OUR GALVESTON LETTER.

The "Reactionary" Party Rampon—
Proposed Plan of Military Appointments—Spirit of the Rebel Press—
Judge Watson's Action—Indignation of Unionists—Cause for Removal—Personal.
GALVESTON, Texas, Dec. 3, 1867.
Editor San Antonio Express:

The "Reactionary" party here have recently received a powerful impulse to exertion through the advent of a gentleman who, representing influence at Headquarters, has imbued our "reactionists" so thoroughly with the idea of his power at Austin, that they have made a political slate for proposed action at Headquarters, in which the names of every Copperhead and sympathizer with rebels, in Galveston, figure largely.

Our City Council and other places—according to their programme—is to be filled with men hostile to the policy of Congress, inimicable to earnest Unionists, and opposed to any and all measures having in view the overthrow of injustice and oppression, and the absolute "reconstruction" of the State on a loyal basis.

Whether this "plan" will succeed remains to be seen. The Republicans here are determined, however, to make their voices heard against so infamous a procedure—against the appointment of men who, too apt to fight in the armies of the rebellion, seek now on their record as non-participants in the war, to foist themselves on the Union party as office-holders and rulers. Out upon such a policy! Republicans throughout the State will repudiate such men and their measures.

One often sees in the rebel press such endorsements of Copperheads, as the Bulletin has in this morning's issue from the Houston Transcript, as well as such amiable stuff as the following from the Alexandria Democrat:

"General Mowyer, pro-tem, monarch of the fifth kingdom of hell, has appointed a (full-blooded free nigger Mayor of the town of St. Martinsville. The nigger's name is Monroe Baker. How natural is it for those in the hands of the infamous rump to be instruments wondrous kind to the lowest of God's creation as the expense of their own race. A regular officer of the United States army giving preference to an ignorant, beastly nigger, and clothing him with power to rule over one thousand white men! What a country and what times!"

The most remarkable thing about this is, that Mr. Monroe Baker, the gentleman alluded to, is to all appearances a fair-haired, fair-complexioned and fair-looking Saxon, whom certainly no one, to look at the man, would suspect of having a drop of African blood in his veins. Mr. Baker claims, however, to be a colored man, and is a representative of the wealthy class of St. Martinsville, of whom the town is largely made up—men of wealth, culture and ability.

Your correspondent, who is personally acquainted with the Mayor of St. Martinsville, knows him to be fairer and ruddier—as if he were of Saxon lineage—than any of the so-called white natives—Creoles all and more or less mixed—existing in Louisiana. Pity it is that Mr. Baker and the editor of the Democrat could not be compared personally.

Mr. Love, who was removed by General Reynolds as the Judge of the Criminal Court, has just been appointed by Judge Watson, of the United States District Court, as clerk of the United States Court.

The idea of a man who cannot take the oath which the Government has imposed on all its official incumbents, sitting as an officer of the United States District Court, and administering the oath to loyal citizens!

The stretch of such an action on the part of a United States Judge, is so unbearable that Union men with one voice cry out against so gross and flagrant a wrong; and trust that Congress will speedily remedy the administration of a Court so palpably at variance with the principles and law of the nation.

If there is any further cause for the removal of our present Mayor, his recent action in the appointment of seeing Reporter, of an "unreconstructed" rebel Justice, should be enough in itself to recommend it.

Colonel Jesse Stancil, this morning qualified in the United States District Court as Register in Bankruptcy.

P. H. Lydon, Esq., the Supervisor of the 6th Registration District, passed through this city en route from Austin to Brownsville a few days ago. Mr. Lydon reports favorably of his District, and doubts not the ability of the Union men to carry the same for a Convention.

The weather is warm and sultry, something remarkable for this season of the year.
HUMPHREY.

LINKS IN THE CHAIN.

The blast that drove the storm clouds across the heavens shook the oak, and the acorn-cup, loosened from its fruit, fell on the pathway.
The cloud burst; a rain-drop filled the acorn cup.

A robin, wearied by the sultry heat of an autumn day, and troubled by the fury of the storm, hopped on the path when all was calm and drank of the rain-drop. Refreshed and gladdened, he flew to his accustomed place in the ivy that overhung the poet's window, and there he trilled the sweetest, happiest song.

The poet heard, and, rising from his reverie, wrote a chant of grateful rejoicing. The chant went forth into the world and entered the house of sorrow, and uttered its heart-stirring accents by the couch of sickness. The sorrowful were comforted, the sick were cheered. Many voices praised the poet. He said:

"The chant was inspired by the robin's song."
"I should have sunk into the earth had not the acorn-cup received me," said the rain-drop.
"I had not been there to receive you, but for the angry blast," said the acorn-cup.

