FROM THE CAPITAL.
Three congressmen, Iglesias, Montes and Zamacoena, who were elected Judges of the Supreme Court, refuse to leave their seats in Congress, consequently their places in the Supreme Court have to be filled by other persons. A new election is ordered.
The election in Tamaulipas has been declared by the General Government to be indecisive. This makes the second failure.
Carlos Sanchez Navarro, ex-Imperial Minister of the Palace of Mexico, has been arrested and imprisoned in the city prison.

A fire broke out in the marine arsenal at Vera Cruz, on the 12th inst., but was extinguished before reaching the powder and ammunition on deposit there.
Sr. Chumarrista, of Jalapa, was murdered a few days since on the public road from that place to Vera Cruz. The armed guard has been charged with the crime.

The battle at Maxcanu, 12 leagues from Merida, the capital of Yucatan, began in the morning of the 4th ult., and lasted until dark. The revolutionists fell back to Humana, where another severe battle was fought.
The revolutionists hold Merida.

The Ferro-Arril says that from last August till January 1st, 1867, that there were 207 robberies, 97 kidnapping cases, 74 persons assassinated, and 181 men executed, in all of the States of the Republic.

The rumor that Colonel Eulalio Ninez and Castala (Soto Mayor) had pronounced against the government, at Monte Almo, was false. Eulalio addressed a letter to the Siglo XIX, to clear himself from the defamatory report.

Julian Istan, of the State of Mexico, a Mexican engineer, has invented a new motive power for propelling vessels, which does not require the assistance of fire, steam or air. He has applied to Government for a patent.

The Siglo XIX reports that a fight took place at Zinacapan, on the 28th ult., between fourteen bandits and the people of the village. There were some killed and wounded on both sides. The citizens repulsed the robbers.

Leon Chavez, the unsubdued and apparently unconquerable revolu-tionist and highway robber, is out on the plains of Jalisco again. He recently attacked, took and burned a part of Colimilla plantation buildings. Besides burning the larger number of the houses, he robbed all the people, and killed overseer Don Crispian Marquez. From that place they proceeded to Matatlan, and although he had about 300 of his men with him, he was obliged to give up the attempt of attacking the place, for the armed people of the place outnumbered his body of bandits.

On the 7th of this month, says La Frensa de Guadalupe, the brothers Jose and Sotero Prieto were kidnaped from their plantation, the Solo dado, and taken to the mountains.
At midnight of the same day a band of brigands assaulted the plantation of Paso de Barran. Not being able to find Senor Portillo, the owner they sacked the plantation, and then carried off his nephew, the herdsman, and two servants. They also took silver from the buildings. On the following day eleven robbers of the same band made their appearance on the road to Coahuila. They robbed all travelers who passed.

Chiari's agent, E. D. Picard had arrived in Guadalupe, to prepare for Chiari's Circus Company, soon expected there.
Gomez Cuervo, Governor of Jalisco, has given orders to the Chief of Police to prevent the wearing of turn to Guadalupe. He commanded Angel Martinez to assume command of the State militia and assist the revolutionists, and aid to put down Domingo Robl, the legitimate Governor. Martinez issued a proclamation on the 28th inst., declaring himself and followers in favor of peace, but with the rebels. Davalos has also been placed in command by Corona.

Lieut. Col. Jesus Marieta was assassinated at the Plaza del Rio, on the road between Jalapa and Vera Cruz, one day last week, by his body guard.—Brownsville Ranchero, Feb. 28.

THE LATE PRESIDENT.
The termination of Andrew Johnson's career was the moment in which he was nominated for the Vice Presidency. On the 10th of June, 1864, immediately after the Baltimore Convention, Mr. Johnson made a speech at Nashville, in which he used the memorable words, so often quoted against him: "I say that traitors should take back seats in the work of restoration. If there be but five thousand men in Tennessee, loyal to the constitution, loyal to freedom, loyal to justice, these true and faithful men should control the work of reorganization and restoration absolutely. I have been most deeply pained at some things which have come under my observation. We get men in command who, under the influence of flattery, flattery and cunning, great protection to the rich traitor, while the poor Gator man stands out in the cold, pushed aside, unable to get a recognition of his claims, I have been on a gravel for two years at the sight of these abuses."

