"The women of Columbus, Mississippi, animated by nobler sentiments than are many of their sisters, have shown themselves impartial in their offerings made to the memory of the dead. They strewed flowers alike on the graves of the Confederate and of the National soldiers."—N. X. Tribune.

By the flow of the inland river,
Whence the fleets of from have fleet,
Where the blades of the grave-grass quiv
Asleep are the ranks of the dead;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Under the one, the blue,
Under the other, the gray.

These in the robings of glory. These in the rootings of general Those in the gloom of defeat, All with the battle-blood gory, In the dusk of eternity meet; Under the sod and the dew, Walting the judgment day; Under the laurel, the blue, Under the willow, the gray.

The desolate mourners go,
Lovingly laden with flowers
Alike for the friend and the foe;
Under the sod and the dew,
Walting the judgment day;
Under the roses, the blue,
Under the lilles, the gray.

So with an equal splendor So with an equal splendor
The morning sun rays fall,
With a touch impartially tender,
On the blessoms blooming for all;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Broidered with gold, the blue,
Mellowed with gold, the gray.

So, when the summer calleth, On forest and field of grain,
With an equal murmur falleth
The cooling drip of the rain;
Under the sod and the dew,
Waiting the judgment day;
Wet with the rain, the blue, Wet with the rain, the gray

Sadly, but not with upbraiding, The generous deed was done;
In the storm of the years that are fading,
No braver battle was won;
Under the sod and the dew, Waiting the judgment day; Under the blossoms, the blue, Under the garlands, the gray.

No more shall the war-cry sever Or the winding rivers be red; They banish our anger forever
When they laurel the graves of our dead!
Under the sod and the dew.
Waiting the judgment day;
Love and tears for the blue, Tears and love for the gray!

GAMBLING AT HOMBOURG.

Rev. Dr. Bellows has had a view of the gaming-houses at Homburg, and in The undersigned informs the citizens of San Antonio, and the public in general, that he is prepared to fill all orders for DOORS, SASHES AND BLINDS, at each table who is playing for a stake of five Napoleons—about $20—for and all sach coup; that is, each deal of cards or a letter to the Liberal Christian, says: to rip and plane Lumber, to make one and of five Napoleons—about $20—for House.—This is best felt where the other articles connected with the carpenter turn of the roulette. Most of the play. rate, as the deal occurs once in a min-ute or two, much money may be lost or won in a half hour, and for the heavier players, who begin with five Napoleons, and double their stake every time, it is plain that several thousand francs may be changed from the private pocket to the bank, or from the bank to the pri-rate pocket in tan or filteen minutes. vate pocket in ten or fifteen minutes. I have seen men and women going away minus two or three thousand francs after a half-dozen coups, and some others carrying away as much after ten minutes' successful playing. Ultimately, however, large players are too fond of the excitement to leave because they are fortunate. They stay commonly to shift their fortunes and leave their winnings with the bank. If every gamester left the table when the chances were in his favor the bank would soon be out of cap-ital. But it reckons too surely upon the appetite which success stimulates.

PASCINATION OF GAMBLING.

"I have tried to analyze the facination of gambling by watching the faces and the play of those engaged in it. A more serious company it is hard to conceive of than the one gathered around these tables. Silence, gravity, unsmiling attention, absorption in the business in hand, a strained composure and fixed expression, neither moved by success nor disturbed by ill-luck, are the prevailing characteristics. You look in voin for the nervous, impassioned, suicidal expressions of countenance you are taught to expect. Most of the company at play look beautifully unconscious of anything unusual, disgraceful or sinful in their occupation. They are simply intent upon the game, each man watching his stake with unfeigned interest, but with a prac-tised knowledge of the risks and a feeling that he may gain at the next turn farm for $24,000—both pieces of proper what he lost in the last. The possibility of success is always before the player, which he was obliged to foreclose a few and he sees success attending his neigh-

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY. bor. The fact that in one minute by sinking a florin you may make it two and twenty presents an excitement which to those without moral scruples on the subject must be very facinating.

"Nothing but a well-considered and established conviction of the public and private demoralization and peril of gamng could prevent persons from dipping to its deceitful waters here, where a sort of exceptional license covers gam-bling from probation; where all its concomitants are decorous; where all its con-gomitants are decorous; where drinking and carousing and the more common forms of dissipation are suppressed; where people of excellent social dispo-sition and general respectability—lords and barons, bankers and countesses, gen-tlemen and ladics of fixed standing—are found amusing themselves at the gam-bling-table, and where it is open and legalized, and conducted with unquestioned fairness. Then it is doubtful whether the lookers on are not really participants to the extent of lending the countenance of their presence to the im-

SUPERSTITION OF PLAYERS.

