FLYING SQUADRON ARRIVES
John T. Yantis, president of the First National Bank and vice president of the Texas Bankers Association, received a welcome to his hometown when the "Flying Squadron" special train of the Texas Bankers Association pulled into Brownwood Thursday morning Feb. 19, for the Sixth District meeting. Mr. Yantis, lower left, is shown with Holt Malone, Dallas; Clyde McIntosh, vice-president of Brownwood's Citizens National Bank; J. O. Gillham, of the Brownfield State Bank;

Miss Doris McIntosh and B. L. Hamilton, Dallas. At top, J. Allen Rhodes, Fort Worth, and Joel H. Ferry Houston, Mr. McIntosh and daughter, Doris, were among many Brownwood people to greet the arrival of the special. Bulletin Photo.

The photo of prominent state bankers alighting from the Santa Fe special at Brownwood, was given us complimentary of the Brownwood Bulletin. The cut shows bankers who had been making the rounds of the district meeting of Texas Bankers. The sixth district meeting at Brownwood was next to the last to be held, last Thursday night. The final meeting was in Fort Worth last Friday night.

The Brownwood meeting was attended by some 300 bankers from New York to Los Angeles, and was said to be one of the best district meets of the series. Mr. Gillham is one of the past presidents of Texas Bankers Association. Gillham really gets around.

The mystery surrounding the fatal shooting of James L. Terry on the eve of his departure from the service has finally been cleared up, Mrs. W. F. Terry, mother of the boy said today. She received a letter from Maj. Gen. Edward F. Witsell in which he reported the findings of an investigation.

Passion Play Film 'Golgotha' To Be Here

The public of Brownfield and surrounding communities is to be given the rare opportunity of seeing the world famous "Passion Play" motion picture, based upon both Freiburg and Oberammergau productions, and actually produced in Europe, with English dialogue and sound track music, depicting many famous scenes in the Life, Crucifixion, and Resurrection of Jesus. The picture will be shown at matinee and evening performances at the Rio theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 2 and 3 at 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock. There is no admission charge and everybody is invited.

The film is highly recommended by the Film Daily and by ministers throughout the nation, regardless of denomination. It has been brought to the United States by the National Bureau for Religious and Educational Films. It was actually filmed in Europe, at a cost of a half-million dollars and is directed by a famous French director, Julien Duvivier.

This picture is being sponsored by the Presbyterian Church of Brownfield with the generous cooperation of Mr. Hiram Parks. Although there is no admission charge a free will offering will be taken to assist in paying expenses.

Dedication of Church To Be Held Sunday

Rev. W. B. Walker. The public is invited to attend the Sunday morning service at the Nazarene church at which time the church will be dedicated and the mortgage burned. Rev. W. B. Walker, District Supt. of Abilene will speak at the eleven o'clock hour. Sunday school will be at 9:45.

The property is free of debt for the first time since it was purchased four years ago.

Loyd Shoe Shop Sold To Clifton Jones

A deal was completed last week in which Clifton Jones became the owner and manager of the Loyd Shoe Shop which has been a fixture here for years. This is a well equipped shop with all the machinery and tools needed for an up and going concern. A full line of leather goods are also carried by the concern.

For almost since the end of the war, Cliff has had his hand made cowboy boot department in the shop, where he makes these boots himself. He is also a capable repair man, having had years of experience in that line prior to the war and during the war, part of which time he was in the service.

Marshall Loyd, former owner, and splended little family are moving to San Angelo, where he has purchased a partnership in a wholesale leather concern. While we regret to see this long time Terry county family leave Brownfield, we appreciate the fact that a native son will take over. We know the good wishes of Brownfield and Terry county go with them.

Both have a statement this week in the Herald.

Mexican Slayer Goes On Trial Here

Santos Alonzo, 21, Mexican, went on trial here Thursday charged with the murder of Jim Merritt in the Pacific community of southwest Dawson county last October. Being indicted by a Dawson grand jury the case was transferred to Terry county for trial. The case first called Jan. 19 but was continued till Feb. 23 when it was reset for Thursday. After overruling the defense request for exhumation of the body to ascertain size of the fatal bullet, selection of the jury from a special venire, began in early afternoon, continuing throughout the evening.

The State represented by Calloway Huffaker, District Attorney and Terry County Attorney Virgil Crawford and Dawson County Attorney, are asking for death penalty. The defendant is represented by Bob Huff and Max Wassell, attorneys of Lamesa. Judge Louis B. Reed is presiding.

A long list of witnesses have been subpoenaed, including a number of Mexicans. Court officials believe the trial will be finished by Saturday.

The Herald Scoops Seagraves C of C

The Seagraves Chamber of Commerce sent out a press notice of a wildcat well down there pretty close to Seagraves. This wildcat is said in advance to be almost a sure shot producer. The Seagraves folks, it states, will almost if not entirely lay dollar bills along the line that it will be a producer, even though the thing happens to be over in Terry county, which is or has been quite a handicap within itself.

