ARMY MEDICAL MUSEUM.—Surgeon
General Barnes, in his late report, has the following concerning the Medical Museum on Tenth street:
The Army Medical Museum having been removed to, and arranged in,
the building on Tenth street appropriated to the purpose, it was opened to the public April 14, 1867, and to September 30 had been visited by 4,245 persons, many of them medical officers of the Army, and former officers of volunteers, eminent professional men from various portions of the United States and from Europe.
An illustrated catalogue has been completed and a limited edition published by permission of the Secretary of War, for use in the museum and exchange with scientific bodies and other museums.

There had been added to the surgical and anatomical section 134 specimens, to the medical section 83, to the microscopical section 755, and to the section of comparative anatomy 690 specimens, during the year. The entire number catalogued is 8,443.
A small appropriation will be required to continue and preserve this invaluable collection.

An appalling disaster has occurred at sea during the recent storm on the coast of South America. A letter from Rio gives the following details:
"This morning a Brazilian steamer has arrived from Montevideo bringing the news of the loss of the English mail steamer Santara, in a terrible gale off that place a week ago.
She was iron-clad, and one of the finest looking steamers I ever saw.
She left the harbor of Bahia while we were at anchor there. When she went down she had on board 409
persons, including the crew and passengers. Among the latter was the English minister, who had just been relieved to enable him to make a short visit home. He with the rest was lost, only fourteen out of the whole being saved."

The Worcester Spy says: "New Bedford and Fair Haven are separated by a river, which is crossed by a bridge and ferry, but the mails between the towns go forty miles round."

GENERAL ITEMS.

The New Year reception at the White House, it is said, was the most brilliant for years. The receptions of the heads of departments were also crowded and marked by good feeling. General Grant's house was crowded from noon till after dark.

Another grand Pacific Railroad excursion is on the tapis, for the benefit of the Wall street bankers and brokers principally. The guests will be limited to two hundred and fifty, composed solely of the "solid" men of the street. The party will proceed the whole length of the road.

The British man-of-war Chanticleer and the U. S. steamer Lackawanna happened to moor besides each other at Honolulu. The "blasted Britisher" ordered his band to play "Dixie," the Yankee replied with "Wearing of the Green."

A correspondent of a Virginia paper
has a series of quibs upon the marriages of some couples in his section of the country. The following have an epigrammatic flavor:
NEILL—TIER.—On Wednesday, Mr.
William Neill to Miss Jane Tier.
A sad event, we rather fear,
She turned to kneel, and dropped
[a tear.]

WARRANT—BUCK.—On Monday, by the Rev. Mr. Seals, Henry W. Wright
to Miss Orilla Buck.
The parson seals their fate—'tis very [clear, She's right for once—the buck has got [its dear.]

The Vermont legislature have caused "inextinguishable laughter" by enacting that paupers straying into towns in which they do not belong shall be punished with a fine.

The agents of the Freedmen's Bureau South have been quietly notified not to make themselves so conspicuous in political matters. The hint was given them
by General Howard.

The Bates County, Mo., Record says, that two years ago the county had not a population of five hundred souls, nor a school, nor an organized church. Now it has forty-five public schools in operation church organizations in aim at every school district; and over three thousand one hundred persons between the ages of five and twenty-one years—showing a population already equal to that before the war. Over fifteen thousand dollars taxes have been levied for tuition the past year, and about seventeen thousand dollars for building school-houses. Twenty new school-houses are to be built this fall and winter.

Charles Dickens (who has parted from his wife) and Miss Anna Dickinson are engaged—that is, they are engaged to lecture in Buffalo. No cards.

There are now three newspapers in the world whose daily circulation is counted by the hundred thousand. First is the Petit Journal, published at one cent; in Paris; second is the Daily Telegraph, published at two cents in London; third is the Daily News, published at one cent in New York city.

Following are the names of the delegates of the Cherokee Nation, who start for Washington before the 6th instant:
General W. F. Adair, J. F. Foy, John
Davis, Henry D. Reese, Samuel Smith, Archy Seraper, Jim McDaniel, and the principal chief Lewis Downing.

