine that politics will look up some, and begin to simmer. But the lid will not be blown off before the weather gets real warm, say around the last of June.

As has been the case here in Terry for the 39 years the writer has been here, we have always had a lot of fine men and women on the ballot for various offices, which makes the picking of them real difficult. This year will be no exception to the general rule. Some fine ones have already defied their Stetsons and we look for many more.

Those who are already in say the water is fine. So, consult with your friends, and if you think you can make the grade, just bring your announcement down and we will do the rest.

But, being in the newspaper business precludes us from advising you one way or the other whether or not you should make the race. We have never in all the years we have announced candidates, asked even one man to make the race for any office.

A Completely New Dodge Truck Coming

What is described as a completely new Dodge "Job Rated" with 248 chassis basic, and capacity from 4250 to 23,000 pounds gross will be on display at the Brownfield Motor Co., Broadway at Seventh, beginning Wednesday of this week. Sammy Teague, owner and manager asks that all those interested in a real good line of trucks, whether for farm purposes or the road, are invited to see these trucks.

Massive strength, beautiful flowing lines, ease of handling and driving, ease of steering, shorter turning angle, and many other new and improved features too numerous to mention, await those in need of a truck in the new and better Dodge design.

Columns of descriptive matter would not help you in deciding about this new truck. You'll have to see it to grasp the true significance of this outstanding vehicle.

Avalanche-Journal Editor Speaks Here

Charles A. Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal gave a lecture here last night in the Veterans Hall sponsored by the Jaycees. Mr. Guy has recently returned from an Army-sponsored tour of Germany.

The Jaycees held their annual banquet award last night at the Esquire Cafe and after the meeting they all gathered at the Veterans Hall along with the general public to hear Mr. Guy's talk.

If the United States was responsible for the wars that have devastated Europe periodically in the past, we might be held the more responsible for feeding and clothing them. But they have been entirely responsible for wars. In fact, the United States never started a war in its history. But we have been called upon time after time to help Europeans after several wars of avarice, greed and jealousy. And the worst feature is that after each time we help them, they seem to hate us more. However, we cannot go along all the way with Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, who says we are being regimented at home to help Europeans from being regimented by communists and other dictator nations. Yet, when we are rationed here at home to help feed people to keep them from becoming communists, it goes deeper than our little imagination. We wonder why a hungry man or a naked man, woman or child, would feel that a shot of communism would help his suffering any more than a good shot of pure old democracy?

Some time during this month, a 3c stamp will be offered at your post office window, on which will be the likeness of George Washington Carver, the great negro scientist. This will be the second time in all our history that a negro has been so honored. The other was Booker T. Washington, who like Dr. Carver, spent most of his adult life working for his beloved Tuskegee Institute in Alabama. Carver was born a slave in the state of Missouri, but that fact never made him either revengeful or too reticent. Without doubt, the south owes more to this hard working black man than to any other individual north or south. He took the lowly sweet potato and the peanut, just to mention two, and not only made many by-products, but popularized them.

About the last thing he did for his country was shortly before his death. A group of southern pecan growers asked Dr. Carver if he could help them in their fight against insects that were ruining the pecan industry of the old south. He agreed to try and came up with a spray that saved the pecan industry. All honor is due Dr. Carver, the black man who rose from slavery to become one of the nation's greatest benefactors.

Lynn Landrum in his featured editorials in the Dallas Morning News, gives us much food for thought; some exceptional. For the past eight or ten years, we have heard the words, "professional politician" used many, many times. Doubtless it has caught the fancy of many voters to the political good of the user. Here is the idea in a nutshell advanced by Mr. Landrum. "We demand that our doctors, lawyers and teachers all have full training for their professions, and this even goes for our ministers in many cases. But on the other hand we will elect to responsible office the most irresponsible, just so he can put on a show and make the welkin ring. Why not have a school of politics and educate the ones that represent us in the legislature or congress; who make our law and spend our tax money?" Mr. Landrum asks. In other words, if we are going to have "professional politicians," why not trained ones?

While some are already saying that Henry Wallace will never go through with his third party idea, he has at least announced that he would. And apparently the fact has put a scare in the Democratic ranks. Even some Republicans have about decided that it will not help their cause too much. The writer is a poor guesser politically, usually, but it has never dawned on us to date that Henry will cut much ice except with the reds, near reds and fellow travelers. So, we'll just go along with State Representative Noke, of Corsicana, "that it will force these loose jointed Americans to stand up and be counted." Usually they are the kind of people who talk first and think later.

Evelyn Boyd, of the Post, Texas Dispatch is a mighty interesting writer. Recently she broke away from the purely local stuff to go on a political prognostication of who would run, etc., and at the election next November 2, who would be the also rans, and who likely would make the grade. But like some of the nationally famous writers, like Drew Pearson, for instance, she announced that "Dwight D. Eisenhower was born on the wrong side of the track in a small western Kansas town." It is rather hard for the Old He to understand why Texans, of all people, would ignore the fact that Gen. Ike himself stated after the war in Europe was over, and the great city of London was giving him a great ovation, that among other things he said from the platform on that occasion, "that he was a small town man, as he was born in Denison, Texas, and reared in Abilene, Kansas." On two or more occasions, the writer has seen the modest cottage in Denison, now a shrine, made so by women's clubs of that city, in which the general was born. Upon his visit to Texas following his return to the United States, the club women of Denison served breakfast to Gen. Ike in the old home of his nativity. Yes, General Dwight D. Eisenhower first saw the light of day as a Texan. Don't forget that. Also, while Gen. Ike's folks may have lived "on the wrong side of the track" in Kansas, his parents seem to have done quite well by the boys. For now with Ike heading Columbia U., this make three of the boys who are now or have been college presidents. So, don't feel too badly if you happen to live on the "wrong side" of the track.

Dr. Cox Advises "Keep Physically Fit"

"Keep your body in good physical condition," advised Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. While colds, influenza, and pneumonia are different conditions, all three may be brought on or made worse by lowered bodily resistance, and all three may often be prevented in the same ways.

"When these communicable diseases are prevalent, avoid crowds as much as possible and plan your work and recreation so that you will not overtax your strength and get tired out. Be sure that the room where you are is always well ventilated. Drink plenty of water and don't let your system get clogged.

Sufficient rest, cleanliness of hands, mouth and teeth, fresh air while at work and during sleep, regulation of meals and bodily functions, wholesome food and freedom from anxiety will increase bodily resistance and help avoid contracting these diseases.

One attack of cold or influenza does not confer immunity. Individuals have been known to have several attacks during an epidemic. Segregation of the patient is desirable to avoid giving the disease to others.

If you develop symptoms of cold or influenza, consult your doctor early and follow his advice.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germs laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. Poultry and Egg Rail Shipments

Turkey shipments from Texas stations increased in volume during November to total 194 carloads and account for a major portion of poultry shipments, The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reported.

However, consumers shied from the spiraling costs of the holiday birds, and turkey dealers eyed the 301 carloads total in November last year. High feed costs resulted in heavy selling several weeks ahead of the peak of normal demand in several areas.

Shipments of eggs remained steady between October and November, totaling 49 carloads, but the shipments of chickens jumped to 11 from October's 2 carloads.

USES FOR SALT

Meats will come out whole from nuts when you soak them in salt water overnight before cracking. A little salt sprinkled in the pan before putting in food will prevent splashing from frying meat. Butter may be kept hard without ice by placing butter dish in another one containing cold salt water. Pudding will cool more quickly if the container is placed in pan of cold water to which a quantity of salt is added. Salt in oven under baking tins helps prevent scorching on the bottom. Sometimes discoloration inside of coffee pot may be removed by rubbing them with salt.

The Woman Listener

By Sally Welles

The popular daytime drama, The Guiding Light, again did the unusual... turned a story character into a real person. In the script "Charlotte Wilson," portrayed by Betty Lou Gerson, was given a radio try-out. Listeners to the program were urged to register their opinions of this new actress by sending a postcard to Charlotte, c/o "The Guiding Light." The overwhelming number of "ayes" amounted to over 600.

Variety is the thing which popular Julie Stevens, of NBC's "Road of Life" serial, likes most about radio. During the past few weeks her radio commitments have included a Southern Belle, a tart, a Pacific Coast, and just stopped off at this famous show, which plays host to travelers passing through Chicago.

The Story of Berry Kroeger, now heard as Reed Bannister on the CBS show, "Big Sister," can be summed up in one word, "Success." Along with his many radio commitments, Berry is currently being tested for an important role in the new movie, "The Iron Curtain," as well as being considered for a part in the forthcoming production of "Crime and Punishment." Last season he was praised by drama critics for his role in "Joan of Lorraine."

It was designed with a high neckline, leg o' mutton sleeves tapering to points over the hand, and a fitted basque bodice, and full skirt ending in a train. Her veil of bridal illusion was fastened to a Flemish bonnet of white satin trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses and sweetpeas. For something old the bride wore a gold pin belonging to her great grandmother Cox and something new was a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom. Something borrowed was a gold chain belonging to her matron of honor and something blue was the traditional garter. Her father placed a penny in her shoe for luck.

Mrs. Logan Redford, of Austin, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a period gown of yellow faille with hooped skirt and a Mary Stuart cap of the same material. She carried a nosegay of yellow asters and yellow net.

Joe Bert Killough, was best man and Bill Redford, uncle of the bride, and James Rambo were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the recreation room of the church. Punch and cake was served from a table laid with a lace cloth over yellow satin and centered with yellow tapers in crystal candelabra.

Mrs. Bertha Walsh, of Houston, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the crystal punch bowl. Guests were registered by Mrs. Bill Redford.

For travelling the bride chose a dressmaker suit of gray with green ascot gloves and gray accessories. Her corsage was white roses. The couple left by plane from Lubbock for a honeymoon in Dallas. Visious Circle
 "No, I don't believe I want it at that price."
 Thousands of you folks in the Home Towns of the country are giving that answer in the retail stores ofter and ofter as the spiral of prices rises and consumer resistance grows.

The result is that while dollar volume of retail sales is up from 5 to 10 per cent above a year ago, actual quantity unit sales have dropped from 5 to 15 per cent in the same period.

And the administration and congressional leadership in Washington fiddles and fiddles and chants in unison that the only answer is "more production." On the other hand the labor and farm leadership sing the old song of higher wages for work and higher prices for produce.

We have the highest production, the highest wages and the highest farm prices in the nation's history. So it would seem to be apparent to the most obtuse mind that more of the same is not the answer to certain more spirals in prices, inflation and subsequent depression.

Certainly high production and high wages are desirable. But today's prices and wages have been accomplished by artificial monopolistic methods by both industry and labor. The only tenable excuse for high profits is high production at small profit per unit of sales. The only tenable excuse for high wages is high output per man. We have neither in the present setup of industry and labor, nor in subsidized farm prices.

Unless congress and business, labor and agriculture can quit blaming each other and get together and forget greed and intolerance for common sense, it doesn't take a fortune teller to predict what will happen. Joe Stalin is waiting for it.

J. Frederick Richardson, official coordinator of information for the house of representatives, has made a comparison of communism and fascism for use of congress. The only difference is that in communism no right of private property exists. Rulers of the state take whatever they want. In fascism the dictators own the owners. Right of private property exists as an implement of the state. In all other instances communism and fascism are identical. This column has pointed out frequently both are equally evil and this country should fight against growth of either. Monopoly is fascism.

Threat to Farm Vois
 Hearings by the house ways and means committee on the question of taxing patronage refunds of farm and other cooperatives have ended and the matter is squarely up to congress. Your Home Town Reporter is convinced cooperatives offer no threat to the American way of life for they are thoroughly democratic. Whether they hurt other small business is another question.

The office of small business of the department of commerce, which at one time gave evidence of being helpful to small businessmen, has labored mightily and brought forth a mouse in a new booklet entitled "The Small Businessman and His Bank." It says in effect that if you are a good moral risk and have adequate collateral you can get a loan from your bank. Or did you already know that?

Added Coverage Needed
 Forty cents an hour for a 40-hour week is the present minimum wage. The senate of the last congress upped the figure to 65 cents. The house took no action. It will come up again in the next session. But unless coverage is extended nobody will get a raise. Twenty million out of 60 million employed are now covered, but these already are getting more than the new figure of 65 cents except about a million in tobacco, lumber and textiles. So, unless coverage is extended to some of those 40 million not now covered, a higher minimum wage would be ineffective for about 95 per cent of those to whom it applies.

