OUR GALVESTON LETTER.

Police Troubles—High-handed Proceedings—Arrest of Prominent Unionists—Their Release on Bail—Denial of the Military Authorities—General Feeling Among Unionists—Tone of the Rebel Press—A Reply to False Allegations—Copperheads in Official Places.
GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 28, 1867.
Editor San Antonio Express:

In my last communication I wrote you that, owing to the brutal and disgraceful acts of the Chief of Police, measures would at once be taken by our indignant and oppressed citizens, irrespective of party, for his removal. Accordingly a meeting of our City Council was held on the night of the 21st instant, and resolutions alleging the unlawful acts of the Chief of Police, and asking his suspension till the facts in the premises were forwarded to the commanding General for his approval, were endorsed and unanimously adopted. Subsequently an indignation meeting of the Republican Association was held, at which the official acts of Perry, the police officer, were examined and resolutions expressive of strong condemnation and disapproval of such acts unanimously carried. A further resolution, appointing a committee of five to memorialize General Reynolds relative to the outrage and present the affidavits of citizens wronged, was approved. The next day, the 23d instant, the publication of this meeting appeared in the Bulletin, whereat Perry, the Chief of Police, was heard to say publicly: "Damn the Republicans and their Association; I'll arrest some of their leading men yet." The same day the Lieutenant commanding the Post here, W. H. W. Krebs, issued a General Order declaring that "Major R. H. Perry, the Chief of Police, being a military appointment could not be suspended save by the military authorities."

On the morning of the 24th our citizens were greeted with the appearance of large bodies of the police, under their Chief, marching and countermarching the streets. The Chief of Police having circulated inflammatory reports of an "impending riot organized by the Radicals and negroes!!!" rebels and their sympathizers, with a large body of ex-rebel soldiers, sworn in that morning as policemen, (a portion of the police having refused the night previous to serve any longer with Perry), were on the streets eager for a disturbance, having the assurance that they would be sustained by a Copperhead Lieutenant, temporarily commanding the Post at Galveston. Fortunately the coolness and general deportment of Union men and law-abiding citizens, white and black, averted everything of an unpleasant nature, and their attempted "game" was frustrated. Determined if possible to create disturbance, Perry, the evening of the same day, arrested Mr. Douglass, who is an ex-Union officer, the Deputy Sheriff of the county, and a prominent Republican, on the charge of sedition, because he (Douglass) expressed his disapprobation of the unlawful and gross conduct of the police authorities!! Mr. Douglass was hurried off to jail, access to him by his friends denied, all bail refused; military arrest being the excuse therefor, and incarceration for the night the necessary consequence.

The next day at noon Major Plumly was also arrested, charged with uttering seditious language, etc., etc. This proved the straw that broke the camel's back. Major Plumly at the time of his arrest had just written the following communication, of which this is a copy, to the Post Commander:—
"OFFICE OF GALVESTON CITY R. R. Co., GALVESTON, Oct. 25, 1867.
"W. H. KREBS, Lieutenant Commanding Post of Galveston.
"LETTER '77:—The Chief of Police, has stated to car drivers on the City Railroad and to others that he held an order from you for my arrest. Last night the Chief of Police went to the jail and said tauntingly to the men whom he yesterday unjustly incarcerated, that he would imprison me with them."

"The papers announce that a squad of men were in search of me last night, and Major Perry states that it is by your order. Will you please inform me, if you have given such an order, what is my offense? Am I a felon, that I am to be arrested by the bayonets I helped to buy, in the hands I help to pay? What offense have I committed against any law, civil or military? I have understood, sir, that the troops and officers of our Government are here for the protection and not for the oppression of loyal men. Is it because I am an abolitionist and a Republican of longer standing than the years of your life, that I am to be arrested and outraged by your temporary and accidental authority? Has it come to this, that an earnest and indignant protest against the brutal and bloody conduct of such a cowardly ruffian as the Chief of Police, is to subject loyal men to arrest and imprisonment by you? Are the bayonets of our Government to be set for the defense of an official "theory," in his mind set up against loyal citizens who simply use the right of petition and protest? If opinion is a crime, you should announce it in an "Order," that we may know under what rule we live. Be so kind as to inform me if you have ordered my arrest, and for what offense.
"Very respectfully,
"B. RUSH PLUMLY."
Redress was had, immediately after the Major's arrest; the military authorities, who, in the person of Lieutenant Garretson, the only officer at Headquarters, (Lieutenant Krebs having been taken down with the yellow fever the same day) replied to the committee of gentlemen who called on him, that there were no military orders for the arrest of Major Plumly or Mr. Douglass, that the Chief of Police could act only as a civil officer in making a civil arrest, and that of course both Mr. Douglass and Major Plumly could be at once released on bail—accordingly an hour later bail to the amount of one thousand dollars each, was given, for the release of Major Plumly and Mr. Douglass, and these gentlemen were liberated amid the rejoicings and congratulations of their friends and all Union citizens who felt deeply grieved at the high-handed proceedings of our police authorities.
There is a tone of deep feeling among all our best citizens at the way the Chief of Police is endeavoring to effect the charges against him of brutality and oppression. It should be remembered that Major Plumly has had his feelings as a father terribly lacerated by the manner in which his only son, who to day lies in a critical and dangerous condition, with a broken jaw and other wounds, received at the brutal hands of the Chief of Police. The most aggravating part of the whole affair is that the Rebel press here with a unanimity perfectly astounding, considering the nature of the charges against the Chief of Police, represent to their readers that Perry is being crowded by the Republicans for political purposes. This too, in the face of affidavits daily presented of the brutality and injustice of the Chief of Police—the Bulletin with much fervor howls in a very Whiffianian—now sobriety-manner against the Union League.
Our esteemed fellow citizen, G. L. Raby Esq., has written a manly reply to these false allegations and proved to the satisfaction of all fair minded citizens that the Bulletin's charges are entirely untrue.
We are cursed just now with much copperheadism in official places—even in the Freedmen's Bureau we have chief clerks and others who openly vaunt their despicable sentiments and glory in the name of Copperhead. Perhaps they consider themselves with some of our Military sub-officers, now here, as Andy Johnson's pets; Nous verrons when the tides of November approach.
HUMPHREY.

John Osgood says in a letter to the London Times: "In the present state of the English stage I doubt whether, save when Mr. Charles Kean visits London, a tragedian, is to be found who is worthy to hold a candle to Mr. Forrest."

THE DOUBLE REACTION IN CALIFORNIA.

The telegraph announces the ascertained majority of the Democratic State ticket, but is as silent as death about the result of the election held after the general election for a Supreme Judge and School Superintendent and Probate Judges, the result of which was a signal defeat to the Democrat.

Thus it was, the wonderful "reaction" in California was all undone by another "reaction" caused by the Republicans harmonizing their difficulties. The cry of "Reaction" will soon die out. The idea of November are upon us. One Southern State after another is wheeling into line, and soon will the Union be restored in form and in fact.

WHEN WILL WE HAVE A CHANCE?

Louisiana and Alabama led off in voting for a Convention, Virginia followed, and Georgia is now taking her turn, to be soon followed by Arkansas and North Carolina; when will Texas have a chance? It is becoming the anxious inquiry of every one. The yellow fever, and the removal of General Sheridan, have been the main causes of the tardiness in ordering an election for a Convention. We learn that the yellow fever has made it difficult for Registration Boards on the coast to finish their lists. But now, as the health of the coast is improving, the returns can be sent forward, and nothing remains but for the Commander of the District to order an election.

The Republicans of Texas are a unit and we feel confident that we will be able to defeat the enemies of the Government, no matter what policy they may pursue.

Menotti Garibaldi, who is now in chief command of the Garibaldian forces in the Papal territory, has seen a great deal of service for a young man. He was born in South America, and on one occasion was carried for days tied to the saddle bow of the horse which carried Anita, the heroic wife of Garibaldi, during a hurried retreat. He was present in the Valtellina in 1860, and though only fifteen years of age at the time, went through the whole Sicilian campaign by his father's side. In the recent war he commanded a regiment of three thousand men in the Tyrol, and greatly distinguished himself. He is a brilliant, impetuous soldier, though he is perhaps more cautious and prudent as to the future than "the General." The young Garibaldi, with his own creditable record and the prestige of his father's name, has a brilliant future before him.

THE PRETTIEST GIRLS IN THE WORLD.—Saxe, the poet, having returned from a rapid "summering" over Europe, is detailing his experience through one of the Albany papers, and many of his observations are as good as his verses. We would have thought, however, that having boys as tall as himself, and a beautiful daughter of sweet seventeen, he would not notice the girls; but he does, and has particularly noted and compared them thus:

As reste, I will only say that, without pretending to make a general comparison, I saw more pretty girls in Dublin than in London; and many more in London than in Paris. The sweetest voice I ever heard in conversation came from a German woman who sold beer and biscuits in the suburbs of Gotha, with smiles benignant enough to turn cakes and ale into ambrosia and nectar. I saw a good deal of the peasantry of many countries, and thought the Irish the most, and the Roman the least, attractive of all I had the privilege to study.