The "Knights of the Sawdust" were in a big stew yesterday, in consequence of one of the circus managers absoonding with the "spondulicks" of the establishment, leaving them "flat broke" in a strange place without money to pay for their board and lodging; although a large amount was due them. Their trunks and other articles have been seized by the Sheriff to satisfy the claims of their creditors, and they are certainly "in a bad way." We know nothing of the facts and therefore can make no
comments.—Houston Telegraph.

The Louisiana Republican nominating convention has nominated H. C. War-mouth for Governor, T. E. Dumas, colored, of New Orleans, for Lieutenant Governor, and Geo. Beecher for Secretary of State.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Parties arrived in our town from Bryan acquaint us with a very sad accident, which occurred near Blackburn's store, on the night of the 19th.—The youngest son of Mr. Thomas Williams, in company with two other boys, went out to hunt cattle, and when the day was spent they camped in the woods. During the night a dead tree caught fire from their camp-fire and burned until it fell. The unfortunate lad lay sleeping where it fell, and was crushed to death.—[Waxahatchie Argus,
Dec. 20.]

We are authorized to announce E. DEGENER as a candidate for Delegate to the Convention, from this District.

WHAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF TEXAS IS EXPECTED TO DO.

A party with no other object than its simple organization would be a sublime folly. The Republican party of Texas, organized principally through the Union League of America, has a mighty task before it.

The Republican party of Texas is expected to carry out to a successful issue the reconstruction measures of Congress, which means a State restored to the American Union with the political rights of each citizen in its limits forever secured; which means equality at the ballot box and before the law; which means death to human slavery and Southern slave aristocracy; which means political peace, domestic peace, restored confidence, common schools, emigration, railroads, in short everything desirable to us as a people.

In our midst is a standing army, kept here at the expense of the nation, for no other purpose than to keep under whipped but not conquered treason, to render protection to loyal men and preserve peace. The Republican party is expected to do away with this necessity, to restore civil government and throw the strong arm of the law about the weak and the oppressed.

A military bureau, for the protection of the newly enfranchised freedmen is maintained among us at a heavy expense to the nation, and affording at best a poor protection to those people, and keeping up in fact, the old hated plantation system which must prove a failure in a community of freedmen. The Republican party is expected to do away with the necessity of this bureau.

The Republican party of Texas is expected to carry the State in favor of a Constitutional Convention, to form and adopt a Republican Constitution and forever wrest the power from those who have sought to destroy the Union.

Wolves in Sheep's Clothing.

It is a coincidence which the people of Texas are beginning to notice with surprise, that while President Johnson, the Conservative Republicans, the Democrats of the North, and the Conservative people of the South, are all hoping and laboring to defeat the Radical program for Africanizing the South, we have a few so-called Conservative journals, with a corporal guard of supporters, who seek to rush us into a support of that programme.

STANTON AND JOHNSON BEFORE CONGRESS.

The report of the Senate Military Committee upon Secretary Stanton's case, condemn Johnson in all history to come as the most despicable of American Presidents. We clip the following sentences from this lengthy document, in relation to Johnson's attempt to throw the blame of the New Orleans riot upon Stanton:

"Mr. Johnson, in his report, seeks to throw off from himself all responsibility of the riot, and denies that he was warned in time. This denial, in the face of the uncontroverted and incontrovertible facts of the case, admits of but one reply; and that is, that it is untrue, and known to be so to Mr. Johnson. He was warned and fully warned, and fully warned of the impending violence, and it is in vain for him to deny a fact so well established."

And also this, which is the summary up of the opinion of the Committee: "When the character of a faithful public officer is thus assailed, and the Chief Magistrate, in order to accomplish his ruin, presents himself as a false accuser, we think the duty of the Senate is plain to refuse their concurrence in the suspension."

Stanton was reinstated, and by his reinstatement and complete vindication before the highest tribunal in the world, his Presidential accuser is proportionally disgraced in the eyes of the civilized world. To no other one man is the nation more indebted to the successful termination of the war than Stanton, and as he was so powerful in helping to destroy armed treason, we feel certain that he will be powerful in counteracting the evil plans of Johnson and his rebel political host.

[SPECIAL DESPACHES TO THE EXPRESS.]

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, January 19.—Great effort will be made soon to admit Colorado; it is claimed that the population has largely increased since the President vetoed its admission and the people are now anxious for admission.

HOUSE.—Among the bills introduced was one to compel steamboats to carry the newly invented fire extinguishers.

