OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
Corruption—Northern Democracy and Copperhead papers—Alabama—Texans in New York—Gossip for the Ladies.

New York, February 17, 1868.
Editors of the San Antonio Express:

It is, I notice, quite a season here for extensive defalcations; every day we learn of some startling embezzlement—now by a bank teller, now by a cashier of some business firm. It is a most unhealthy symptom. The evil has its root in the fact that a vigorous prosecution of the offender is the exception in place of being, as it ought to be, the rule.
The remedy for this dangerous financial epidemic, is, in my opinion, solitary confinement, with meagre fare and plenty of dirty work for various periods, duly proportioned to the acuteness of the malady and the amount of money felo-nously appropriated.
They seem to want war badly out in Wisconsin. "Brick" Pomeroy has been blowing his own trumpet and that of his Democratic co-adjutors with remarkable pertinacity and courage. The men of the West, says he, "are going to make common cause with their brethren of the South;" and then I presume Republicanism is naturally doomed to extinction.
Jericho couldn't stand much from the rams' horns of the Israelites, and I fancy if Pomeroy and the "men of the West" who affiliate themselves on his political paternity will only brag long enough and loud enough and silly enough, we must perform surrender; I don't see that we can do anything else.

The re-admission of Alabama is very res resista-to-day. The Tribune, as a matter-of-course, says Alabama must and shall be admitted. The Times doesn't seem to see it, and says Congress has made Reconstruction a miserable failure; while the Herald boldly takes up the question, and, looking at it from a legal point of view, says that though it wouldn't be constitutional, still it would certainly be a wise coup to assert the re-admission of the State.

I am very sorry to see what a renegade Raymond is rapidly becoming.
The Times is an able, respectable and generally just paper; but its great failing is that it has too much personification and individuality about it—it is too much Raymond. H. J. is a very clever man, and a very sincere man, no doubt; but I cannot excuse his allowing his own depondency and disapproval and disgust to usurp the columns which avowedly represent the ideas and sentiments of the Republican party, to whose skirts he so desperately clings. This defect is becoming a real peril to the interests of the journal and those of its readers who regard it as being an index of Republican sentiment. An insidious friend is ten thousand times worse than an open foe, and I fear that, unless corrected, the Times will do us more harm than the World. I am, if at all prejudiced, rather inclined to personally prefer the Times to all our other metropolitan dailies; but this new and rapidly-developing characteristic renders me rather opposed to its teachings.

Cooly of the World has a very able article in Putnam's this month, on what a newspaper ought to be, and he has handled his subject with a great deal of skill and common sense. As the managing editor of the World he has much reason to be satisfied with his own individual editorial talent. No paper in the United States is more carefully and tastefully managed than this great exponent of Copperheadism. In typographical appearance, in exhaustive news and clever articles, it has but few rivals.
Cooly, however, to judge from his magazine article, would deprive it of its chief and greatest feature—the acrimoniously partisan nature of its leaders. He says a good metropolitan newspaper should have no politics at all—that it should be a mere weathercock, blown about by every breeze, and steering wildly without a compass. He quotes the London Times; but that great thunderer lives rather on its prestige than its present excellence. The Herald has tried the independent track, and at the present day the only result produced is that its opo-sition never hurts anybody, or anything, while its advocacy is irretrievably damaging. Let Cooly try his experiment on his own paper. Fiat experimentum in corpore, vil!

