How THEY DO IT IN NEW YORK.—I point of numbers, the bell of the Schillerbund at the Germania Assembly Rooms last evening was a perfect success. Kings trod on the heels of clowns, plantation negroes irritated the ears of queens, incipient "Moses" punched Spanish dons, flower girls ran against chimney sweeps, apex elbowed Sultans and Sultanas, and mock Mephistophiles crushed the wings of angels. All this in a thermometer among the antics. Dancing was simply agony. During the evening, a procession, representing the different States of Germany revolving around Yankee Doodle, closing with a tableau in which Columbia offers a crown of roses to Schiller was produced, but it made no impression on the spectators, who were packed against the side of the house like upright bundles of knitting-needles, powerless of motion, Peculiarly, the ball was a success; popularly, a failure.

A CENTRE SHOT.—Henry Ward Beecher, in a sermon delivered in Plymouth Church, produced the following picture:

Men seem ashamed of labor, and often you will find men who have made themselves respected by labor, have built up a business, and amassed a fortune, who turn to their sons and say: "You shall never do as I did, you shall lead a different life; you shall be spared all this." Oh, these rich men's sons! They aim to lead a life of unassisted idleness and laziness. Like the poly that floats useless and nasty upon the sea, all jelly and flabby, no muscles, no bone—it shuts and opens, and opens and shuts, and sucks in and squirts out again, of no earthly account, influence or use. Such are these poor fools. Their parents toiled and grew strong, built up their farms of iron and bone; but denying all this to their sons, they turn them upon the world hopeless, muscleless—simply gristle and soft at that.

A few days since a man in Kansas City, Mo., got into an altercation with several females in a house of ill-fame, when he was attacked by the entire party, badly beaten, and cut with knives, and was finally thrown out of a second story window.

General Ponsalet, the officer who arrested Louis Napoleon in 1836, at Strasburg, died recently at Paris. He had become one of the most famous mathematicians of France.

From Colorado papers we learn that the rioters' war at Trinidad has ended. Gen. Penrose, of Fort Lyon, settled the troubles by arriving with troops, and enforcing the exercise of the civil authority.

Naj. Ben. Parly Poore is about to write the history of the Washington correspondents, "Newspaper Row" will be rejoiced to know that the book will be illustrated by "Ned Jump," of Frank Leslie's newspaper.

At Vicksburg fires are becoming so frequent that insurance companies are cancelling policies. The city council has passed an ordinance enrolling all able bodied citizens in a body to be known as a special city police.

A correspondent suggests a title for new look on America which Mr. Dickens will probably publish after his return to England. His former one was called "American Notes for General Circulation." Having so strong an evidence of the "golden opinion" which we entertain of him and his genius, it seems to us an appropriate name for his new work on our country would be, "American Specie for the Redemption of American Notes."

Mr. George Warren, of Groesdyke divorce case notoriety, was caught by a Chicago policeman the other day, in negro guise, with face blacked, hauling a wagon, in which was a small still. He had been ransacking the still in a house from which attention had been diverted by a placard of "small pox on the door." So Mr. Warren seems to be after something illicit, still.

James Gordon Bennett, Jr., having thoroughly demonstrated that he could not edit the New York Herald, is now, according to the Charleston News, at the head of a company of Philadelphia capitalists, formed for the cultivation of lands in the South. If the ability to disperse the largest amount of capital, in the shortest space of time, with the smallest returns, fits a man for a residence in South Carolina, Mr. Bennett, Jr., is well qualified to shine in the Palmetto State.

FIGURES WON'T LIE.

Since giving the facts in relation to the election of Gen. Beatty the Radical candidate from Ohio's VIIIth Congressional district, we have looked over the figures and found the exact reaction in comparison with the vote on negro suffrage in that District last year. To give our authority we will say we got the figures from the "New York World's" Almanac for 1868. The District named is composed of five counties whose inhabitants will compare favorably with the like number of people in any part of the world, in point of intelligence, industry and honesty. Last fall this district gave 1475 majority against negro suffrage, against Congress and for "my policy" The Democrats have persistently ignored all votes except that on the suffrage question, they have always said that it exhibited the real feeling among the people; even at the risk of impugning the veracity of the eminent organ of the "white man's" party of this city, we will state that Gen. Beatty was a thorough radical, only in sympathy with the Congressional majority, and opposed to "my policy." Even that sacred authority of southern rebels—"Brick Pomeroy"—admits this. Notwithstanding this, and the fact that Burns, the Generals opponent, was an out and out white man, he was beaten by 1350 votes, making the actual gain for the Radical ticket, 2825, in less than 12,000 votes, all in the District. We have seen the "reliable contraband" and he believes the reaction constitutional and furthermore, that the "publican party can stand it." In the language of Nasby "Ror."

DEVINE.

This slimy Confederate confessor. The "Uriah Heep" of San Antonio, the martyr who is wearing himself out in the service of the "dear people" has been boasting around, that "four-eyed" Taylor would certainly recover five thousand dollars damages from the city. "Yea, Gentlemen," five thousand dollars, "clear case sir, clear case." But, when the case came to be ventilated, and the rulings of Justice Briggs given in accordance with the law and evidence Devine and the stentorian Duncan, he who has degenerated from the "Cannibals of Scots" left the court room in disgust. Devine's organ gave a terrible fling at Justice Briggs, yesterday, and persons say the Judge and confessor has a morang-dog look than ever. He shows every symptom of madness, and it is suggested that he should be smothered to keep him from hurting any one. We have an obituary prepared headed "Too much nigger." Seriously this whole community is being outraged in the person of the Mayor. Supposing Devine succeeds in his ballish designs, the community suffers and pays the money. The Mayor simply follows the law against disturbers of the peace.

ARREST OF GOV. JENKINS OF GEORGIA.—Jenkins of Georgia after being removed by Gen. Mead, proceeded to Washington to be under the very droppings of Andy. The money of the State having been removed to New York. Gen. Mead telegraphed to the Secretary of War, to arrest Jenkins and send him back to be kept in confinement until the public money is returned.

With a view to correspond, who submitted to break bulk and land the said without being subject to the payment of additional duty thereon. But if, on examination, the superior agent of customs detect any fraud in the revenue in the then the goods shall be subject to forfeiture.

A FEW REASONS WHY WE SHOULD VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

1st. We should sustain a Union Mayor and Council at an expense of forty thousand a year, instead of a Rebel Mayor at one hundred and twenty thousand.

2nd. Sustain a party that will enforce a statute law instead of lynch law.

3d. Sustain the party that will help you punish the murders of your fathers and brothers, instead of the party that will make heroes of the murderers.

4th. Sustain the party that will reduce public expenses, instead of the party that seeks power to enable them to make you pay the rebel debt including pay for emancipated slaves.

5th. Look over the city map and see the names of Devine, Sam Smith, Lyons and the other "leaders" of that crew on all the fine property, once belonging to our city.

Sustain the party that will redeem three hundreds of thousands, for the benefit of your schools, instead of the party that seeks to steal the little that remains.

6th. The rebel legislature under Throckmorton paid twenty thousand dollars per mile out of our taxes for a railroad from Houston up through the Eastern part of the State, and not a dollar was ever expended West of the Colorado River. The late rebel representatives from Bezar voted for the R. R. Bill.

Sustain Union candidates who will demand improvement in the West in proportion to our taxes, instead of candidates who will spend your money in persecuting the laboring man.

7th. Finally sustain the party that will bring peace and plenty, instead of the party that openly declares their policy to be a WAR OF RACES.

The Democratic National Platform.

We have given the Devine platform of Bezar County to our readers pretty extensively in the past week. We will now give the National Platform to show how well the party works together.

