The Ashl urn Marder.

T ial of the Murderers-Full Confessim of Sergeant Marshall and George F. Betts-Several Other Democratic Assissins Implicated-The Defence Conducted by A. H. Stephens.

A special dispatch from Atlanta, Ga., to the Chicago Tribune, dated the 2d instant, says relative to the trial of the Ashburn murderers:

On Tuesday, the 30th of June, Sergeant Charles Marshall, of the United States army, company G. 16th infastry. was called. This was one of the persons arrested for the murder, and who has since made a full confession. He had not answered a dozen questions when a visible sensation overspread the court, counsel, and spectators. In the clearest and most direct manner he went on to tell how he was first approached upon the subject of killing Ashburn by Dr. Kirksey, about three weeks before the murder; how he had been associating with the Democrats about Columbus, and made to believe that the death of Ashburn was necessary; how Kirksey, a few days before the affair, informed him that a party was made up to do the killing, and told him to be ready; how a mask was sent him the night of the merder, with a note telling him to meet the rest at midnight; how he went to a vaeant lot near Ashburn's house, meeting Kirksey, Hennis, Hudson, Duke, Bar-ber, Bedell, Malone, and others; how they then proceeded to the house, broke in the doors, and massacred poor Ashburn, as is already so well known. The witness stated distinctly that although he had mingled intimately with the citizens of Columbus for a year, and especially with the Democrats, he knew no cause for their animosity against Ashburn except his offensive politics.

A. H. Stephens cross-examined the witness, but tailed to shake his testimony in a single particular; indeed, he rather etrengthened it, as it was shown that the witness had previously engaged in a personal quarrel with Ashburn, and had threatened to kill the latter if no one else did.

The examination of Marshall occupied the whole of Tuesday. On Wednesday the cross-examination was resumed, and conducted ably, as might be expected from Mr. Stephens; but after carefully examining the question and answer, it is difficult to see that the slightest impression was made. A strong effort was made to show that the witness had been improperly influenced to testify as he did, but it revealed only the fact that H. C. Whitley, the able detective, who has efficiently worked up the case, promised Marshall protection if he would confess. At the same time, according to the witness, Whitley expressly charged him not to implicate innocent persons.

The next witness examined was George F. Betts, He was a citizen of Columbus, and raised there. He also was one of the p rty that killed Ashburn, and has also made full confession, As he went on to confirm, in almost every particular, the statement of the first witness, the astonishment in court was even greater than before. He gave as his reason for assisting to kill Ashlarn, that he thought he was a tyrant and ought to be put out of the way, but that the immediate inducement was $50 oz $100 offered him by Kirksey.

In Bett's case, as in Marshall's, the eros-examination failed to shake the testimony.

This morning a physician testified to the nature of Ashburn's injuries.

Alexander Gordon Bennett was next called to the stand. This is the man who stood behind a door of the room in which Ashburn was killed, and saw the whole transaction. He related all the circumstances of the murder with much minuteness, and indentified Duke and Berber certainly, and Hudson less certainly. He said he gave different testimony at the coroner's inquest, beeanse he knew the Ku Klux would surely kill him if he told the truth. Bennett's testimony was very interesting and occupied the entire day.

Hannah Flourney, the colored woman who kept the bouse where Ashburn boarded, and Amanda Patterson, the white girl who lived there, will be examined to-morrow. Both were present at the murder.

It is but fair to say that the testimony so far does not bear heavily against Chipley. Both Betts and Marshall say they think he was in the crowd of assas. sins, but neither can say that he certainly was.

The assassination, it will be remembered, occurred on the night of the 30th of March last, and various citizens, prominent and influential members of the Demogratic party, were arrested for participating in the murder. Several them were released, namely, two brounders, formerly of Cincinnati, named CEMENT Rosedale's Hydraulic, for sale low by the control of the cont rence, and last, Grimes and Davie's. june3013m)

Two have made full confession, and appear as witnesses for the prosecution Twelve others were arraigned on Monday before a militury commission, and each and all plead not guilty. Their names are as follows: Elish J. Kirksey,

Columbus C. Bedell, Jas. W. Barber, William O. Duke, Robert Hudson, William D. Chipley, Alva C. Roper, James L. Wiggins, Robert A. Wood, Henry Hennis, Robert W. Blair, and Milton

Malone, Seven of the leading lawyers of Geor-Morton J. Crawford, appeared for the defence. The prosecution is conducted by Judge Advocate Brigadier General PUMPS, STOVES, ARMS, &c. Wm. McKee Dunn, assisted by Govern. or Joseph E. Brown and Major W. H.

What Shall Loyal Men Do.

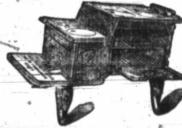

Lawlessness and crime in Texas renders it necessary that good men everywhere should combine for self-protec tion. From all parts of the country we hear of great outrages upon loyal men. Peaceable and quiet citizens are dragged from their homes and groosly abused, and it seems that to such there is little safety anywhere. We learn that there been quite a number of men whips ped an I beaten in an unmerciful manner in Unshur and Wood counties of late for no other reason than because they were loval to the Government. In the town of Gilmer several honest and industrious mechanics have been taken out of their houses in the night and scourged and beaten with many stripes because they were for the Union, Shack Roberts an industrious wagon maker, Gabriel (How) and ----- Bras, the one a blacksmith and the other a shoemaker, have been set up by a mob of thirty or forty rebels and after b.ing whipped in a cruel manner, driven from their homes .- And yet the editor of the paper at that place makes sport of the matter, and thereby upholds the villainous acts. An old man in Smith county on the road from Sarden Valley to Starrville, was taken out a few nights since and whipped nearly to death for avowing himself in favor of reconstruction under the Congressional plan, How long, oh, how long shall these things

How long shall the fleudish acts in Hunt and Fannin c unties be permitted to go unset ced and the perpetrators be allowed to run at large.

Law and order must prevail in Texas or we are a ruined people. Let men who are oppressed bring these things to the notice of the Military if civil authorities will not do their duty .- McKinney

Letter from Hempstead, Texas.

We take the following extracts from a correspondent in Hempstead, regreting very much that we have not room for all of his interesting letter :-

HEMPSTEAD, TEXAS, July 22, 1868. MR. EDITOR:

Glancing over the proceedings of the late "ring-tailed convention" at Bryan, I was so forcibly impressed with the 6th resolution of that august body, that I at once proposed to Mrs. B. o pack my earpet-sack for a trip to the land of cotton, milk and honey, namely : the Valley of the Brazos.

I had been to the Post Office, and Mrs. B. probably shaping her precedents, manifold and frivolous, scanning my physiognomy with a peculiar expression of manifold doubt and slarm, remarked that she was in hopes I was only drunk, but perceived I had gone plum crasy. Thanking her with my usual snavity, I read from the Herald, for the benefit of labor and capital, as well as peace and civil government, for the development of the resources of our great State, and that " our true policy is to invite immigration and capital from the Northern States. and to assure them of frendly welcome."

"This, you perceive, madam," said I, " gives a flat denial to the charge of the Radicals, that Northern eitizens are not received with friendship, and cannot expost security to life and property here; so many patriots have sealed their dedoes it not appear to you like a wilful perversion of the truth."

My wife, who can be the most com plaisant of the sex, would not deign an answer, and, muttering something about "three years in Texas, and so green," sailed from the room. The contest was decided in my favor, and the carpet sack was packed. ...

At Bryan I found several' delegates still on " the same old bust," and joined freely with such as were not entirely played out from the effects of the late convention. All were officers of high rank, the lowest grade being that of Colonel. Throckmorton was still on hand, nursing his prime minister, Epperson, of Red River, not yet quite recovered. Giddings, of Washington, was holding forth with a long winder from the steps of the Commercial, and the burden of his song was that the carpet-baggers should be cleared out-that colored Democratic clubs should be organized in every county in the State, and that the disunion Radical party shou'd be de-

I saw at once that the object of the ring-tailed convention was to send out to the public one platform for effect abroad against loyal men, and adopt a different one for home and local use, .

The massacre of freedmen at Millican is undoubtedly one of the results of the Bryan platform.

Mr. Clinton Foot, an attorney of great talent, was assassinated at this place a few weeks ago by a man named Springfield, a merchant of this place. He is at large here on bail. The only cause that can be traced as the basis of this affair is that he belonged to the Loyal League.

A Mr Scales was murdered a few miles from here night before last,

The freedmen of the adjoining counies can get no satisfaction from their employers, and few of them ever got paid for their labor. The Bureau is powerless without the aid of the bayonet : a few bayonents with blue coats in the back-ground would have a salutary effect on this neighborhood, or even the Stars and Stripes would be a pleasant sight at

A young man of Southern birth and education was threatened away from here a few days ago for teaching a col ored school.

I have lost faith in the friendliness of the 6th resolution, concocted by our walking whisky-barrels at Bryan. have no faith in the ring-tails, and hereafter shall not spurp the advice of Mrs-B., whom I hope to be able to see soon. I have enough of the Bryan platform, and enough of the Brazos bottom. There is no place like the ranch, after all.

Please excuse this short letter, as 1 am run out of paper. I have some more paper, but the landlord of the Planter's Exchange has a lien on that ; so, you see, I am a victim of circumstances.

I remain, as ever, truly and radi C. S. B.

Letter from Lockhart. LOCKHART, CALDWELL CO., TEXAS,

July 21, 1868. Editors of the San Antonio Express :

Permit me, through the medium of your paper, the Republican Palladium of Texas, to ventilate a few of the current topics of this town and neighbor-

The Fourth passed off very quietlynot a gun fired, nor any other demonstration made by the whites, except the raising of the United States Flag by the Bureau Agent.

The colored people repaired to the Court-house in the afternoon, where they spent a few social hours in dancing ; thus expressing, by the only means in their power, some regard for the anniversary-day of American freedom. Yet even this innocent amusement of the freedmen seemed to ruffle the latent animonity of the autocrats of color; for within a few bours after its commencement, a petition was presented to the my better-half, the following lines from Police Court, seeking its interposition in the said resolution, where it wisely de- the suppression of dances in the Court-The ultimate object of this little exhibition of spleen is to debar the freedmen from the use of the only public building in town.

The Sub.-Assistant Commissioner of the Bureau of R., F. and A. L., raised bia. the Stars and Stripes on the Fourthwhich floated unmolested during the day : but at night the ropes of the flagstaff were out, and the next merning. that Banner, beneath whose starry folds votion to their country, was trailing on the ground.

In the country, matters are not much better. Near McGee's Crossing, on the San Marcos River, on land owned by George Hancock, Esq., of Austin, there is a grove where the freedmen have been in the habit of holding Divine Service. Dr. Wm. Thompson, Mr. Hancock's agent of this land, called, a few weeks since, on the Bareau Agent of this place, and desired him to forbid the freedmen to worship in this ground. The Bureau Agent wrote to Mr. H. on the subject, enclosing stamp, and asking his permission for the freedmen to still hold their religious meetings on his land. Mr. Hancock, who professes to be a loyal man, never deigned to reply. This silence of Mr. H. has licensed Dr. Thompson in prohibiting the further oc-cupancy of this temple of nature by the colored people of the San Marcos as a

Does all this look very much like a spirit of reconciliation, and a desire to restore peace and quietude to our distarcted country? Let echo answer.

Yours truly, DAVID P. BAKER, Sheriff Caldwell County.

The evidences which have been pro duced suggest the untruthfulness of the representation of the petitioner. He was never an officer of the State, but a private employee of Mr. B. P. Schu-mard and Dr. Moore, at the rate of one dollar a day; nor do the services of petitioner deserve any consideration.

A pamphlet of the Board of Natural Science of Philadelphia stamps S. B. achievements in Austin where he has utterly ruined the collection of minerals show him to be an ignoramus.

Very respectfully, WHITMORE. Chairman.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Boyd, to the effect that $1000 be approriated to build a marble monument to the memory of Gen. Heuston. Buffington offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That the Legislature is hereby authorized to appropriate the sum of ten thousand dollars for the purpose of erecting a suitable monument to the memory of the late San Houston.

Schutze offered the following sendment: Said monument to be erected near the apitol of the State. The question recurring upon the sec-ond reading of the resolution, it was read second time and agreed to. Harn offered a resolution in regard to funds collected for a menument to be erected on the battle field of San Jacinto, requiring all persons who have collected such money to pay the same to the State Treasurer, under certain penalties.

Bryant of Harris offered the following resolution, and asked its reference to the committee on general provi-

Resolved, That the following shall form a part of the Constitution:

Sec. 1. No person who shall ever have been so unfortunate as to have taken a human life, except in aid or execution of the law, shall ever hold a civil office in this State, until he shall have been relieved by a two-third vete of the Legislature. It was so referred. Smith of Galveston introduced two declarations respecting railroads, and asked J. S. Loockwoo their reference to the committee on injuly29d&w1m)

They were so referred. Schutze offered a resolution providing for a mounted police in every county of regard to wife's property; referred to committee on the judiciary.

Dissatisfied.

We see that the unreconstructed citizens of Houston are dissatisfied at General Buchapan's order removing city officers and appointing loyal men. These men never seem to think that the Gov. ernment of the United States has but recently put down their sort while engaged in armed rebellion, and has the right to appoint whom it pleases,

Police Items.

MAYOR'S COURT, July 29, 1868 .-John Carron was arraigned upon two different charges of being drank and disorderly upon the streets; was allowed three hours wherein to leave the city.

Abe. Williamson, for the same offense; was committed to the city jail for three

Frank Jones, for the same offense; was simmilarly death with.

John Reese was examined upon the charge of having committed an assault with intent to kill John Fulton. The case occupied all the forenoon, and was then continued until 10 o'clock A. M.

ASTOUNDING!! - The telegraph informs us that " It is positively stated that the President will conform to the law until modified by Congress or Bullified by the Courts !

K. K. K .- The Columbus Times says from the purport of the following order, which we found upon our table this morning, we presume that the Ku Klux Klan are among us, and spotting al there mischief-making persons about town who have been so busy of late, and claiming to be of the Klan.

who are quasi Democrats, and waiting to join the strongest party.

Gentlemen, if the Ka Kiux don't spot you the people will.

H'D Q'RS CASTLE OF VENORANCE, }

July 18, 1868, 1 o'clock,.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 3. Whereas, mischievi ming to be the Ku Klux Klan, have been making demonstrations in our name, and for other causes known to us, the following order is promulgated. lst. All persons are hereby notified that our mission is peace, harmony and good will to all men, and that we will scatter with our vengeance all persons who violate the same, or otherwise attempt to defeat our missio 2d. In order that the above may be successfully accomplished, each K.K. with sword in hand, is required to meet at these Head-Quarters, at the approach of the first hour of gloom, and report all offenders of law and order, and prepare to make one grand demonstration in behalf of liberty peace and prosperity. 3rd. Let carpet-baggers and scalls wags beware! the time is now at hand when they will be scattered like Sam son's foxes, and the places which knew them once, will know them no more

POLYPHEMUS, GRAND CYCLOPS. VINDES, Grand Secretary.

General Resecrans is in Chicago, and washes his hands of the Democratic convention. So does General Sherman, and every other fighting General.

It is thought that Seymour stands s fair chance of carrying the Dry Tortugas.

Sunflowers grow thirty feet high in Arizona, and cactus plants fifty.

The Republican party, with General Grant as their exponent, ask nothing from the late rebels but the same acquiesence yielded by the Union men. They propose no pensities upon the mass of those who have inflicted so many wrongs upon a generous country and millions of innocent people. On the contrary, they tand ready, if not too groosly outraged, when General Grant elected, not only to wipe off all disabilities for treason, but to work for the development of the South by every so-cial, moral, political, legislative, and executive measure.

Now as this purpose will more clearly appear as the present campaign pregresses, and the contrast between pledged peace of Grant and the Republi cans and the threatened war of Seymour and the Democrats is made more palpabl , how long will the pro heey of such men as Blair, Hampton, Vance, Forrest, sup a few more, endure?

Here, after all is the main question; and it is for the intelligent while men of the South to examine it before they fully resolve upon the dangerous attempt of a second rebellion. — Wash. Chron.