I see a good many Texans here who would like to go to their Southern homes were it not for an apprehension of moral and physical opposition from the baffled rebels. They say that they are doing nothing here—that business in New York is not worth while staying for, and they turn their hearts Southwards, looking towards and longing for home; but they remember the hangings and the stabblings and the shootings; and they strangely prefer life on a little in foreign New York to a chance of the assassin's knife or pistol in their own country. Is it to be so always? Are we never to think of Texas as anything else than a big political and moral swamp, full of loathsome reptiles, and the scum and filth and offscourings of a defunct Confederacy? Now Texas is only mentioned here with an apologetic shrug of the shoulders in connection with some cowardly negro murder or stabbing of Union men. The hissing of the Copperheads, however, cannot last forever; they have cumbered the land too long; their venom is well nigh harmless and their sting contemptible under the rule of a just and Republican Congress. When Hancock's protection is withdrawn, and daylight reaches the damp and loath-some dens of ignorance and barbarity where the evil creatures lurk at present, they must either give up the ghost or seek the haunts of their kindred vermin in Mexico or some other Tartarus of discontented devils. Murders will be at a discount when stern, unwavering justice steps in to assert herself, and assassination and cowardly intimidation will be banished forever.

I have been led into rather more vehemence on this subject than I originally intended; but I grieve sincerely for the wifful, insane malice that would work out its own damnation amongst the ingreders of a dead and putrid rebellion.

Let me go to a more pleasant subject, for the ladies who may do me the honor of reading these letters of mine.
Commodore Vanderbilt's granddaughter was married the other day to Colonel Shepherd. It was a most gorgeous affair—pretty faces, gleaming jewels, rustling silks, well-nigh invisible bolts of every imaginable color, mustached audies, and "substantial" merchants—filled to overflowing the church where the happy pair was made an unite of flesh. The veil, I understand, was worth $800! Imagine, ladies, the sensation of carrying $800 on your head! Cards were issued to three thousand friends.
Happy Mrs. Shepherd vice Vanderbilt to have three thousand friends to invite, and a house big enough to hold them all!

Broadway is wonderfully gay now-a-days. The sun has made up his mind lately, to all seeming, that the snow has been taking a very unfair advantage of his late naps and so he has once again come out to throw us into the semblance of humanity and exterminate the dirty unwholesome filth, that like a good many men and women was pure and white and undefiled, before it landed in New York City. New York women are very pretty. The most prejudiced observer admits after one fine morning's review of them that they are lovely. George Augustus Sala, the English feuilletonist, says that more pretty women promenade Broadway from Canal to Fourteenth street than can be found on any similar feminine parade ground all the world over. So any of your readers who are bound North must make up their minds to enjoy a treat.

Judge Paschal was very suc-cessful in behalf of Texas against White and Chiles. These latter gentlemen moved by counsel that the Supreme Court should dissolve the injunction on the sale of the bonds illegally retained by tain a non suit for the baffled movers. This decision settles forever the question raised by the plaintiffs whether Texas at present, be in the Union or not. Tomorrow being Washington's birthday we are not going to do any sort of work and the Father of his country will be responsible for more idle hands than would altogether satisfy him I fancy if he beheld the spectacle.

A wise man here prophesies all sorts of terrible catastrophes next Thursday. Some difficulty between two planets is going to entail on us poor mortals; earthquakes and high tides and volcanoes and every variety of excessively disagreeable natural phenomena. I hope he will be disappointed and that his predictions won't keep this letter out your hands and columns. GAD.

NORTHERN PAPERS.

The New York Times, the editor of which—Raymond—left his reputation and patients at the Philadelphia-Randell-Johnson-Rebel-Convention is filled with his disappointed wallings; its columns are riddled with infamous statements from Rebel Southern papers, of negro outrages, and what makes these charges more injurious they are copied with a sanctimonious profession of philanthropy.

In the South, we are engaged in an irrepressible conflict, the property holders are making a death fight to keep up the old plantation system, they swindle the negro and everything and everybody else to make all other interests fail. They continually state no other system can succeed, and they fight to ruin innovations upon it.

Let the laws protect the freed people in their peaceful pursuits, and give them the legal power to punish their oppressors and these tales of robberies and outrages will cease.

“YOUNG MEN'S DEMOCRATIC CLUB.”

Grand Conservative Rally—Banner in his glory—A young man clothed with the Conservative mantle—Old ones to keep back—The venerable Mr. Maverick, irrefragable.

