SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1868.

NO. 172.

THE CONVENTION.

— TWENTY-FIFTH DAY. —

(Concluded.)

Mr. J. W. Flanagan, from the committee on internal improvements, made the following report:

To the Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

Your committee on internal improvements have had under consideration a declaration in relation to railroads; in which the convention is asked to consolidate the Brazos Branch Railroad Company and the Henderson, Marshall and Jefferson Railroad Company into one company, to be known as the International Pacific Railroad Company.

Your committee have given due consideration to this very important question, and, from all the lights before them, a majority of the committee instruct me to report the declaration back to the convention, with a recommendation that it do pass.

J. W. FLANAGAN,
Ch'm'n Com. Int. Imp.

Mr. Smith of Galveston made the following minority report:

COMMITTEE ROOM,
June 27, 1868.

Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

The minority of the committee to whom was referred the declaration to consolidate and incorporate the Brazos Branch and the Henderson, Marshall and Jefferson Railroad, respectfully report:

That they regard all special legislation at this time unnecessary and unwarranted. That there is now a bill pending before the United States Congress relative to the same question, and which will, if it becomes a law, prepare the people of Texas to act.

That the division of the State of Texas will qualify all such legislation, and it is altogether a premature measure. That it is proposed to introduce into the constitution of the State a provision governing all legislation in regard to corporations, and that we are opposed to galvanizing into life a dead corporation, unless it can be shown that there is a real bona fide company prepared with the means and ability to prosecute to a successful termination the improvements they ask this convention to sustain.

For these reasons we respectfully submit the following resolution, and ask that it do pass:

Resolved, That the declaration consolidating the Brazos Branch and the Henderson, Marshall and Jefferson Railroad, and granting a new charter, be indefinitely postponed.

R. K. SMITH,
ANDREW DOWNING, Sen.,
N. PATTER.

Monte from the committee on engrossed bills made the following report:

COMMITTEE ROOM,
June 29, 1868.

To the Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

Sir:—The committee on engrossed provisions, after examination, instruct me to report the following resolutions as correctly engrossed, to wit:

No 19. Resolution ordering the printing of 400 copies of the Report of Wm. Alexander, Esq., late Attorney General of Texas.

No. 20. Resolution defining the powers of this convention.

No. 21. Resolution appropriating twenty five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to offer rewards for the apprehension of desperadoes.

No. 22. Resolution amending the rules governing the convention, so that a simple resolution, or resolution relating to the government of the convention, may be disposed of upon a vote at first reading.

No. 23. Resolution appropriating the sum of two hundred dollars to frame the portrait of Gen. Sam Houston.

No. 24. Resolution appropriating fifteen thousand dollars for the payment of the civil officers of the State appointed by Provisional Governor A. J. Hamilton.

Respectfully submitted,
A. T. MONROE,
Chairman.

Report adopted.

Bellinger, from the committee on federal relations, to whom was referred a resolution of Mr. Mills, sending the county of El Paso to the United States, made the following minority report:

COMMITTEE ROOM,
June 29, 1868.

To the Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

Sir:—A minority of the committee on Federal Relations, to whom was referred a resolution by Mills of El Paso, being unable to agree with the majority of the committee, offers the following report:

El Paso County contains an area of 9450 square miles, with a population according to the latest census taken in 1860 of 4050 inhabitants, only 436 of whom have registered, the vote cast at the last election being 292 for, and 2 against a convention. The assessment of State Taxes for 1867 was $2151 61cts or 53cts per head, the average for the entire section West of the Colorado being $1,10cts per head.

Almost the entire population of the county is concentrated in the narrow Rio Grande Valley from Franklin to Eluvria, this being the only portion of the county redeemed for cultivation.

The population has hardly made as much an attempt to settle outside said valley, and never exercised any control over the vast uninhabited territory situated within the limits of said county, nor is it to be expected that the population in its present composition, will make such an attempt.

The future condition of the country therefore is entirely subject to the influx of a new element to its population, which can only reasonably be expected from that section of Texas which is proposed to be erected into a new Western State.

