CHARLESTON, June 29 .- Daily News this morning publishes full abstract of message of Gen. Scott, Governor elect, to be presented at the meeting of the new Legislature, on Monday next; Gen. Scott urges immediate provisions for extinguishment of State debt, so that at future time, new loans may be effected at lower rates; he advices rigid. economy and equitable taxation, to insure regular payment of accounts and interests coming due, and says that no obligation of State should be evaded. In regard to education, he recommends establishment of a thorough system of public schoo's, and that Congress be nemoralized for aid, as the State is too poor to pay for them by taxation, he adv ces that the crops be diversified and urges the passage of laws encouraging immigration; he advises the Legislature to relieve every citizen of all political disabilities; in regard to militia, he advises thorough reorganization, and no oath be required but to support present constitution of State; he strongly recom-mends encouragement of railroad enterprises and advises measures for securing immediate completion of blue Ridge Railroad; he advices modify. Penitentiary and Jail and Judicial system, saying he hoped freed-mens bureau will be terminated in the State by October; he regrets re cent disturbances in Chandler and Bernall and presses determination to enforce law against disturbers of the peace of the State, without respect of persons, and at the same time expresses his belief that no organization exists in S. C. for the purpose of resisting the laws of the State; he states that every man shall be fully protected in person and property, and in fee exercise of all of his rights as a citizen so far as they depend upon the Executive of the State; in conclusion be expresses the hope that an era of good feeling has been inaugurated and that the material valor of S. C. so justly renounced, will bereafter be displayed in supporting the flag of our common country.

Sewinees of the National Republican Convention at Chicago, May 21, '68.

For President, U. S. GRANT.

For Vice-President, Schuyler Colfax.

Che Divish

The question of the division of the State came up in the Convention as the special order of the day on Saturday last. The Convention resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider the question. The discussion continued until 6 o'clack in the evening with a noon recess, when the committee rose, reported the progress and asked leave to mit again on Tuesday at 10 o'clock. jority of the Convention favor a division of the State, and that the measure will pass the Convention. The Committee on Division reported a change of lines from those suggested in the Congressional bill-not material, however.

The Committee on Division met immediately after the adjournment on Saturday and signed, unautmously, a substitute to their original report, adopting the Congressional plan.

We approach a happy period in Texas, a period of good government, a period of great prosperity growing up under three separate State governments. We have long and faithfully labored for this event, and new that the prospect brightens into reality, our friends will excuse us in indulging in congratulation

General Hamilton interrupted Mr. Evans several times in a very unparlia- States; mentary manner; but his interruptions had no other effect than to strengthen the friends of ab initio.

Judge Evans' reply was unanswerable. Upon his conclusion, a vote was demanded upon the part of the ab initios. General Hamilton begged that the vote would not be pushed, as other gentlemes wanted to speak. So the final settlement of the question was postponed until Monday at 10 o'clock, when it is speak in favor of General Hamilton's substitute, and Mr. Morgan Hamilton will close the debate.

position, he would like to make it appear to the public that our coleague, Mr. Newcomb, had been guilty of an untruth, and had been convicted of the same before the Convention. This assertion has originated with Colonel Haynes, and is as false as he has proven false to every principle of political consistency.

Haynes is a man of large self-conceiand he is pursuing a course which will soon entitle him to enjoy it alone. We understand that he is an owner in and controls the editorial columns of the Austin Republican, although his name does not appear as such. We now know our enemy,—he was once our friend. We bid him bon coyage on his devious way.

The committee reported the following resolutions :

WHEREAS, it has pleased Almighty God in the righteousness of his allwise providence to call from our midst our beloved, friend and brother, Brevet Captain WILLIAM MORRIS AUSTIN, Assistant Surgeon, U. S. A., who died at this Post, of pneumonia, on the 9th day of May, 1868; therefore,

Be it resolved, That, while in the death of Captain Austin, his brother officers mourn the loss of a gallant, bonorable and highly accomplished gentleman, a warm, faithful and sympathizing friend; the service has sustained the loss of one of its most talented and promising officers; and

Be it further resolved. That while we accept with humfilty and resignation the Divine decree, we would extend to the afflicted parents and relatives of our departed brother, the assurance of our heartfelt sympathy with them in their sad bereavement; and would commend them for strength to bear their sore trial, to Him, who has promised to grant it equal to the demands of our days; and

Be it further resolved. That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the family of Capt. Austin's father, to the Yale Chapter of the "Alpha, Delia, Phi Association; and one copy for publication to the Bridgeport, Conn. Republican Standard, to the Army and Navy Journal, and the San Antonio, Texas,

To the Editors of the Son Antonio Express : Sin, I see a card in the Revald of the 29th of June, sig sed John Fulton.

In the first place I cannot possibly reply to Mr. John Fulton, for fear John is not responsible; he has innocently suffered himsalf to be made a tool of by a much worse man than John himself.

In the second place, I would never conde-scend to reply to the "thing" in the shape of a man who would stoop so low as to use poor John for the feuliand slanderous purpose of injuring a man's private and professional character, simply because that man M G. Anderson will not favor traiters and rebels, and will advocate the principles of the Republican party, and the Constitution and laws of the United States without fear of any of the "White Man's Party," any rebel editor, or any blackguard in Texas.

Division .- This question seems to be little understood in the city. The bill reported in Congress passed its third reading in the House and was then referred to the Austin Convention for suggestions. The Division Committee at Austin at first changed the lines as proposed by Congress, recommending two States on the Gulf and one Red River State. The northern people objected, when the Committee reconsidered and accepted the lines as proposed in Washington-i. c., making three States, all possessing Gulf points. This gives the State of Lincoln all west of the Colorado.

TELEGRAMS - The news by this infamous line is as clear as mud. Grant and Colfax stock must be up; the lines seldom work clear except when news favors rebels. We believe our readers prefer the truth a little slow, to fast falsehood. Unless a change comes over the reports we will drop them after the New York Convention, unless a pretty strong pressure is brought to bear against it.

The Copperhead papers have again begun to publish the circular headed, "Sixteen Reasons why our Republican Party should not run General Grant for President in 1868." It appeared last August, and was attributed to the friends of Mr. Colfax, who at once emphatically disowned it and repudiated its assertions. It will doubtless be extensively reprinted during the coming summer, as embodying the views of Mr. Colfax respecting General Grant. Those who give it currency, however, will do so with the consciousness of uttering a base falsehood
