Continuous R. R. Line to Mobile, Alabama.

WASHINGTON, June 18.

The Postoffice Committee reported favorably on the bill to establish a continuous line of railway to Mobile, Ala.

A bill allowing the United States to appeal suits from District courts to any other courts in the United States without giving security, was passed.

A bill was passed to allow the sale of armed belligerent vessels for commercial purposes.

Whale Exporters & Spirit Dealers Come to Grief.

The bill to relieve rum exporters and importers of spirituous liquors, was killed in the conference committee.

The bill removing disabilities of men on a certain list was reported and passed. Geo. N. Jones of Tennessee, and George Houston, of Alabama, the only Democrats on the list, were erased. Ross and Van Winkle voted nay.

Hendricks denounced this act as shamefully partisan.

None of the Radical Senators replied. The Senate then went into executive session and adjourned.

The clerks' bonus bill was tabled by a vote of 69 to 64. This effectually kills it.

The resolution ratified by the Senate denunciatory of the Indian treaty was passed.

Claim Bill Modified.

A bill modifying and essentially limiting jurisdiction of Court of claims. Passed.

WOOL.

The firm of Arthur H. Eddy it is well known, has been conspicuous in organizing a system of wool trade in the west, this spring, which has made those gentlemen quite popular. A short time ago, before the citizens were fully aware of the enterprise, this firm had purchased a wharf interest at Corpus Christi, and had under process of construction, three immense ware houses and have already erected improvements in that place costing upwards of $20,000.

These gentlemen canvassed the country thoroughly and saw the natural advantages of San Antonio for wool operations. A railroad would have given San Antonio these energetic, thorough business men; without such communication, they settle in less favored places.

How we get our reputation abroad.

The San Antonio (Texas) Herald comes to the defense of the Ku-Klux Klan in a long diatribe of passionate misrepresentation and falsehood, and winds up as follows:

"If the Ku-Klux have for their object the protection of the men, women and children of the white race against the brutality, rapacity and ferocity of the black barbarians, we are with them, of them, and for them, first, last, and all the time."

A loyal paper, in reply to this, suggests that the whites who left their property, their wives and daughters under the protection of these negroes while they enlisted to overthrow the government, have no fear of the "brutality, rapacity and ferocity of the black barbarians."

The above extract is taken from the New York Tribune; how beautifully we are represented.

A list of the officers of the Grand Chapter of Masons of the State of Texas, installed on the 10th inst:

J. D. Giddings, Grand High Priest; W. G. Yeal, Dep. Grand High Priest;

S. S. Meurer, Grand King; James Wrigley, Grand Scribe; B. A. Botts, Grand Treasurer; Robert Brewster, Grand Secretary; A. J. McGowan, Grand Chaplain; W. T. Swain, Grand Captain of the Host; C. L. Anderson, Grand Principal Sojourner; J. B. Jones, Grand Royal Arch Captain; W. T. C. Campbell, Grand Orator; T. J. Anderson, Grand Marshall; N. B. Yard, Grand Master of the Third Veil; James F. Miller, Grand Master of the Second Veil; W. C. Young, Grand Master of the First Veil; A. C. Crawford, and W. P. Massie, Grand Stewards; P. B. George, Grand Guard.

We have long entertained high respect for the character of Mr. Morgan C. Hamilton,—Austrian Republican.

Longley, the supposed editor of the Republican, in his efforts to defeat the election of Mr. Hamilton in Bastrop county, told Mr. Schults that he would rather see the worst rebel in the State elected than Morgan Hamilton.

Nasby nominates Jethro L. Kipins, as the next President. As the Democratic Ass. in this city have not come out, we suggest they make it the special subject of the next meeting.

After settling this little matter, they can adjourn to Ba-comb's grocery and confirm the nomination, or go about putting up the Ku-Klux posters.

"The despotic Republican party have nominated two of their satraps, Gen. Grant and Col. Fox."—Dem. Ex.

Go slow, Johnny Reb. Be easy. In consideration of Vicksburg, Donelson, Wilderness, Richmond, Lee and Davis, we suggest that Gen. Grant be called a traitor.

"When the present republican nominees are elected, there will be a military despot as the ruler of the nation."—Rebel Exchange.

You don't say! When you see'd you were better off, for you had two Jeff. Davis and the Devil.

The Paris Standard takes a positive view of Andrew Johnson, and says he has felt the cold of the ax but not death. As we don't execute with axes in this country we might say that he is covered with pitch from the rope, but is not hung yet.

N. O. Republican.

Exactly! or he might be described as one who had undergone mortification, but was not yet buried.

"When the name of Gen. U. S. Grant shall become a fixed monument for scorn to point its slow unmoving finger at that of the exalted Hancock will have taken its place in the bright galaxy in which the star bright fame of Washington beams ever resplendent."—San Antonio Herald.

That's what comes of the repeal of the whiskey tax. "SLOW UNMOVING," "EXALTED HANCOCK," "STAR BRIGHT FAME," "EVER RESPLENDENT." Gracious Heavens! Where's the mourner? where's the friends of that writer? Shades of Demosthenes, upon what shoulders hast thy man's fal'en? "SLOW!

UNMOVING!" Hat!

Nominees of the National Republican Convention at Chicago, May 21, '68.

For President.
U. S. GRANT.
For Vice-President,
Schuyler Colfax.

Disinterested Statesmanship.

On June 12th, Judge Caldwell, of the Convention offered a Railroad declaration. Following a high sounding preamble, the following resolution appears:

Be it therefore ordained by this convention, That Brazos Branch Railroad Company and the Henderson, Marshall and Jefferson Railroad Company are hereby consolidated into one company, to be known as a corporation with perpetual succession to be styled the International Pacific Railroad Company, which shall have all the powers and franchises granted by the laws creating said first named rail road company, and also the exclusive right to construct and operate a telegraph line along said railroad.

In, N. Camp and J. W. Barnes of Navasota, pets of the Throckmorton legislature, were granted a charter by that honest body which, if supported by the loyal authorities, will take up $10 million from the people, and put it in the hands of rebel favorites. But this even, would prove a benefit to the State, providing the road could be built.

It cannot, however, be completed upon the charter which Judge Caldwell proposes. The charter for the Henderson, Marshall and Jefferson Railroads, was given for the individual profit of rebels, by a rebel legislator, without any consideration whatever for public convenience.

There is now a road under way from New Braunfels, Indiana, to Cairo, Illinois, of which Gen. Burnside is President. This road is being rapidly completed.

Gen. Burn, one of the greatest of Western Rail road men has a bill before Congress for a charter for the International Pacific Railway, which is to connect with General Burnside's road at Cairo, and goes thence via Little Rock to Fulton, Austin, San Antonio, some point on the Rio Grande and thence to Mazatlan, San Blas, or any accessible point on the Pacific coast. The terms of this charter stipulate, expressly, that the freedom shall have the presence of work during its construction, with free transportation to points where labor is needed. The company will pay $1000 per mile, as far as the Texas road, and the same $1000 per mile, and the government is to be reimbursed in transportation of military troops and all needed supplies.

TO THE UNION MEN OF NORTHERN TEXAS.

Austin, June 16th, 1868.

Dear Friends—Through your patriotic journal I desire to send the following greeting to the loyal men of Northern Texas:

Stand firm, do not become disengaged, but leave your wife—they will fall into the hands of the persons now seeking to destroy you and the government. Stand ready and be always ready to obey the call, which will be made to subdue you for the protection of life and property, and the suppression of crime. Remember to be as ready as the rebels were to hunt down Union men with bloodhounds during the rebellion. Do this, and you will have no trouble, with the aid now given to your rebels, in crushing out these lawless bands of murderers now infesting your section. The gallant General Reynolds, under the protection of justice and right, sends to your section a sufficient number of troops who will extend the protection of the lives and property of the citizens now every day being prey even by assassins and robbers to an extent unparalleled in the history of civilized communities in times of peace, and which, if not speedily arrested, must result in the destruction of your city.

Resolved, That protection is not specially provided in some form by the national government to the loyal and law abiding citizens of Texas, they will be compelled, in the exercise of the sacred right of self defense, to organize for their own protection.

3. Resolved, That this protection is not to be denied to the men of the woods, for Uncle Sam is after them in dead earnest, and this reign of terror will soon be over.

The slender, foolish and Jefferso nson road, it would, as the foundation of a Pacific road, leaves the whole of Northern Texas to take care of itself.

LET YOUR GUN TO ONE OF YOUR OWN.

A Pacific road must be direct, and conform to the natural gentlemen's scheme, which is to benefit a little strip in the west of the State, where the inhabitants will "sugger" for sport, and have the National Government with an army of vengeance paraded over the inferior regions. This route leaves out Austin and the western part of Northern Texas, as well as the loyal communities of New Braunfels, San Antonio and the West. In fact it scarcely misses a "Nigger Killing" com-and scarce touches a loyal section. It places the franchise of the road in the hands of the enemies of reconstruction, who will use the vast patronage to oppress the negroes, and ruin our honest laboring northern men, who is at present honored with the name of the "Scallawags," "Carpetbaggers," &c. &c. The fact is, Judge Caldwell's proposition is a repetition of his old scheme to sell out the Union party; disguised in the velvet and gildings of his traitor friends.

Members of the Convention, beware! You owe your present high positions to the Southern loyalists; a wily enemy is preparing to deliver us up to those whose hands are red with the blood of innocent Union men.

We earnestly urge you as a convention, to lay the foundation for a general corporation law, simple and convenient, and leave the State free to cooperate with the General Government in an international railroad enterprise. By this means we shall be secure. But once placed in the power of the traitorous rebels, the prosperity of the State will be retarded a score of years.

As it is—In the Convention yesterday, the question came up whether the infamous rebel laws, which have given and are now seeking to corporation monopolies that will eventually control the politics of the State and hold down with an iron heel the people as the Camden and Amboy road has for years disgraced the State of New Jersey. Whether those infamous rebel laws shall continue to oppress the poor; whether the masses are to follow in the future as they have in the past; a few political tricksters and demagogues, who these railroad and other monopolies may choose to pick up and retain, to stand between them and the people, or whether the people will wipe out the oppressive decrees which take away the rights of themselves and the rights of their children.

There is scarcely a member of the present Convention who is indebted to the bloated rebel aristocracy for his position. This rebel laws bolster up these vamps of a past regime. Wipe them out and let all start afresh, rich and poor, high and low. A general corporation law will prevent the future bribery of legislatures; leave the matter with our legislatures and the rights of the people are sold out by them in franchises.

There is a faction around Austin, who owning large bodies of land are in the interest of the non-working classes. Our Convention represents the working people.

Caldwell, chairman of the committee on Lawlessness and Violence, reported as follows:

To the Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

Sir: A majority of the committee, to whom was referred the resolution requesting Gen. Reynolds to call to his aid a sufficient number of loyal men to suppress the lawlessness and crime prevailing in the State, have instructed me to report the same back to convention, and recommend its passage.

FREEMBLE.

Whereas, lawlessness and crime exists to such an alarming extent in portions of this State, it is deemed proper to do all in the power of this convention to protection life and property, and for the suppression of crime; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this convention respectfully request Brevet Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds to call to his aid a sufficient number of loyal men in each county of this State, as in his opinion may be necessary to aid and assist the said commander in the suppression of crime and the protection of life and property, and the enforcement of the laws; and that the Commanding General take such steps as in his opinion may be necessary for the organization of any men so called to his aid and assistance as required.