"The superstition of these players are a singular exhibition of the credulity of these who have any faith in God or man. No groveling worshiper of an imaginary saint ever exceeded in superstition the mass of the men and women who sit at these gambling tables, solemnly pricking holes in their care-goshels, from which holes in their care-goshels, from which they read their guidance and through which they peep into the future fortunes which await them. Victims to absurd mysticisms about lucky numbers and false inferences from the absurd law of averages, they go religiously on, trusting in their stars and tied to their dotage.

"One very pieus gambler, who be-lieves in our glorious liturgy, but not in preaching, hurries from his Sunday prayers to try his luck it roulette, upon the 24-10 (chapter and verse) of the text the minister announces! Another tures his Bible to see what psalm opens, or what page cuts, and haste na to try his luck under such blessed guidance! New it is the nine which the divinites of the gambler's table have concentrated, and the next day seven or twenty-three.

"If Maximilian is shot by seven men, on the 19th of June, seven and nineteen would be the secret talisman of the first gamester that heard the news, if he was not warned by the fate of the noble gambler in thrones, who ataked his life and lost it upon the throw! Were there thirty-one words in Napoleon's letter to M. Rouher, offering him the diamond cross of the Legion of Houor, it would be graund enough for a bare-headed Frenchman here, who carries his velvet cap in band in rain and shine, to play all day on that number, confident of coming out winner by eleven P. M., at which time the tables close."

How to FREL THE PULSE OF THE Horse.—This is best felt where the bone. To find if, apply the fingers to ers pledge a twofforin piece (eighty cents) on every coup. Even at this rate, as the deal occurs once in a minpass them down to where a notch in the hone may be felt; the artery passes along this notch, where the throbbing will be perceptible. It is generally situated about three inches from the angle af the bone. In the horse the beats of the pulse are from 32 to 38 times a minute, in a state of health.

> PICKLING BEEF AND TONGUES __ Rub the beef hams slightly with fine salt, and let them lay 24 hours, then cover with the following cald pickle: For a bundred pounds of meat, 6 gallons of soft water, 6 pounds of fine salt, 11-2 ounces of saleratus, 3 ounces of saleratus, and 11-2 pounds of sugar. Beef for drying to be left in this brine for 6 days, tongues 3 weeks. This is the Burlington recipe.

NEW VOLCANIC ISLANDS .- The Perseveranjia, a Portuguese journal, an-nounces that two islands near Lishen have been subjected to continued volcanie eruptions. Strong shocks of earthquake have been felt, and many is lets analogous to Saptorini have been elevated. Early in June a submarine volcano cast up igheous matter, so that a tongue of land connecting the contin ent and islands was formed.

Singular Curron of the Carins.— Frofessor H viey, in his recent lectures on ethnology, called attention to an extraordinary custom among the Caribs. Shortly after the birth of a child the mother returns to work, while the father goes to bed, and for some time is fed-with greel, &c., every attention being paid to him.

A Milwaukean has just sold a city lot for $26,400, and could sell a suburban farm for $24,000—both pieces of proper-ty being the product of a $700 mortgage NO TELEGRAPHIC NEWS TO DAI

IMPORTANT TO CATTLE OWN ERS AND DROVERS.

Below we give a statement signe by Texas cattle drovers now at Abilene, Kansas. Our immense droves of fine fat cattle have had no market since the old routes , have been closed against us. It will be seen by this statement that a new and far superior route than any one formerly used has been opened to the Pacific Railroad. We can assure our stockraisers that this statement is perfeetly reliable. Cattle can be driven to Abilene in about five or six weeks from this part of Texas:

ABRENE, Kansas, Aug 13, 1867. We, the undersigned, citizens and drovers of Texas, would say to our friends and others whom it may concern, that we have been induced, through W. K. McCoy & Bro.'s circular, and other circumstances, to drive our stock to this point on the U. P. Railroad E. D., for sale or ship-

Upon our arrival here we found the stock yards nearly completed. We found the country or route between here and the mouth of the Little Arkansas, abounding in grass, water and timber in great abundance, and not a single settler from there until we reached Smoky Hill River, a distance of seventy-five at this time. The treatment of the (75) miles. *

The whole distance from Texas here is as follows:

Crossing Red River at Bolin Crossing, thence to Fort Ar-From Fort Arbuckle to Chism

From Chism Range to mouth of to Abilene, Kansas Making the total distance from Bolen's Crossing to Abilene. . 375

Cattle driven here over this route by Messrs. Haines & Taylor, and others, have arrived here, and report it a good route in every respect.

