LAW OF THE UNITED STATES, Passed at the Second Session of the Fortieth Congress.
[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 17.]
A Resolution providing for the representation of the United States at the International Maritime Exhibition, to be held at Havre.
Resolved by the Senate and House
of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Navy be authorized to detail one or more officers of the navy, as he shall think best, to be present at the International Maritime Exhibition, to be held at Havre, under the auspices of the French government, from the first of June to thirty-first of October of the present year, there to represent the United States, and otherwise to promote the interests of exhibitors from our country: Provided, That no expenditure shall accrue therefrom to the treasury, or to any public fund, nor shall any mileage or other expenses, or any additional compensation be paid to such persons as may be designated under authority of this resolution, nor shall any national or public vessel be employed to convey the officers so detailed to or from the place of such exhibition.
Approved, March 12, 1868.
[PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 18.]
A Resolution providing for the issue of clothing to soldiers and others, to replace clothing destroyed to prevent contagion.
Resolved by the Senate and House
of Representatives of the United States
of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized, at any time, on the recommendation of the Surgeon General of the army, to order gratuitous issues of clothing to soldiers who have had contagious diseases, and to hospital attendants who have nursed and attended such soldiers, to replace the articles of their clothing which have been destroyed by order of the proper medical officers to prevent contagion.
Approved, March 12, 1868.
The Shreveport Southwest of the latest date received says:
As Texas cattle are now bringing a good price in New Orleans, and the roads from the interior to this point are getting in good order, we look for large droves of cattle to come in for shipment.
As cotton is getting scarce, drovers will find no trouble in shipping their cattle at this point on packets which will take them to the city in forty-eight hours. Bring only good beeves, as they are the only class which sell readily at a remunerative price.
James A. Somerville, of this city, was discharged from employment as a cotton sampler for having voted for the constitution. Did he kick his thumbs and starve, or go back, but in hand, begging to be re-employed? No. He took a homestead and set four men to work upon it, and consequently is now independent. He is no longer a consuming employee, but a producer and employer.
Let others go and do likewise, and it will not be long before men stop trying to make political slaves of their employees.—Mobile Nationalist.

JOB WORK.

Our patrons are solicited to send in their orders for Bill-Heads, Cards, Circular Letters, Checks and every variety of Job Work. We have secured the services of a first class workman from the east, and have made our Job Department as complete as is possible to have it.

A CALL.

To the Merchants, Business Men, and Citizens Generally, of the City of San Antonio and Bexar County.

Referring to the affidavits published herewith, the undersigned would earnestly and respectfully call the attention of their fellow-citizens to the deplorable condition of our frontier.

The whole interests of the people of our western counties—their lives, property, their families, all that they hold dear, or is valuable to them—is being constantly preyed upon, destroyed, and is entirely at the mercy of an organization of robbers, numbering nearly one thousand individuals, who are harbored, encouraged, and abetted, in and by the inhabitants of the contiguous Mexican State of Coahuila.

These robbers have a local habitation and a name. They are the Kickapoo and Lipan Indians.

Their depredations have been reduced to such a certainty, and carried on in such an open manner, that some of the perpetrators have been indicted by name by the Grand Juries of some of the western counties.

The Commissioner under the Extra-territorial treaty, appointed by the Governor of this State, has represented the matter to the authorities of Coahuila, but has received no satisfaction.

This call is not only to your sympathies as human beings, but to your immediate material interests; for, if the entire property of our hardy frontiersmen is suffered to be swept from them as is now rapidly being done, their trade is lost and the result of their industry is destroyed or finds its way into other markets.

Will they peaceably submit to being thus destroyed much longer? We know their temper. Is there not danger of an expedition crossing into Mexico, composed of men rendered desperate by their losses and their wrongs, who, disregarding all laws, will wreak indiscriminate vengeance, not only upon the destroyers, but upon their abettors? This once started, who can say to what extent it may be carried, what injustice may be done, and what complications may ensue, all tending to the destruction of our Mexican trade?

