FROM SEGUIN.

SEGUIN, Texas, April 4, 1868.
Editors San Antonio Express:

In your issue of the 1st instant, I notice an editorial addressed to the Union men of Gonzales and Guadalupe counties. There are some remarks in the article alluded to that demand from me a reply.

Captain White is charged with writing a lying communication which was signed by me. I only wish to say in reply to this, that I wrote every word in the communication alluded to, and that Captain White did not write or dictate one word or syllable in the communication. At my request—my hand being sore—Captain White copied the communication, every word of which was my own. He had nothing further to do with it whatever.

As to the attack upon the other gentlemen named—they can answer for themselves; and I dare say they are as willing as they are able, at all times to answer for their acts.

I have only to add, that I can and am ready at any and all times to establish by testimony irrefutable the truth of every word in the communication complained of; and if any man—citizen or officer—asserts that the statements are not true, I will demand an investigation of the same, I now promise to prove everything therein contained.

FRENCH SMITH.

[The above was written in the hand of Mr. W. E. Goodrich; but a little error of grammar should not be charged to the Colonel.—Eds. EXPRESS.]

The above is a letter we received this week from an old friend and brother.— To which we have to say that we are sorry to loose such a subscriber, and more so, that he could not find a better excuse for refusing the "Guard" for any one that is in favor of a re-united Government, and can take but one paper, and that the "Lacrosse Democrat," is in our humble opinion, still in the "gale of bitterness and bonds of iniquity." Reflect, Brother.

Swift into the jaws of hell rode the factions swift.

From the Galia Guard.
REVUJO, March 22d, 1868.
Bro. Dick Davis:—If my subscription for the Guard is out, you will please excuse further patronage, as I am not able to read but one paper these times, and that must certainly be the Lacrosse Democrat.

Fraternally yours,
F. M. SWIFT.

We have, no doubt, the most prolific jail out. It brought forth again eight before last. A man calling himself Charles Lithgo, of English origin, and charged with burglary at Indianola, being sent here for safe keeping, together with a negro named John Sally, nominated for killing cattle, made their escape. No blame is attached to the Sheriff.—Victoria Advocate.

That owing to him which he received for keeping out of the way.

On page 94 Appendix to the Congressional Globe, first session 30th Congress will be found the following words:
"Any people, anywhere, being inclined and having the power, have the right to rise up and shake off the existing government and form a new one that suits them better."

Any portion of such people that can, may revolutionize, and may make their own of such territory as they inhabit."

Will some of our good "loil" contemporaries please publish the above and tell their readers that it was enunciated by Abraham Lincoln, in a speech made by him Jan. 12, 1848, on a motion to refer a portion of President Polk's message.

We suppose this was intended to apply to the colored people of that great and independent nation of South Carolina, they being a majority of the "people."

Letter from the Rio Grande.

EAGLE PASS, Texas, March 31st, '68.
Editors of the San Antonio Express:

The monotony which has prevailed at Eagle Pass since the collapse of the rebellion has lately been broken up by the arrival of troops to garrison the Post of Fort Duncan.

Fort Duncan is now occupied by Co-I., 41st U. S. Infantry, under the command of Brvt. Lieut. Col. Crandoll. The 41st U. S. Infantry under the command of Brvt. Col. Shafton, Lieut. Colonel of the regiment arrived at this place on the 23d inst, and the following day seven companies of this regiment resumed their march up the country, orders having been received here that this regiment should occupy the Posts on the Rio-Grande frontier, from Fort Duncan to Fort Quitman; inclusive Company A, 41st U. S. Infantry, which is now at Laredo, is soon expected here as an increase to the permanent garrison. The Headquarters of the 41st U. S. Infantry have been temporarily established at Fort Duncan, and in the absence of Gen.
McKenzie, the regiment is under the command of Col. Shafton. Company H, 9th U. S. Cavalry has been ordered to Fort Duncan.