One bill introduced to pay officers and musicians for horses lost during the service; and several other bills regulating immunities of American citizens abroad.

Butler's amendment vacating offices and allowing the Conventions to fill them, failed and without reaching a vote adjourned.

WASHINGTON, January 20.—SENATE.—Among the memorials is one from the city council and chamber of commerce of New Orleans relative to bonds for building the Opelousas, New Orleans and Great Western Railroad.

The Secretary of the Treasury is called on for the list of vessels purchased during the war and the costs.

Considerable time was devoted to consular affairs.

The Senate refused to recede from the cotton tax.

Wade appealed to Sherman, Conkling and Morrill for conference. The Senate refused to recede from the amendment to the anti-contraction bill.

A committee of conference was appointed.

The consideration of the case of Senator Thomas from Maryland was resumed and without action.

The Senate went into executive session and adjourned.

Grant has gone to Richmond. Alfred Hunt appointed Postmaster of Gonzalez Texas. Wm. Heafner appointed Postmaster of Shreveport La., and Albert G. Gridley, General Appraiser of measures for the Southwest, nominated.

The Secretary of Treasury sent a communication to the Senate regarding cotton claims.

It appears that the court of claims denied appeal to the Supreme Court and that the Secretary after ascertaining as nearly as possible the net amount due on judgment, court of claims paid them.

The Chief Justice not on the bench to-day on account of sickness, causing much disappointment and delaying the McCord decision.

EUROPE.

LONDON, January 19.—George Francis Train on being searched nothing was found to warrant his arrest. Train says he came to the country as a correspondent to the New York World and formally protested to the American Consul against his detention.

The stock of the gunshops in Limerick have been seized by the police to put it out of reach of the Fenians.

Dr. Matras, Editor Dublin, and Chipman has been arrested.

Fenian proclamations are found posted on the hotels and markets here.

The remains of Maximilian have arrived at Vienna and a great funeral procession took place.

Mrs. Marrill who fired Clerkenwell with fuse has been arrested at Glasgow and has been conveyed to London heavily ironed.

A Fenian manifesto was found yesterday morning posted on the Marscol.

The boldness of the Fenians notwithstanding the vigorous government measures excites uneasiness.

Great pomp was exhibited at Maximilian's obsequies.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, January 19.—Gold 139 1/2.

NEW ORLEANS, January 20.—Cotton quiet; Middling 17 1/4; holders asking higher; sales 3,000 bales; receipts since Saturday 6,997 bales.

LONDON, January 19.—Cotton 92 1/2 to 92 3/4. Bonds 73.

LIVERPOOL, January 19.—Cotton firm and unchanged; sales 15,000 bales.

FRANKFURT has not forgotten his sarcasm; he is in fellowship with rebels, and never loses an opportunity to abuse negroes. Here is an example:

"It is hardly worth while for the radicals to talk any more about the confiscation of Southern lands. Those lands are as good or as bad as confiscated already. They sell for a mere song. A nimble nigger in a favorable location can steal enough property over night to buy forty acres of ground early the next morning."

A Colored Clergyman on Social Equality.

Rev. Mr. Butler, a colored minister, addressed the Kentucky Colored Convention, at Louisville, a few days ago, as follows:

"The future of this country depends, not so much on what party is in power, as it does on the removal of all disabilities; they weigh down its people. Then, and not until then, will the country have peace. We don't ask for social equality. I never saw that white woman yet that looked so well, in my eyes, as a good brown colored woman. And if it wasn't so, we don't need their social equality, because our friends, the white folks, have kindly managed it so that we have every shade to choose from, the deepest jet black to the palest white. [Laughter.] And, as there are no ladies present, allow me to say that the practice of social equality has not been on our side, but on the part of the whites, who, in their dark and devious ways, were not always able, let us charitably suppose, to tell black from white. This social equality has not been sought by us, but they have run after us; and though we are now emancipated and free, they haven't stopped."

A voice—"We'll stop it when we get the testimony."

"Yes, that's so. They better not come my way even now. We say to them, let us alone; we don't want any mixture. If they had let me alone I might have known what color I was; but as it is my greatest trouble is to keep my hair just right. Don't talk about social equality. If I was a white man in Kentucky I would hide my head; I wouldn't mention it with so many evidences standing around of my social equality. We don't want any more of it. Keep on your side of the line and we'll keep on our side, and in the course of time we'll get back where God left us."

A pure gold Saxon finger-ring was recently ploughed up near Duffield, England, which was twelve hundred years old.

The above paragraph has been published in every paper in the United States; they are estimated at twelve thousand (300 to each State,) averaging three lines, at ten cents per line, it would have cost three thousand six hundred (3,600) dollars. See what the papers sometimes do gratuitously!

Letter from Secretary McCulloch

New York, December 27.—A President of a Boston bank has received the following letter:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, December 24, 1867. My Dear Sir—Your favor of the 21st instant is received. There is a good difference of opinion among members of Congress in regard to what shall be our financial policy. At the commencement of the session it seemed that the inflationists were a decided majority, but before adjournment for the holidays a more conservative spirit was manifested, and I am quite hopeful that there will be no legislation by the present Congress favorable to the views of General Butler, which are very adverse to those of the Secretary. We shall know better, however, when Congress again convenes. With thanks for the uniform support which I have received at your hands, I remain, truly yours, H. McCULLOCH.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer writes: "Any person who has a capital Q in his name cannot be President of the United States. See the number of great statesmen who have been beaten as candidates: George Clinton, Charles C. Pickens, De. Wm. Clinton, Wm. H. Crawford, Henry Clay, Lewis Cass, John C. Fremont, John C. Brickeridge, George B. McClellan (and other names.) John C. Calhoun, Simon Cameron, J. J. Crittenden, S. P. Chase and others."

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Alamo Lodge, No. 44. SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, January 15, 1868.

Inasmuch as it is has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe to remove from our midst our beloved brother, Major G. G. BOWMAN, U. S. A., who departed this life at Camp Verde, Texas, on the 13th instant; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of Alamo Lodge, No. 44, escort the body of our brother, in conjunction with the military, to the outskirts of the city. And be it further

Resolved, That we deeply deplore the death of our brother, and sympathize with his family and friends, and more especially his brother officers, who have lost a deeply valued friend and gallant companion. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the city papers, and also forwarded to the Lodge of which he was a member.

Local Intelligence.

CURIOUS FREARS OF A PAUPER.—Yesterday our worthy County Judge—Gamble—was approached by a well dressed man who slipped the Judge familiarly on the back and invited himself into the parlor to have a "chat." This individual proved to be one Jeremiah Klanch, who has been on the pauper list over a year—all through the rebel Throckmorton rule—receiving most of the time thirty dollars per month. The new government appointed by General Reynolds revised the pauper list and reduced it several thousand dollars per year. Among the names dropped was this object of charity, Klanch. Now comes the "curious freak." After patronizing the Judge, Klanch proceeded to the County Court room, on his fine horse, and demanded in pompous tones his warrant for his pauper allowance. The County Clerk, Mr. Smythe, informed him of the change. Without further argument, Mr. object-of-charity rolled up his sleeves and "went it" on the County Clerk a la Heenan, and it took four stout policemen to secure this vampire, who is a physical giant, hale and hearty, and better able to work than nineteen-twentieths of those who pay taxes.

THE SAVOR OF THE PAS-DE-DEUX FIRM.—The Ex Mayor, he who built a turnpike to his tannery, at the public expense, generally known in town as "old Lyons" is said to be "mightily worked up" on account of our publishing a statement of the fact that as Mayor he decided himself a ten acre lot belonging to the city. His catching green bottle flies on the wall of "Bascom's Grocery," and crushing them in his hand, will not deter us from publishing all facts that may come to light relating to the late mis-government of our city.

SOLDIERS.—The gallantry of the "Yankees" towards the fair sex, is not alone dependent upon the Officers of this Post for maintenance. Hardly a week passes, that one or more of the enlisted men of the garrison do not entwine daughters of the city in the meshes of hyphen. Two cases are on record this week. The Boys in blue cannot resist the limpid black eyes and soft olive complexion of the Astor girls.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of B. Oppenheimer & Co., in our advertising columns. Their stock is new and complete throughout, ladies coming to the city must not fail to see it before purchasing.

FAIR DAUGHTERS OF THE SOUTH.—A crisis is upon you, and you must do your duty. It is "Leap Year,"—your time has come to "pop" the question and do the sparking. No time is to be lost—if the opportunity passes, another four years may find you irredeemably shelved among old maids.