True to the blast of the Herald, the “young men” of San Antonio congregated at Conservative Headquarters, in rear of Dryden's Drug store, Monday night, to organize and seize the honors now dropping from the brow of their predecessor. Mr. Duncan arose to call the meeting to order and the youths saw in him encouragement for their future. Standing upon the one leg left him by the vandals and treason blazing from every pore, hopes blasted and energies deadened, in a stentorian voice, whose intonations said “here's something to emulate,” the young man saw his fate before him.

Amid the most rapturous applause this gentleman asserted that “it is sweet to be white, and to believe this is to be a statesman, sir, statesman,” the success of his life of course, proves that he knows what statesmanship is. The gentleman, who notwithstanding his mushy accent, is an impressive speaker, proceeded to inform the assembled “youths” that a republican government depended entirely upon the quantity of “Executive” in its composition, whether it succeeded or not, and from the dubious status of our “noble President,” he thought we were about gone up, he thought “at least nine tenths executive was necessary to save that crown,” and urged the boys to imitate their “Spartan mothers” in strengthening the hands of “our executive.”

The constitution, list of officers and everything else being prepared, a motion was made by Mr. Dwyer that they all be adopted, the motion was put and carried.

General Young, a hero on many a Confederate field who, by his devo-

Confederacy, being chosen President of the Club, was called upon and took his position on the stand. Being “Young,” he was appropriately chosen. In acknowledging the honor conferred upon him, this “Young” hero stated that “we are in the midst of stormy times, and the war must be met by stern patriotism.” “Stern patriotism” means turning your back upon the government when in danger, as the Honorable President did. The speaker proceeded to say we are in stirring times. (He smells the nigger and thinks he has been “stirred up.”) The General further remarked “the sacred bulwarks of liberty—suffrage—had been almost destroyed, and the rights of freemen ruthlessly torn from them,” in evidence of which he cited the “damning” fact that every man in Texas over 21 years of age, had been granted the right to vote, unless disqualified by treason. The General showed that he was sorry for what he had done, and if anybody should even trust him again, he would manage differently.

Sam. A. Maverick, a sprightly “young man's Democrat,” born in the eighteenth century, now arose and asked leave to make a personal explanation, and being granted leave, proceeded to let the “cat out of the bag,” he poured his vial of wrath upon the head of the citizens of San Antonio, and declared them “to be in league with that arch traitor of hell Thaddeus Stevens.” That we must remonstrate against a division of the State, until the proper time; but, who shall we petition to, certainly not stultify ourselves by recognizing the “infamous Congress.” Dr. Carothers, late standard bearer, Colonel Sweet and a distinguished person—name not known—who wanted to keep the southern heart fired until the proper time, when certain persons, now among us might seek a more congenial climate at a proper time, decided to make the appeal to Brick Pomeroy and the National Intelligencer.

As the Doctor was of the opinion that “this would in no wise legalize any act of the infamous Congress,” the plan was adopted. The youthful Samual here asserted “somebody had slyly and slyly stolen his name and the proper time not arrived, he was of the opinion they had taken it.” This referred to the recent call of the citizens for a division of the State. The young man evidently felt some emotion on this occasion and the difficulty he experienced in finding words, bordered on anger.

Col. Sweet was next called and with much eloquence sang the song of the Syria, that ended in Mr. Duncan's glory; but unfortunately the speaker poked his tongue in his cheek, and with the leer of one who had perpetrated a good joke, immediately quenched the fire he had evidently kindled. A person near this reporter asked “how it was possible to organize a Young Men's Democratic Club out of these old sardines,” he was of course rebuked for his irreverence.

The meeting consisted of the seven or two persons who signed Carothers petition to Gen. Hancock, about twenty who come out of curiosity, and eleven tall lean youths, who had unmistakably been dieting themselves since the close of the war, hoping with commendable tenacity, for the time when the “nigger” would again work.

Summing up, we are not to divide the State until the proper time; we are to educate statesmen like Mr. Duncan and Gen. Young; the government consists of the Executive; Congress is infamous. A man can be young a long time; nigger smells bad; carpet baggers badder; we are on a verge, somebody should be kicked over.

TELEGRAPHIC.—Our news by telegraph to-day is vague, facts are ignored and we are treated to what a rebel telegraph reporter believes will be “a sufficient number of votes to kill impeachment.”

We have heard the “bray of the as” continually for the last eight years. This one intimates the impeachment charges of the House are before the Senate, the simple list of these specifications, and an intimation that the President is or is not suspended, would be more satisfactory than all the “sounding brass and ringing timbrals” in the world.

The Austin Republican informs us that sufficient returns have been sent to Headquarters to insure the State Convention; more than one half of the registered voters being polled. Our first estimate—that seventy-five of the ninety members would be Republican—will if any odds be less than the actual Republican preponderance.

We now know to a certainty that the progressive party is in the ascendancy in Texas. The newly enfranchised people have thrown their future wholly into the hands of the white Republicans; not alone because they admire them as slaves masters, but because the party has made itself the champion of equal rights and have given every assurance that the condition of the down-trodden freed-people should be bettered.

Many members absent to the Convention, are new to public life and the exhortations awaiting them from the rebel press—in imitation of papers in other States—will doubtless make them cringe. There are old hands in the body, who have learned to disregard these vituperative attacks, and to these belong the duty to direct the action of the body in a channel above the effect of these attacks.

Simple laws that will protect and educate the man who “earns his bread by the sweat of his brow” will withstand all opposition, and endear their supporters to the people.

When the process shall be put in motion, giving the negro the privilege of cutting our great State into pieces, we wonder if white men will stay at home as they did on the days of the late election. We venture to say they will “turn out.”—[Houston Journal.]

You need not “turn out”—we have kicked you out, and, if need be, we will kick you down. “White men”—why, if hearts are trumps, you are the blackest set of men on earth.

OFFICE SUPERVISING QUARTERMASTER, Sub-District of the Rio Grande, Brownsville, Texas, February 14th, 1868.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until Tuesday the 31st day of March 1868, at 11 o'clock A. M. for the transportation of Troops and Military Supplies from said points within the Sub-District of the Rio Grande for the year ending May 1st, 1868.

Proposals will state at what rates bidders propose to transport troops, and Army Supplies from and to the following named points:

- Route No. 1. From Brazos Santiago to Brownsville, by river or via Point Isabel.
- Route No. 2. From Brownsville to Ringgold Barracks.
- Route No. 3. Ringgold Barracks to Laredo.

Proposals will distinctly specify at what rates the bidders will contract to transport troops and supplies, to be classified as follows:—Officers and enlisted men, cabin or deck passengers each, and the following class of freight, viz: horses, mules and beef cattle per head; sheep per head—Iron Machinery, lead, zinc, tin, copper, nails, rivets, bolts, paints, shot, stores, wire, heavy hardware, hollow ware, grindstones, ordnance, heavy ordnance stores, &c., per 100 pounds (100 lbs.).

Coal per ton; Hay per bale; Lumber, pine per 1000 feet; Oakum; Lumber, Oak, per 1000 feet; Oats and Corn per sack.

Measurement goods, Clothing, equipage, crockery, furniture, doors, blinds, sashes, wagon tongues, matting, mattresses, light oaks and staves, Books, stationery, &c. per cubic foot.

Dry Goods, flour, meal, bread, rice, crackers, dried apples, onions, potatoes, turnips, white sugar, &c., per barrel; Wet Goods, pork, beef, lard, tallow, cement, plaster, tar, rosin, molasses brown sugar, tallow grease, &c., per barrel.

Vinegar and pickles in Kegs, per keg.

Ambulances and Spring wagons, each.

Army Wagons (complete) each.

Fruits, jams, jellies, window glass, pickles, extracts, &c., per box, Candles, crackers, hard bread, farina, spices, condensed milk, can meats, soap, &c., per box.