And so they that were comforted praised the blast; but the blast replied: "Praise Him at whose word the storm wind arises, and who from darkness can bring light, making His mercies oftentimes to pass through unseen, and known and unsuspected channels, and bringing in due time, by His own way, too grand and elated from the angry storm-cloud!"

A Pleasant Thought.—Dr. Holland has the following reflections on seeing a lame boy who was singing a cheerful song: "It is pleasant to say to him, and all the brotherhood and sisterhood of ugliness, that there is no such thing in heaven as a one-legged club-footed soul; no such thing as an ugly or misshapen soul; no such thing as a blind or deaf soul; no such thing as a soul with tainted blood in its veins; and that out of those imperfect bodies will spring spirits of consummate perfection and angelic beauty—a beauty chastened and enriched by the humiliations that were visited upon their early habitations."

A Paris letter says: "The Prince of Wales has become quite animal; he looks like Henry VIII, and acts like George IV. But we Americans must not say one word even against him. How did he act at the exposition toward our poor little humble department? You must know that in that monster house the world is represented. Nearly every nation has a cafe; for it is too far out of the city to return always to lunch or dinner. Of course he is looked upon as being the head of the greatest nation upon earth, and great preparations were made for his reception, but he declared he would take his first lunch nowhere but in America, and to begin with, drank three soda waters without stopping."

The New York Herald proposes to get up a public subscription to present Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton a needle, a spool of thread, a thimble, and a pair of scissors, in order that she may mend her husband's shirts, darn his socks, and keep his unmentionables in good order; and suggests another subscription to supply George Francis Train, the advocate of the rampant women, who have lately been trying to bring women's rights to a point in Kansas, with a ball, moral skirt of the most modern form and dimensions, as he has promeditated discarding his habiliments lower and come out in petticoat costume.

Eight cities in Europe have Lincoln streets.

The New York Academy of Music cents for $1,200 for one ball night.

The Lawrence Journal states that one year hence Kansas will have 1,000 miles of railroad completed within her borders.

REACTION.

This is now the rebel watchword, if a gentle blackguard is seen loafing around the street corners he may be heard murmuring "Democratic victories" and with clenched teeth "revenge" the more respectable rebels are nursing their wrath for "a day of retribution," and breathing their threats against "petty tyrants who are persecuting an outraged and ruined people." While the press are loud mouthed against "mendacious loyalists" and "abolition emissaries," even the Galveston News while it pours its filthy adulations over Gen. Hancock calls the men of Fort Mason "Major Thompson's drunken soldiers," and speaks of the murderers of the Gallant Major and his Sargeant as "some young men named Taylor," while all know the Taylors to be a gang of outlawed murderers and a terror to their neighbors. Each and every rebel sheet announces in glowing terms the defeat of negro suffrage in Kansas, but the fact that rebels were forever and unconditionally disfranchised in that State, by the same vote, is passed in silence.

The disaffected elements have set up their cry for blood too soon, their threats of vengeance against Gov. Pease and his friends are premature and based upon an error. The supposed reaction at the North is not in favor of unwhipped rebels, an undefinable fear of negro suffrage together with whisky laws, woman suffrage &c., drove a large number of Union men into the democratic ranks temporarily and defeated the object of the Republican party, but even the victorious democracy universally asserts, "although we oppose negro suffrage yet IF THERE ARE BUT SIX LOYAL MEN IN A STATE, THOSE SIX MUST GOVERN." This is the language of the editors of their papers and their leaders and they with one accord agree upon negro suffrage, on an educational basis.

The late elections have developed the animus of the rebels, previous thereto, their cry was "let us forget political differences and join hands in developing the country," now the cry is "retributive justice," "revenge, revenge, revenge!" We can tell them, that we do not want retribution for our relatives they have murdered and the persecution we have suffered, but if they seek revenge let them weigh well their own strength for no arm at the North will again be raised for them.

PERRY, FLAKE'S PET.

We take the following from the New Orleans Republican in relation to Perry, the former Chief of Police of Galveston, who was removed by the solicitation of the loyal men of that city, and who was sustained by Flake's Bulletin:

GALVESTON, November 29, 1867. The following telegram has been sent to Major Williamson, Chief of Police of New Orleans:

"GALVESTON, November 26, 1867. Chief of Police, New Orleans, La.: Arrest R. H. Perry, late Chief of Police of Galveston, who slipped away Sunday to New Orleans. Said Perry is a fugitive from justice. Please send him back. FRANK DIRKS, Sheriff of Galveston county, Texas."

Perry's late confidential chief clerk, Hammerly, was yesterday arrested by order of the Mayor on charges of forgery, embezzlement and theft.

The stolen property was found in the house of Hammerly, who was locked up, and is now in jail. The authorities are after others of the gang.