The Democrats in the Georgia Reconstruction Convention, declared by their votes and speeches on Thursday last:

- 1st. That the States have a right to secede.
2d. That there is no such crime as treason against the United States.
3d. That Jefferson Davis is not a traitor.
4th. That Georgia has a legal right to go out of the Union.
The necessary inference from these premises is:
1st. That the war was unconstitutional.
2d. That the rebel armies were composed of honorable men defending their sacred and inalienable rights.
3d. That the Union armies were composed of murderers.
4th. That the national debt was illegally incurred.
5th. That slavery is not lawfully abolished.

These doctrines will constitute the basis of the Democratic national platform. They are the doctrines which Geo. H. Pondleton has uniformly and consistently maintained. They are the principles for which the unreconstructed whites of the South are everywhere contending. To aid them in securing these "rights" the Northern Democracy oppose the reconstruction policy of Congress. A more comprehensive statement of the issues of the campaign could not easily be made.

It only remains to add that a rebel soldier, who had had one of his legs shot off, and who believes that the war is ended, made a speech in the Convention denouncing the Democratic party, and demanding that the new constitution of Georgia shall have a clause declaring that secession is treason, and that future traitors shall be punished with death. The treason clause was carried by a strict party vote—73 yeas to 45 noes.

Our readers will see the vote indicates the fact that Sherman "spent five days in Georgia," and per-consequence "the d—d nigger's ahead."

YESTERDAY THE COACHES in the employ of the Republican Executive Committee were active and did much good in bringing up the sick and lame, all these things speak of vitality; yet it is the individual influence of each one of us that must be brought into requisition in this great trial for strength, between the people and the dishonest office-holder. Remember that the ins are now at their places by virtue of a military order.

WORK!! WORK!!

Yesterday the coaches in the employ of the Republican Executive Committee were active and did much good in bringing up the sick and lame, all these things speak of vitality; yet it is the individual influence of each one of us that must be brought into requisition in this great trial for strength, between the people and the dishonest office-holder. Remember that the ins are now at their places by virtue of a military order.

The sore-heads—have been kicked out. Remember that the present administration expend $2000 per month while the out-lets used $10,000 per month, they are crazy to get hold of the money bags again. Let every honest citizen who regards the heavy taxes they are now paying to liquidate Lyon's debts. Come up and vote. Stir up your luke warm neighbor, see that he comes to the polls and votes the Republican ticket. The silly trash about a "white man's party" has been fully exposed and we see it to be nothing but the thieves party. Don't give your neighbor an opportunity to say hereafter that you beat the honest ticket by your own carelessness. Vote! Vote! Vote!

BEZAR COUNTY. Look on this Picture and then on this.

We select a few names from the Republican committees and a few from the Conservative (Rebel) committees that our citizens may know who they are asked to honor.

- REPUBLICAN. CAPT. FISK, DR. HERTZBERG, SAMUEL BELL, JUDGE STRIBLING, E. MONDRAGON, GOVERNOR UJHAZI. CONSERVATIVE (REBEL). COL. GEO. H. SWEET, CAPT. PENALOZA, JUDGE DEVINE, ROSENHEIMER, MAYOR J. H. LYONS, ED. BRADEN, W. B. KNOX.

VOTE WITH THE STRONG PARTY.—Our dispatches from Medina, Wilson and other outside counties of the district, inform us that they are coming up to the work nobly. Medina stands over two hundred majority, and Wilson will give three hundred majority for the Republican ticket.

The rebels have out yellow tickets in our midst to fool some body who may have as little sense as they have,—they are voting the Degner and Fisher ticket, in hopes to beat Mr. Newcomb, but Mr. Degner's withering denunciation of that scheme on Saturday night last, killed it. Mr. Newcomb's bold course has won him ten supporters where one weak need, jealous, pretended loyalist will desert his principles for personal spite.

OUR PLATFORM—ANOTHER CAMPAIGN DOCUMENT.

