CAN'T DO WITHOUT A PAPER.

What, do without a paper ! No, I've tried it to my sorrow.
So, to subscribe for one I'll go.
Nor wait until to morrow, hould levers hang or drown themselves, Or other foolish caper, never get to hear of it—

Why, there's my neighbor, Toby Stoat, He always reads the news. And having it to talk about. He never gets the "blues!" While others yawn in ennul;
His mind is light as vapor;
The cause is plain to half an eye—
He always takes the paper.

I do not take the paper.

While neighbor Stout hears all the news,
And knows each current price,
And always minds the p's and q's,
By taking good advice,
I cannot tell the price of grain,
Of poultry, coffee, taper,
Of any kind of merchaudise—
Because I take no paper.

Though I have studies that require
Much time and mental labor,
Yet I can spares little time,
As well as Stout my neighbor.
Though time is precious. I can use Though time is precious, I can use
A longer midulght taper.
And thus find time to road the news; Therefore I'll take the paper

The Convention.

REPRESENTATIVE HALL Monday, June 1, 1868.

At 31 o'clock the Reconstruction Convention of the State of Texas was called to order by electing Hon. Geo. W. Whitmore, of Smith sounty, temporary Chairman and Hon. J. P. Newcomb, of Bexar, temporary secretary. A. J. Hamilton, of Travis county, moved that the Convention go into su election for permanent officers of the Convention.

M. C. Hamilton, of Bastrop, suggested that it would be right and proper to inform the commanding General of the presence and temporary organization of the Convention, before proceeding further; suggestion discussed but no action taken. Roll called: 78 answering. A.
J. Hamilton insisted on his previous motion which was put to the House and carried. M. C. Hamilton of Bastrop Co. put in nomination for the position of per-manent President of the Convention, E.

J. Davis, of Nucces County.

A. J. Hamilton of Travis, put nomination C. Caldwell, of Marion. The vote was taken by ballet, the

EX-CONFEDERATE LEAD-ERS-A SENSIBLE VIEW OF THE SITUATION, BY ONE WHO MELD A MIGH POSI-TION IN THE REREL ARMY.

San Antonio, Texas, June 4, '68.

Editors San Antonio Express :

As an unconspicuous member of the class referred to in your leading editorial of the 4th inst., please permit, me to express gratification and pleasure at its manly and magnanimous tone, and to indulge the hope, that you will see fit to keep on that line all the time.

The good people, North and South, Radical and Conservatives, were, when the war closed, tired of strife, and most earnestly craved peace and quiet. The quarrel had decided the great Constitutional question at issue; the question that had divided the opinions of our greatest statesmen, viz: Where a citizens allegiance was primarily due, whother directly to the United States Government, or indirectly, through the State Government of which he was a citizen. State sovereignty and slavery were annihilated; all the true men of the South recognized the facts, and at the call of the President of the United States, through his proclamations, came forward and del berstely and solemply took an oath of allegiance to the United States. By prompt payment of United States taxes. and obedience to United States laws, and orders, of Military commanders, that oath has been kept strictly and hon-

But, now, most unfortunately, com menced the war of the bomb proofs and pen and ink soldiers of the country. When, and where will it endf More than nine-tenths of the cultivated brains of the South, oppose the elevation of the freedmen to any position of political hon-or, trust, and authority in their midst. By proscriptive legislation restricting the franchise of the whites, and extending to the atmost limits, that of the freedmen. And blood and brains of a igher order must eventually win, as sarely as the race horse of high and pure pedigree must distance the horse of inerier stock, education and training, Legislation cannot reverse the laws of nature in men, any more than it can in

Why not therefore, take a common sense view on this matter, and stop this unnatural strife. We, here in Texas, have questions of vital importance to our future material wealth and prosperie ity, on which, there is honest difference of opinion, as to the means to obtain the conferred on him.

The election of Secretary being next desired ends. In our city matters, we only want public servants, the most benest and capable that ann be found, without regard to abstract notions of political topics.

> If ours is to be a Democratic Reput lie in the broadest meaning of the term, do not begin the reconstruction of our State Constitution by ignoring, and endeavoring to override the convictions and wishes of the large majority of the intelligent and cultivated minds of the State. Conciliation and magnanimity by those now in power, in the State, will be cordially met, appreciated, (and reciprocated,) and we will soon strive for the rapid development of our magnificent domain, and our mutual happiness, and prosperity.

Austin, May 30, '68. To this time a quorum of the Conven-tion has not arrived. The Republican published a call for a Republican caucus at the Capitol, at 5 o'clock. About 6 o'clock thirty-seven minutes made their appearance in the Representative Hall. Judge Faile of Houston was called to July, under following restrictions: the chair I Judge Caldwell made some remarks explaining the object of the call, be was followed by Mr. Mills and other members. The call was simply for an informal meeting; still there seemed to be a design to go on and fix up a plan for organization notwithstanding the fact that there were but a few over one-third of the members present, Remarks reflecting upon the Austinites were fully indulged in, and it is already twelve delegates were selected for the apparent that this Convention will be districts.
