Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The close of the impeachment trial is not expected
before the middle of next week.
The Senate refused to admit Blodgett who had never been able to get his case before the Senate, and justice should be done now.
Blodgett was Captain of a rebel military company, and an unwilling one, to which Blodgett would swear. Blodgett while living in Augusta was elected by his neighbors to make a constitution for Georgia; he was made Mayor of Augusta by Pope.
Butler said he didn't know but when Georgia was admitted, Blodgett would take his seat here with the proudest of us.
Butler then offered the nomination of Sherman and Thomas to Brevet Generalship, claiming admissibility under article 108.
The Senate refused.
Chase announced the evidence closed and ordered prosecution to proceed with the argument.
Boutwell not being ready asked an adjournment until Tuesday.
Defense asked until Wednesday, in view of Stanberry's sickness.
Boutwell seconded as requested and after hearing and rejecting an appeal from Logan to print his argument, the court adjourned until Wednesday.
Senate, appropriations for impeachment, considered.
Eldridge said it was evident that one thousand dollars daily would not defray expenses of the impeachment trial and thought this a mere blind.
Whitehead of the committee came out boldly, saying this was a mere bagatelle to operate on the public mind.
Washburne said if another appropriation was required he would vote for it and he believed it would be worth $100,000.
House.—Robinson offered a resolution recalling Managers and abandoning impeachment; the Speaker declaring it was a question of privilege, but under ruling of the Speaker a majority of the House could refuse to consider the event
a question of privilege.
The House refused to entertain the resolution by a strict party vote.
The Post office committee was directed to enquire into expediency of the Government, securing the control of the telegraph lines.

Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—The Supreme Court has decided four claims under seizure and abandonment in favor of claimants, judgment in forty of which were rendered during the present term. Amount of each case varies from $10,000 to $123,000, Randolph S. Mott securing the highest claim. Aggregate of claims, $623, 000.

Louisiana Election.

NEW ORLEANS, April 20.—The count in the city is not finished, owing to the number of independent tickets.
So far as heard from the Democrats have a small majority in the city and parish of Orleans. East and West Baton Rouge give 900 majority against the Constitution. Vote very close, and result will not be determined before to-morrow night.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—No official returns yet. As far as heard from the majority against the Constitution in the city is 1,000; parish of Orleans, 314; East Baton Rouge, 800;
West Baton Rouge, 100; Caddo, 300.
Conway, democratic candidate for Mayor, and a majority of the city and parish of Orleans tickets probably elected. Six Democratic Senators and Democratic majority in both Boards of Council elected. A negro Recorder elected in the Third District. Mann, Democratic candidate for Congress in First District, ahead.

Georgia Election.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 20.—Election
progressing quietly, with much enthusiasm by both parties. A large negro vote polled to-day. Bullock ahead, Gordon's friends not generally voting. It is said that at Marietta 150 negroes formed in a line and voted for Gordon.

SAVANNAH, April 20.—Election progressed quietly till towards noon,
when a conservative negro was fan-off by the radicals; afterwards he went up under protection of the military and police. But few whites were able to approach the polls on account of the mass of country negroes.

AUGUSTA, April 20.—The negroes, with few exceptions, voted the Radical ticket. They marched in squads from the country to the polls, with banners flying, calling for Bullock.
The whites generally kept away from the polls. About 3000 votes polled, nearly 2000 of which are negroes.
The total negro vote in the county is 5500.

From Havana.

HAVANA, April 18.—President Juares has just recovered from an attack of sickness.
The revolution in Sinaloa is gaining ground.
Gov. MacCormick of Arizona and the Governor of Sonora have had an interview, and arranged for means of transit through Sonora.

TEXAS CONVENTION.—General Buchanan, commanding the fifth military district, has appointed the 15th of June next as the day for the assembling of the Texas State Convention, which is to frame a constitution and civil government for the State, in accordance with the Acts of Congress of March 2 and 22, 1867. The official list of the registered voters in that State, including the revision, fixes the number at 108,799. At the election 56,166 votes were polled—44,689 for the convention and 11,440
against it. The convention is to assemble in Austin.—N. O. Republican.

A correspondent who has recently visited Andersonville cemetery, says:
"You may read statements of mortality unmoved, but when you see a row of graves of 130 men who all died in one day, you are shocked. It must have taken a small army to bury these men.
They lay shoulder to shoulder as they stood in the ranks; yet the dead of one day more than fill a row two hundred feet long. My indignation went on increasing from No. 1, died
February 27, 1864, to No. 12,848, died April 28, 1865. I fear that if we all lived within sight of Andersonville, there would be no moderate men, hardly any just men, but a nation of revengeful men."

At Berlin, the other night, the Prussian aristocracy presented a monster banquet to Pauline Lucca, the favorite singer. It was composed of yellow roses and violets, and measured over a yard in diameter. It was surrounded by a fall of real Brussels lace, and tied with a satin bow and ends—perfect widths of the lustrous and rich material
—and of such length that Mlle. Lucca, who is small in figure, will have a robe made of this giant fastening. These ends were fringed with gold just half a yard long. The bow was embroidered with the most aristocratic names and crowned in precious stones. A complete toilet thus arrayed the fragrant offering.

JOB WORK.

Our patrons are solicited to send in their orders for Bill-Heads, Cards, Circular letters, Checks and every variety of Job Work.

We have secured the services of a first class workman from the east, and have made our Job Department as complete as is possible to have it.

THE NEW ERA.

Full Telegraphic Dispatches.

The Daily Express was the first paper to introduce the publication of regular telegraphic dispatches in San Antonio, and after several months struggle to afford our readers the latest news, we are at last happy to announce that we commence the publication of full dispatches from the Associated Press.

OUR CITY BOOK-KEEPING.

When we state to our citizens that up to the time of the present city administration there was no regular set of books kept by the city, we are not surprised at their astonishment.

The subject of keeping the accounts of the city in a manner that would vindicate the present administration in the eyes of the people and their successors in office, became one of the first considerations.

Mayor Thielepape earnestly pressed this matter in a communication to the Council shortly after the reorganization of the municipal government under General Reynolds' order.

1st. One Journal.—The entries of this book are taken from the monthly financial reports of the City Collector, the Mayor, and the Treasurer, after being approved by the Finance Committee of the City Council.

2d. One Ledger.—The accounts of the Ledger consist: First. Of the accounts opened with those persons who have bought city land on fifty years' credit.

Second. The following accounts of income, to wit: (a) Ad valorem tax. (b) License tax. (c) Sales tax. (d) Market rent.

Third. The following account of expenses, to wit: 1. City officers; (composing accounts of all those officers who draw a regular salary, except the police).

4. Bridges—repairing and building. 5. San Antonio River. 6. San Pedro Creek. 7. Ditches—cleaning and repairing.

9. City Hospital. 10. City paupers. 11. Mayor's office—stationery, and other expenses. 12. Sanitary expenses.

3d. One Petit Ledger.—Containing the accounts with the regular salaried officers—being a guide for their payment.

4th. The Mayor's Cash Book.—Containing the income of fines in the Mayor's Court, and that of ball licenses issued by the Mayor; also the expenses he paid out of the said income.

5th. The Pauper's Book.—Containing the names and allowances made to paupers.

6th. City Hospital Book.—Containing the names, age, disease, date of admission, and date and cause of release, of all persons taken up, in the City Hospital.

The expenses for the paupers and the Hospital are kept on a joint account with the county—the city paying two-thirds and the county one-third of all the expenses except the salary of the City and County Physician.

7th. Roll License Book.— 8th. License Book for all other occupations.—These License books show the certificates issued on license.

10th.—The weekly health reports are filed every Saturday of each week.

This single achievement would be sufficient to secure the present administration the thanks and praise of all just, honest, good citizens, and we confess to a feeling of pride when we state that it is only one of the reforms and valuable acts of the Radical city administration.

SWEET'S VALEDICTORY.

We suppose it would be just as well to let Sweet, the former editor of that vile sheet, the San Antonio Herald, go without a word at his departure from editorial life; but his valedictory deserves a passing notice.

He opens his adieu with acknowledging that he has had a "generous public" to deal with; well may he say it. He then proceeds to lay down the duty of the press and tell that he was born in New York, and coming here a short time before the rebellion he turned traitor to the government.

This modern hero lied industriously for the Confederacy, and his newspaper was the chief inquisitor of Union men during the dark days of treason; yes, ye valiant Colonel did all the dirty work Southern gentlemen asked him to do, and he gloried over the murder of Abraham Lincoln.

Now, go, you renegade, you betrayed your country, you denied the very home of your birth; you became a tool for Southern traitors; your reward is the detestation of every honest man, North or South, who knows your history.

THE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.—Our dispatches make a poor attempt to tell us that Louisiana has probably gone democratic. The actual returns will tell a different story.

Permanent barracks for the accommodation of one thousand men are being erected at Atlanta, Georgia. The apartments of line and field officers and men are separate. The cost will be $150,000.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH.

First Associated Press Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—The Treasury department is preparing a list of applicants for office since February last, with names of members of Congress recommending them.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Money easy; Stocks lower, but closed with better feelings.

LONDON, April 21.—A letter dated Achangee, March 19th, states that Gen. Napier had arranged for an immediate dash on the works of Theodoros.

Nagdola's main body had reached within two days march of the King's camp.

DISPATCHES dated at Jonda, April 2d, reports that Gen. Napier had started forward, contemplating to assault the enemy with an English storming party, but in consequence of the breaking of the field telegraph near the army post at Lenaha, the result of the movement was unknown.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Stocks active and strong. Money 7 per cent. Exchange 10 1/2. Gold 139 1/2.

LONDON, April 22.—Noon securities unchanged.

LIVERPOOL, April 22.—Noon.—Cotton prices unchanged; sales 10,000 bales.

BREADSTUFFS quiet. LONDON, April 22.—Consols 93 1/4. Bonds 70 1/2 to 70 3/4.

NEW YORK, April 22.—The steamer Arizona brings $940,000 treasure.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—House did nothing.

IMPEACHMENT resolution finally passed allowing unlimited speeches oral or written by managers and defense.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—[By cable.] A dispatch from London says that the Prince of Wales to-day unveiled the statue of Edmund Burke.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS passed the bill making executions private, being an amendment to the bill abolishing the death penalty. Gregory and Mills opposed it.

THE JAPANESE NIKADO promises indemnification to foreigners for losses sustained by them during the recent civil disturbances.

THE LATEST NEWS FROM ABYSSINIA was to the effect that the weather was cold and rainy. Gen. Napier's whole force were near Nagdola.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The Conservatives express intense gratification over the election news from Virginia, Georgia and New Orleans.—BARRE.

DISSOLUTION.

The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the style of Meyer, Sawyer & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

Having disposed of our interest in the late firm of MEYER, SAWYER & Co. to EARL SAWYER, who will continue the auction and commission business on the old stand on the Main Plaza, under the name of E. Sawyer & Co., we bespeak for him a continuance of the patronage heretofore extended to the firm of Meyer, Sawyer & Co., recommending him as a thoroughly reliable and competent business man, and confident that all business extended to him will be carefully and speedily attended to.

The undersigned having purchased the interest of Emily Meyer and Calvin B. Sibert in the late firm of Meyer, Sawyer & Co., will continue the auction and commission business at the old stand on the Main Plaza, under the style of E.