The following example of what good farming will accomplish, was recently related by Dr. Loring, President of the New England Agricultural Society.

He knew a man in Massachusetts, who in 1825 bought twenty acres of land. He has applied to it all accurate knowledge that he could get. There is no month in the year that something does not bloom on his farm; there is something green there always; and he always has something to send to market. You walk through it and find everything going on just as regularly, accurately and carefully as the cotton goes through the loom. He has managed his affairs with prudence, accuracy and care, and has made from his farm of twenty acres $250,000 in forty years.

A young lady recently won a prize for target shooting in Chicago.

The following is the romantic fortune of five girls who waited upon the guests of the establishment at the opening of the Paris Exhibition. One of them, a Viennese girl, is very soon to be married to a Spanish nobleman. A second, a Hungarian, has married one of the prominent men in the Faubourg St. Germain, and is now on her wedding tour. The handsome Polish girl, whose appearance created such a sensation, resides in a beautiful villa near Vichy by the side of a noble old Marquis, who has settled two hundred thousand francs on her. The fourth, a Tyrolean, has married one of our "merchant princes," who was charmed by her imposing figure. The last of this lucky quartette, also a Viennese, has just returned to her native city, the wife of a fortunate speculator, who recently made a couple of millions on "Change."

The Tribune's says it is stated by the President's friends that the overtures made by him to the New York Democracy have not been accepted, and until he hears from them no Cabinet changes are likely to be made. It is evident from their talk, that the New York Democracy are endeavoring to prevent any change until after the State election in November.

It has been discovered by the Germans in Texas that the common bug which infests cucumber, pumpkin and other vines, is the deadly enemy of the cotton worm, and that the latter does not abound where the former does. So they are planting pumpkins, squashes, etc., in the cotton fields to advantage, and the discovery may lead to a greater variety of crops at the South.

ONE NEGRO KILLS ANOTHER.—A letter from Mr. Ed. Tynan to his brother in this city, dated San Jeronimo the 31st ultimo, gives an account of the killing of a colored man named Henry, by another colored man named Charley. Both men were in the employ of Mr. Tynan. The two men were "fooling" with each other, when the man named Charley went to his wagon and called to Henry to come out. In a playful way Henry started for the wagon, when Charley pointed a gun at him and called to him to stand; he repeated his command twice, and then fired, the ball entering Henry's left breast and coming out under the left shoulder blade, causing his death in about an hour and a half. The murderer escaped and is said to be in this city. The shooting happened at the hay camp of Mr. Tynan. Mr. Edward Tynan and two other men were present when the killing took place. The killing seemed to be perfectly unprovoked, and the two men have been together as friends a long time. The man who was killed is spoken of as being a hard-working, good man, while his slayer is not so favorably mentioned.

BUSINESS.—The business of the past week has been but tolerably brisk. Heavy invoices of goods have been received from the coast, and several shipments made in the way of hides and pecans. Pecans have come in rather freely. Country produce comes in sparingly, and finds ready sale. Cold weather seems to be setting in quite early and with a marked steadiness which warns every one to begin to lay in winter supplies. The improvement in the health of the coast country will make a favorable change in our business prospects for the winter. The cotton and corn crops make but little show so far in the trade, and the beef market is dull.

ALL SOULS DAY.—To-day (the 2d of November) is "All Souls Day," set apart by the Roman Catholic church for the commemoration of all the faithful departed, for whom the mass of requiem is said, and the office of the dead recited. In Germany the people, both Catholic and Protestant, visit the graveyards on this day, and strew flowers on the graves of their friends.

PECANS.—Pecans are coming in quite plentifully, and from all accounts the crop is very heavy. $2 75 to $2 80 per bushel is paid by our merchants. Mr. Grenet is buying largely.

BASE BALL.—It is announced that the officers of the garrison and the city base ball club will play a match game this afternoon on Alamo plaza.

ALL SAINTS DAY.—The festival of All Saints Day was observed by the Roman Catholics and Episcopians of our city.

STAGE LINE.—Two commodious Stages and one baggage wagon run regularly once a month by way of Peidras Negras (Eagle Pass) to Chihuahua. This line connects at Ominegas with the stage that runs to Monterey and thence to Matamoros or Saltillo, San Luis Potosi, Zacatecas or the City of Mexico. It also connects at Sta Rosalia, San Pablo and Chihuahua with the stage line to Paso del Norte. The Stages are well protected by a strong armed escort. For rates of passage, specie shipments and freights, apply to FELIX MACEYRA, Proprietor, Chihuahua. WULF & SCHELIG, Agents, corner Alamo and North streets, June 28-3m San Antonio, Texas.