Hams, per cask. Hams, per tierce. Ice, per hhd. Lard, per tierce. Lard, per keg. Rice, per tierce. (Havana), per box. Sugar, per hhd. Sugar, (Cuba), per box. Tea, per chest.

All freight to be delivered at such landings, warehouses, or other places of unloading at each of the above named points as may be designated by the Depot Quartermaster at Brownsville or other authorized officers or agents of the Quartermaster's Department.

Contractors must be prepared to transport the troops and public freight at any of the above named points when required, and must take such troops and supplies to the full capacity of the vessel or other means of transportation provided if required by the Quartermaster's Department, and the proposals must state the character and class of vessels proposed to be furnished for water transportation, and the kind of teams, whether ox or mule teams for land transportation.

All proposals must be in triplicate with a copy of this advertisement attached to each, and must be accompanied by the names of at least two sufficient sureties who will signify by endorsement thereon their willingness to become responsible for the performance of the contract.

Proposals will be endorsed “Proposals for transportation” and will be addressed to “The Supervising Quartermaster, Sub-District of the Rio Grande,” Brownsville, Texas.

All proposals received will be forwarded to the Chief Quartermaster of the District for approval and award; the Government reserves the right to reject any or all bids or any part of a bid.

By order of Brevet Major General McCook, GEO. W. SMITH, 1st Lieut. 26th Infantry, R. O. M. and A. A. Q. M. Supervising Quartermaster Sub-District Rio Grande. (Feb 29d 68) rothers' petition to Hancock had seventy-two names. The man of this city who resolved himself into a "Young Men's Democratic Club"—nearly the same name—number but seventy. Fire up, gentlemen, fire up—the Southern heart barely flickers. It won't do to make it a military organization until the proper time.

Court Room, U. S. Circuit Court, Western District of Texas, Feb. 24, 1898.

The members of the bar in attendance upon the United States Circuit, now in session at Austin, having received intelligence of the death of their brother, the Hon. I. A. Paschal, which occurred on the 21st inst., at San Antonio; and realizing the great loss to the professional association to which he by his great learning, genial temper, affable manner and courteous deportment, added so much to interest and make it pleasant; to society in which he was so useful and exemplary a member deem it due to themselves as well as to the memory of their deceased brother, to make some appropriate expression of their feelings on the occasion of their bereavement.

Therefore, resolved, that in the death of our distinguished brother, Isaiah A. Paschal, this bar has lost one of its most learned counsellors, and ablest advocates, and brightest ornaments; society one of its most useful and exemplary members, and the country one of its most worthy and valued citizens.

Resolved; 2d, That we deeply sympathize with his family in their sore bereavement, and tender to them the condolence of brothers.

Resolved, 3d, That the Clerk of this Court be requested to furnish the family of the deceased with a copy hereof.

Resolved, 4th, That as a further mark of respect to the deceased, the Court is requested to cause these proceedings to be spread on the minutes, and that the Court do now adjourn.

In the expressions of esteem and respect for Judge I. A. Paschal, contained in the resolutions just read, I most cordially concur.

It is sufficient for me say, that in his death this Court has lost one of its oldest and ablest, and society one of its most interesting and genial members.

In accordance with the request of the resolutions the Court will now adjourn, as a mark of respect for his memory, until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning; and the Clerk is directed to send a copy of the resolutions to the family of the deceased, after spreading them upon the minutes of the Court.

T. H. DUVAL, Judge.

SCRIP.—The city will post a list of the scrip to be redeemed by the city Secretary this week.

EMPLOYERS.—The city is again financially sound, and in a short time the council intend to resume the system of public improvements so excellently begun by the Cleveland administration, and interrupted by their dishonest successors.

MR. MAVERICK'S CARD.—This old madman who is now making so much fuss, in his card—which we publish as a literary curiosity—solemnly declares "facts" to be "false." Our plucky "Lokal" declares he don't believe it.

WITHDRAWN.—Two Conservatives have withdrawn their names from the action of the citizens of San Antonio regarding the division of the State, for political reasons. On the principle, we suppose, that they deem it better to "rule in hell than serve in Heaven."