But last week, way before we got the C. of C. press notice, the Herald done had "a article" in these columns about the well. And we hope that the thing blows in a gusher. We would like to smell oil when the wind is in the southwest coming from Terry county instead of all of it from Gaines and Yoakum counties, not to mention Lea county New Mexico.

But when and if it does belch the black gold, fellows, we will get some of the play right here in Brownfield. We'll bet our sox that Seagraves will not get all of it. Yes sir, and we are going to make it even more pretty for oil folks to live in Brownfield, and they already like our burg.

It is rumored around on the streets here that a certain institution is going to put up a five story office building, and it is a hope grown outfit and have the money to do just that.

Yes sir, Seagraves C. of C., Brownfield aims to get something out of that oil well, when and if, other than a whiff from the southwest.

City Lets Contract For Street Lighting

The City Council at their Monday night meeting awarded the contract for installing extensive street lighting to Prewitt Electric Company of this city for $2155, it being the lowest bid. This does not include cost of material, most of which is on hand. The work to begin immediately. The installation to be as planned when bonds were voted last year, which is from the railroad to the highway on Main street and through the business section on Broadway. To large steel poles and large lantern lamps.

The County Commissioners have ordered eight similar lights installed at the same time around the court yard.

Little Super Market Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. S. Yandell, who started the Little Super Market on the Lubbock Road some two years ago, have sold the store to Oden Miller, who took over this week, according to Mr. Yandell. Mr. Miller is too well known here to need a lot of introduction from us. He invites you to visit his store. As for Mr. Yandell—well, he says he is in for some fishing.

Brownfield To Be In Oil Belt League

Paul Bish and E. W. Wilgus have announced that they will have a baseball team in the Oil Belt League this coming season. Uniforms and equipment are already on order.

Plans for the location of the diamond have not as yet been definitely settled. Several sites are under consideration. The league is made up of eight teams from Levelland, Littlefield, Seagraves, Sundown, Post Slaton and Brownfield. The eighth team member has not yet been selected. According to Bish, who has pitched a lot of semi-pro ball himself, the locals stand a better-than-fair chance of going a long way in their first season.

Farm Bureau To Sponsor Water Hearing March 8

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation will sponsor a water hearing to be held at Plainview on March 8, it was announced today by J. Walter Hammond of Tye, state Farm Bureau president. The hearing is scheduled for the purpose of studying the underground and surface water situation in Texas and to discuss the desirability of underground water control legislation, Hammond said. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a. m. in the City Auditorium.

W. R. Tilson of Meadow, state Farm Bureau director of the Plains area, will be host for the hearing. Farm Bureau Directors Joe M. Hatton of Amarillo and C. H. DeVaney of Coahoma will be co-chairman, with Hatton presiding during the morning session and DeVaney at the afternoon session.

The meeting is expected to draw a large attendance of farmers from all sections of the state. State legislators and representatives from other interested groups will participate, and water engineers and geologists have been invited to furnish information on the surface and underground water situation in the state.

In explaining the purpose of the hearing, Hammond said, "In the last session of the legislature, there was an effort made to pass legislation to regulate the use of underground water. The measure failed of passage because there was insufficient information to determine what legislation, if any, should be enacted. Therefore, the board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau believe it advisable to sponsor a hearing to seek information as to the available supply of surface and underground water, with an eye to making the best possible use of the water supply to meet the approval of the present and potential water users."

The report of the investigation conducted by the military authorities to determine the circumstances surrounding your son's death has now been received. This report discloses that Technician died on 21 August 1947 at Headquarters Company, Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas as the result of a gunshot wound of the head. At about 4:20 that afternoon, enlisted personnel on their way to the mess hall stopped by the mail room to inquire for their mail. Finding the door locked they went on to the mess hall and at about 4:40 again stopped at the mail room. When they did not get a response the second time, one of the men walked around to the corner of the building and looked in the window and saw Technician Terry and another soldier lying on the floor, with a 22 calibre pistol on the floor between them, both seriously wounded. He immediately reported the incident and returned to the scene with two other men. They forced the door open, which was locked from the inside. Your son was pronounced dead at the scene and the other soldier died approximately one hour later. An interrogation of enlisted personnel revealed a very strong attachment between the two men and this soldier showed a depressed state of mind and was very upset emotionally over Technician Terry's pending separation from the service. After careful consideration of the facts and circumstances it is the opinion of the investigating officer that this soldier fatally wounded your son then took his own life. It is held by military authorities, under Army Regulations governing that your son's death occurred in line of duty and was not due to his own misconduct.