Not one step in Andrew Johnson's career has been gained by genius, integrity, or patriotism. From village Alderman to Vice President, all have been reached by flattery, his enemies and cheating his friends. Seven years ago he was a candidate for office among the rebels. Four years of war and one of assassination left him President of the United States, since when we find him leading the hosts of rebellion, who rejected him in 1861, and using his official position to reverse the verdict of arms and to give the fruits of victory to vanquished traitors. His career as President has been a prolonged indecor-um, ending in a flagrant crime. To compromise with him now would be like parleying with a maniac. He must be cast out. There is no good in him.
He has filled the measure of his country's patience. He has overstepped the bounds of forbearance, and now from the whole body of the loyal people comes up the demand that he be arrested in his perfidious career; that an end be put to his bullying, his falsehoods and his usurpation; that the nation be relieved of his official presence; and that he be sent down as the pages of history as the legiate who forgot his own insignificance and aspired to overthrow the laws of his country. He has been false to his trust. Let him henceforth be denied in a life of horrid solitude in the midst of a free, prosperous and happy people, a witness to national glory and happiness which he can never share, and a prey to his own bad passions and later reflections.—Chicago Tribune.

Some time ago we took the liberty of suggesting to farmers that they would do well to hire as many of the unemployed laborers now throving the titles as they could find work for. We regret to say that an honest agriculturist of Richland county, Ohio, rejects our advice with scorn and loathing, and considers us as chaff of his knowledge, as much above anything as he does, that we mean of justice to the public impels us to publish the following extract from his letter:

"City folk that live on such food as intelligent farmers would give to their swine, as they are up to slow-worms, yet do not know enough to know that they are inferring dam foods. It is a matter of practice for news paper reporters, correspondents, editors, & professional articles, to treat the honest & laboring folk with sneers & sarcasms, they writing to talk as if the farmer were nothing." Such imbecils know no more about farming than my dog does about preaching.—N. Y. Tribune.

Sherman won't have it. George H.
Thomas won't have it. Suppose Mr.
Johnson fires Colonel Thos. A. Florence of the Pennsylvania militia? We can assure A. J. that Colonel Tom will accept every honest confederate upon him.
—N. Y. Tribune.

It is commonly advertised for a Congress to be held in the vicinity of the side of the Union banner. We doubt the propriety of sending the flag to a man who didn't go to it. We have a much better way for this after the battle of Gettysburg.—(Pittsburg Va.) Index.

Copies of the Weekly Express sent to subscribers as much reading matter as the N. Y. Ledger, for sale at Gamble's and Slocum's Book store's.

OUR FACILITIES.

The Daily Express has grown with the most wonderful rapidity known to newspaper enterprises, with daily dispatches from all parts of the world, and correspondents in the remotest cities; in a wonderful short space of time it has grown from the year to the most diverse output of enterprising Journalism.

OUR WEEKLY EXPRESS.

A splendid eight page, forty column paper, containing less advertising and more reading matter than any paper of its size in the country. We have never found it necessary to appeal to the friends of the Union to support this journal, as its merits have been acknowledged at home and abroad, having subscribers and correspondents in twenty-three States of the Union and in Europe.

All communications for publication should be addressed, Editor Express. All business communications should be addressed, A. SIEMERING & CO., San Antonio, Texas, Feb 1868.

A FIRST-CLASS OFFICE.

The growth of the FREE PRESS and EXPRESS of this city has been so quiet and imperceptible that but few persons are aware of the importance and extent of the office where they are published.

The publishing house of A. Siemering & Co. gives permanent employment to eighteen persons, and occasional employment to seven others.

In addition to daily telegraphic communication with the whole world, it has paid correspondents in New York, Galveston, France, and Germany, besides occasional correspondents throughout Texas who feel a personal interest in getting the facts before the people in an unbiased shape before they appear through prejudiced sources.

We do not mean to detract one iota from the many warm friends at home who have stood permanently by the papers from their infancy till now, when we frankly acknowledge that these occasional communications have done more towards making the papers permanent and powerful organs of the people than all other influences combined, and, come what may, no other event would be considered so great a calamity as the loss of this interest.

These facts may appear insignificant to metropolitan eyes; but when it is considered that in August, 1865, the whole concern was "a child unborn," and as late as 1866 the whole business was carried on with a common hand press, with but one compositor and no editor on one of the papers, a hundred and fifty miles away from railroads or navigation, surrounded by threatening enemies, many subscribers taking their papers from the Post Office like thieves carrying off plunder, there is something to be proud of, and that pride belongs to every patron, even though he gave but a dime for the morning paper; for to sustain such a loyal concern was as fatal as to conduct it.

The office now has a magnificent cylinder press, capable of printing three thousand copies per hour, besides hand and job presses. There are four papers published and handsomely sustained. The German, Tri-Weekly and Weekly, (with probably the largest circulation in the State). The English, Weekly and Daily, (the best abused paper in the State).

The job department is as complete as is possible to have it, and is always crowded with work. It rests with the people of Western Texas whether this concern advances or recedes, and the past gives us ample guarantees for the future.

AUSTIN MAIL.—The Colorado is eight feet higher than for many years, in consequence of which we are without mails from the Capital.

NEW LIFE IN TEXAS.