INTERNAL REVENUE.—It is again time to visit the Revenue Collector and give in assessments, these assessments are made under oath, and unless they are attended to during March, the Assessor can compel attendance and add ten per cent a month to the regular rates.

CARPET BAGGERS.—The Conservatives are continually accusing the Union men of being vagabonds, owing no property and other "crimes." As the fine city lands are stamped with the names of their predecessors, the present officers are expected to steal money and buy property before they can have the support of these moralists.

PICTURE PREDICERS.—Like the spring fever we have periodical visits of these birds, and true to their instincts they are among us again. With them pictures representing "Stone Wall Jackson," "Here's your Mule," "Andrew Johnson" and other distinguished Confederates. We hope "our" people will invest largely in these things and vent their prejudice in the innocent amusement of getting rid of their money.

LOYALTY.—We are told a few men in Gillespie county, who have borne loyal records heretofore, are disappointed in the result of the election; and go so far as to denounce the whole Union party. We would call their attention to the juryman who thought his eleven associates so obstinate.

When a man makes his personal ideas the ultimatum, his devotion to principle cannot be very deep rooted.

CRAZY.—Mr. Maverick, after the Confederate reunion Monday night, in which he called Congress infidels, and Mr. Stevens the arch-traitor of hell, yesterday went to the Post Office, where was on exhibition a petition on the division of the State, and put thereon the following endorsement—verbatim et literatim—
"Whilst I was known to be absent from San Antonio my name was surreptitiously placed on the Committee to negotiate with Thad Stevens on this matter and give aid and comfort in works outside the Constitution I scorn the work and I here protest that the true main motives facts and inference are false fraudulent and infamous SAM A. M."

Mr. Maverick is one of the individuals who signed the receipt for $5,000,000 Government property at the commencement of the war. It is feared that remorse for this act has affected his mind.

CHAP. XXXVII.—An Act for the Relief of Persons for Damages sustained by reason of Depredations and Injuries by certain Bands of Sioux Indians.

Whereas the United States heretofore became bound by treaty stipulations to the Sisseton, Wahpaton, Medawakanton, and Wahpakoita bands of the Dakota or Sioux Indians to pay large sums of money and annuities, the greater portion of which remains unpaid according to the terms of said treaty stipulations; and whereas during the past year the aforesaid bands of Indians made an unprovoked, aggressive, and most savage war upon the United States, and massacred a large number of men, women, and children within the State of Minnesota, and destroyed and damaged a large amount of property, and thereby have forfeited all just claims to the said money and annuities to the United States; and whereas it is just and equitable that the persons whose property has been destroyed or damaged by the said Indians, or destroyed or damaged by the troops of the United States in said war, should be indemnified in whole or in part out of the indebtedness and annuities so forfeited as aforesaid: Therefore—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all treaties heretofore made and entered into by the Sisseton, Wahpaton, Medawakanton, and Wahpakoita bands of Sioux or Dakota Indians, or any of them, with the United States, are hereby declared to be abrogated and annulled, so far as said treaties or any of them purport to impose any future obligation on the United States, and all lands and rights of occupancy within the State of Minnesota, and all annuities and claims heretofore accorded to said Indians, or any of them, to be forfeited to the United States.