The last illustration by Professor Iwonski, is more effective if possible than the answer of the Germans to the rebel appeal in the murderers' apologist. "Our Platform" represents all the malignant rebels, the disappointed office-holders, and a few renegade Yankees who "can't go the nigger," holding up a platform, upon which stands poor little Charley Fischer, in an attitude of fear and trembling. The actors of the late pas-de-deux supply the music, while the two prominent figures of the "German Answer" carry the American banner at half mast. The fertility of the artist's brain is equal to Nasby, of Harper's Weekly celebrity, and we will hear of "more richness" before the campaign is over.

Local Intelligence.

ONE DAILY PAPER.

The San Antonio Express is the only Daily paper published in West Texas. We publish FIFTY TWO PAPERS A YEAR MORE THAN THE HERALD.

We give daily dispatches, while that concern only gives them three times a week.

Subscribe for the only daily paper in the city and support enterprise.

BADLY PRINTED.—The Murderer's apologist came to us yesterday so badly printed we could not read it; sending out for a plainer copy, we soon saw the reason; the Yankee ink was ashamed to mix itself with such an awful combination of Yankee type.

MARTYRS.—The valliant "white man's candidate" who failed to build up a reputation for bravery, comes out in a new role. He now appears as a martyr, he went into a saloon with the love sick Local of ye Apologist, to take a drink, and lo! the cat-paw was "gobbled" by a policeman and taken to the military guard house, charged with carrying deadly weapons. A warrant was immediately issued by the Rebel King, the ramped dispenser of treason, for the arrest of Marshal Payne. Devine may be seen again wringing his clammy hands with humble ecstasy at the prospects of getting another five thousand dollars out of the pockets of the people for dishonest purposes. Proper measures have been taken to stop these men in their dirty tricks.

Wheel Horse.

MAJOR STANHAM came to town Monday to use his influence among the negroes in behalf of a "white man's party" but beforehand, expressed himself opposed to "gittin in the paper." The Major went over to the court house and rallied the freedmen around him and commenced exhorting them. Finally one of his colored listeners asked, "How many niggers did you lose?" The Major counted upon his fingers sixteen "big niggers" and thirty-one "little niggers," one of the depraved wretches remarked, "Well Major we don't blame you for voting the white man's ticket," whereat all the impudent crowd of "niggers" sent up such a shout of mirth, that the Major could hardly keep from drawing his quirt and giving them a few lashes, old times like you know. The Major is now a believer of the total depravity of the colored race.

EAGLE PASS.—Our figures about Eagle Pass in yesterday's paper made us tell a little fib. Our despatch reads "23 Republican." The official report will set at rest the speculations of the murderers' apologist. We are not in want of any assistance to pay for our private despatches; so white men need not apply.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.—That the "ex-rebels" are now the only truly loyal and constructive party in the South—honestly and earnestly laboring to bring about a restoration of the Union, as our Fathers made it; while the disloyalists and State ex-patriates are represented and personated in the standard banners of the Radical ticket.—S. A. Herald.

Before the arrival of Winfield Scott Hancock to this District, the rebels kept their infamous record back; they showed some degree of decency and to their military masters at least, they exhibited a becoming degree of shame for their four years folly. Now, however, they get in conclave and in a series of resolutions in which the late Hero of the Potomac is praised; they declare themselves the champions of the late confederates. "Side here we see, in a paper that has gloated over the assassination of Lincoln, and more recently championized Gen. Hancock, a bold avowal; that to be an ex-rebel is the highest recommendation for preferment and honor. Really General you will deserve the gratitude of your fellow soldiers to a high degree. Do you aspire to the boots of McClellan!

MEAN TRICK.—We learn that one man in the community has belittled himself so much as to discharge his workmen because they voted against his wishes. We are proud to say it was not a native Southerner who did this, but one of our Northern sneaks. It is a bad rule that don't work both ways; the laborer is the most independent, and if they will quite themselves and resolve not to work for such fellows, for love nor money; spot them and have nothing to do with them; avoid them as you would the leoprous, the scene will soon change. The time has really come when the big dogs are the little ones.

OUR FACILITIES.

The Daily Express has grown with the most wonderful rapidity known in newspaper enterprise, with daily dispatches from all parts of the World, and correspondents in the principal cities; in a wonderful short space of time it has sprung from the start to the most advanced outpost of enterprising Journalism.

OUR WEEKLY EXPRESS. A splendid eight page forty column paper, containing less advertising and more reading matter than any paper of its size in the country. We have never found it necessary to appeal to the friends of the Union to support this journal, as its merits have been acknowledged at home and abroad, having subscribers and correspondents in twenty-three States of the Union and in Europe. Every town and every Post office neighborhood in Texas, should receive a Club of the Weekly Express. It is to the interest of all peace loving citizens to scatter broad cast throughout the State, the truths in its columns. To do this, let every reader induce his neighbor to subscribe, after reading his paper, each subscriber can do his paper up and forward it to a loyal friend who will raise a Club in a region where the paper is not known.

OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,
Passed at the Second Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

TREATIES.

Treaty of Peace, Amity, and Commerce, between the United States of America and China. Concluded, 18th June, 1858. Ratified by the United States, 21st December, 1858. Proclaimed by the President of the United States, 26th January, 1860.

By the President of the United States of America: A PROCLAMATION.

Article XXV. It shall be lawful for the officers or citizens of the United States to employ scholars and people of any part of China, without distinction of persons, to teach any of the languages of the empire, and to assist in literary labors; and the persons so employed shall not for that cause be subject to any injury on the part either of the government or of individuals; and it shall be theasher be lawful for citizens of the United States to purchase all manner of books in China.

Article XXVI. Relations of peace and amity between the United States and China being established by this treaty, and the vessels of the United States being admitted to trade freely to and from the ports of China open to foreign commerce: it is further agreed that, in case at any time hereafter China should be at war with any foreign nation whatever, and should for that cause exclude such nation from entering her ports, still the vessels of the United States shall not be less continue to pursue their commercial freedom and security, and to transport goods to and from the ports of the belligerent powers, full respect being paid to the neutrality of the flag of the United States. Provided, That the said flag shall not protect vessels engaged in the transportation of officers or soldiers in the enemy's service, nor shall said flag be fraudulently used to enable the enemy's ships, with their cargoes, to enter the ports of China; but all such vessels so offending shall be subject to forfeiture and confiscation to the Chinese government.

Article XXVII. All questions in regard to rights, whether of property or person, arising between citizens of the United States in China shall be subject to the jurisdiction and regulated by the authorities of their own government; and all controversies occurring in China between citizens of the United States and the subjects of any other government shall be regulated by the treaties existing between the United States and such governments, respectively, without interference on the part of China.

Article XXVIII. If citizens of the United States have special occasion to address any communication to the Chinese local officers of government, they shall submit the same to their consul or other officer, to determine if the language be proper and respectful, and the matter just and right, in which event he shall transmit the same to the appropriate authorities for their consideration and action in the premises. If subjects of China have occasion to address the consul of the United States, they may address him directly at the same time they inform their own officers, representing the case for his consideration and settlement in the premises; and if controversies arise between citizens of the United States and subjects of China, which cannot be amicably settled otherwise, the same shall be examined and decided conformably to justice and equity by the public officers of the two nations, sitting in conjunction. The extortion of illegal fees is expressly prohibited. Any peaceable person is allowed to enter the court in order to interpret, feast, injustice be done.

Article XXIX. The principles of the Christian religion, as professed by the Protestant and Roman Catholic churches, are recognized as teaching men to do good, and to do to others as they would have others do to them. Hereafter those who quietly profess and teach these doctrines shall not be harassed or persecuted on account of their faith. Any person, whether citizen of the United States or Chinese convert, who, according to these tenets, peacefully teach and practise the principles of Christianity, shall not be harassed or persecuted with or without a fee.

Article XXX. The contracting parties do hereby agree that should at any time the Ta-Tsing Empire grant to any nation, any right, privilege, or favor, connected either with navigation, commerce, political or other intercourse, which is not conferred by this treaty, such right, privilege, and favor shall at once freely extend to the benefit of the United States, its public officials, merchants, and citizens.

The present treaty of peace, amity, and commerce shall be ratified by the President of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, within one year, or sooner, if possible, and by the august Sovereign of the Ta-Tsing Empire forthwith; and the ratifications shall be exchanged within one year from the date of the signatures thereof.

In faith whereof, we, the respective plenipotentiaries of the United States of America and of the Ta-Tsing Empire, as aforesaid, have signed and sealed these presents.

Done at Tientsin this eighteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-second, and in the eighth year of Hienfung, fifth month, and eighth day.

WILLIAM B. REED, (U.S.)
KWEILIANG, (U.S.)
HWAHANA, (U.S.)

As it whereas the said treaty has been duly ratified on both parts, and the respective ratifications of the same have been exchanged:

Now, therefore, be it known that JAMES BUCHANAN, President of the United States of America, have caused the said treaty to be made public to the end that the same, and every clause and article thereof, may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States and the citizens thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year [U.S.] of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-fourth, JAMES BUCHANAN.

By the President:
LEWIS CABE,
Secretary of State.

Convention between the United States and China for the Regulation of Trade. Concluded November 8, 1856.

Whereas a treaty of peace, amity, and commerce between the Ta-Tsing Empire and the United States of America was concluded at Tientsin, and signed at the Temple of Hail-Kwang on the eighteenth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, corresponding with the eighth day of the fifth moon of the eighth year of Hienfung: which said treaty was duly ratified by His Majesty the Emperor of China on the third day of July following, and which has been now transmitted for ratification by the President of the United States, with the advice and consent of the Senate; and whereas in the said treaty it was provided among other things that the tariff of duties to be paid by citizens of the United States on the export and import of goods from and into China shall be the same as was agreed upon at the treaty of Wang-hia, except so far as it may be modified by treaties with other nations; it being expressly agreed that citizens of the United States shall never pay higher duties than those paid by the most favored nations; and whereas since the signature of the said treaty material modifications of the said tariff and other matters of detail connected with and having relation to the said treaty have been made under mutual discussions by commissioners appointed to that plenipotentiaries of China, Great Britain and France, to which the assent of the United States of America is applied and now freely given, it has been determined to record such assent and agreement in the form of a supplementary treaty, to be as binding and of the same efficacy as though they had been inserted in the original treaty.

Article I. The tariff and regulations of trade and transit hereto attached, bearing the seals of the respective plenipotentiaries of the United States and the Ta-Tsing Empire, shall henceforward and until duly altered under the provisions of treaties be in force at the ports and places open to commerce.

In faith whereof the respective plenipotentiaries of the United States of America and of the Ta-Tsing Empire, to-wit, on the part of the United States, William B. Reed, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary; and on the part of the Ta-Tsing Empire Kweiliang a member of the Privy Council, Captain-General of the Plain White Banner Division of the Manchou Bannermen, and Superintendent of the Board of Punishments; and Hwashana, Classical Reader at Banquet, President of the Board of Civil Office; Captain-General of the Forged Blue Banner Division of the Chinese Bannermen, both of them plenipotentiaries; with Ho Kwei-tsing, Governor-General of the two Kiang Provinces, President of the Board of War, and Guardian of the Heir-Apparent, Mingshen, President of the Ordnance Office of the Imperial Household, with Ho Insig, a titular President of the Second Grade; and Twan, a titular President of the Fifth Grade, member of the Establishment of the General Council, and one of the junior under Secretaries of the Board of Punishments, all of them special Imperial Commissioners deputed for the purpose, have signed and sealed these presents.

Done at Shanghai this eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-third, and in the eighth year of Hienfung the tenth month and third day.