It may be asked, what can be done in the premises? We would say, prosecute the matter through lawful channels; arouse the apathy of State and military officials by a popular movement; have the matter presented in its true proportions to the General Government, and by the General Government brought to the attention of the authorities of Mexico.

Fellow-citizens—Our noble frontiersmen are being murdered and their property destroyed, without redress, and within the very shadow of the Military Posts of the National Government. They appeal to the citizens of Bexar to assist them in obtaining relief. Shall they appeal in vain?

We call, in conclusion, upon all those who are in favor of doing all that can be done for their relief, to meet at the Court House on Saturday the 11th instant, at 7 1/2 P. M., for the purpose of consulting as to the best means of protecting our mutual interests.

Affidavit of Henry Rothe.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF MEDINA.

Before me, the undersigned authority, this day personally came, Henry Rothe, a citizen of the county of Medina, and State of Texas, who, after being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that, in October, A. D. 1866, John Taylor, Kickapoo Indian, stole from his possession in said county of Medina and State aforesaid, one sorrel American horse, branded R on the left shoulder; said horse has had the fistula, but is now well; and he is about eight years old. Said horse is now in the possession of Francisco Castro; said Castro lives in the town of Abasco in the State of Coahuila, Mexico.

Deponent further saith, that, at various times since the sorrel horse was stolen, said Kickapoo Indians have stolen from him four other horses, described as follows, to wit: One, a brown, with four white feet, a blaze face, five years old, branded R on left shoulder; the second is a sorrel, paint-branded R on left shoulder, and has a Mexican brand on left hip; the third is a grey poney, quite old, a fine pacer, branded with a Mexican brand on the hip; and the other is a bay poney with black face, six years old, branded thus.

Deponent is informed, and verily believes, that the said four horses above described are in the possession of the said Kickapoo Indians, or their vendees and confederates in the present huge system of robbery now carried on by the Kickapoos, aided and abetted by citizens of Mexico.

Deponent further saith, that one Ismael Galan bought the sorrel horse hereinbefore described, from the said Kickapoo, John Taylor; Ismael Galan traded the horse to Felix Gonzales, and Felix Gonzales gave the horse to the said Francisco Castro; said Galan and said Gonzales live in Santa Rosa, Mexico. The main camp of Kickapoos is about twenty miles from Santa Rosa, at a place called Nasimendo, and they have camps scattered all over the frontier for operations offensive and defensive, and as scouts and spies.

Deponent further saith that he has visited the main camp of the Kickapoos several times, and he has seen their stock of horses, and he believes from the inspection he made of the brands on said horses that nearly all of them were stolen from Western Texas.

Deponent further saith that he has killed an American up in the mountains near the Hondo and they had got his horse, saddle and bridle, Juan, Gentio and Terro live at the Kickapoo camp near Santa Rosa and claim to belong to that tribe.

The chief said the mules could not be given up because they came from Texas, and belonged to an American. The Alcalde then refused to give up the mules he had bought until the Mexican gentleman accompanying the claimants informed the Alcalde that if he persisted in retaining the mules it would be worse for him than for the Indians, he then gave up the mules upon the payment to him of the trifling amount he had paid to the Indians. The Mexicans and the Indians trade together with the stolen property. The Indians informed the claimants that they were induced by the Alcalde now in question, to go to Texas to steal the mules. When the threat was made to put the Indian, making the assertion, in the calaboose. The Indian said "put me in the calaboose and then you will then see who it was that sent us to steal the mules."

There is no access to the cañon where the Indians are camped except at its mouth. The valleys in the cañon are extensive, pretty well supplied with water and a fine place for stock. They now have there about 4,000 head and they said they had 1,000 head of American stock that would answer for the U. S. cavalry service.

We arrived home with the mules on the 1st day of March, and the night after, (March 2nd), we saw six Indians near the place and they attempted to recapture the mules, but failed. They stole several horses that night in the same place. When the mules were crossed to this side of the Rio Grande, about fifty Indians were seen to cross into Texas from Mexico, this necessitated a change of course on our part and we traveled all night to elude pursuit.