Sec. 1. And be it further enacted, That two thirds of the balance remaining unexpended of annuities due and payable to said Indians for the present fiscal year, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and the further sum of one hundred thousand dollars, being two thirds of the annuities becoming due and payable to said Indians during the next fiscal year, is hereby appropriated, and shall be paid from the Treasury of the United States, out of any moneys not otherwise appropriated, to the commissioners hereinafter provided for, to be apportioned by them among the heads of families, or, in case of their decease, among the surviving members of families of the State of Minnesota who suffered damage by the depredations of the Sisseton, Wahpaton, Medawakanton, and Wahpakoita bands of Sioux or Dakota Indians, or by the troops of the United States in the late Indian war in the State of Minnesota, not exceeding the sum of two hundred dollars to any one family, nor the actual damages aforesaid, and no moneys shall be paid under this section except upon those claims which shall be presented to said commissioners on or before the first day of June next, for the payment of which the said commissioners shall take and return to the Secretary of the Interior and to the Secretary of the Treasury duplicate vouchers therefor, certified by them.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of making the proper distribution of the moneys hereby appropriated for the present relief of such families, and for the purpose of ascertaining the whole amount of said damages and the persons who have suffered the same, it shall be lawful for the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint three commissioners, not more than one of whom shall be a resident of Minnesota, who shall take an oath in the manner prescribed by the laws of the United States to faithfully discharge their duties; they shall entertain and hear the complaints (in writing, duly verified on oath) of all and every person aggrieved by the depredations of said Indians, and by the troops of the United States in said war; they shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, and to administer the proper oaths to them to testify the truth; they shall have power to compel the claimants to be examined and cross-examined on oath, to be administered by them, as to their said claims; they shall hold their sessions at such times and places as will give the persons complaining the fairest opportunity of verifying their claim with the least expense; they shall take care that no unjust or fictitious claim shall be established; and if they have any reason to suppose that any such claim is presented, they shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to procure any countervailing proof, to their knowledge, that the same may be finally rejected. The testimony of the witnesses and the examination of the complainant shall be reduced to writing, signed and certified by them, respectively, and shall, with the petition and all the papers relating to such case, and with the finding of the commission, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval, rejection, or modification, to be by him laid before the next Congress. A majority of the commission may select their presiding officer, and shall be competent to decide all questions arising before them.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That said commissioners shall hold their first session at Saint Peter's, in the State of Minnesota, on or before the first day of April next, and that all claims must be presented to said Commissioners on or before the first day of September next, or the same shall not be heard by them; and the said commissioners shall make and return their finding, and all the papers relating thereto, on or before the first day of December next.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That said commissioners shall receive for their service and expenses the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars each. And they are authorized to depute a proper person to summon witnesses, who shall be entitled to receive his actual expenses, to be allowed by said commissioners, and sum of three dollars per day for his services. Witnesses subpoenaed in behalf of the United States shall receive pay for attendance, not to exceed the fees allowed by the laws of Minnesota for witnesses attending justices' courts. And, for paying the expenses of said commission, the further sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of the said annuities in the Treasury of the United States, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Interior, immediately after the passage of this act, shall cause the same to be published in four of the newspapers of the State of Minnesota, which, in his opinion, will give the most publicity to the same among the people who have suffered by said depredations, and give notice of the first meeting of said commissioners, the expenses to be paid out of the sum appropriated in the next preceding section.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That if the complainant, or any witness testifying before said commissioners, shall be guilty of perjury, upon conviction thereof in the proper court of the United States, he shall suffer the pains and penalties prescribed by the laws of the United States for that offence.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners, in making rules, not inconsistent with this act, prescribing the order and mode of presenting, prosecuting, and proving said claims before them, which rules shall be published in one newspaper in the city of Saint Peter and one in Saint Peter for at least two weeks prior to the first session of said commission, to be held at Saint Peter as directed in the fourth section of this act, and the expenses of such publication shall be paid out of the funds appropriated in the fifth section of this act.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to set apart of the public lands, not otherwise appropriated, eighty acres in severalty to each individual of the before-named bands who exerted himself in rescuing the whites from the late massacre of said Indians. The land so set apart shall not be subject to any tax, forfeiture, or sale, by process of law, and shall not be aliened or devised, except by the consent of the President of the United States, but shall be an inheritance to said Indians and their heirs forever.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That said commissioners, before entering upon the discharge of their duties as such, shall give bonds in the usual form to the United States, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars each, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the Secretary of the Treasury, faithfully to discharge their duties as such, and to account for any money which may come into their hands.

Approved, February 16, 1863.
