The Democratic Platform, 1868.
BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.
Great Heavens! Is this our mission? End in this the prayer and tears, The toil, the wars, the watchings of our young er, better days?
Still as the Old World rolls in light, shall ours in shadow turn, A heathen chaos, cursed of God, through outer darkness borne?
Where the far nations look for light, a blackness in the air!
Where for words of Hope they listened, the long wail of Despair!
The Crisis passes in us—face to face it stands With solemn lips of question, like the Sphinx in Egypt's sands!
This day we fashion Destiny, our web of Fate we spin.
This day for all hereafter, choose we Holiness or Sin;
Even now from starry Gerizim or Ebal's cloudy crown, We call the dews of blessing, or the bolts of cursing down!
By all for which the martyrs bore their agony and shame:
By all the warring words of truth with which prophets came,
By the future which awaits us, by all the hopes which east Their faint and trembling beams across the blackness of the Past; In the names of those who for our country's freedom died: Oh ye people! Oh my brothers! choose ye the righteous side!

So shall the Freedom lover go joyful on his way, To shed Penobscot's waters to San Francisco bay, To make the rugged places smooth, and sow the vale with grain, And bear, with Liberty and Law, the Bible in his train;
The mighty North shall bless the South, and sea shall answer sea,
And mountain unto mountain shout—PRAISE GOD FOR WE ARE FREE!

The way to War.
How a Democratic success at the election would occasion civil war is casily seen. General Blair does not hesitate to avow it. Congress must be wholly disregarded. The Supreme Court must not be invoked. The President must usurp all powers of the Government and act alone. He must be Cassar. "Because," says General Blair in his letter, "if the President elected by the Democracy enforces, or permits others to enforce, these Reconstruction acts, the Radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious Senators and fifty Representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson." Force is, therefore, the only alternative.

If Mr. Seymour be elected, after this loud and reiterated declaration by his party that his election will mean forcible overthrow of the present State governments in the Southern States, the result is evident. He would officially declare those Governments void.
He would then be impeached and probably convicted. But the Democratic party, victorious at the polls, with the whole rebel force jubilant and ready, would dispute the sentence, and rise against its execution. Meanwhile in the Southern States, the new Democratic State organizations summoned by the President would be formed. They would dispute the State authority with the present incumbents. The President would recognize the new claimants and order the army to their support, and to "trample in the dust" the others. They in turn would appeal to Congress, already engaged in conflict with the President. Meanwhile the Representatives and Senators sent from the new State organizations would arrive in Washington, and in concert with the other Democratic member would be recognized as Congress by the President. But, instead, long before this event civil war would be ravaging the country, and Wade Hampton, and Robert Toombs, and Howell Cobb, and the old rebel chiefs who say with Albert Pike, "We do not love and will not pretend to love that Union, though we have agreed to obey the laws of the conqueror," would gladly behold in a desolating war and a ruined republic the fullness of their revenge.

This is the real issue. It can not be denied, for the Democratic party exultingly declares it. It can not be evaded, for the experience of the last few years has taught us that we have as deperate and dangerous elements as any country at any time. It is the relapse of the rebellion, and a relapse of disease is often fiercer than its original attack.
There was never a moment when the utmost effort of every faithful citizen was more indispensable than now to the salvation of the country. On the one hand is General Grant, with his moderation, his firmness, his tried patriotism, his singular sagacity, his signal illustration of the finest qualities of the intelligent American; and with him Schuyler Colfax, who has never said a word or done an act that can inspire the least distrust, and who is in full accord with the best and most peaceful and progressive tendencies of the country.
They are the

About Tomatoes.
If you wish to bake tomatoes, cut them in two parts, round the tomato-that is, so the cells can be divested of the pulp and seeds which they contain.
To six tomatoes take half a pint of bread crumbs, one large onion finely chopped, one cance of butter; pepper and salt to the taste. Fill the cells of each piece with the dressing, put the two halves together and tie them with a piece of thread. Put them in a pan with an ounce of butter and a gill of water, set them in a moderate oven, and cook them till they are soft.
TOMATOES FOR WINTER USE.—After skinning perfectly ripe tomatoes, cut off any green around the base. I think leaving in the hard, green core is the immediate cause of the loss of the fruit.
Place them in a bell-metal kettle over the fire; season with salt as if for immediate use, then only allow them to come to a boil; while hot, put in stone cans or small-mouthed galon jars, cork and seal. If proper judgment be exercised, you will never lose one jar.
SWEET GREEN TOMATO PICKLES.—Peel and slice two gallons of green tomatoes, add five tablespoonfuls of ground mustard, three gills of mustard-seed, two tablespoonfuls of ground cinnamon, one tablespoonful of cloves, one pound of brown sugar, three quarts of vinegar.
Boil all together until quite done. If you choose, you may use one spoonful of ground and a portion of cinnamon bark. Celery tops improve the flavor.

"CAMPBELL BAGGERS."—Senator Abbott, of North Carolina, has collected the facts with regard to foreign capital in that State. He finds that over $10,000,000 of Northern money have been invested there since the war.
The new law in Ohio compelling all physicians to suspend practice who have never been in receipt of regular diploma goes into effect October 1st.