Resolved, That the members of this convention do all in their power to aid and assist the said commander in the suppression of crime.

Resolved, That the members of this

Local Intelligence.

The item which we copy in this paper from the N. Y. Tribune taken by that paper as a specimen of Ku Klux murdering and slaying from the San Antonio Herald, has also been republished in all the leading Union papers in the North.

Who defames our people?

CANNOT REACH.—The Herald can have the names of the authors of the "anonymous assault," by soldiers of the 35th Infantry, by calling at this office.

THIEVES.—The detestable San Antonio Herald, the organ of assassins and blacklegs, has one damn column, which is the telegram, stolen from the Express.

PRISONER.—The popular and handsome Dr. Sharpe again graces San Antonio with his benevolent countenance. The Doctor returns to Fort McKavitt early next week. We would like to give our opinion of the Doctor, but the Editor of this paper has been mistaken so often for him, that it would look like self-indulgence.

New Paper.—The Mexican citizens of the frontier have purchased a printing press and material for a new paper, to be published in our city, in the Spanish language, with proper economy, they may succeed, there is plenty of talent to make an excellent journal. Mr. Mondragon conducts the editorial department. A compositor from this office, Mr. Cardinio is the publisher, may success attend their efforts.

These valuable pencils are now selling at "Cleary's" Book Store for only 10 cents; everybody should have one.

It is reported the ice machine will be stopped about a week to clean the machinery. "O, the Lodge in some yankee ice house." By the way, a machine in New Orleans makes 20 tons a day and it sells for 2 or 3 cent per pound.

The Herald compares Hancock with Hannibal of old. Poor Hannibal! Wretched Hancock! But we advise the Herald editors to read Rollin's Ancient History a while, before they again launch it to deep water.

"Little boy's keep near the shore."

Larger ones may venture more."

The RAILROAD MURDERER'S organ of this city, is blubbering over with rage at the city officials, because they do not pay taxes enough. This mouth piece of scoundrels, was, as usual, in regard to the taxes paid. But to please them we suggest the following ticket for their benefit:

For Treasurer, Bryan.

For Aldermen, Logan, Lyons & Co. City Attorney, SURVEYOR.

For Mayor, Devine, or some of Duff's Command.

SIXTY DOLLARS.

Dog Days.—We caution all good citizens to beware of mad dogs, they keep up a continual howl, in the vicinity of the premises occupied by our worthy contemporaries, they must be hungry and perhaps to insure safety, it would be better when passing, TO THROW THEM A BONE.

THEY D' TELL.—We have met lately, disgruntled that the rebels and traitors who were employed by the government and many Union men were according to the government "because they were fat and cold." Is there another "Union man" in the State who don't know that rebels are running the government, at least in private parlance, getting all the fat matter?

A Democratic paper seriously remarks that two military gentlemen, General Grant and Col. Fox, have been nominated by the Republican party. Col. Fox, is good. Take another smile.

Speaking of a man of a certain class, the Albuquerque Review says: "We recommended him to go into the brick making business and place himself above the necessity of being a liar and political hypocrite."

Isn't that a little rough? But then our Ku Klux friends over the way might do worse than apply this advice to their case. This would obviate the necessity of lying about the army, the city officials, stealing our dispatches and yelling for their bread.

The Two—Fiske's Bulletin, State Gazette and Latin Republican oppose ad initio.

Police Items.

MAJOR'S COURT—June 18, 1868.—Two boys, the sons of Mrs. H. Hanson, Michael and John, were arraigned on the charge of disturbing the peace and quiet of a family by throwing stones and otherwise abusing the children of Charlotte Hall, the charge was proven, but it being their first offence, the Mayor discharged them after giving them a little fatherly advice in regard to their future behavior.

Doctor R. L. Graves charged with using water out of the San Pedro branch ditch, without having paid the water tax for the same, and for having overflowed the public streets, there being no evidence to prove the charge, his honor dismissed the case.

