OUR GALVESTON LETTER.

The End of "My Policy"—General Grant and Congress—Patriotic Action—A Bright Future—Local Journalism—Brevities.

GALVESTON, Texas, March 1, 1868.
Editors of the San Antonio Express:
In a late number of Harper's Weekly appears a striking cartoon termed the "Idea February"—MDCCLXVIII, which in its vivid depiction and prophetic portrayal of the present "situation" at Washington, fitly describes the dark end of "My Policy" and its concomitant evils. The loyal people in their majesty deciding now and for ages their right to reconstruct the conquered rebellious States, through their representatives in Congress, how and when they choose; visiting with dire punishment the offender who would obstruct their will.

General Grant, ever the people's leader, responding to the throbbings of the popular heart, with one stroke of his untarnished sword has severed the gordian knot of a designing and unscrupulous enemy, and, standing with Congress in this time of peril and danger to our republican institutions, has effectually thwarted the base designs of a bad Executive, proving an able conservator of the national honor and peace. Such patriotic action as has been developed during the past week among our public men, will not be forgotten by a grateful people jealous of their country's glory, greatness and grandeur.

With all impediments to reconstruction removed and with the speedy prospect of each of the rebellious States "wheeling into line" to "the music of the Union" under the broad banner of "Equal Rights to all men under the Law," the future awaiting our free country is bright indeed. One flag, one country and one people, rejoicing in the inestimable blessings of peace, prosperity and happiness.

Those who read our Galveston journals and suppose them the exponents of the political sentiments of the people of this county, must have been amused at our good people during the past ten days of political turmoil at Washington. Such muddlings of the situation, such denials of the power of Congress, such vituperation, such sabbatizing black-guardism, has certainly not been surpassed by any Democratic journals (Brick Pomeroy's not excepted) outside of the State. The Bulletin, as usual, with considerable clangor has maintained its anomalous position, running close, however, to the winning side, and pouncing—it is to be owned—very hardly on poor Andy, now he is down, for permitting himself to get in such a pickle. A Job's comforter, the Bulletin.

General Hancock is reported to be very much chagrined at the recent order of General Grant compelling him to reinstate the displaced Aldermen of New Orleans.

The latest intelligence from Austin gives the total majority of the State for a Convention as five thousand. Eighty out of the ninety members elected are Republicans.

A telegram to yesterday's New Orleans Times reports the killing of a rebel Dr. Cunningham at Gonzales by U. S. soldiers; the particulars of the affair are not given.

General Hancock, with a number of Conservative friends, is expected here to-morrow per steamer Josephine. A visit to Brazos Santiago, I learn, is the object of the General's coming, as also to receive the distinguished (?) jurist, Judge Watson, who accompanies our military command to down west.

Judge Hamilton, of the Supreme Court, has recently delivered a very important decision affecting the constitutionality of the Stay Law of 1865, declaring the same unconstitutional; implicitly asserting that "The acts and laws of the Confederate States" are absolutely void—no rights were acquired or lost under its government or by virtue of its laws.

RESULT OF HANCOCK'S COURSE--A LOYAL PAPER DYING.

THE QUITMAN CLIPPER, a staunch Union sheet, published in Wood county, in the midst of secession darkness of Eastern Texas, has at last succumbed to the spathy of its loyal friends and proscription of traitor foes.

Mr. S. in his valedictory, says: "The Rebels are so proscriptive in Eastern Texas, that our efforts to get a Loyal Union man to continue the publication of our paper, has been fruitless; therefore, we have to submit to the humiliating spectacle of seeing it succeeded by a Democratic or Conservative paper."

The above recorded facts do not substantiate the partisan report of the Marshall riot by Colonel Wood to General Hancock. If Mr. Shuford will accept the courtesy, THE EXPRESS will continue its visits to THE CLIPPER, until General Hancock's denouncing course in Texas shall have been more than atoned for, and THE CLIPPER is restored.

IMPEACHMENT ARTICLES.

The 6th Article of Impeachment, which reads: "Conspiracy with Thomas to seize property of the United States contrary to the Act of July 6th, 1861" refers to the following Act of July 31, 1861, termed "An Act to define and punish certain conspiracies," which reads as follows: "An Act to define and punish certain conspiracies."

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That if two or more persons within any State or Territory of the United States shall conspire together to overthrow, or to put down, or to destroy by force, the Government of the United States, or to levy war against the United States, or to oppose by force the authority of the Government of the United States; or by force to prevent, hinder, or delay the execution of any law of the United States; or by force to seize, take, or possess any property of the United States against the will or contrary to the authority of the United States; or by force, or intimidation, or threat to prevent any person from accepting or holding any office, or trust, or place of confidence, under the United States; each and every person so offending shall be guilty of a high crime, and upon conviction thereof in any district or circuit court of the United States, having jurisdiction thereof, or district or supreme court of any Territory of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars; or by imprisonment, with or without hard labor, as the court shall determine, for a period not less than six months nor greater than six years, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

TELEGRAPHIC.—The Articles of Impeachment are at last before the Senate, and the Court in deliberating upon the punishment necessary to warn all future villains who may accidentally get into the Presidential chair. The infamy of Johnson is so outrageous and has so fully developed the amount of mischief a dishonest President may do, it is a grave question in the minds of many if it would not be better to dispense with the office entirely, and like the Republic of Switzerland, govern altogether by a sitting Congress and the Courts.

The San Antonio Herald in yesterday's issue gives up all earthly hope, and POLITICAL STEPS.

The Arkansas election on the ratification of the new constitution will be held on the 15th.

The Wilmington (Del.) Journal has a long communication recommending Gen. Daniel Ullman as the Republican candidate for Vice President.

An exchange says that benzine rum is furnished to each village in New Hampshire, by the barrel, to aid the Democratic canvass of the State.

The Lexington (Ky.) Observer thinks "the negro ought to be treated justly," and that "he ought to be gotten rid of at the earliest practicable moment."

The anniversary of Grant's victory at Fort Donelson was celebrated on Tuesday evening in various places by men who rejoice at his victory over the rebellion.

A gentleman doing business in Cincinnati is going to send home to New Hampshire, to vote the Republican ticket, a young man in his employ, give him his time and pay his expenses.

The World complains that "a mode of electioneering for Gen. Grant was begun at the Cooper Institute, on Monday evening, by celebrating the anniversary of his most famous victories."

A New Hampshire correspondent of the New York Herald writes that Sinclair, the Democratic candidate for Governor, has recently visited Washington and obtained large sums of money to aid him in the canvass.

The names of Messrs. Hawthurst, Alexandria; Rives, of Albemarle; Rye, of Shenandoah, and Thomas, of Henry, are spoken of in connection with the Virginia Governorship. The nominating convention meets at Richmond this week.

In Syracuse, N. Y., on Wednesday, the Republicans elected Charles G. Andrews mayor, by a majority of 124, over Gen. John A. Green, Jr. A dispatch from there says that the Republicans elected five out of the eight Aldermen.

The Kentucky Statesman, published at Lexington, and the Sciota Gazette, published at Chillicothe, Ohio, are out in strong articles declaring for Hon. B. F. Wade as their choice for Vice President on the ticket with Grant. The former paper states that the indications are that the Kentucky State convention will instruct their delegates to vote at the National Republican convention at Chicago.

The canvass in New Hampshire is progressing actively. The letters of ex-President Frank Pierce to Jefferson Davis in 1860, are being published. In one of the letters he says: "I have never believed that actual disruption of the Union can occur without blood; and if, through the madness of Northern Abolitionists, that dire calamity must come, the fighting will not be along Mason and Dixon's line merely; it will be within our own borders, in our own streets, between the two classes of citizens to whom I have referred. Those who defy law and scout constitutional obligations will, if we overlook the arbitrament of arms, find occupation enough at home."

The New York Times is alarmed at the preference shown by Mrs. Stanton, editor of the Revolution, for handsome men, in Washington, as the most meritorious statesmen. The Times remarks: "It is scarcely necessary for us to add that we cannot assent to any revolution which is to introduce such tests of political merit as those. When opera-glasses, instead of the Constitution, are to determine qualifications for office, when none but good-looking men like Ben Wade are to be deemed fit for the Presidency, and when the handsome men like our Senator Conkling are to carry the day against all competitors it is quite time for ordinary mortals to take their stand."

REPUBLIC CO., TEXAS, Feb. 17, 1868.

The election is over and from the beggarly account of empty boxes this way, I much fear the Convention is defeated. The rebels strained every nerve to effect their purpose, and if they are successful, on their heads the calamity will fall with crushing force. The freedmen of this county were deceived and intimidated, and out of nearly 40 registered, only 7 voted. The whole number registered in this county is 171. The first three days of the election no rebels voted. The mail had failed at this point for two weeks, but it came on the evening of third day, bringing instructions from rebel headquarters at Houston; on the fourth and fifth days the rebels came forward and polled 24 votes, and if they had received timely notice from their masters, they would have rallied their whole force. The recent action of the Military Commander of this District of Texas and Louisiana, had much to do in keeping the Union men from the polls; in this county especially, they have suffered a heavy and entirely undesigned called upon still to endure, until they have lost all heart; there are a few who look to the dawns of a better day, who can no longer be intimidated orajoled, who still cling to the Union and who will always be ready to follow the good old flag through evil and good report. Judge Ogden attempted to hold his court this week, at Refugio, but just previous to his coming the rebels, by common consent and doubtless by mutual understanding, resigned their offices, thus disorganizing the county; the Judge having no Sheriff and no Clerk, and without the power to appoint, was forced to wend his way to Galveston, where I trust he may be more successful. The rebels of this county may well fear a loyal Judge, retribution awaits them, though it may be delayed.

This part of our coast is improving rapidly, and a Northern population, the hated yankees, is coming to regenerate Texas, not the ones Johnson sends. We are I believe some 20 miles nearer to the city of San Antonio, than Indianola, Lamar and Rockport may yet eclipse Powder Horn. A little town called St. Mary being away up the Bay, is struggling hard to have a boat of some sort run there; but they ground so often through a tortuous channel, that they will be forced to abandon it one of these days and move their houses, as they did some years since at Indianola, and seek deeper water. At Rockport there is now a weekly communication by steamship to New Orleans, great numbers of beaves are shipped from this point, as also hides and wool.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Cotton Low; Middling 25 1/2 to 24; good ordinary 25 1/2.

LONDON, March 4.—Cotton sales 25,000 bales at 9 1/2.

NEW ORLEANS, March 4.—Cotton active; Middling 24; sales 7000 bales receipts 7512; exports 369.

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Two more impeachment articles are pending.

A bill authorizing the Secretary of War to employ officers to defend the Reconstruction officers became law from the lapse of ten days.

Chase writes to Senate expressing in mild and somewhat indirect terms non-concurrence with certain preliminary proceedings when Senate sets for impeachment trial, it sits substantially as a court.

The Senate must necessarily receive notice of the intention to impeach from the House, but the organization of Senate to a court should precede actual announcement and articles should only be presented to the court of impeachment. No summary or other process should issue except from the organized court, and rules for the government of proceedings of court should be formed only by the court itself. Chase finds himself unable to come to any other conclusion than the above, but adds I am informed the Senate proceeded upon other views and it's not my purpose to contest what its superior wisdom may direct.

House.—Immediately after the meeting, Jenks proceeded to urge his article declaring that the impeachment would be incomplete without changing criminal intent. Previous question failed of the second and the article was lost.

The House then went into a committee of the whole to proceed with managers to the Senate to present articles. The Democratic members remained in their seats; others formed a procession and paraded to the Senate Chamber.

Senate.—Sergeant at Arms announced the impeachment managers. Managers approached the Bar accompanied by members, arranged themselves in front of Speaker, around back and side of Colfax.

Biingham read the articles by Butler which quotes very largely from the President's most stinging speeches causing sensation. The Chairman said Senate will take action and managers remained.

Wade presided to-day during the entire proceedings, this probably settles the question whether he will vote an final issue.

THEATRE

AT THE CASINO HALL, Sunday, March 5th, 1868.

Doors open at 7 o'clock, performance to commence at 8 o'clock. The Military Band of the 35th Infantry Regiment, will be in attendance.

Contractors.—We publish an advertisement from L. Smith calling for bids to supply the Rio Grande District with grain and hay. The requirements are large and we hope our loyal readers will compete for these opportunities of speculation.

WEATHER.—Yesterday was wet and disagreeable and of course dull. Vegetation is springing up, and if the grass-hoppers would leave, we would soon see the prairies green and trees in blossom.

CITY MORALS.—The City Council has passed ordinances making it a punishable offence to obstruct the side walks—and warning houses of ill fame that they must stop their nefarious practice in the city.

MARKET HOUSE.—The city authorities have determined to have the market horse whitewashed over head.

The few stalls now unpainted and dirty will then have to be cleaned and painted up to keep pace with their neighbors.

RAIL ROAD.—We seem to still have a faith within us that the parties who are manipulating the Mexican Gulf and San Antonio Rail Road, will bring us the desired iron belt. Our only hope is to have a new company organized that will start a road in the interest of the public.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Thomas Moran, a youth apparently unaccustomed to court scenes, was arraigned before his Honor charged with disorderly conduct and disturbing the peace. It being his first appearance, the prisoner was dismissed with an admonition.

GAMBLING.—The police who are always on the watch to protect the unsuspecting from harpers of the city, were attracted by the action of an orderly countryman named P. G. T. Bobo, who having disposed of a valuable load of cotton and hides, showed his richness in an unusual exuberance of "spirits." At 11 o'clock Wednesday night, the police tracked him to the establishment of the handsome Captain Tobin, and there saw the two sitting down at a little game of "draw"—thinking that it was not "handsome" to get a drunk man with three or four bales of cotton in his pocket, in a back room, the police pulled the cotton, and arraigned the parties before his honor upon the charge of gambling. The Mayor, in view of the discouragement afforded the city on former occasions of this kind, dismissed the suit and ordered the matter before the Grand Jury.

If the city government is to be thwarted in its endeavors to break down gambling by technical law quibbles; give us a pure military government at once. The fault of rebel rule is that it fails to punish crime. If we cannot have law executed in its spirit, wipe it out—the quibbles of pettifogging lawyers is what made hell preferable to General Sheridan, over Texas.

COTTON.—The rise in cotton in the past ten days has been enormous, going from sixteen to twenty-four cents, this is largely owing to the tax removal, but other causes are working that will make them still higher.

PERSONAL.—Judge Wm. E. Jones is in the city, from Kendall county, in attendance upon the District Court.

The Brazos is on a big bender at this point, and delayed the mails one day by its folly. It is standing at banks full now, and may get fuller.

The Vicia Observer has the following: "A stupid copperhead wants to know if the cannon that fought nobly in the Union army, and the mules that hauled them, haven't as good a right to a voice in the election as the colored troops. Evidently, the fellow needs to be reconsecrated. His suggestion is at once brassy, and brays of horrible discord."