The arrival of troops and the prospect that a considerable force will be stationed here permanently, have caused the countenances of the merchants to wear a cheerful aspect, and a liberal disbursement of greenbacks is anxiously looked for by them. Wm. Schhardt Esq., of Pedras Negras, has lately been appointed the Commercial Agent of the United States at that place. Mr. Sch-hardt is an experienced merchant and an accomplished gentleman and will do all in his power to protect the rights and interests of American citizens and facilitate commercial transactions.

The Lipan Indians have made peace with the Mexican authorities and have just established themselves at San Fernando, Mexico. The Lipans number seventy warriors. The settlement of the Indians so close to the Rio Grande will doubtless give a new impetus to the trade in stock across the river, as the Lipans will be able to compete successfully with the Kickapoo in thieving and mauling on this side of the river on account of their proximity to Texas soil. It is to be hoped that our government will soon adopt effective measures to protect the inhabitants of this frontier from the bands of thieving and murderous Indians, who find refuge and protection in Mexico.

Your valuable paper is highly appreciated here and the bold stand taken by you in national politics and in questions of State policy meets the hearty approval of the loyal people.

AGUILA.

Is it True?—It is rumored that Johnson is fishing for a Radical nomination.
The grounds for this rumor is, that he has lately brevetted the Express to the rank and pay of a major, and commanded all persons to respect and obey it as such. We don't believe it.—Victoria Advocate.

We confess to a weakness for rank, at least when the choice is limited to that of rebel ranks.

We have been on the eve of requesting the grog shops, in Victoria to stop trusting the editor of the Advocate (old White) if they don't he will soon go off by spontaneous combustion and blow up the town.

Until then, he must still pass for "the dirty (Republican) Editor of the State," as dubbed by a Northern paper. Why, the boy's a fool; and don't know it.
We have among us officers, such as will win respect anywhere, a thing which the "April Fool" effort of that Jeremy Diddle of an editor, N. comb proves that he never will do. Pity he's got into the black flock, the little kinky headed fool; he'll give them the scab.

The above from the pen of the only ass who has ever possessed energy enough to bray in the Seguin (Gudalupe County, Texas) Journal.—Tom Noddy—leads to a wrong impression. The only newspaper man in this city with a kinky head is the local of the Herald and his offer said local the use of our columns to reply.

JOB WORK.

Our patrons are solicited to send in their orders for Bill-Heads, Cards, Circular letters, Checks and every variety of Job Work.

We have secured the services of a first class workman from the east, and have made our Job Department as complete as is possible to have it.

MR. HALL DENIES OUR STATEMENT.

The State Gazette states that Mr. Hall denies our statement about the detention of mails and passengers at Bastrop at the time we passed over the route. What we stated was every word true and can be certified to by several persons. We believe that this denial is simply gratuitous on the part of the old Yankee who hires himself out by the mouth to lie and to vilify Union men.

THE OLD IGNOMINIOUS AGAIN.

Some time since we noticed the coarse old Yankee who edits the State Gazette. What we said about him being ignorant and coarse is fully confirmed by his reply. He alludes to our visiting the Gazette office, and makes the statement that we called on him, when we distinctly informed the old reprobate that we called to see Mr. Walker to say something to him about the death of his brother in California. Joselyn belongs to that most detestable class of Northern men who did the dirty work for Southern gentlemen during the rebellion and keeps up their occupation to this day.

STRANGE USE TO BE MADE OF A MISFORTUNE.

Since the destruction of the Galveston railroad bridge, the stages between this city and Columbus have quit making schedule time. Immediately upon the destruction of the bridge an order was obtained from the Postoffice Department requiring the Postmaster at this place to deliver the mails whenever called for. The mails are regularly carried between Galveston and the railroad connection by steamer. The mails are brought to Columbus by railroad. The detention of mails have usually been caused by the bad state of the Columbus railroad. It seems a strange excuse for the stage company not making schedule time.

WHO IS WHO?

