OUR FACILITIES.

The Daily Express has grown with the most wonderful rapidity known in newspaper enterprise, with daily dispatches from all parts of the world, and correspondents in the principal cities; is a wonderful short space of time it has sprung from the rear to the most advanced output of enterprising journalism.

OUR WEEKLY EXPRESS.

A splendid eight page forty-column paper, containing less advertising and more reading matter than any paper of its size in the country.

We have never found it necessary to appeal to the friends of the Union to support this journal, as its merits have been acknowledged at home and abroad; having subscribers and correspondents in twenty-three States of the Union and in Europe. Every town and every Post-office neighborhood in Texas should receive a Club of the Weekly Express. It is to the interest of all peace-loving citizens to send broad cast throughout the state, the truths in its columns. To do this, let every reader induce his neighbor to subscribe, after reading his paper; each subscriber can do his paper up and forward it to a loyal friend who will raise a Club in a region where the paper is now unknown:

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION—ITS NOMINATIONS.

The telegraph brings us a report of the Chicago Convention, which met on the 20th and finished its work on the 21st—quick but nobly done. The platform comes to us in detached sections. It has the ring of true Republicans metal; the article impeaching Johnson will be his condemnation in all history.

General Grant was nominated for President by acclamation. On the fifth ballot Schuyler Colfax was unanimously declared the candidate for Vice-President. In this selection the Convention have suited every loyal man in the nation.

It has generally been the custom in making nominations to pay respect to different sections. In this Convention all sectionalism was ignored, and the candidates selected without regard to sections; no such miserable policy was observed as fastened upon the country the misfortune of Andy Johnson, who was chosen to court the power of the South.

The Republican party is now fairly in the field ready for the contest, led by the hero of the age, General U. S. Grant, and by that fearless son of the West, that courteous statesman and sound patriot, Schuyler Colfax. The result is not to be guessed at, even—it is certain. The Republican party will gain its most glorious victory. And with Grant as President, and a Congress reinforced with Southern Republicans, the nation will be established on a basis so firm as never to be again shaken by the treachery of domestic traitors.

KAMPFMAN.—Our enterprising townsmen, J. H. Kampmann, desire to be considered a loyal citizen of the United States, but the Herald takes the occasion of Mr. Kampmann building a footbridge for the city, to call him by his Confederate title, "Major J. H. Kampmann." The Herald men feel bad when they see every decent, sensible man who was led or driven into treason, now trying to be loyal.

The New York Herald, of Thursday, is out for Chief Justice Chase for the Presidency. It has, we believe, at one time or another, favored the claims of all the probable or possible candidates.

DEFERRED DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSMAN.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Gen. Grant was serenaded last evening, in response to the compliment, he said:

"Gentlemen, being entirely unaccustomed to public speaking, and without any desire to cultivate that power (laughter) it is impossible for me to find appropriate language to thank you for this demonstration. All that I can say is, that to whatever position I may be called by your will, I shall endeavor to discharge its duties with fidelity and honesty. Of my purity and rectitude of purpose in the performance of public duties, you will have to judge for yourselves by my record before you."

The Chicago Platform.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The following is a text of a platform in regard to Southern affairs:

1st. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress, as evinced by the adoption in the majority of the States lately in rebellion of Constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all; and it is the duty of the Government to sustain those Constitutions and to prevent the people of those States from being remitted to a state of anarchy. [This was received with cheers.]

2d. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men in the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belong to the people of the States. [Cheers.]

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The following is the 8th article in the platform:

"We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and to the cause he was pledged to support; who has usurped high legislative and judiciary functions; who has refused to execute the laws; who has used his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws; who has employed his executive power to render insecure his property, his peace, liberty, and life of citizens; who has abused the pardoning power; who has denounced the national legislation as unconstitutional; and has persistently and notoriously resisted by every means in his power every effort directed to the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; who has provided public patronage, and engaged in wholesale corruption; and who has been, justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty by the vote of 35 Senators."

CONGRESSMAN.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The President transmitted the Constitution of North Carolina, Louisiana, and Georgia. They are referred to judiciary committee.

Davis introduced a preamble and resolution, appointing a committee to investigate attempts to influence and intimidate Senators.

Henderson made a personal explanation, stating that he had been requested to appear before the managers, and desired the sense of the Senate as to his duty.

A long discussion ensued. The radicals maintaining that the proceedings were against Senators in this sense, Henderson rightly refused.

No action was taken in the matter.

Chicago Convention.

CHICAGO, May 21.—The committee on resolutions reported, congratulating the country on the assured success of the Congressional plan of reconstruction. That Congress must guarantee and maintain suffrage to the Southern loyalists, it is a natural obligation and must be paid in letter and in spirit. The reduction and equalization of taxes is denounced?

They favor extending the redemption of the national debt to the latest day, and reducing interest whenever honorably possible. That the government should be administered with the strictest economy. The corruption and extravagance fostered by Johnson should be reformed. Lincoln's death deplored; Johnson's ascension deplored. Johnson denounced as a usurper and violator of the laws, as an obstruction to reconstruction and guilty of high crimes and misdemeanors. That no citizen, native or naturalized, must be imprisoned when abroad, except for violation of the laws. That to the soldiers and sailors the country owes an obligation never to be forgotten; their orphans and widows are the nation's wards. That immigration should be fostered by a liberal and just policy. That the Convention sympathizes with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

The resolution was adopted, being only 23 dissenting votes.