The tragic and untimely death of your son is deeply regretted and my heartfelt sympathy is with you in your sorrow. May the knowledge that he served his country honorably and faithfully be a source of sustaining comfort to you.

Sincerely yours,
Edward F. Witsell
Maj. Gen., The Adjutant General of the Army.

Robert Lee Bobbitt of San Antonio, chairman, and J. D. They were backed by delegates from California, Mississippi and other states that touch oceans and the gulf.

Midland has an amateur boxing tournament coming up March 4, 5 and 6. The Herald has a number of application blanks which we will be glad to pass on to those who may be interested. Just tell us that you wish an application blank to enter this tournament.

The Herald joins the press of this area in extending condolence to Editors H. G. Richards of Annon, son, and Afon Richards of Aspermont, grandson, in the loss their dad and granddad, Elder W. H. Richards, of Tipton, Okla., recently. Elder Richards was born in Johnson County, Texas, but had spent most of his ministerial life for the Primitive Baptist church, in the Haskell-Knox county area of Texas.

Well, we missed our announcements in the last issue of the Morning Tribune, and are wondering if the author, Mrs. Carl England just had not gotten over her trip to the mid-winter convention of editors at Dallas, recently.

Last week, Editor E. I. Hill of the Lynn County News, Tahoka, gave us a real good description of the history leading up to the war with Spain in 1898, as well as a brief summary of the war, after the sinking of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor. The latter act was what brought on the war sooner, but mistreatment of Cubans was the long run cause. The Maine was blown up 50 years ago this month. Editor Hill goes over the fight of Dewey and his fleet at Manila bay, the San Juan Hill fight, as well as the finishing blow to the Spanish fleets at Santiago. Then, Mr. Hill reminded critics who say there were no songs created in that war, that they were mistaken, although the war lasted only three months and the army was entirely volunteer, with the exception of a very small standing army. He cited the beautiful tune about the Sinking of the Maine, and we might add that the "boys in blue and khaki" sang many of the comparatively new songs of the time such as Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight, East Side, West Side, and such love songs as Two Little Girls in Blue, After the Ball, etc. Yep, the Old He was a lad of 17 at that time, and being a avid reader we almost had that war down by heart.

How in the world did Editor Joiner of the Ralls Banner guess so well who we were referring to in our recent article. He says we had two about him. We just remember one. No, we have no idea of accusing him of being a commie. But we will agree with him to remain in the south. In fact, we have never been north of that imaginary line called the Mason & Dixon, and don't think we ever will be at this late date, unless one crosses it between here and California. Yep, we'll stay with the ignorant, unprogressive south. It has lots of good people including whites, negroes and Latin-Americans, and we like it—just like it is now. We don't think any of the doogder planners up at Washington can improve on the good old south and southwest.

Thirty or forty years ago, hospitals kept patients for weeks laying flat on their backs, who had undergone surgery. And just a sip of water and no solids for days and days. Twenty years later, the patient was turned on their sides, back and given alcohol rubs, but kept for at least a week or ten days. Current issue of Readers Digest gives a description of the very radical change that has taken place in the past few years. As they state, some will say the hospitals are hard pressed for beds, and get patients out as soon as possible. This is partly true of course, but on the other hand the physicians and surgeons give very good reason why patients sometimes are stood on their feet and walked around the room perhaps in 48 hours after a major operation. Some maternity patients go home in three or four days from the hospital. Twenty to 40 years ago there was a lot of trouble with adhesions, not to mention frequent blood clots. Both, with the new methods have been reduced to a minimum, according to Readers Digest.

The Star-Telegram tells us that there are 4700 army reserves now built up in the Fort Worth area, of which about one-third are officers. This reminds us of some of O. Henry's stories of central America, such as Cabbage and Kings, wherein some of the armies were made up of generals. Could the reserve army be coming to that?

Right here and now we are making a prediction: That President Truman will not succeed himself. He will be hopelessly defeated. If ever we heard a weak, mimicry speech from a president, that Jackson-Jefferson day dinner speech was the crowning achievement. If HST had been IST, and made his own speech, probably it would have been OK. But he stepped over to a silent grave in Hyde Park, and tried to mimic the one and only FDR. Such expressions as "they say it cannot be done—it can be done—and I say it will be done," could only be handled successfully by the one and only FDR. Of course he got a rousing cheer each time, they had to do something to get their money's worth out of that $100 per plate dinner. But likely they were not expecting a ghost speech.

We may be all wrong—many times are. But we believe the US and other members of the UN have made a grave mistake by piddling around and getting involved in the Palestine division stuff. Are we prepared to send a bunch of our young men over there to try to keep the peace between the Jews and Arabs, who have been fighting for 5000 years? The Herald doesn't believe the UN has any more right to try to divide Palestine than they have to divvy up the Philippines or any other country. And it may be the first measure in leading up to world war three. And the same goes for military aid to Greece or any other country. No other country butted in when there was a sectional war in the United States in 1861-65.