Already the effects of the new regime is being felt in this portion of Texas. The doubts that an aggressive policy would prove successful with the Union party have proven unfounded, and the glorious triumph of Republican principles has united with us all our best citizens who doubted the wisdom of placing our future hope upon the success of the Congressional plan. Thus we see the wisdom of relying upon principles. "Sink or swim, survive or perish," most triumphantly vindicated.

There may be few whose hopes of the future are governed by the probabilities of their getting bread and butter from the public crib, who despond and see gloom in the future without the cooperation of our enemies. These men are our most dangerous enemies, because professed friends.

What are the facts? Here at San Antonio, a loyal municipal administration has, in a few short months, brought scrips from twenty-five cents to a dollar for dollar. The administration of justice is changed from the hands of an infamous nest of corporation thieves to the hands of representatives of the people. Registration has changed the control of the ballot box from the hands of roughs and street loafers, who herded their voting cattle like beasts into the hands of the honest laborers, who now hold public officers responsible directly to them.

What has this done? The city treasury being filled, we see calls from the Mayor asking bidders to put in their estimates on public improvements that the citizens have longed to see, and wondered they were not done before. This honesty in the corporation is extending to individuals, and already a dozen new business blocks are projected, some of them contracted for, and ere the summer is past their beautiful granite fronts will ornament our principal business marts, while residences neat and comfortable are springing up every day. The capitalists are organizing to push through the railroad to the Gulf. Speculators are quietly getting hold of choice pieces of land. Schools are springing up in every direction, and the faces of San Antonians never betokened more hope than now.

Fogies and grumblers to the rear. Young America and energy to the front. This hunting out the dark spots is infamous. Spot the vampires who have crept in and turned to private uses every public enterprise, and in five years the result will be miraculous.

THE PRICE OF LIBERTY IS ETERNAL VIGILANCE.

Already we hear of attempts by dishonest rebels, to dissect the minds of colored men towards Republican party.

Our position admits of no indolence, every Union man must constitute himself a vigilance committee, if he expects to see the triumph of his party. Every conceivable lie is hatched up to discourage the freedmen. The business enterprises springing up will give them employment; the building of the railroad will give them bread.

The Legislature must pass a homestead law providing them an opportunity for securing a place where they will be independent of tyrannical masters.

The whites who are educated can read these signs; the negro is ignorance, forced upon him by cruel slavery, depends on you. "The darkest hour of night is just before day."

INDIANOLA.

The loyal communities of Matagorda Bay are becoming alive to the necessity of their port and harbor. An able article upon that subject, in the Free Press two weeks ago freshened their minds on the matter and showed the course necessary to secure the assistance of the General Government.

A movement has been set on foot to subscribe for harbor improvements and with the co-operation of Congress, if the matter is not permitted to lag, we will soon be in direct communication with the principal cities of our own country. With railroad and steam-ship communication between New York and San Antonio, will come the indispensable overland railroad to Mazatlan, Mexico, one of the finest harbors on the Pacific coast.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—Governor Baker appeared before the United States Commissioner Shannon yesterday to answer to the charge of perjury in taking the oath of office, but was released on $2,000 bonds.

The total loss by fire at Jefferson, Texas, on the night of the 29th ultimo, foots up at over a million dollars. The Phoenix and Etas Insurance Companies are partial losers. The City Council last night adopted a resolution requesting General Hancock to supply a law laying the collection of back taxes as a means of improving the city finances.

New York, March 12—Sub Treasury balance to-day $103,000,000. The Democratic State Convention at Albany, to-day nominated full delegates to the National Democratic Convention with Horatio Seymour, Samuel J. Tilden, Sanford E. Church and Henry C. Murphy, Delegates at large. Seymour made a long speech advocating the payment of bonds according to their face. The resolutions are an arraignment of the Republican party. (No news from Congress.)

The Washington Star states that Dr. Bell, "a full blooded negro," spoke to the crowded meeting of Democrats in Lebanon, N. H., one day last week. He edits a Democratic paper.

One dollar will pay for a month's subscription for the Daily Express.

SOIREE

AT THE CASINO HALL,

Saturday March 14th, 1868.

None but members and their guests admitted. (March 13/21)

Govt.—One of the Confederate sages who lounges on Bascom's corner, thinks gold is going down with "our" President. That's as good as the Irishman who voted for suffrage because he was "in favor of the nigger sufferin'."

MAYOR'S COURT.—Since the appearance of the ordinance against houses of ill-fame, there has been considerable commotion among the negatives du-passe. The ordinance took effect Tuesday last, and a number of the poor wretches inhabiting the O'Det House started from there Monday without prospects of home or shelter. They camped on the prairie west of the city limits, and that night the fearful storm that flooded everything came up and continued through the night; their condition next day was indescribable—drowned rats were no comparison. As soon as their condition became known they were provided with temporary comforts.

