OUR GALVESTON LETTER.
The Present Commandant of the Fifth Military District—Rebel Opinion—Prospects of Impatchment—Personal —Local Affairs.
GALVESTON, Texas, April 5, 1868.
Editors of the San Antonio Express: From the best information that can be had—and your correspondent has conversed with prominent gentlemen recently from Headquarters at New Orleans; and with others who know whereof they speak—our present Commandant of the Fifth Military District is emphatically a fossil of the superannuated order—a gentleman far advanced in life, who is constitutionally averse to any labor or bother relative to his duties; who likes not the work of affixing his name to an official document—who considers the work of reconstruction a very unpleasant one for him to perform, and who is besides a mere puppet in the hands of Mr. Johnson in the management of this District. Such is the character given of Brevet Major General Buchanan. Corroborative of this the rebel press style our new commandant a Haplock man, and attribute to him the same faculties of maladministration and dereliction of duty, common to the renowned Copperhead of the American Army, General Hancock.
It is thought that, under our present regime, our Convention may be called perhaps a month hence, as our rebel folks wish the matter delayed as long as possible.
Fortunately for us and the country Andrew Johnson will be removed before the close of another month. This is positive. Letters have been received by gentlemen here, written the past few days from prominent members of Congress, confirmatory of what is here stated —that by no possible chance within the contingencies of human life will Mr.
Johnson remain in office. Republicans may certainly rest assured of this—"The mills of the Gods grind slowly, but they are sure." I do not think—and I base my opinion on private intelligence from Washington—that we will have no change in District commanders till after the traitor at the White House shall have been removed. The abolishing consideration now is Mr. Johnson's punishment, and thank God, the country possesses Senators and Representatives who will do their duty without fear or favor. With this knowledge the Unionists of our State can afford to suffer an additional month of suffering awaiting the grand result.
The Hon. Judge Bell, of Austin, left our city this morning for Brazoria. The Judge has been here for several days; he delivered a fine address to our Republicans on Friday night, and has now the encomiums of our Unionists by his sterling patriotism and unflinching loyalty.
The Hon. W. E. Horse, member elect to the Constitutional Convention from Fort Bend county, is in our city on business connected with his duties in the Internal Revenue Department. Mr. Horse is a worthy representative of the earnest Unionists of his District, and is destined to make his mark in the Convention as a stalwart defender of the radical principles of the Republican party.
The Bonded Warehouse frauds are still undergoing investigation. New developments have been made, and it is understood that probably more parties are implicated than those already known to the public. The whole matter is being probed with much ability by Special Agent Sloanaker.
The Criminal Court adjourned its sittings from here to Harris county last Thursday.
Dr. R. K. Smith, member elect to the Constitutional Convention and editor of the Galveston Republican, received a Ku-Klux Klan document last Monday, purporting to emanate from 780 white men, bonded together for his extermination, etc., etc. The whole thing was written in blood-and-thunder style. The Doctor very calmly replied through a daily paper to this infamous attack, and in doing so he cleared this rebel organization that their little game of intimidation towards Union men, though well begun and in approved rebel style, will not go down; but that Republicans are prepared to stand their ground. The rebel organ here does not like the tone of the Doctor's reply, and implores its friends in their own interests to frown down any attempts like that threatened against our Republican editor.
A gentleman of the editorial fraternity near, to whom you applied the term of long ears, is much incensed thereat, and threatens never to read your paper again. What a comment on the weakness of wounded pride and vanity.
The Opera is winning golden opinions from our citizens. We have really a most excellent troupe.

LETTER OF THE QUARTER-MASTER'S CLERKS UPON THE MURDER OF THEIR COMPANION.
The recent murder of one of the Quartermaster's clerks in Austin brought forth the following letter from his companions:
HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF TEXAS, April 2nd, 1868.
MR. EDITOR:—To-day we have the painful duty to perform of consigning to the tomb the last remains of one who has been dear to all of us, and not only to us, as soldiers, but to all with whom he has ever come in contact.
Deeply regretting, as we do, his untimely end, it has furthermore led us into a painful and bitter train of thought.
What right has a soldier, as representative of the government of the United States, what right has he, that a citizen is bound to respect?—Not only has this last painful occurrence led us to this belief, but that atrocities of a similar character are perpetrated, and are being perpetrated, every day, throughout the entire State. Soldiers are shot down in cold blood, insulted and spit upon by men—no, we can hardly call them men, but by brutes in human form, who call themselves citizens—citizens of Texas, Unhappy State!—And for what provocation? For the crime of being loyal and true to the great fundamental principles of free government; for remaining true and steadfast to the great and noble principles of liberty and law! Citizens, we have said: Does the prerogative of citizenship in Texas necessarily consist in being a cut-throat and mur-derer, desperado, an outcast from civilized society? Such we are led to believe, and such our organs of sight have taught us.
It is, at the present time, impossible for a person with the private uniform of the military power of the United States to go into the streets of your city without being the subject of an insult from the citizen population. Don't understand us to intimate that every citizen of Austin should be enumerated under such a head. By no means. A good part of your population are men that we are bound to respect, men who have shown their loyalty before the face of treason, men upon whom we can depend for sympathy and who are proud of the title of an American citizen. But this class constitute your better class of society; they are those with whom a soldier comes seldom in contact. But those who are hostile to us and to liberty and law, wherever it may be found; this class of poor, ignorant beings; this order of cut-throats, gamblers, murderers, and desperadoes, we are obliged to confess constitute the greater part of your population, and are those with whom a soldier daily comes in contact.
The last victim of your present State laws, our lamented chief clerk, was a man who has always been a steadfast friend to the South; born, and living in the South throughout his life, and in whom the South had no better friend, but he, too, has fallen by its own hand, and for what?—Because, forsooth, he wore the uniform of a Northern soldier.
And now, Mr. Editor, have we no redress? We have borne these atrocities with patience; but the end is at hand, and in closing we utter the sentiments of every soldier at this Post. You have forced us to defend ourselves, and we shall. Let one more soldier be shot in the streets of Austin—let one more man be insulted without provocation, and we will show you what we have forgotten since Lee's surrender. That we are right and we will maintain them.
(Signed) All the clerks of District Headquarters.

FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1868.

Copies of the Weekly Express containing as much reading matter as the N. Y. Ledger, for sale at Gambler's and Sloman's Book store.

OUR FACILITIES.

The Daily Express has grown with the most wonderful rapidity known in newspaper enterprise, with daily dispatches from all parts of the World, and correspondents in the principal cities; in a wonderful short space of time it has sprung from the rear to the most advanced outpost of enterprising Journalism.

OUR WEEKLY EXPRESS.

A splendid eight page forty column paper, containing less advertising and more reading matter than any paper of its size in the country.

We have never found it necessary to appeal to the friends of the Union to support this journal, as its merits have been acknowledged at home and abroad, having subscribers and correspondents in twenty-three States of the Union and in Europe. Every town and every Post office neighborhood in Texas, should receive a Club of the Weekly Express. It is to the interest of all peace-loving citizens to center their broad thoughts throughout the State in its columns. To do this, let every reader induce his neighbor to subscribe, after reading his paper, each subscriber can do his paper up and forward it to a loyal friend who will make a Club in a region where the paper is not known.

Terms of Subscription.

Annual subscription, in advance, $1.00 each. Daily, single copies, one cent. Weekly single copies, one cent.

One copy sent gratis to get up a Club of ten copies or more. Paper mailed or delivered by carrier.

Payment invariably in Advance. All communications for publication should be addressed, Editor Express.

All business communications should be addressed to A. SIEMERING & CO., San Antonio, Texas.

JOB WORK.

Our patrons are solicited to send in their orders for Bill-Headings, Cards, Circular letters, Checks and every variety of Job Work.

We have secured the services of a first class workman from the east, and have made our Job Department as complete as is possible to have it.

WALT IN BRAVOUR.—The Houston Transcript, a rebel sheet, has been sold out, bringing $2,000, a good deal more than it is worth.

UNION STORES.—The colored people of Houston are organizing a union store, dry goods and groceries. This is a good idea; we hope it will be carried out in every community in the State.

TELEGRAMS.—The municipal and other local authorities throughout many of the Northern States, are now holding their elections. We have in to-day's reports the result of particular localities, where free schools are poorly established and where there is but little intelligence and where, as a matter of course, Copperheadism predominates.

MILWAUKEE IS DEMOCRATIC, because Chicago is Republican, the opposition and jealousy is so intense against Chicago that it overrides all other considerations. We must await the removal of Johnson before getting rid of the traitors who send our press reports.

N. RIOTTE.—We have been shown a private letter from our old fellow-townsmen N. Riotta, dated at Washington. Mr. Riotta speaks of the division of the States, and seems the only champion for the West in Washington. Mr. Riotta knows well our wants, and all the friends of division will feel rejoiced to know they have so able and influential a friend, at the Capital. Mr. Riotta says that there are two delegations in Washington, at present from Texas, opposing the views of Western Texas upon division. It is time our people were waking up to a sense of the danger which threatens us. The politicians of Eastern Texas seem determined either to tag us on their coat tail, or cut us off in an unorganized territory.

We hope the gentlemen having the division matter in hand will stop Mr. Riotta's instructions. Justice, the so-called President of Mexico, has announced his intention of visiting Washington. Juarez will doubtless fill his pockets with the dinero before he leaves—for good.—Houston Telegraph.

This bitter rebel scribbler cannot get over the death of his dear King Max. There is a white woman and a black negro living together in the third Ward as man and wife. The Grand Jury should take cognizance of this, and have the guilty disciples of amalgamation punished.—Houston Telegraph.

This is reversing the usual order Southern amalgamation. The pious hell-bound of the Telegraph has just discovered that amalgamation is crime.

TEXAS BEVER.—Fattened in Illinois, sold recently in New York, at 100 St. Market, for 14 to 17cts, nett—average

GOING TO CALIFORNIA.

The Brenham Banner notes the departure from that place of a small party, who are to join others at San Antonio, for California. The expedition is under the direction of the Brothers Cox, ministers of the Methodist Church, and Professor McCumber, recently acting President of the Soule University. It carries over several thousand head of Texas cattle, and is to be accompanied by about one hundred and fifty persons.

Mr. J. H. May gives notice through the Examiner that an "Emigrant Train" bound for California, across the plains, will take its departure from Waco about or soon after the first day of May next. As many as thirty families, he says, are already engaged to go. It being important for purposes of defense, that all persons wishing to make the trip, should start together, Mr. May avails himself of this method of making known the place of general rendezvous and the time of departure.

The people who are dissatisfied with Texas and wish to emigrate to California, are made up of those who imagine that they are oppressed by the success of the Republican party in Texas, and the prospect of a truly Republican government, in which every citizen will have equal political rights without distinction of race or color.

California is a State where nothing short of intelligent industry, the quickest enterprise, and the highest intelligence will succeed. It's a land where laziness and incompetence will certainly stand.

The professional man must be possessed of the sharpest wit and be complete in his profession; the mechanic must possess a perfect knowledge of his business; the farmer must understand scientific farming and make use of labor-saving implements, and be content with turning his hogs into his wheat field when all the other wheat regions of the world have a good season, as California has no market short of ten thousand miles; the laborer must come in competition with the rice-eating Chinaman, who is bound to be busy all the time, and who is bound to be making wages if he gets but ten cents per day. There are more than fifty thousand Chinamen in California who do all manner of labor, from making clothes to portrait painting.

The Texas emigrant to California must meet the incoming Oriental. We do not desire to hold any one back, because we know that there will be a reflux tide from the Pacific. It is not all gold that glitters.

MEMBER IN PANOLA COUNTY.—About the 23d of January last, a gentleman riding a yellow horse, and leading a black brown pony, crossed the Sabine river at Grand Bluff, and was seen in company with several men residing in that neighborhood, at or near the house of a man named Bill Coyle, and about four miles from the crossing, in Panola county, with whom he is supposed to have put up that night, since which time the stranger, whose name is unknown, has never been heard of. He was traveling in an easterly direction towards Shreveport, and was supposed to be from San Antonio or Mexico. Coyle has since left the neighborhood, and the house he lived in at that time, is now occupied by a man named William Taylor, who found in a neighboring field a newly made grave in a brush thicket, which on examination, proved to contain the dead body of the traveler. The horse, which was a fine one, has been carried out of the county, but the pony is in the possession of a Mrs. Johnson, who lives three miles from Taylor's.

A foul murder has evidently been committed, and we give the above incidents, in hope that the guilty parties may be brought to justice. San Antonio and other Western Texas papers, may by publishing this, confer a favor on the friends of the deceased, as his name might thus be elicited, and additional exertions made to ferret out this bloody transaction.—Rusk Observer.

TEXAS RAILROAD.—The completion of the railroad connection between New Orleans and Houston is a matter of almost paramount importance to the welfare of this city. By this route we shall have a direct avenue open to the whole interior of Texas. A proposition has been made, so we learn from the Times, by General T. E. Price and Mr. P. M. Chouteau, of St. Louis, in consideration of ten years' lease of the Opelousas railroad to Barwick's bay, to complete the connection to the Sabine in thirty months, provided the bondholders of the road subscribe to the stock of the completed road the amount of their matured coupons, and provided that on the completion of the enterprise the present stockholders of the Opelousas road are to consent to a reduction of stock to its present value. By every day's delay in the construction of New Orleans suffer.—N. O. Republican.

On Thursday and Saturday last, the driver of the Huntsville stage threw off at Weller's Ferry, a portion of the mail, both letter and paper, in consequence of which we had nothing late from below for some time. It is a shameful outrage thus to expose mail matter, and the fact should receive the attention of the proper authorities. Will Col. Hobbs look

The undersigned takes this method of informing the Cattle Drovers of Texas that our Shipping Yards at Abilene, Kansas, will be open free to all to ship this season, those yards are on the Union Pacific road, 100 miles west of Topeka, Kansas, on the only legally authorized route from Texas to the north-west; and are situated in an excellent grazing region, these yards are extensively advertised in the leading northwestern papers, calling attention of all classes of buyers, where they can come and supply themselves; and this point will, without doubt, be the best one to which to drive and sell the surplus cattle of the Southwest. Once here, you see accessible by rail to all the markets of the country. We would advise to drive only full grown steers, as they are the most wanted. The proper route to drive is via Bolon's Crossing on Red river, thence to Fort Arbuckle; thence to Chiens ranch; thence to the mouth of little Arkansas; thence to Abilene; total distance from Northern Texas about 250 miles. We will be at Abilene in the trade, buying, shipping and selling on Commission, &c. We refer to all with whom we dealt the past season. W. K. McCOY & BRO'S. march20d30d