Through the kind offices of a gentleman at Eagle Pass, we procured papers at Piedras Negras that were invaluable, and without those documents our trip must have been a signal failure. The authorities at Eagle Pass refused to render any assistance.

My extensive acquaintance in Mexico, enabled me to get the mules, otherwise it would be impossible to succeed.

(Signed,) MICHEL VILLEMAM.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, Castroville, Texas, March 11, '68.

(Signed,) G. H. NOONAN, District Judge.

Affidavit of Michel Villemain.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF MEDINA.

Before me, the undersigned authority personally appeared, Michel Villemain, a citizen of the county of Bexar, in the State of Texas, who after being duly sworn according to law, deposed and saith:

"I arrived at my house, four miles from Castroville, about 3 o'clock P. M., on the 28th day of January, 1868, I guarded my mules about one mile from the house on the prairie. My mules were stolen about 11 o'clock at night—the next morning three horses of Sitters were stolen from the pasture. My sons, Calistine Villemain, Edward Villemain, and a Mexican named Feliciano, my herder, went to Mexico in pursuit of the stolen mules. They went on the trail to Santa Rosa, Mexico, and there got information that the Kickapoo Indians had stolen the mules and had brought them to that place. The Alcalde of Santa Rosa accompanied them to the camp of the Kickapoo Indians. The chief of the Kickapoos refused to deliver up the mules because we were Americans; but as the papers represented us, the claimants, as of Monterey, Mexico, and residents of that place—on that ground only they were given up. When Calistine saw three of the Indians represented to have brought the mules to Santa Rosa, he asked them what they had done with the mules; they answered that they sold two of the mules to the Alcalde of Santa Rosa, for two quarts of mescal, and two other mules for eight bottles of mescal, and one for one blanket. All of the mules had been sold at Santa Rosa at about the same rates. We found there seventeen mules out of twenty-five, and out of eight horses two were recovered.

The Indians declared that the other animals were lost on the trip. The mules were worth about sixty dollars per head; the horses about forty dollars per head. The chief refused absolutely to give up the mules alleging that they belonged in Texas. It was only after a great deal of persuasion that he could be convinced that the mules belonged to parties in Monterey and not to Texans. The Indians have their camp about 15 miles from Santa Rosa, it is situated at the mouth of a cañon, and they have at that point about 4,000 head of horses, many of them belonging to citizens of Texas, and many horses stolen from Medina county during the past year. The Indians admitted the stealing of the mules and horses, and that three of them were engaged in the stealing of our stock, one of them was Juan, another Gentio, and the other Terro—one of three, Gentio, said it was poor business to steal horses and mules to have them taken away again, and said I think it is more profitable to work on the El Paso road and kill people there and get their money.

These same Indians said they had killed an American up in the mountains near the Hondo and they had got his horse, saddle and bridle, Juan, Gentio and Terro live at the Kickapoo camp near Santa Rosa and claim to belong to that tribe.

The chief said the mules could not be given up because they came from Texas, and belonged to an American. The Alcalde then refused to give up the mules he had bought until the Mexican gentleman accompanying the claimants informed the Alcalde that if he persisted in retaining the mules it would be worse for him than for the Indians, he then gave up the mules upon the payment to him of the trifling amount he had paid to the Indians. The Mexicans and the Indians trade together with the stolen property. The Indians informed the claimants that they were induced by the Alcalde now in question, to go to Texas to steal the mules. When the threat was made to put the Indian, making the assertion, in the calaboose. The Indian said "put me in the calaboose and then you will then see who it was that sent us to steal the mules."

There is no access to the cañon where the Indians are camped except at its mouth. The valleys in the cañon are extensive, pretty well supplied with water and a fine place for stock. They now have there about 4,000 head and they said they had 1,000 head of American stock that would answer for the U. S. cavalry service.

We arrived home with the mules on the 1st day of March, and the night after, (March 2nd), we saw six Indians near the place and they attempted to recapture the mules, but failed. They stole several horses that night in the same place. When the mules were crossed to this side of the Rio Grande, about fifty Indians were seen to cross into Texas from Mexico, this necessitated a change of course on our part and we traveled all night to elude pursuit.