If some of our Christian organizations would look up these wretched, hidden criminals and report them to the authorities, the latter would gladly unite in alleviating their sufferings and breaking them of their vices. A little less of "I thank God I am better than thou" Christianity, and a little more of "here's-a-dollar" Christianity, would secure San Antonio a better name than she now enjoys abroad. "Vice travels a thousand miles while virtue goes across the street."

Jane Hall and Caudina Pina were arraigned before the Court, charged with keeping a disorderly house. They were allowed twenty-four hours to break up and change their vocation.

"Jack Sprat" paid two dollars for riding faster than a walk across one of the bridges.

District Court.—The Hon. District Judge is pushing forward business with a vigor that astonishes the Bar and every one else interested in law matters. It is no exaggeration to say that more cases are being disposed of during this term than the total of the past ten years. All the chronic eye-sores that lumber up the docket, are being called up and dismissed. The necessity and justice of this course is apparent in the fact that the Attorneys ask the Court, "which side am I set for in that case," and many suits have no living parties to them.

An old officer of the army used to say that the three duties of a quartermaster, as understood by the quartermaster himself, were first, to make himself comfortable; second, to make himself more comfortable; third, to make himself most comfortable. If any time remained he was to employ it in making everybody else uncomfortable.

Between Memphis and Nashville is the following inscription on a side board at a railroad crossing: "Look out for the nigger when the wale blows or rings!"

A boy remarked to his mother, the other day, that he never knew before that Mr. — was a milliner. "Well, he isn't," said his mother. "Yes, he is," said the boy, "for father went in there last night to get a night-cap."

BATTLE CRY.

The Advertiser will probably appreciate the compliment if we say it is one of the most dignified, and as a consequence—influential conservative paper in the State.

"ORGANIZATION" is the watchword of the present day. If we would defeat a party devoid of common decency—dustitate of the first principles of political party organization—which has no principles save those of the "rule or ruin" policy—who are prompted to action simply from a desire for position, power and spoils—a Robspierre, mongrelite clan, whose infamy and contamination is a disgrace to the name of an American citizen, and more particularly of the 19th century—we say, if we would defeat this ignominious, midnight, wool-gathering clan, let there be a thorough organization of the bone and sinew of the land. The imported carpet-bag, half naturalized, uncivilized radical vandals have no interest in this community, and when this latitude grows too warm for their miserable carcasses, then to a foreign shore they will be making a straight "shirt-tail."

Citizens of Bastrop—ORGANIZE—we tell you it is the watchword of the faithful old Democracy of the North, who, in thunder tones, call upon you to stand by them and the President in the fight for the Constitution and liberty.

Then COME ONE—COME ALL—UNITE—ORGANIZE, and let us fight it out on this line—or perish in the noble work.

Copperhead Orators Speaking Out in New Hampshire.

One of the Democratic canvassers in New Hampshire a few days ago expressed himself:

"If I could have my way I would place Jeff. Davis in Congress, where he rightfully belongs; then I would go to Concord, take all those miserable battle flags from the State house, and make a bonfire of them in the State house yard; then I would go all through the North and destroy all the monuments and grave-stones erected to the memory of soldiers; in short, I would put out of sight everything which reminds us that we ever had a war with our Southern brethren. I do not know as I would hang one-legged and one-armed soldiers, but I would pray to God to get them out of our way as soon as possible."

Mr. C. Chauncey Burr is one of the most active of the Democratic speakers now at work in New Hampshire. Here is a specimen of his utterance: "You cannot have the face to ask the South to come back into the Union until you withdraw your marauding army. Is there a man in this audience who wants to have one-half the States conquered and subjugated? When this is done you have ended the government. After three years of war, who are conquered, you or the South? I say you are conquered. You can never conquer the South, and I pray God you never may."

"In New Jersey they (the Democrats) had shifted the responsibility of these despotic acts to the shoulders of the Abolitionists, and more than one provost-marshal had a hole made through his head. In this State it was a difficult matter at one time to find an Abolitionist who would accept such a position, and the administration had tried to bribe Democrats, but, thank God, they had failed. But they had well-nigh come to the end of their reign of despotism. They could and should not go any further. They talked about a rebellion down South, but a greater rebellion had been in progress in the North."

BAYON ROUTE, February 27, 1868.—A private of the 20th U. S. Infantry, named Williamson, who was terribly wounded on Washington's birthday by the premature discharge of a cannon, died this morning. He was a native of Pennsylvania, and served during the whole war.

Peter Cook, the notorious highway robber, who was sentenced by the Fifth District Court to 28 years in the Penitentiary, was granted by the Supreme Court of the State, a new trial.

Over 500 tickets were issued in this parish for the relief of poor people by furnishing them with rations from the Government.