Macedonia, a Mexican woman and her daughter Susan, for disturbing the peace and quiet of the family of Johana Belzer, was advised to do so no more and dismissed.

JUNE 19.—Sam A. Maverick, for violating a city ordinance by not keeping the sidewalk in front of his premises clear of weeds and grass, having been notified to do so by officer Baumberger, doing duty at the Alamo, was fined $3.00 and costs, and duly admonished to respect the city laws in future.

Self-opening umbrellas are a new invention.

The Second Adventists have been disappointed again in the coming of Christ, and the end of the world. The time was fixed during the Jewish year 1848, which ended on the 20th of March. The 2d of October next is now announced as the period beyond all doubt, when the Son of Man shall be revealed, and time shall end.

BUTTER THAT WILL KEEP.—We have seen the statement that a dairy in Broome Co., New York, was sold in St. Croix, in 1839, to the Governor, for 25 cents per pound. In 1840, the same dairy was sold in New Bedford, Mass., and went on a whaling voyage. I saw some of it after the expiration of nearly four years, as new and in as good condition as when made. The same dairy has since sold in New Orleans, Natchez, and Mobile, and there has never been any complaint as to its quality. I shipped some butter made in that country, to Canton, in 1846, which, opened at 6 o'clock p.m., was, and was so good that shippers have each year since applied to me for butter for cabin stores. I broke open the butter, and procured small white-oak eggs, containing from fifteen to twenty-five pounds each, repacking the butter. These eggs were put into large hough-shanks and filled in the interstices with rock salt, and placed in the hold of the vessel. The small eggs were used merely with reference to the convenience of retailing at Canton.

"Dragee, costly butter" is now understood to have reference to the mode of manufacturing rather than to the locality where made. In making this butter, the milk is curdled, and rock salt is used.

If every butter-maker in the United States would learn and practice this method of making butter, it would be worth $75,000,000 a year to the agriculture of the nation. More than that amount is wasted every year by stupid butter-makers. Behold how profitable are good sense and a small increase of useful knowledge. [Cincinnati Times.]

"WANTS TO BE A KU-KLUX."—A soldier in the late Union army has hunted up a new song to an old tune. We duly furnish a specimen:

"I'd like to be a 'Ku Klux,'
And with the Ku-Klux stand;
A mask upon my forehead,
'Dagger in my hand.'
And with a 'tob of blackness,'
'Assemble with the band';
I'd scare some female blacks, and Be honored by the Klan."

ACCIDENT.—Edwin Stowe, an industrious and steady young man, a mason, while unloading a lot of material at the Casino, from a cart, had his horse frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Stow to the ground, the cart running over him breaking his thigh. Although the wound is healing slowly, it will be six months before he fully recovers.

EL PASO MAIL LINE.—We hear excellent reports from Mr. Picklin, the mail contractor. The line is better conducted than any in the State, and mails are becoming very regular.

MELANCHOLY DROWNING.—On last Wednesday two young girls, a Miss Griffin and Miss Costley, about 11 and 12 years of age, were bathing in the Colorado river, some six or seven miles below Austin, when, becoming alarmed by approaching footsteps, they hastily got into deep water, and, most sad to relate, both were drowned. The body of Miss Griffin was found, but up to yesterday no discovery had been made of Miss Costley.—Austin Gazette.

scarcely touches a loyal region, places the franchise of the roads in the hands of the enemies of reconstruction, who will use the vast power thus given to oppress the negroes, and run over the honest laboring northern men who is at present honored with the name of the "Scallawags" "Carpetbaggers," &c., &c. The fact is, Judge Caldwell's proposition is a repetition of his old scheme to sell out the Union party; disguised in the velvet and goldings of his traitor friends.

Members of the Convention, beware! You owe your present high positions to the Southern loyalists; the wily enemy is preparing to deliver N. L. McCREADY & COMPANY.