The Grand Jury, now sitting, have found three bills against R. H. Perry for flagrant offenses. A list, in Perry's own handwriting, was found in the desk after his removal, on which were the names of nearly all the prominent Union men of the city, with a marginal note that those named were to be put under a thousand dollars bond, or placed in the "chain gang."

Perry's removal prevented the execution of this order, except in two cases. The developments promise to be rich.

This is the man Flake's Bulletin upheld against the Radicals. Perry was a representative man after Flake's fashion—he was death upon Radicals.

There is a species of myrtle growing in certain bayous in Louisiana, from which berries enough may be gathered in a day to make eight pounds of tallow, much harder and purer than common tallow.

Congressional and Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—SENATE. The impeachment business was resumed with considerable filibustering, lead by Logan, who finally withdrew his motion to table, and the vote was taken on the Majority resolution ordering impeachment, which was lost by 57 to 168; absent, 21.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table, and thus the impeachment ends.

A resolution suspending the power of the Secretary of the Treasury to contract currency was presented and lost—128 to 92.

HOUSE.—The House went into a Committee on the Message pending the public debt and reconstruction, to which Stevens requested several points of the Message bearing on the subject to be re-read, which was denounced as obstructing reconstruction.

Stevens' struggle against the turning tide excites admiration and pity. No one heeds the vindictive utterances of the worn-out leader.

Without further business the House adjourned.

The report of the cotton tax was before the Senate Financial Committee, where it meets with opposition.

The Danish purchases was before the Senate, and was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

General Sherman arrived to-day and visited the President and General Grant. He remains three months.

Mrs. Eastin, daughter of W. W. Corcoran and wife of General Eastin, former Congressman from Louisiana, and late with Mason and Slidell on the steamer Trent, died in France.

Making an increase of debt of $13,000,000. Coin interest is decreased $849,000; currency increased $17,000,000. Making net increase of debt of $9,701,000.

Mexican News.

WASHINGTON, December 6.—Mexican telegrams via Havana state that a demand is about being made upon Guatemala for injuries sustained in the invasion of that State.

Escobedo is reported to have said that fifteen thousand men could seize on Cuba.

Ortega is still a prisoner.

The embalmer of Maximilian has been prosecuted for selling relics of the Prince, and some of the members of Congress put in prison.

Telegrams from Havana contain further news from the West India Islands. The United States steamer Desoto and Monongahela had been totally wrecked in the storm of Santa Cruz; it is thought that most of the crews will be saved. The Susquehanna was also damaged. More earthquake shakes are reported, and everybody was trying to emigrate. The Danish Commissioner had arrived to deliver the Islands of St. Thomas to the United States.

The Austrian frigate Leararo left Havana with the remains of Maximilian for Trieste.

European--By Cable.

LONDON, December 7.—The Globe says the attitude of France retards the Conference impossible.

The Italian government granted universal amnesty to the Garibaldians.

Political affairs in Italy cause distrust in London mercantile circles, Consols declined 92 1/2.

LIVERPOOL, December 7.—Noon—Market opens steady under advices from America and improved trade reported, sales probably 12,000 uplands 7 1/2.

PARIS, December 6.—The corps of legislation, Minister Rouher defended the government policy in Italy and said while Italian unity was desirable Italy should never take possession of Rome.

FLORENCE, December 6.—Italian parliament met yesterday; prime Minister Monabres justified Garibaldi but said it was as uncertain for the Pops to have temporal power in Italy as it is for a foreign power to hold possession.

WESTON.—Weston, the great walker, performed his feat of pedestrianism from Portland Maine to Chicago Illinois, over 1200 miles inside of thirty days, and kept the Sabbaths. Along the entire route the people flocked by thousands to see him and Chicago made a perfect hero out of him. He failed to make his 100 miles in 24 consecutive hours but his failure each time was caused by the state of the road and the weather.

He arrived in Chicago on Thanksgiving day and was to make his appearance at the opera house. His fortune is made.

Mrs. Cobb has made an interesting and touching statement, claiming that she has been forced before the public by Detective Baker, most injuriously; that she never knew Mr. Johnson until he became President, when she was presented by Senators Wade and Chandler. She is in destitute circumstances.

California is going extensively into the culture of castor beans. The yield on an average is worth more than $150 to the acre.

The last valuation of the property of the State of Ohio is $1,140,000,000, nearly one half enough to pay the national debt.

An eagle in pursuit of a pigeon flew through the window of an upper story of the residence of T. W. Williams, in London, Conn., on Sunday morning. The family sent for assistance, and he was captured alive and caged.

During the past twelve years statues have been placed in the public squares in Boston. Those thus honored are Franklin, Webster, Mann, Alexander Hamilton and Everett. Probable statues of the elder Quincy and John A. Andrew will soon be added to this list.