Upon our arrival here we were re-ceived by the citizens of Abilene and vicinity kindly and gentlemanly. W will state in conclusion that this route is a good and direct one, and has material advantages over any and will, in our opinion, prove to be the most practicable and best route. And we are assured by the officers of the Union Pacific Railroad, that the rate of freight will be such as the stock trade can afford to pay, and though we cannot give the exact cost per car from here to St. Louis and Chicago, yet we have good reason to believe that it will be reasonable.

The yards and scales are ample and complete, and promise to form a satisfactory outlet and we think a good market for all the shipping cattle that may be offered this year.

A TUXPAN ENIGRANT FLEECES THE Houstonians .- A private letter from Houston states that their Sheriff has run away, and, it is said, taken $35,000 and gone to Tuxpan; his name is Capt. Proudfoot. He was a good rebel, no doubt, and the Houston Conservative of bad men, who, like the Chief Justice

Editor Express :

There is a slight decrease in the re ported list of interments. We have hopes that with good weather the fever may abate entirely; especially as it is estimated that at least eight thousand people have been taken, the total number of deaths thus far approximating nine hundred. Death has cut down many of our Government officials and influential men-our Collector of the Port, Gen. Kent, an estimable gentleman; Gen. Griffin's Adjutant General, Col. Abert, a very fine officer; Dr. Rowe, Medical Director, and a very able physician and surgeon-with others, have been carried off with this pestilential besom. Our Commanding General has lost his little son, a bright and manly little fellow of five years; he has the earnest sympathies of our citizens for his sad bereavement. Mr. Thompson, the genial host of the Washington House, is deal. Many influential and worthy citizens, who have heretofore escaped the several epidemics that have visited our city, have at last succumbed to this and "gone to that bourne from which no traveler returns." The Galveston News publishes the statement of your correspondent as to outrages in the interior, and calls upon its readers in the section mentioned, to deny the same. Useless the facts are on file. A recently-received communieation from an eminent jurist in McClennan county states : "The robels here have grown rampant at the prospect of Gen. Sheridan's removal, and already threaten Unionists."

The following letter from Col. Lippard, Supervisor of the 18th Registration District, was received yesterday by a gentleman in authority, a friend of your correspondent :-

A MARKET FOR OUR BEEF CATTLE.

By reference to a statement made by Texas drovers at Abilene, Kansas, it will be seen that a new outlet is offered to our cattle drovers, which will make our stock-raising interest look up. Beef cattle are plentiful and in splendid condition. By a private letter from W. K. McCoy & Bros., we learn that the packing season will last until the 10th of December. p. Mr. Mc Whorton and others have started for their second droves, as there is yet time to drive to that point this season. This new route for our cats tle trade has been opened by the energy and enterprise of the McCoy Brothers, ENCOURAGED .- We learn that the County Judge has become much elated in consequence of Sheridan's removal, and the superficial area of his counter nance become as broad as during the palmiest days of the Confederacy. SANITARY.-Dead cats, rats etc., are quite common in various parts of our city and they smell loud enough to knock a person down not used to Mayor Lyens sanitary atmosphere; but in spite of all this the doctors say our city is fearfully healthy.

"O, ROBINSON, CRUSOR WHY DID you Do so?"-A white man named Robinson was fined by Mayor Lyons yesterday for taking a ring from a white lady and giving it to a colored prostitute.

THE WEATHER -- The weather is unchangeable, but an early winter seems certain from cool days already upon us. Frost would be a welcome visitor to our coast towns, where the yellow fever still

For restoring hair upon baid heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald hends in from two to three months; afew igorant practition re have asserted that there is nothing that will force or haston the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) case bear witnesses (from their own experience) case bear witnesses. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the geouine from the spurious? It certainly is discuit, as nine-tenth of the different preparations adver used for the bair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Cappilli; it will cost you nothing noless it fully comes up to our representations.