Through the kind offices of a gentleman at Eagle Pass, we procured papers at Piedras Negras that were invaluable, and without those documents our trip must have been a signal failure. The authorities at Eagle Pass refused to render any assistance.

My extensive acquaintance in Mexico, enabled me to get the mules, otherwise it would be impossible to succeed.

Sworn to and subscribed before me, Castroville, Texas, March 11, '68.

(Signed,) G. H. NOONAN, District Judge.

Letter from Judge Noonan.

CASTROVILLE, March 11th 1868.

Messrs. Brackebridge, Stribling, Moore, and Gamble,—GENTLEMEN:

I have enclosed herewith copies of affidavits in regard to the Indians. I send these papers to you with the hope that you will constitute yourselves a delegation to visit Gen. Mason to discuss the necessity and the feasibility of abating an evil that has become intolerable. I am aware that Gen. Mason has no official power, yet I feel confident that if you can secure his cooperation and that of the officers at San Antonio, their influence and your combined, will cause the removal of the Kickapoos to a reserve within thirty days.

The accompanying affidavits, coupled with the fact that the Indians have been indicted upon sufficient and competent evidence, for murder and robbery, and as well as their own open boasting of the many murders committed by them, also their avowed determination to continue without stint their horrible butcheries in the future, should, I think, constrain our Government to act without any further delay.

I presume you will not be surprised when I tell you the citizens of the West contemplate a moment at no distant day that may lead to complications of a disagreeable nature. Although the Government seems oblivious of the existence of the Kickapoos and their acts, still I think if the matter was pressed with greater tenacity, relief could be obtained and thereby preclude the necessity of resorting to extreme and unlawful measures. The whole mercantile interest of Texas and Mexico, would inevitably be involved in the event of trouble on the border, hence all are deeply interested in a speedy and legal removal of the Indians from Mexico. If "an ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure" then surely the preventative should be adopted immediately.

I trust gentlemen that you will give us the benefit of your influence.
Respectfully,
G. H. NOONAN.

ABILENE, Kansas, March, 1868.
To the Stock Drivers OF TEXAS.
The undersigned take this method of informing the Cattle Drivers of Texas that our Shipping Yards at Abilene, Kansas, will be open free to all to ship this season, these yards are on the Union Pacific road, 100 miles west of Topeka, Kansas, on the only locally authorized route from Texas to the north-west; and are situated in an excellent grazing region, these yards are extensively advertised in the leading northwestern papers, calling attention of all classes of buyers, where they can come and supply themselves; and this point will, without doubt, be the best one to which to drive and sell the surplus cattle of the Southwest. Once here, you are accessible by rail to all the markets of the country. We would advise to drive only full grown steers, as they are the most wanted. The proper route to drive is Fort Bowen's Crossing on Red river, thence to Fort Arbuckle; thence to Chiama ranch; thence to the mouth of Little Arkansas; thence to Abilene; total distance from Northern Texas about 350 miles.
We will be at Abilene in the trade, buying, shipping and selling on Commission, &c.
We refer to all with whom we dealt the past season.

Entertainment

AT THE CASINO HALL,

Saturday April 11th, 1868.

None but members and their guests admitted.

All the late Pictorials, Monthlies and other newspaper literature can be had at Gamble's.

RETURNS FROM EL PASO.—The figures from El Paso show 494 votes polled, 493 were for Mr. Mills, the Republican candidate.

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS.—Companies D. E. and I. of the 35th Infantry, left the city on Thursday morning for Fort McKavitt, on the frontier. They were accompanied to the edge of town by the Military Band.

HOMES THEIR LOOKS.—A stranger hunting a stolen horse remarks: "If lightning was to strike the horse thieves west of the Colorado river, it would take the whole State forty days to bury the dead."

We devote a large portion of our space to-day to matters connected with the Kickapoo Indians. This is all important to our citizens, and a perusal of the affidavits will give a clear insight to the deceptions on our frontier. It involves a question which affects our prosperity as well as serious consequences.

LACK GOODS AND TRIMMINGS.—The success which has attended the visit of Madam De Zauche and the solicitation of many ladies, has induced that lady to remain at the Meager Hotel another week.

The ladies—God bless 'em—are just crazy to buy everything in the room, but, how can one be expected to persuade papa out of twenty dollars to purchase a "Maria Stuart Valenciennes piece, when it takes a week to persuade him that it is not a dirty little rag." The old b—b—both.

MASS MEETING TO-NIGHT.—We would call the attention of our citizens to the call published in to-days issue, numerous signed by our most prominent mercantile houses and business men, for the purpose of devising some plan for remedying the deprivations of tribes of Indians domiciled in Mexico, who are encouraged by the inhabitants of that country to plunder this.

We understand that this meeting is called at the request of the Commissioner appointed to carry out the Extradition treaty between the United States and Mexico—on the part of the State of Texas, and whose views upon the subject will be presented to the meeting. We hope there will be such attendance as the importance of the subject deserves, and the interests of our people require.

LOUISA MULBACH.—This entertaining and instructive writer of illustrated historical romances is still prolific in her contributions to the literary world of new works, among her latest and most entertaining are "Old Fritz and the New Era," "Andres Hoeffler," "The Daughter of an Empress," "Louisa of Prussia," "Berlin and the Sans Souci," "Berthold," "Napoleon and Blucher," and the "Empress Josephine."

The lover of light literature upon a perusal of these works feels gratified to the gifted woman who can move the busy actions on the stage of life into such fresh and instructive stories. And after all as instructive history, as also the biographies of great personages, taken to a great extent of romances, and depends perhaps as much upon the genius and deductions of the author, for the interest which the subject inspires, as for its value to posterity as an example, and for its moral worth and influence for good. One may perhaps better learn history in the simple and attractive form as it is presented by this authoress, than to seek for it among the voluminous works of more complete philosophical writers.

Many new works are making their appearance by other popular authors, among the most popular ones are "The Lost Chronicles of Barset," "The Belton Estate," by Anthony Trollope, "Sir Jasper Carew Kub," "Barrington," by Charles Lever, "Romola," by George Eliott, and a number of new works by "Onida."

The above mentioned works can be obtained from Gamble's Book Store, where they have just been received.

Warning to the People of Conahuila and the Mexican Frontier.

Citizens and inhabitants of these towns and Villages now being supplied at wholesale, by bands of domesticated savages, with the plunder of the frontiersman of Texas, had better beware.

Has not previous experience with Los Texasos, been sufficient to cause them to pause and reflect, ere they go too far in arousing the indignation of exasperated and desperate men.

OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, Passed at the Third Session of the Thirty-seventh Congress.

Passed at the third session which was begun and held at the City of Washington, in the District of Columbia, on Monday, the first day of December, A. D. 1862, and ended on Wednesday, the fourth day of March, A. D. 1863.