In another column we publish from Mr. Smith a corroboration of our statement regarding his communication to the authorities at Austin respecting the troops recently stationed at Seguin. The troops deny the charges made by Mr. Smith, and the charges can be substantiated only by rebel testimony. It is unnecessary for us to reiterate our assertions, oft-repeated, that a class of men who perjured themselves in violating their allegiance once, may be considered ready to corroborate anything is derogation to their enemies.

Colonel Smith presided at a Republican meeting in Seguin last summer, and in a speech explaining the objects of that meeting he took the strongest radical grounds. We are sorry to be forced to believe that a gentleman of as much noted moral courage should now be found backing down from the position he then maintained. But the sooner the Republican party gets rid of weak-kneed Union men the better it will be off.

If Colonel Smith or any one else associates with and signs papers written by men who openly encourage the prosecution and persecution of such men as Captain Vaughn, Dr. Marsh, Lieutenant Lilly and a score of other men in that region, who through all the infamy of the Hancock regime did not forget their allegiance to the old flag, they must have the cloak of loyalty stripped from their backs. This is no time to trim, and that class of men are the most dangerous enemies we have to contend with; they are rebel tools in Union ranks, and it is time they were at home.

MARTIAL LAW IN TEXAS.

The authorities are making strenuous efforts to have martial law established in Texas. We earnestly urge that this measure be killed, and that the Governor instead be empowered to organize the militia and summarily eject from office in the State every man of doubtful loyalty.

THE SEGUIN JOURNAL AND THE EXPRESS.

In the first place we must inform our readers that there is a paper printed in the town of Seguin named "The Journal;" we doubt if this paper is seen by half a dozen persons outside of the rural village of Seguin. This paper has never had a readable line in it until the last number, in which a page is devoted to THE EXPRESS, and personal attacks upon Mr. Newcomb, one of the editors of the EXPRESS. This journal comes to the defense of some individuals mentioned in our paper. It is needless to attempt to reply to a string of rebel invectives, of which we give the following specimens: "But because Colonel Smith will not bow his neck to every behest of the brainless leaders of the Radical party, he must be branded in a newspaper as a liar and a slanderer, and that too by a contemptible, penniless, characterless, stealing carpet-bagger, who, whatever else he left when he commenced his wanderings from the Green Mountains to the Sunny South for self and plunder, left no character behind. Unable to make an honest living at home, he seeks in this sorrow-stricken land, ruled by bayonets and axes, by wholesale falsehood to keep himself in power and place with the present dominant faction, well knowing that when the day of honest government shall dawn, that his occupation is gone."

How well this applies to any one of the proprietors or editors of the EXPRESS, can be seen by our readers without much explanation, inasmuch as neither of us came from the Green Mountains, and can claim the name of Texian with more propriety than the editor of the Journal. The extraordinary article from which the above clipping is taken, winds up thus: "If the genius of moral, social and political anarchy, ever had an infernal minister, perfectly suited to and adapted for its hellish work, it is the San Antonio EXPRESS, and its hell-inspired engineer, James P. Newcomb."

This is highly complimentary. The whole paper is full of miserable attempts at puns upon Mr. Newcomb, of which the following is a sample: "The Boa Constrictor slimes over his food before swallowing. Newcomb has commenced beliming a number of our citizens. Look out! His rapacious maw is empty—but maybe he ain't a Boa!" "Be aisy, Newcomb; we are 'Bluidy Saxons' down here; but have no appetite for your poor lie-current—wouldn't touch it! couldn't stand the contamination! Rather keep you where you are, just as a specimen. Want to be able to prove it (your meanness) when we state how mean a man may become—and live."

This is a fair sample of the rebel literature of the State. We only notice this unknown journal, to show the local influences which keep alive the rebel spirit, and which help to sink still lower in the scale of depravity communities already hopelessly depraved.

It has been nearly a week since the election in Rhode Island. What is the matter Mr. Press-reporter, has Rhody "gone back" on the Copperhead snake?

The most useful way to spend your leisure would be to visit your neighbors and organize a club for the Weekly Express.

Washington Items.

Washington, April 4.—No legislature at either House.

At a Cabinet meeting to-day, Thomas was not present.

Reconstruction Committee will consider the Florida Constitution to-morrow.

Re-instructions to Collectors concerning new tax law in course of preparation, were given.

Revenue receipts to-day, one million three hundred and seventy thousand.

Impeachment.

Washington, April 4.—Impeachment resumed the evidence concerning the President's speeches, regarding the address delivered by the President to Committee of the Philadelphia Convention. Associated press copy, corrected by Gen. Moore, the President's private secretary, and one reproduced from original telegraphic notes were admitted.

Cleveland speech was next taken up. Chase ruled against the admission. Cleveland leaders version as published, the copy was a condensation from long hand notes.

Drake appealed, appeal was sustained 15 to 11; Johnson voting aye; Trumbull nay. Two other versions of the same speech were admitted.

The day was spent discussing art of reporting two attempts at adjournment until Monday, were defeated and adjourned.

Nothing new developed. Butler continues to do all the work.

Senate went into executive session to require secretly from executive, document which, impeachment managers wanted.

Resolutions of Indiana Legislature urging the adoption of a national law for eight hours to constitute a day's work, were read.

Impeachment resumed. Reporters were examined relative to the President's St. Louis speech, and a copy admitted as evidence.

Mr. Chew, chief clerk of the State Department, examined relative to routine of commissions and change in form conforming to tenure of office act. He produced the letter from the President to the Secretary of Treasury, advising him of Stanton's removal in conformity with tenure of office act. Admitted.

Correspondence between President Adams and Mr. Pinckney, and Adams' message to Senate in the year 1800, was admitted.

Motion made for a recess. Butler requested a few minutes delay, but Senate took a recess.

On reassembling Butler announced they had closed the case except cumulative evidence.

Defense asked an adjournment until Thursday, to prepare and arrange evidence.

Conness moved that the Court adjourn to Wednesday. [Cries of "shame," and "give them the other day."]

Mr. Johnson moved to adjourn to Thursday. Carried, with but two negatives. The Senate adjourned till Monday.

The closing of the prosecution today caused astonishment. The rights of the defense were not usurped in any instance, and the public are disappointed. It seems to be admitted on all hands that Butler's management of the case has not strengthened impeachment. Some claim that Butler gave undue importance to his own article—the tenth.

European.

London, April 4.—D'Israeli moved an adjournment of the House till the 20th, if the Liberals should carry the Irish Church question. Adopted.

Then a division occurred on Stanley's motion to postpone the Church question to next session; six hundred members voted, and government was defeated by sixty majority. Gladstone's resolutions were then adopted by 56 majority.

Consols, 93. Bonds, 72 1/2.

New Orleans, April 4.—The cotton market excited. Sales of 5,000 Middling, at 30 to 30 1/2. Receipts, 1940 bales. Exported 2954 bales. Sales of the week, 34,700 bales. Receipts, 11,950 bales. Exports, 14,131 bales. Stock on hand, 69,264 bales. Gold, 159. Sterling, 51 to 51. York sight 1/2 premium.

To the Stock Drivers OF TEXAS

The undersigned take this method of informing the Cattle Drivers of Texas that our Shipping Yards at Abilene, Kansas, will be open free to all to ship this season, these yards are on the Union Pacific road, 100 miles west of Topeka, Kansas, on the only legally authorized route from Texas to the North-west, and are situated in an excellent grazing range, these yards are extensively advertised in the leading southwestern papers, calling attention of all classes of buyers, where they can come and supply themselves; and this point will, without doubt, be the best one to which to drive and sell the surplus cattle of the Southwest. Once here, you are accessible by rail to all the markets of the country. We would advise to drive only full grown steers, as they are the most wanted. The proper route to drive is via Bolen's Crossing on Red River, thence to Fort Arbuckle; thence to Chisholm ranch; thence to the mouth of Little Arkansas; thence to Abilene; total distance from Northern Texas about 200 miles. We will be at Abilene in the trade, buying, shipping and selling on Commission, &c. We refer to all with whom we dealt the past season. W. K. MCCOY & BRO'S. march20dtf