Miscellaneous Memos
 Rural Electric administration says that while 61 per cent of the farms in the county have electricity, only 25 per cent have running water. That means more than four million farm homes are potential plumbing customers. . . . Veterans' administration reports that 120,000 former G. I.s are taking correspondence courses to complete their educations. . . . Presidential Press Secy. Charles Ross writes sonnets in his spare time.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Preston Murphy left Monday for Dallas where Mr. Murphy will attend a training school for the New Life Movement in the Presbyterian churches. Ministers from Presbyterian churches throughout the state will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Neely and daughter moved to Lubbock the first of the week.

Wellman School News

Friday of this week will be the end of our first semester of the 1947-48 school year. The day is a welcome day to all students since the day is devoted wholly to recording of test grades, completion of the grading of papers and making the display necessary for inspection by our State Department of Education therefore giving every student the day off.

Pecture making, Annual assembly work, coronation of materials for our annual and things of this nature is requiring much extra work from our annual staff. We expect to get our annual in April this time.

Basket ball is the center of all interest at present. Last Friday we were host to the strong teams of Shallowater when their four teams contested our teams. Every fan present saw as much action as a fan cares to see in one session. The lid was taken off in the junior girl game at 6:45. This game was hotly contested but finally won on a field goal by Brown just before the whistle blew. Referee Ira Brackett announced the score as Wellman 14 and Shallowater 12. Ruth Lindsey was high pointer of the contest with seven points.

When Coach Ira Brackett sent his junior delegation against the youngsters of Shallowater but suffered some embarrassment when the final whistle blew and Wellman was behind by a score of 22 to 14. Defensively, our lads were OK but were lacking in looping the ball.

In our game of the senior girls, the final score read, Wellman 20, Shallowater 14. Chesshir was good enough to equal all the goal making Shallowater could muster. Her fourteen points were made on six field goals and two gift shots. Defensively, McBeth and Livesay at guards were surprisingly good. With this defense and improvement in offensive on the part of Juanice McBeth and Crews, Wellman delegation will not suffer many defeats.

The Wellman Senior boys were humiliated by the strong team of Shallowater. Those boys have won the two tournaments competed in so far this season and defeat was expected in this division because they subdued two class A teams to take the final games. Our boys outplayed the visitors in every respect for the first half but were completely exhausted in the final period and allowed Shallowater to ring 20 points while they were looping only nine points. Offensively, Billy Dick Hamm was our outstanding man with 10 points to his credit but was out shadowed badly by two men of Shallowater. Defensively, Weldon Hargrove was the man of the game. The final score was Shallowater 39, Wellman 27.

Friday night of this week gives us our first chance at conference play when Meadow pays us a visit with both girls and boys teams. We ought to win a double header here as our teams are evenly matched and we are favor-

Successful Defoliation In Knox County

William Clonts, farmer of Knox City, had trouble—just as his neighbors did—getting enough labor to pull his cotton this fall. There just weren't enough hands to go around. He could see winter coming on and cotton still in the field.

He had heard about defoliation of cotton and the use of cotton stripper machines by the Lubbock agricultural experiment station with home court advantages. Plenty of action is promised from eight until ten.

and decided to try it out for himself.

He picked a morning following a rain, when the dew would stay on the cotton for several hours. An airplane was used to apply calcium cyanamid on a measured scale—the first time in Knox county that this had been done. The dust was applied at a rate of 40 pounds per acre.

J. M. Carpenter, county agent, says that the resulting defoliation was very good. A stripper-type cotton gatherer was used successfully to gather the remaining crop.

Mr. Clonts says that enough of

Winston Announces For Re-Election

To the citizens of Terry county: I take this means of announcing my candidacy for the office of County Judge of Terry County subject to the action of the Democratic Primaries.

I have loved and sought public office because I enjoy the opportunity it gives me to serve my County and my fellowman. I have given most of my time in the last thirty years for the advancement of this county trying to make this a more enjoyable place in which to live and raise our families, and guess I will continue to do so as long as the public demands it of me and my health will permit. Whether I have been in office or out I have worked just the same for Terry County, which can be verified by anybody that knows me well. Your vote and influence will be appreciated.

Sincerely Yours,
H. R. Winston.

Neill Announces For County Attorney

Geo. W. Neill, local attorney, authorizes us to place his name in the announcement column for the office of County Attorney, subject to next Summer's Primary. Having resided here for many years, he is well known to many of the voters. He contributed largely, of means and effort to the progress of this city and county in earlier days and feels that he merits consideration.

Mr. Neill is known as a conservative, level-headed man, and says: "I desire to be reasonable and considerate in all things, and if elected, will use my best efforts to administer and enforce the laws of the State, according to law, and with the experience I have had in such matters, believe I can fill this office, justly and efficiently."

Chesshir Wants Office Of Collector Again

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of Tax Assessor-Collector Terry County, Texas.

I wish to thank each and every citizen of Terry county for their support and the confidence they have given me in the past, and if re-elected I will endeavor to carry on the duties of this office in an efficient and courteous way.

Herbert Chesshir.

Dube Pyeatt Dashes Derby Into Ring

To the Citizens and Voters of Terry County:

I would like to use this means of making known to the people of Terry county my desire to be a candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk.

I have been serving you in this office for the past several years, and I assure each of you that I deeply appreciate the opportunity you have given me.

I hope and expect that you will make due investigation into the affairs of this office, and if, after such investigation, you feel that I am entitled to your vote for another term, it will be greatly appreciated. Your vote and influence earnestly solicited.

Respectfully,
H. M. (Dube) Pyeatt

Virgil Crawford Formally Announces For Office Of District Attorney, 106th District

I am announcing my candidacy for District Attorney of the 106th Judicial District composed of Terry, Lynn, Garza, Dawson, Yoakum and Gaines Counties.

I have served you as County Attorney continuously since 1941 except for a period of approximately two years while I was away in military service. Prior to becoming county attorney I was City Attorney of Brownfield.

I am 33 years old, am married and have two children. I am a native of West Texas and was reared on a farm in Floyd county where I was graduated from Floydada high school. I worked and earned by own way through Baylor University from which institution I received the degrees of Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Business Administration. Upon completion of my college training I obtained my license to practice law, was admitted to the Texas bar and began the practice of law in Brownfield.

My military service in World War II was with the U. S. Navy where I did combat duty on board aircraft carrier with The Third Fleet in Pacific Naval Campaigns.

While I have served you as County Attorney, I have at all time worked with and assisted in every way possible local law enforcement officers and District officials in criminal investigations, Grand Jury work, and the trial of all felony cases. I feel that because of my training and experience I am well qualified to perform the duties of District Attorney, and in this connection you are invited to inspect my record in law enforcement as well as my personal record as a citizen of your county. As an official and as a citizen in your county I have endeavored to do my full share in the expenditure of time, effort and money on matters of civic, educational and moral development of our county.

I believe that a Public Office is a public trust, and if elected District Attorney I pledge myself to a fair, honest and vigorous enforcement of our laws. I would like very much to be able to see each of you personally before election but due to the size of our district, limited time and the necessity of performing the duties of my present office, this will not be possible. Your vote and influence will be greatly appreciated.

Respectfully submitted,
H. B. Virgil Crawford.

GI Question And Answer Department

Q. What is vocational advisement all about and why is it required under Public Law 16?

A. The main purpose of vocational advisement is to determine whether a disabled veteran should train for a profession, or for a particular trade of occupation based on his previous education, experience, personal desires and present ability. The veteran is interviewed by highly trained specialists who will consider his desires, but are required to advise him against starting a course for which his aptitudes or physical limitations do not insure reasonable likelihood of success. In short, this advisement is mandatory under the program to insure the disabled veteran's proper rehabilitation.

Q. Under Public Law 16, must I go to a vocational school or may I go to a liberal arts college, a high school, or similar institution?

A. You may enroll in any VA-approved educational institution or training establishment offering the course of training which VA has found you need to insure your proper rehabilitation in line with your own desires.

Q. Will my disability compensation be reduced if I go into a training school?

A. No.