Abraham Lincoln, President. Hannibal Hamlin, Vice-President, and President of the Senate. Solomon Foots was elected President of the Senate, pro tempore, on the eighteenth day of February, and so acted until the end of the session. Galusha A. Grow, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in case any of such prisoners shall be under indictment or presentment for any offence against the laws of the United States, and by existing laws bail or a recognizance may be taken for the appearance for trial of such person, it shall be the duty of said judge at once to discharge such person upon bail or recognizance for trial as aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That any order of the President, or under his authority, made at any time during the existence of the present rebellion, shall be a defence in all courts to any action or prosecution, civil or criminal, pending, or to be commenced, for any search, seizure, arrest or imprisonment, made, done, or committed, or acts omitted to be done, under and by virtue of such order, or under color of any law of Congress, and such defence may be made by special plea or under the general issue.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That if any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, has been or shall be commenced in any state court against any officer, civil or military, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or any act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or any act of Congress, and the defendant shall, at the time of entering his appearance in such court, or if such appearance shall have been entered before the passage of this act, then at the next session of the court in which such suit or prosecution is pending, file a petition, stating the facts and verified by affidavit, for the removal of the cause for trial at the next circuit court of the United States, to be holden in the district where the suit is pending, and offer good and sufficient surety for his filing in such court, on the first day of its session, copies of such process and other proceedings against him, and also for his appearing in such court and entering special bail in the cause, if special bail was originally required therein. It shall then be the duty of the state court to accept the surety and proceed no further in the cause or prosecution, and the bill that shall have been originally taken shall be discharged. And such copies being filed as aforesaid in such court of the United States, the cause shall proceed therein in the same manner as if it had been brought in said court by original process, whatever may be the amount in dispute or the damages claimed, or whatever the citizenship of the parties, any former law to the contrary notwithstanding. And any attachment of the goods or estate of the defendant by the original process shall hold the goods or estate so attached to answer the final judgment in the same manner as by the laws of such state they would have been holden to answer final judgment had it been rendered in the court in which the suit or prosecution is commenced. And it shall be lawful in any such action or prosecution which may be now pending, or hereafter commenced, before any state court whatever, for any cause, aforesaid, after final judgment, for either party to remove and transfer, by appeal, such case during the session or term of said court at which the same shall have taken place, from such court to the next circuit court of the United States to be held in the district in which such appeal shall be taken, in manner aforesaid. And it shall be the duty of the person taking such appeal to produce and file in the said circuit court attested copies of the process, proceedings, and judgment in such case, and it shall also be competent for either party, within six months after the rendition of a judgment in any such cause, by writ of error or other process, to remove the same to the circuit court of the United States of that district in which such judgment shall have been rendered; and the said circuit court shall thereupon proceed to try and determine the facts and the law in such action, in the same manner as if the same had been there originally commenced, the judgment in such case notwithstanding. And any bill which may have been taken, or property attached, shall be holden on the final judgment of the said circuit court in such action, in the same manner as if no such removal and transfer had been made, as aforesaid. And the state court, from which any such action, civil or criminal, may be removed and transferred as aforesaid, upon the parties giving good and sufficient security for the prosecution thereof, shall allow the same to be removed and transferred, and proceed no further in the case. Provided, however, That if the party aforesaid shall fail duly to enter the removal and transfer, as aforesaid, in the circuit court of the United States, agreeably to this act, the state court, by which judgment shall have been rendered, and from which the transfer and removal shall have been made, as aforesaid, shall be authorized, on motion for that purpose, to issue execution, and to carry into effect any such judgment, the same as if no such removal and transfer had been made. And provided, also, That no such appeal or writ of error shall be allowed in any criminal action or prosecution where final judgment shall have been rendered in favor of the defendant or respondent by the state court. And if in any such case the defendant or respondent shall have been committed to prison, or judgment shall have been rendered against him, the defendant shall recover double costs.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done. Provided, That in no case shall the limitation herein provided commence to run until the passage of this act, so that no party shall, by virtue of this act, be deprived of his remedy by suit or prosecution until two years from and after the passage of this act.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done. Provided, That in no case shall the limitation herein provided commence to run until the passage of this act, so that no party shall, by virtue of this act, be deprived of his remedy by suit or prosecution until two years from and after the passage of this act.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done. Provided, That in no case shall the limitation herein provided commence to run until the passage of this act, so that no party shall, by virtue of this act, be deprived of his remedy by suit or prosecution until two years from and after the passage of this act.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done. Provided, That in no case shall the limitation herein provided commence to run until the passage of this act, so that no party shall, by virtue of this act, be deprived of his remedy by suit or prosecution until two years from and after the passage of this act.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done. Provided, That in no case shall the limitation herein provided commence to run until the passage of this act, so that no party shall, by virtue of this act, be deprived of his remedy by suit or prosecution until two years from and after the passage of this act.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be maintained for any arrest or imprisonment made, or other trespasses or wrongs done or committed, or act omitted to be done, at any time during the present rebellion, by virtue or under color of any authority derived from or exercised by or under the President of the United States, or by or under any act of Congress, unless the same shall have been commenced within two years next after such arrest, imprisonment, trespass, or wrong may have been done or committed or act may have been omitted to be done.