We see that Chicago man made more than $200,000 in a week, trading on the wheat market. Did he raise the wheat? No. Did he handle the wheat? No. Would he know what wheat looked like if he saw a bushel of wheat? Possibly, not. He is a high powered speculator, one of the fellows who manipulates the grain market, which sets the price that the producers get for the grain. The producers run all of the risk in producing the grain, yet the speculators set the price, and make the money from the grain. How would any business man like it if the price of his goods was set by a gambler seated in his office a thousand miles away? He would resent such operations. Naturally all prices are set more or less by the fluctuation in market, but the farmer must abide by the operations in one great center where the prices are made and unmade by the operations of a few big speculators. Of course some one lost while the big boy in Chicago was making $200,000 in a week's time. In this instance every farmer who produced wheat in 1947 and still had wheat on hand contributed to that neat little gain of $200,000.— Canyon News.

RESEARCH WORK ON GRASSES TO CONTINUE
Continuing a long-range research program to determine what pasture grasses are best suited for beef production, Texas Technological College recently received eight grade Hereford steers from the Spade ranch to be used in the 1948-49 grazing project, Dean of Agriculture W. L. Stangel announces.

Average weight of the calves was 451.2 pounds when received. They will be carried as stockers during the winter. Next spring and summer they will be grazed in rotation on six one-acre pastures seeded with various combinations of grasses. Plots are to be planted with alfalfa, alfalfa with bromegrass and perennial rye grass, alfalfa with bromegrass, alfalfa with perennial rye grass, native grass, and native grass with white clover.

WHAT, NO COWBOYS?
AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 20, — "Where are the cowboys?" This was the first inquiry of a University of Texas student from Iraq when he arrived in Austin. U. S. cowboy movies which he had seen at home had led him to believe that rustlers and bullets would be thick in Texas.

G I Question And Answer Department

Q. I am a World War II veteran and would like to know how much an attorney who represents me in my claim for compensation or pension against the Veterans Administration is permitted to charge.

A. If the attorney is admitted to practice before the VA he may receive $10 in an original claim or $2 in a claim for increase in compensation or pension, provided the claim is allowed. These fees are paid by VA and deducted from the monetary benefit awarded the claimant.

Q. I have been granted admission to a Veterans Administration domiciliary home and now would like to know if it is possible for me to take my wife with me to stay at the home?

A. No. The law does not permit the wives of servicemen to be admitted to any domiciliary home of the Veterans Administration.

Q. How do I calculate the period of eligibility time consumed while I am taking a correspondence course under the G-I Bill?

A. One-fourth of the elapsed time in following your correspondence course will be charged against your period of entitlement.

Q. If I am hospitalized in a Veterans Administration Hospital, must the benefits from my hospitalization insurance policy be assigned to VA?

A. If treatment is rendered for a nonservice-connected disability, the amount of the policy that provides for hospital expenses must be assigned to Veterans Administration. If the policy provides for stipulated amounts for the period of disablement, it is not necessary that it be assigned.

Veteran's News . . .

Only veterans taking full-time courses in schools or colleges will be entitled to increased subsistence allowances under a law signed February 14 by the President, the Veterans Administration has announced.

Eligible veterans now in school who are entitled to $75 (no dependents) or $105 (one dependent), will not have to apply for the increases. VA, requesting that these veterans not write, said it had sufficient information to make automatic increases.

However, veterans entitled to $120 a month because they have more than one dependent, will be required to submit evidence of their additional dependents before the increased payments can be made. For dependent children, photostats or certified birth certificate copies will be necessary. For dependent parents, evidence of actual dependency must be submitted. If the veterans now training submit evidence prior to July 1, 1948, they will receive retroactive payments at the new rates back to April 1, 1948.

The higher rates are applicable after April 1. However, since subsistence allowance checks are not due until the end of the month in which the veteran is in training, most of the eligible veterans will receive their first checks at the higher rates on or

American Business Behind the Scenes in

Industry's spending for plants and equipment to expand production and improve manufacturing efficiency is still an important part of the nation's economic foundation.

The argument that new and more efficient production equipment cuts down jobs and payrolls has been pretty well disproved during the past few years. Industry right now is spending at record levels for plant and equipment expansion. Yet labor has been obtaining an increasingly large share of corporate revenues. In 1929 workers received about 24 per cent of the total sales dollar. That share jumped to 27.6 per cent in 1947. During the same comparable period the share of the sales dollar paid to stockholders in dividends slid from 4.2 per cent of corporate sales in 1929 to 2.1 per cent in 1947.

AUTOMATIC AGE— Modern technology is rapidly making the pushbutton era "old-fashioned," according to Harold W. Sweatt, president of a Minneapolis company. The next stage is going to be completely automatic operation of home and factory.

The day of the wholly automatic factory is still far off. Mr. Sweatt said, but there is a marked trend in that direction, particularly in the chemical and petroleum products fields. He added that the last few years had seen a greatly accelerated use of automatic instruments also in the food, textile tobacco and ceramics industries because of the demand for greater production efficiency. Because "no one wants to bother with pushing a button anymore," homeowners and apartment dwellers are demanding more automatic controls for everything from dish washers to heating plants, he said.

A demonstration of "Refinishing Furniture" was given to the Wellman Home Demonstration club by Miss Dunlap February 20. The Timely Topic for this meeting was given by Mrs. Harmon Scales and her subject was "Acne."

The question box is creating lots of interest in the club and requires lots of research for the members to find the answers. Mrs. Floye Mae McDonald is a new member in the club.

Approximately 60 members attended the lecture on "Undulant Fever" given by Mr. Breedlove to the Wellman Home Demonstration club.

Preceding the lecture a short business session was held. Mrs. Stanley Emerson sent in her resignation as secretary. Mrs. Elmer Edwards was elected to fill the

Benton Gets Free Trip To Colorado
Jack Benton, one of our city councilmen, as well as an insurance man professionally, is leaving this week for Colorado Springs, Colo., where he is being entertained by the National Life Insurance Co., he represents in Brownfield.

To say Jack was tickled to make the trip is putting it very mildly. He has not been writing insurance long, having spent most of his time here in Brownfield as an automobile mechanic. But he showed folks he could write insurance as well as fix a car.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferrel Brigance visited her brother and his family in Denver City Sunday.

Mrs. Bob Burnett was nominated for a delegate to the district meeting.

The Business Situation In Texas

The recent sharp declines in commodity and security prices emphasize the unstable equilibrium of the present high level of business activity, said Dr. John R. Stockton, Statistician of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

A similar break in prices in 1946 failed to produce a downturn in business, but the rapid rise in prices since that time, coupled with a continued high level of production, has brought the business situation into a state of much greater unbalance than in 1946. This means that the chances for the drop in prices to reverse itself have become much smaller.

The more unstable equilibrium the more vulnerable the situation becomes, until finally there is a collapse. Sometimes the collapse stems from some external force, but at other times the balance is so precarious that the events causing the upset are not of sufficient importance to be noticed. Probably the most important element of the present business situation is the degree of unbalance present, since the level of business during 1947 was an all-time high (except for the wartime peak in certain kinds of industry).

Good Buys To Come In February

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced that 20 different food items are expected to be in abundant supply during February. The list includes certain fresh fruits and vegetables, as well as canned and dried foods, nuts, honey and peanut butter. Oranges, grapefruit, lemons, apples and winter pears are on the fresh fruit list. Fresh vegetables are cabbage, carrots and celery. Canned items are citrus juices, grapefruit segments, the lower grades of peas, pumpkin and squash, sweetpotatoes and tomato juice. Dried prunes, raisins, peaches and figs, walnuts, filberts and pecans will add variety to the menu. Both honey and peanut butter will be in large supply.

Dudley K. Brummett For State Senator

Dudley K. Brummett, Lubbock Attorney and Army Air Corps combat veteran of World War II announced Saturday that he is a candidate for State Senator from the 30th Senatorial District.

Brummett is 28 years of age and married. He is a former member of the Attorney Generals Department of Texas under Gerald C. Mann. He served as an Attorney for the Supreme Court of Texas following his release from military service in October, 1945. Since September, 1946, he has been actively engaged in the general practice of law at Lubbock and an Instructor of Government at Texas Tech. He is an ex-student of Texas Tech and the University of Texas Law School.

Brummett volunteered for the Army in May 1942, as a buck private. After training at Mineral Wells, Texas, he was transferred to the Air Corps and trained as an aviation cadet. He later was commissioned a bomber plane from the United States across the ocean to England. From there he participated in bombing raids over Germany. He piloted a B-17 Flying Fortress, and together with his eight crew members, was shot down on his sixth mission over Hamburg, Germany. All crew members parachuted from the burning plane to safety from ten thousand feet, though one crew member was jerked unconscious when his parachute opened and when he struck the ground broke one leg and seven ribs. All members on landing were scattered over a distance of about twenty miles. When Brummett hit the ground he attempted to escape into a nearby forest. He was pursued and fired upon by German soldiers who had seen him come down. Brummett and all crew members were gathered up and became Prisoners of War of the Germans until the end of hostilities. Brummett, together with several thousand other Air Corps Prisoners of War participated in the January sub-zero march on foot through deep snow from Sagan, in the east part of Germany to Spremburg, Germany. The Prisoners of War were being removed out of east Germany to prevent their liberation by the approaching Russian Army invading Germany from the east. They were there crowded into box cars and carried on to Mooseburg in southern Germany, a crowded, infamous and filthy Prisoner of War camp, without heat or fuel, and there kept on a starvation diet. They were there liberated by General Patton's Third Army on the 29th day of April, 1945. Brummett and his entire crew were immediately flown out of Germany and returned to the United States, which all agreed was the most blessed country on earth. Brummett was awarded the Air Medal for his bombing missions over Germany.

Brummett stated that in seeking the office of State Senator, "I desire to serve my fellow man in the Senate Hall of Texas. It has been my life ambition to serve in public life." Brummett stated further, "I have but one promise to make in offering myself as a candidate for State Senator, and that is, that when elected I will represent all the people of my district to the best of my ability on every legislative matter that shall come before the Senate of Texas."

Brummett was born and reared in Dickens County. He moved with his parents to Lubbock in 1932. He attended the Lubbock Public Schools and Texas Tech, working his way through school as a grocery clerk with Furr Food Stores for three years of this time. He later attended the University of Texas Law School.

Brummett is a Vice-President of the Junior Bar of Texas, member of the State Bar of Texas, member Lions Club, member Junior Chamber of Commerce, member Methodist Church, member Texas Prisoner of War Club, member Caterpillar Club, and a Reserve Officer in the Air Corps of the United States Army.

There are more than 50,000 Texas farmers and ranchmen cooperating with 145 soil conservation districts in the state, according to Paul H. Welsler, state conservationist of SCS.

Car Weighs Over Ton; Pedestrian 150 lbs.

"Don't throw your weight around," advises George Clarke, managing director of the Texas Safety Association.

"Remember that when you are sitting behind the wheel, you are driving a car that weighs more than 2000 pounds, and the pedestrian crossing the street only weighs an average of 150 pounds. It isn't quite fair, is it?"

The Texas Safety Association is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program during February, and Clarke said that accidents involving pedestrians are one of the biggest killers. He pointed out National Safety Council statistics to back up this assertion.

Pedestrians at intersections account for 28 per cent of all urban fatal accidents, and 35 per cent of all fatal accidents are non-intersection pedestrian mishaps. In addition, 27 per cent of all pedestrians killed in cities were crossing at intersections without signals, and 38 per cent were crossing between intersections.

Clarke emphasized the following things to remember for the driver in giving pedestrians the right-of-way:

1. When pedestrians are crossing at unsignaled intersections, drivers must give them the right-of-way if they are walking in the crosswalk or where a crosswalk might be.

2. When pedestrians are crossing at signalized intersections they should obey the signals, but drivers turning right or left must yield the right-of-way to pedestrians crossing on the "green" or "walk" light.

3. Pedestrians do not have the right-of-way between intersections, and therefore, they should cross only at corners.

4. Drivers must be alert for pedestrians crossing between intersections, particularly at night, even though the walkers should look out for the cars.

5. Regulations vary from place to place. Pedestrians are sometimes prohibited from crossing between intersections in certain areas of the city. Sometimes they are allowed to cross if they can do so safely. Know your local rules!

National 4-H Club week will be observed March 1-7, 1948.

More Measles Than In Years

With the incidence of measles more than three times higher than the seven year median, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued a statement concerning the use of gamma globulin for protecting very young or frail children from an attack of this perennial childhood disease and its often serious complications.

"If you have a child less than five years old who has been exposed to measles, your family doctor may recommend giving him gamma globulin, Dr. Cox advised. "Through city, county or state health departments, doctors can obtain gamma globulin, free, when parents are unable to pay. Infants and children, whose health makes it inadvisable for them to suffer an attack of measles, may postpone the disease if gamma globulin is administered within eight days from the time of exposure.

The State Health Officer emphasized the fact that gamma globulin cannot give a child permanent protection against the measles added that the protection against measles is ordinarily of about three weeks duration. However, there is no limit to the number of times it can be used, and a baby who is protected by it now can be protected by it again in June or July.

Gamma globulin can go on shielding him against measles until he is old enough and strong enough to stand an attack without serious consequences.

During an outbreak of measles Dr. Cox said that it is well to keep children under five years of age, and more especially frail children, away from all other youngsters who might serve as sources of infection. Statistics show that nine-tenths of all measles deaths occur in children under five years of age.

DEATH OF HARRISON LOPS AGAIN

Texas Liquor Control Board inspectors in January reported the seizure of six illicit stills.

With the stills, which had a cubic capacity of 300 gallons, inspectors captured 850 gallons of mash and made 10 arrests. Four gallons of moonshine liquor were destroyed.

Two stills were taken in Anderson county and one each were taken in the counties of Red River, Titus, Van Zandt, and Smith.

Pleasant Valley H D Club Holds Meeting

The Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration club met in the home of Mrs. W. R. Gandy February 20. Mrs. Leonard Willis, the elected president for 1948 and Mrs. Maurine Newson, vice president had both moved from the community so Mrs. Massingale was elected president and Mrs. Hubert Hinson vice president.

The club wishes to express their many thanks to Mrs. Willis for her outstanding work and achievements as club president for 1947. The club will miss her very much.

Mr. Breedlove gave a talk on Undulant Fever. Everyone seems to be very interested in the work to help rid Terry county of this disease.

After club adjourned a pink and blue shower was presented to Mrs. Delton Tatum. A large number was present and had an enjoyable afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gaasch had as their guest Wednesday and Thursday of last week her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hanman, of Mead, Neb. who were enroute home from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Cotton Neely and Jan, of Lubbock were here Saturday on business and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gracey.

Plainsman Maize Tops All Others

Plainsman milo maize excelled Martin milo in rate and economy of gain for fattening lambs by two and one-half per cent during the third year of an extensive feeding project by the animal husbandry department of Texas Technological College, according to a report from Prof. Ray C. Mowery, who was in charge of the experiment.

The project, conducted from Oct. 31 to Feb. 14 with 110 grade Rambouillet lambs, indicated further that difference in gain and feed required for lambs in the open and for lambs under shelter is insignificant. Gains for lambs in a dry lot and in a field of Plainsman milo were approximately the same, except during the final three weeks of the experiment when severe cold and snows caused field lambs to fail to gain as rapidly as those in lots.

All maize feeding was supplemented with rations of cotton seed meal, alfalfa and salt.

Mmes. Glen Akers, Gordon Richardson and Clovis Kendrick spent several days in Dallas shopping and having fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Howell visited Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ballard in Hagerman, N. M., over the week end.

Year-Round Visitor In This Area

A year-round visitor to the swine herds of Texas—especially in the northwestern part of the state—is mange. Since hogs seldom die from this disease, farmers do not pay much attention to it.

E. M. Regenbrecht, extension swine husbandman for Texas A and M College, calls attention to the fact that while mange usually shows up in the late winter or early spring months, control of hog mange is a late summer or early fall job. It's too cold, usually, to spray or dip hogs for the disease at the time it shows up and spraying or dipping in August or September is just as effective a time to treat the hogs.

There are three ways to control mange, Regenbrecht says. Benzene hexachloride (BHC) can be used either as a dip, a spray, or to fill the hog wallow. The last method is the most practical and easiest way.

Demonstrations were carried on throughout the state using these three methods of control during 1947 and demonstrators have reported that no mange appeared in their hog herds as a result.

Stephens Infant Buried Last Week

Now It's Lettuce In Northwest Texas

In sections of the High Plains where deep irrigation wells have been dug to bring in the necessary water for truck crops, farmers are finding a new source of income, says J. F. Rosborough, extension horticulturist of Texas A & M College. This area of Texas has been very successful with its production of truck crops.

Lubbock county came out with a brand new truck crop last year; 1947 was the first year that lettuce had been tried. Several farmers in the Monroe community grew a potato crop using intensive fertilizer and irrigation methods. The potatoes were followed by lettuce, grossing $600 per acre. The truck crops in Lubbock county included 1000 acres of potatoes with a yield of 130 sacks per acre; 230 acres of lettuce yielding 230 crates per acre; 360 acres of sugar beets, 14 tons per acre; 150 acres of sweet potatoes at 400 bushels per acre; and 400 acres of black-eye peas.

The moisture removed from foods in dehydrating is restored by the water used in cooking.

In Texas, in 1947, more than 343,500 acres of austrian winter peas were plowed under as a soil improvement crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hogue of Snyder were here over the week end to attend the funeral services for Mrs. McNutt, of Meadow and visit relatives.

Vitamin A Helps Night-Blind Cattle

Strange as it may seem, the lack of vitamin A in rations will cause night blindness in cattle—just as it will in humans.

The results of experiments conducted by the Spur substation of the Agricultural Experiment Station of Texas A and M college prove that statement, and the results were even more convincing this year.

Paul T. Marion of the Spur substation, says that a group of 14 yearling steers, made up of five Herefords, five Jerseys, and four crossbreds, ranging in weight from 700 to 1000 pounds, were fed a ration of cottonseed meal and hulls (a ration that is deficient in vitamin A) for 84 days. They developed advanced symptoms of vitamin A deficiency within that time. They are night blind, have poor appetites and their average daily gain of 2.25 pounds per animal for the first 56 days dropped to 1.10 pounds for the last 28 days.

When green grass, wheat pasture, alfalfa or other green feeds are available, yearling steers are able to store carotene—a form of vitamin A—to supply their body requirements for as long as 100 to 180 days. This particular group developed the symptoms in less time because they had no green grass from the middle of July through October, due to the late summer and fall drought.

A good way to use the last bits of ham is to add it to a cream sauce made by heating a can of mushroom soup as it comes from the can. Add only a tablespoon or so of cream or milk for thinning.

Baby Chicks May Be Hard To Get

"You can get baby chicks this year, but it may be hard to get them when you want them" is the warning issued by extension poultry husbandmen of Texas A & M College.

They base their prediction on their prediction on the December hatchery production report of USDA's Bureau of Agricultural Economics office in Austin. The report shows that commercial hatcheries in Texas produced 1,100,000 chicks during the month, which is just about half of the production of a year ago, and 28 per cent below the 10-year average.

Hatcheries are generally starting their main hatching season later than last year, the report says. The egg-feed price ration is not as favorable for egg production as last year, and most hatcheries are setting eggs according to orders placed with them. The exception is broiler chicks, as the demand for them has been fairly stable.

With such a situation, orders for baby chicks should be placed well ahead of the delivery date desired, the poultry husbandmen say. Otherwise, there may be an unexpected delay in delivery.

Holden Makes Short Stop In Brownfield

David (Jack) Holden youngest full brother of Mrs. A. J. Stricklin spent a night recently in Brownfield. He was accompanied by his wife and little three year old daughter. Holden lived here with his parents, and attended school here four or five years when a lad.

After being discharged from War I, he went to northern Colorado and started in the spinach business in a modest way. Two years ago, the Denver Post designated David as the Spinach King of Colorado. He has his own packing sheds and employs a large number of people.

He was on his way to San Antonio to join his brother, Roy, to have a look at some of the citrus land in the valley. David was about the age of Sack Green and Bayne Price, to name two who were here at that time.

In Texas, in 1947, approximately 17,447,800 pounds of sweet clover seed were harvested.

A Good Market In View For '48

There will be fewer meat animals and less meat in '48 which is hard on the consumer but money in the pocket for the producer. The situation holds true for Texas as well as the whole nation.

Extension farm management specialists for Texas A and M College say there are several favorable factors affecting the livestock market. Cattle prices will be affected by the heavy marketing of cattle and calves in 1947, as it brought breeding cattle numbers down and means a short calf crop in '48 for certain. Fewer calves and strong demand mean good prices for beef. The recent cold wave may cause still more breeding cattle to be marketed because of the high cost of winter feeds.

An early spring and good pasture conditions in the Feed Belt would make a good market for Texas cattle, as many farmers in that area plan to buy younger and medium to good grade cattle for use on their pastures this spring and summer and will feed them only a little corn until the new crop comes on in the fall.

Not only will there be fewer cattle to market this year, but fewer lambs. Many ewes in Texas are in poor condition and won't be able to stand continued severe weather without heavy feeding. Winter wheat pastures in Texas as a whole are in relatively poor condition. Last year small grain pastures carried a million lambs, but very few moved to that area in late '47 because of the drouth. Many ranchmen have culled their flocks closely.

All in all, it looks like the demand will be good and the prices right for the livestock producer in Texas in 1948.

U. S. Should Build History's Greatest Air Power

The United States should create "the greatest air power in the history of the world" to promote world peace, Senator Taft (R-O) said Saturday night in Denver.

"Not only will that give us the defense which we need, but it will deter any threat of attack from Russia or any other country far more than any projected plan of compulsory universal training," the Ohioan said in a prepared text.

Taft's talk highlighted a day of activity in mile-high Colorado on behalf of his candidacy for the

George C. Gore Has Another Birthday

Our old friend George G. Gore, of east Main had another birthday last Sunday. Well, it is none of anyone's business which birthday it was, suffice to state that he is no longer a spring chicken, but on the other hand, he still gets around, and has one of the heartiest handshakes you most ever experienced.

And George is mad at nobody. He just isn't made up that way. That is the reason his friends are legion. We have known him personally for more than 30 years, and we have talked with people in the Memphis section, as well as an old friend of his early days, who now lives next door to our mother-in-law in Redlands, Calif. All speak of George Gore in the highest terms.

And boy, he has a life companion that is also A-1, if you ask us. And we don't say this because she slipped us a bountiful supply of the turkey and dressing and giblet gravy they had for noon dinner Sunday. We have eaten a smashing good meal at her table many times.

And just to make a well balanced meal since the wife came home, no sooner had Mr. Gore left than Mrs. O. L. Jones and youngest daughter came in with a nice lot of cake. Glory be, aint it fine to have friends?

Helping Mr. Gore to celebrate the occasion were Messrs. and Mesdames Jake Gore and son, Chester Gore, Crede Gore, Bill Gore, of Lovington, Alfred Gore, J. T. Bowman, Sam Teague and children and Mr. Keith Gore.

Mrs. D. C. Hubbard, of Lorenzo visited her mother, Mrs. J. M. Young of Tokio over the week end.