The wide territory between the Rio Grande and Pecos Valleys, situated in the region of Meteorologic permanency suffers almost under a continuous drought, and but few places outside the Pecos valley are available for agriculture with artificial irrigation. This deficiency of atmospheric humidity is amply compensated by the abundance of metallic resources. The range of hills traversing the country in a Northwesterly direction, being spurs of the Sierra Madre of Mexico, fully maintaining the same character of the latter. And their mineral wealth has justly become proverbial. Coal, iron, lead, copper, and silver, to some extent are the minerals in which this region abounds, in deposits and in veins, but above all in the immeasurable layers of rock salt, capable of furnishing a continent with this indispensable commodity which will make this region one of the most desirable portions of West Texas, which has to furnish the mining population to lift the treasure from its now hidden abode.

In view of the little adaptability of this region for agriculture, it will be the department of the Northwestern counties of Texas, to furnish the basis for the mining population.

To cede the jurisdiction over this territory as contemplated in the majority report, and over the plains intervening between El Paso and the Western counties, exposing it perhaps to be converted into Indian reservations would be as disastrous a policy as could befall this country, and it would be relinquishing without any compensation a country vast in extent, whose intrinsic value has never yet been sufficiently explored and therefore cannot be properly computed.

Should it be the determination of Texas to sell to the United States that portion of the territory lying without the limits of the organized counties, it would be of the utmost importance for Texas to be able to embrace in said transaction this valuable region which is now proposed to be alienated without any consideration. But should this event never occur it would be unwise in Texas to deprive herself of the resource of so much future wealth and prosperity for her people.

The minority of your committee therefore report that the majority report be not adopted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. KERNEY,
EDW. BELLINGER.

Samner moved a suspension of the rules to allow Mr. Butler to introduce a petition.

Motion lost.

Smith of Galveston, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of fifteen be appointed by the chair to attend the exhibition at the State Institution of the Blind, to-morrow at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Smith of Galveston moved a suspension of the rules to take up resolution.

Rules suspended.

Ruby moved to amend by adding the committee on education.

Amendment accepted.

The resolution as amended was adopted.

Evans of McLennan introduced the following declaration:

Whereas, it is very probable that the regularly contemplated biennial session of the State Legislature of Texas will not meet in the year 1868, and whereas, such failure to meet may prejudice the interests of railroad companies, in loss of their charters, etc., etc.

Be it therefore declared:

Sec. 1. That all railroad companies in Texas, holding charters which may be affected in their rights by a failure of the said biennial session of the legislature in the year 1868, shall not suffer any prejudice in their charters, rights and privileges, until ninety days after the meeting of the first lawful legislature, with consent of Congress of the United States, shall meet in Texas.

On motion, the declaration was referred to the committee on internal improvements.

Evans of McLennan introduced the following declaration:

Be it declared, That the sum of — dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of the contingent fund of the Convention, to pay the expenses of the committee to investigate the State Penitentiary—traveling expenses, expenses of witnesses, etc., etc.

On motion, the declaration was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

Mr. Hoane, of Grimes, introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the following be a section of the Constitution:

Sec. —. No person shall ever be imprisoned for debt, except in cases of fraud, after verdict and judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; and it shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for carrying this provision into effect.

On motion, the resolution was referred to the committee on general provisions.

Mr. Vaughan offered the following resolution:

I. T. Be it ordained by the people of Texas in Convention assembled, That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to pay a bounty of one hundred dollars to each enlisted man who was honorably discharged from the 1st and 2d Texas Cavalry United States Volunteers, who served in the late war in aid of putting down the rebellion; and that the military commander of this department be requested to authorize the payment of this appropriation.

Ed. Be it further ordained, That said bounty shall be paid to the claimant, making such proof of his enlistment and honorable discharge before the Comptroller as may be prescribed by the Governor of the State of Texas.

On motion, the resolution was referred to the committee on federal relations.

Mr. Johnson, of Calhoun, moved that the Convention resolve itself into Committee of the Whole upon the report of the committee on federal relations.

Mr. Armstrong, of Lamar, in the chair.

The committee now reported progress, and reported the substitute of Mr. Hamilton of Travis to the report of the committee on federal relations.

Mr. Smith, of Galveston, moved a call of the House.

Sustained.

Mr. Hamilton, of Travis, moved that the Convention adjourn until 9 o'clock to-morrow.

Motion was withdrawn by consent.

So the Convention moved to adjourn.

The yeas and nays were called, and resulted thus:
