VOL. II.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1868.

NO. 205.

OFFICIAL LAWS

UNITED STATES, Passed at the Second Session of the Fortieth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 46.]

AN ACT constituting eight hours a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics, employed by or on behalf of the government of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen, and mechanics now employed, or who may hereafter be employed, by or on behalf of the government of the United States; and that all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Approved, July 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 47.]

AN ACT for the relief of certain exporters of rum.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the act of January eleventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, entitled "An act to prevent frauds in the collection of tax on distilled spirits," be so construed as to permit rum, which at the date of the passage of said act was already distilled or redistilled and intended for export and actually contracted for to be delivered for exportation, to be withdrawn, removed, and exported from the United States under such transportation and export bonds and regulations as were required therefor immediately prior to the passage of said act, and as shall be provided hereafter: Provided, That all such spirits shall be actually exported within sixty days from the passage of this act; and that before any such exportation shall be permitted, proof in writing shall be furnished by sworn evidence, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, that such rum was in fact at the date mentioned intended for export and distilled or redistilled for that purpose or actually contracted for to be so exported. And upon failure to so export the same within said sixty days, the tax thereon shall become due and payable, and the bonds given for the transportation and export thereof shall be forfeited and collected, as in case of such bonds not cancelled according to law.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 48.]

AN ACT to reestablish the boundaries of the collection districts of Michigan and Michilimackinac, and to change the names of the collection districts of Michilimackinac and Port Huron.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the collection district of Michigan shall be extended so as to embrace all the territory and waters of the State of Michigan lying west of the principal meridian and south of the latitudinal line dividing townships number forty-three from number forty-four, north of the base line of said State, excluding the territory bordering Green Bay and including the island of Bois Blanc.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the collection district of Michilimackinac shall hereafter be called the district of Superior, and shall embrace all that part of the upper peninsula of the State of Michigan lying east of the principal meridian, all the islands in, and bordering upon, the St. Marie river, and all that part of the State of Michigan lying west of the principal meridian and north of the latitudinal line dividing townships number forty-three from townships number forty-four, north of the base line of said State, including the territory in said State bordering Green Bay, together with all the islands, waters, and shores of Lake Superior and the adjacent territory up to the headwaters of all the rivers, and streams tributary thereto and within the jurisdiction of the United States.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the collection district of Port Huron, in the State of Michigan, shall hereafter be called the district of Huron.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 49.]

AN ACT to extend the boundaries of the collection district of Philadelphia so as to include the whole consolidated city of Philadelphia.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the port of entry and delivery of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, is hereby extended so as to include within its boundaries the whole consolidated city of Philadelphia.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 50.]

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to provide for carrying the mails from the United States to foreign ports, and for other purposes," approved March 25, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the operation of the fourth section of an act to provide for carrying the mails of the United States to foreign ports, and for other purposes, approved March twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, shall cease and determine on and after the thirtieth day of September, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 51.]

AN ACT relative to filing reports of railroad companies.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the reports required to be made to the Secretary of the Treasury on or before the first day of July of each year, by the corporations created by or entitled to subsidies under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the Missouri river to the Pacific ocean, and to secure to the government the use of the same for postal, military, and other purposes," approved July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and the acts supplemental and amendatory thereof, shall hereafter be made to the Secretary of the Interior, on or before the first day of October of each year. Said reports shall furnish full and specific information upon the several points mentioned in the twentieth section of the said act of eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and shall be verified as therein prescribed, and on failure to make the same as herein required, the issue of bonds or patents to the company in default shall be suspended until the requirements of this act shall be complied with by such company. And the reports hitherto made to the Secretary of the Treasury under the said act of July first, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, shall be transferred and delivered by him to the Secretary of the Interior to be filed by him.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the corporations created by the provisions of the acts of Congress approved March second, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, and known as the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, and the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, shall make reports to the Secretary of the Interior on or before the first day of October of each year, as are required to be made by the Union Pacific Railroad and branches, under the provisions of the first section of this act, and on failure to do so, shall be subject to the like suspension.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the reports required from the commissioners appointed to examine and report in relation to the road of any of the corporations where reference is made in this act, shall be addressed to and filed in the Department of the Interior; and all such reports heretofore made shall be transferred to and filed in said Department of the Interior; and so much of any and all acts as requires any reports from such companies, or any officers thereof, to be made to the Secretary of the Treasury, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That, in addition to the eight subjects referred to in section twenty of the act of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, to be reported upon, there shall also be furnished to the Secretary of the Interior all reports of engineers, superintendents, or other officers who make annual reports to any of said railroad companies.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

[PUBLIC—No. 52.]

AN ACT appropriating money to sustain the Indian commission and carry out treaties made thereby.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purpose of carrying out treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes and defraying the expenses and disbursements made by the commission authorized by the act of July twenty, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, entitled "An act to establish peace with certain hostile Indian tribes, during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-eight," the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be expended under the directions of said commission.

Approved, June 25, 1868.

Washington dispatch to N. Y. Tribune of the 4 inst., says:

The Republicans here express entire satisfaction with Gen. Meade for the wisdom which he has displayed in his last order, in assigning the 15th United States Infantry, commanded by Gen. O. L. Shepherd, to the Military District of Texas. Gen. Shepherd was in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau and the Military District of Alabama a long while, and is spoken of as having always been the friend of the Southern Unionists, in preference to the Southern Rebels. As society now exists in Texas, it is felt that such a man as Shepherd, a friend of Reconstruction, will be able to more speedily reconstruct the State, and put an end to rampant lawlessness.

THE DEMOCRATIC ARGUMENT.—We take the following from the N. O. Republican of the 8th:

A letter has been received from Madison parish, dated August 4, which gives further information of the killing of colored men, and the burning of their houses. Every man from the "Bend" has to be on the watch all night to protect his life from the rebel guerrillas, and men belonging to the Republican party are being murdered. All the colored men in the remote parts of the parish are coming to De Soto.

Threats are being made that every man who votes for Grant will be killed by guerrillas, and there are indications that an organization is being formed to exterminate the Republicans.

GENERAL CHARLES G. HALPINE.—General Charles G. Halpine, more popularly known, perhaps, under the pseudonym of "Private Mike O'Reilly," is no more. He expired in New York city the morning of August 3, from an overdose of chloroform, which he had taken for the relief of neuralgic pains. The intelligence of his death, which has been so sudden, will cause a feeling of sadness throughout the country.

When is a blow from a lady welcome? When she strikes you agreeably.

OUR FACILITIES.

The Daily Express has grown with the most wonderful rapidity known in newspaper enterprise, with daily dispatches from all parts of the world, and correspondents in the principal cities, in a wonderful short space of time it has sprang from the rear to the most advanced outpost of enterprising journalism.

OUR WEEKLY EXPRESS.

A splendid eight page forty column paper, containing less advertising and more reading matter than any paper of its size in the country. We have never found it necessary to appeal to the friends of the Union to support this journal, as its merits have been acknowledged at home and abroad, having subscribers and correspondents in twenty-three States of the Union and in Europe. Every town and every Post Office neighborhood in Texas, should receive a Club of the Weekly Express. It is in the interest of all peace loving citizens to scatter the broad east throughout the State the truths in its columns. To do this, let every reader induce his neighbor to subscribe, after reading his paper, each subscriber can do his paper up and forward it to a loyal friend who will raise a Club in a region where the paper is now unknown.

Terms of Subscription:

|                                | Currency.    |

THE PROSPECT.

We do not desire to hold out any false hopes, nor would we intentionally raise expectations to be disappointed, but the prospect for the loyal man in the South does look bright. It never has been customary for years past for the Union men to talk about "the darkest hour is just before day," and "the silver lining," and such expressions to keep their hopes up, for they have always had an abiding faith that eventually their principles would succeed. Many times their prospects have been clouded, and their enemies have made a great show of rejoicing—but there has always been something in the breast of every Union patriot that has told him that right and justice would prevail, though it might be long delayed.

The good work is still going on, our enemies have not been "subjugated" but only "overcome by brute force," but their days are now most certainly sealed; the principals for which the nation fought four long years, are not now going to be tamely surrendered. The people of the United States are becoming aroused and are terribly in earnest.

Johnson's apostasy has caused the rebels to come out and show their true colors, and they have shown them too soon. The parties to the Presidential election are precisely those that existed in 1864. The one is the loyal Republican party, the other the secession Democratic party. It will be remembered that in 1864, if every man in the Southern States had voted for Gen. McClellan, Lincoln would have been elected all the same. The Republican party rather expect that each Southern State admitted will, under the chronic practice of terrorism, vote the Democratic ticket, but this will not change the result.

One of the most fortunate features of the whole campaign is, that the party lines are drawn so perfectly plain between the former Union men and rebels. The New York Democratic Convention was largely attended and managed by rebels from the South, so much so that immediately after its adjournment, throughout the South the same old secession leaders became jubilant, and assured their rebel friends that they would gain by the election of Seymour all they lost in the surrender of Lee.

The Convention failed entirely to rally the old democratic party—even Gen. Grant, the candidate of the Republican party, was formerly a democrat, and like hundreds of thousands others, thought more of his country than he did of the democratic party, and so left the old huk.

You cannot find a rebel in the South or a sympathizer in the North that does not believe in the democratic party, while with a very few exceptions, of those who go in for the loaves and fishes, all the Union element of 1864 is with the Republican party.

Those who in 1864 believed the war a failure, think so still, and so do their Southern allies. While all who assisted to make it a success and believed that it was not a failure, are of the same opinion still, and will vote accordingly.

We think we may be excused for this once in saying that we think we can see that "silver lining."

A New Style of Republicanism. Mr. Editor:

I send you two specimens of one kind of Republicans our Convention is afflicted with. One is a circular and the other a letter, from the two Radical Flanagans, father and son, members from Rusk county. You will easily understand that the Conservatives in the Convention find no difficulty in acting with Republicans who hold sentiments like the Flanagans; and this may explain to you the reason for many of the strange phases of a Convention claiming to be almost unanimously Republican:—

Yours, MEMBER.

HENDERSON, TEXAS, June 16, 1868.

To the Voters of Rusk County.

My purpose for writing this circular is to place myself before you so that I cannot be misunderstood. I am by wire-pullers charged with sympathizing with the Radicals. I simply say, that all who thus charge are slanderers. For Thaddeus Stevens and Sumner, leaders in both branches of Congress, I have the most utter contempt—for more reasons than I can in this brief notice possibly give. They hold with the Radicals, whom they lead, that the Southern States by act of secession, are out of the Union. President Johnson says, and always has said, that no State had the power to secede, and that we are still members of the Union. I am with President Johnson to the fullest extent; and the slanderers that are at work against me are aware that I have always held the very same views as declared by President Johnson.

I am all anxiety for a full restoration of the Union for political and pecuniary reasons. I think if we can speedily regain our constitutional position, we that have suffered the loss of so much property in the emancipation of the slaves of the South, that remuneration can be had. We are likely to be taxed heavily to pay the Northern millionaires to continue them as such. This I am opposed to without qualification, except a mutual and constitutional basis can be agreed upon. This is for the slaveholders to be paid for their property which has been taken from them, in violation of all law and justice. I wish some plan inaugurated that will do justice to all parties—by taxation upon the slaveholder in proportion to the value of his slaves; by taxing his lands, as well as all other bonds issued by the General Government, which are now not taxable, and held in the North; by this means reducing the actual amount of tax now paid by our people who never owned slave property.

My great object is to make the Northern legislators who have made fortunes out of the war, pay for our property, and reduce our taxes, or repudiate and let us all be ruined together.

I cannot agree to see them collect from the cotton-grower five cents per pound, all to make them richer and the South poorer; this law has already passed and goes into effect on the first day of July next, as I understand.

I am opposed to all extravagant taxation—to all high salaries—to all war measures. I am for peace and prosperity. I am no Radical, but an unflinching Union man. I am in favor of relief to all debtors. I think I can aid my country and suffering country at this time, in some several particulars.

I am for Railroads. I am against the new Constitution. I am in favor of dividing the State—for making strong laws to control all emigrants, and to enforce all contracts with negroes. I am opposed to negro suffrage in every sense of the word; nor is this fact upon us now, neither by Congress nor the State—Congress having abandoned the idea, and not in either the old or new Constitution of the State—but simply spoken of by ignorant demagogues, such as were crying out abolitionism to get votes, some few years back. Many such are now active, and ready to lead you to destruction as they have always done.

Act for yourselves in this case.

Respectfully,

J. W. FLANAGAN.

We extract the following from an interesting letter, published in the Henderson Times, from Webster Flanagan, delegate from Rusk county in the State Convention:—

"It is plain, as I have suggested heretofore, that we will present no Constitution to the people for their action until after the great contest in November, and many say not until after inauguration. Let for one come here to form a Constitution and submit it to the voters at an early day. Then if they chose to vote it down, all right; it is a privilege Congress has allowed them. If they ratify, then we can claim the protection of the United States Government.

"Discussion closed—vote taken—resolution (to send Hamilton and Caldwell to Washington) passed—only fifteen voting against—Rusk county with the minority. We are proud of our record on this question. I want no Militia sticking torches to the houses of my friends. I want no war of races.

"Caldwell is happy; he goes to Washington, where he can swagger around and blow through his mustache, at the expense of the State, and tell how badly he was treated at Marshall.

"The division question comes up this morning, and I fear they will force Hamilton's substitute upon us. In that case I am opposed to division. The truth is, this Convention is a failure.

"I will write you as soon as the franchise Declaration is acted on. I am for all voting.

"Your friend,
"WEBSTER FLANAGAN."

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES.]

LONDON, August 12.—Emperor's speech at Troye, excites various comment, some journals claiming it as a guarantee of peace, others as cover of war.

ST. LOUIS, August 12.—Harney leaves here next week, perfect arrangements are made removing Indians to reservation, with headquarters at Fort Randall.

WASHINGTON, August 12.—Evarts long looked for opinion covers a column and declares Rollins tenure good, Rollins therefore continues in office.

Fifty delegates of national journeymen tailors Union, visited the President to-day, interview pleasant, characterized without political allusion.

Distillery regulations cover ten pages, and direct that no still shall run till guarantees are complied with, the new law requires five different stamps to a barrel of spirits.

BUFFALO, August 12.—Experts in the city pronounce the cattle disease nothing but the effects of hot weather and close confinement in the cars.

BERLIN, August 13.—Negotiations between the North German Confederation and the United States, for treaty securing protection, proper treatment to emigrants on the High seas.

Wiesbaden, Czar and the King of Prussia, had a pacific interview at Lingerwalbach.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Laperte, a town in California, was destroyed by fire, loss half a million dollars.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—Stevens guarded by Battler Zouaves, negroes uniformed and armed. Great majority of visitors are negroes. Exhibition attracts very little attention; the body lies in the centre of the rotunda, no unusual decorations or drapery in the capitol.

THE MARKETS.

The Southern Democratic papers hoist the "stars and bars" over the Democratic nominations. This is proper. Seymour will see stars before he gets through, and Blair knows already all the bars in the country.

General Grant has a great advantage over his antagonists. He whipped them once, and his prestige will go a great ways in doing it again.

Two More Murders—Supposed to be Citizens of San Antonio or Vicinity.

YORKTOWN, DEWITT COUNTY, TEXAS, August 9, 1868.

Editors of the San Antonio Express:

I beg to inform the public through your paper of two more murders in this vicinity, hoping it may meet the eye of some one who has missed a friend.

Some two weeks ago some teamsters found the remains of an old man and a boy about six miles east of Yorktown. They had been covered up in the sand in a dry creek. The hogs had rooted them out, and the bodies were nearly devoured; one skull fractured; lower jaw of the other one crushed, as if done by an axe. Bones still unburied.

It is unknown here who they were or who did the deed. The hair, size and clothing corresponds with that of an old man and boy who passed through here about that time. They stated that they lived in or near San Antonio.

Fine rains here. Cotton is good—not much planted. Peaches more abundant than ever known before in this county.

CITIZEN.

The El Paso Mail—The Kickapoo Indians.

Major Moore writes from Washington, August 1st:—

"To-day the Assistant Postmaster General has issued an order directing the El Paso Mail to be increased in speed—requiring the trip to be made in six days and a half. This will be the means of increasing our circulation in the frontier region."

The Major also says: "The Kickapoo matter is receiving attention and will soon be acted on. I had an interview with Mr. Browning, the Secretary of the Interior, and also with Mr. Taylor, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. I may bring an order for a military officer to treat with the tribe, and provide for their removal—I shall urge it."

OUT OF THE STRAW.—We learn that Judge L. D. Evans, who was a champion in the conservative ranks, has been in the straw for some time, but has at last declared in favor of Grant and Colfax.

The Convention.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY.

CAPITOL, AUSTIN, TEXAS, August 6, 1868.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment; roll called; quorum present. Prayer by the chaplain. Journal of yesterday read and adopted.

Flanagan asked leave of absence for Mr. Coleman for six days. Leave granted.

Payle presented a petition from A. D. Robertson and others, asking a charter for a horse railroad at Houston, with accompanying declaration, and asked its reference to the committee on internal improvements.

Hunt, from the committee on State affairs, made the following report:

COMMITTEE REPORT.

August 5, 1868.

Hon. E. J. Davis, President of the Convention:

Sir—Your committee on State affairs, to whom was referred a petition from citizens of Bexar county, asking for the incorporation of an association called the "German Club," have had the same under consideration, and are in favor of granting the prayer of the petitioners.

We believe the object sought to be accomplished by the formation of said association to be in a high degree laudable, tending to promote social refinement and the general moral and intellectual improvement of society.

Your committee therefore report the accompanying declaration to your Honorable body and ask its adoption.

H. C. Best, Chairman

Mullins made a minority report from the committee on lawlessness and violence.

Smith of Galveston moved to reject the report.

Motion to reject withdrawn.

Boyd offered a declaration about the petitionary. Referred to a committee.

Question of the per diem of official reporters. Resolution passed authorizing the secretary to draw a check for the reporter up to date.

A special committee appointed to investigate the affair between Long and Johnson, two members.

Resolution passed requiring the committee on contingent expenses to inquire into cost of writing out the debates.

Resolution of Gen. Davis taken up in regard to devoting the time of the Convention to making the Constitution.

Flanagan called. The House adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

Bledsoe called up Gen. Davis' resolution in regard to duty of Convention. A motion to lay the resolution on the table, elicited the following vote:

Yeas—34. Nays—43.

So the convention refused to lay upon the table.

Armstrong of Lamar moved a suspension of the call.

Hamilton of Travis moved the indefinite postponement of the subject, upon which yeas and nays were demanded and resulted thus:

Yeas—32. Nays—45.

So the convention refused to postpone definitely. Judge Lindsay offered an amendment striking out the date mentioned, (th. 20th Aug.) for the adjournment of the Convention, which was carried.

From this time, by filibustering a final vote upon the resolution was evaded.

A married lady, who was in the habit of spending most of her time in the society of her neighbors, happened one day to be ill, and sent her husband in great haste for a physician. The husband ran a short distance and then returned, exclaiming, "My dear, where shall I find you when I come back?"

Mr. Parton asks, "Will the coming man drink wine?" If he's a good Democrat he'll prefer whisky.