SPIRIT OF THE HERALD.—The Senior of the above named sheet in the absence of the Day has charge of the loat; here is how he does it: Yesterday morning Isaiah Martin an employee in the Herald office was arrested before the Mayor's Court for mutilating public posters containing a call for a mass meeting of Republicans, by cutting out letters and leaving obscene words before the public. The facts were proven and are now on record, the prisoner was let off on account of his extreme youth with a reprimand.

This is a smart way that concerns us of keeping up its dignity.

MASS MEETING.—Don't forget the Mass Meeting this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the Court House; let every Republican be on hand; the weather is delightful and we must show our strength.

WHERE IS JONES?—Many of our merchants are on the hunt for Jones who was consigned with the drummers, and purchased the worthless kerrosine burners. Jones is in town, but fortunately we have but few such men among our merchants, those few should be protected from the sharks however, we know that drummers are considered no better than gamblers in many States, and legitimate trade is being killed in our State, the matter calls loudly for reform.

PRAYER MEETING.—This service will be held by the members of the Presbyterian church at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Martin this evening at 7 o'clock.

DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Stribling presiding, was in session yesterday. The Criminal Docket was called up, many cases had become obsolete and were ordered off the docket; while others were continued for want of service, the only case yet tried by jury, was decided. It was Dean vs. Dean, the petitioner asks for a divorce, set forth "desertion and ill treatment" as grounds for action; the jury granted the petitioners request and ordered the only child into her custody. Court continues to day.

ROX OVER.—A three year old child of Mr. E. Braden's, was run over yesterday by a heavy cart. Strango to say the little fellow escaped with a slightly bruised foot, and a big scare.

"Blind Stagers."
From the Kingstree Star of South Carolina we clip the following card, which reveals a frightful case of negro-phobia. That the Stagger family, of South Carolina, should be forced to compete for a living with any colored men who can pick up a little education; that the descendants of a long line of Stagers should be compelled in coming years to learn their letters or fall back in the social scale behind the enterprising little black and quadroom children, who have gone to a Yankee school; that the veritable Stagers themselves, who sign the lucid document hereto attached, fully equal in its conception, clearness, and forcible wording to the President's Hancock proclamation; that these very Stagers, bearing a medical diploma, and doubtless for years accustomed to swear and spit and reel among the pine forests and sand hills of the Carolinas, should be reduced to political equality with a "nigger," a likely yellow boy, is harrowing.

To the Respectable White Citizens of the State:
Dr. J. W. Stagers and J. G. Stagers have concluded to change their names to that of Standard, of Grand Maternal descent on paternal side of Virginia fame in years gone by from the fact that the larger number of their former places have assumed their name; and as it is likely it will be alienized in time to come, they are determined not to be on an equality with them socially, since their original position from slaves to freedmen has been changed by no agency of theirs, but by the demagogues of the country and from the fact that in the scale of creation their rank is inferior even descending to the beast as per Ariel, of which I am convinced.

J. G. STAGGERS.

MADAME GARNIER BERNARD.
Has the honor to announce to the citizens of San Antonio, that she has opened a school to teach the French language, also to instruct in dress making and embroidering. Persons who will favor her with their patronage, may convince themselves in advance, of good results.

PUBLIC ACTS OF THE THIRTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the first session which was begun and held at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, on Thursday, the fourth day of July, A. D. 1861, and ended on Tuesday, the sixth day of August, A. D. 1861.

[This session was called by Proclamation of the President, dated April 15th, 1861.]

By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, on the fifteenth day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, the President of the United States, in view of an insurrection against the Laws, Constitution, and Government of the United States, which had broken out within the States of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, and in pursuance of the provisions of the act, entitled "an act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions, and to repeal the act now in force for that purpose," approved February twenty-eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, did call forth the militia to suppress said insurrection, and to cause the laws of the Union to be duly executed, and the insurgents have failed to disperse by the time directed by the President; and whereas, such insurrection has since broken out, and yet exists, within the States of Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Arkansas; and whereas, the insurgents in all the said States claim to act under the authority thereof, and such claim is not disclaimed or repudiated by the persons exercising the functions of government in such State or States; or in the parts thereof in which such combinations exist, nor has such insurrection been suppressed by said States:
