Oun Jacain."—We notice that a great favorite of ours, "Our Jessie," is playing with much success on the Memora beards. The is a most pleasing actrues, and always wine the hearts of her audience. We remember witnessing her performances night after night in Mobile, in 1886, and such night she appeared more attractive than on the last. We believe abe has never appeared in Galveston, (Galvaton, News, Jan. 1, 1889.

Jessie," when she first appeared upon the Houston beards, when we were playing the role of the "critic,"—and can say that the is indeed a charming little (deer) dear as indeed a charming little (deer) dear as indeed and happy setting upon the stage, captivating all bearts as he musical laugh rang ont upon the air.

Our Insert too. We have been on a toor of inspection at both small property at these market houses. We find that the these market hopses. We find that the butchers have a box to hold what few tools they use, or rather, that is what the box was made for, but which is now, used for stowing away what mean is left over from day to day. The note est und guaw away at this meat like good fellows: daring the hours of the hight, in the horrights this meat is sour and is sold at three cames per at 1964; is

Surgeon of the Post to this fact, so that he may inspert the same and guard the city from cholers, &c.

We give to the public the names of the who have had sour meat in their stalls fo the last few days, in the west market, as which has been duly reported to the Mark-

Reconsideration of the Admin-intrator's Case by Judge Gamble

In this matter the Attorneys of the Court having presented a joint request through the following gomeons, to wit:

Jno. A. Cocke, T. T. Toni, T. J. Davine, N. D. Green, R. G. Newton and others, that the administrator, C. V. Pique, committed to the County jail, he discharged from mustedly for the purpose of being allowed a new hearing in the matter of his fraudulent return of sale and disobedience of the lent return of sale and disobedience of the orders of this Court. In consideration for the Bar, the Court has seen fit to grant this request. It appearing to the Court, after a review of the facts and additional testimoup, that the testimony subsequently introduced, at a rehearing of the case.

It also appearing to the Court that certain articles of personal property, wearing apparel, &c., being left out, were sold at private sale, instead of at public suction, in front of the Court-house door, as required by the conditions of the order, and it also appearing that a certain overcoat realso appearing that a certain overcoat re-turned as sold to Captain Huston, was, from the evidence of said Huston, not bought by or sold to said individual, and it further appearing from the evidence that the said overcoat went into the possession of the said Pique, and was worn by him. It is ordered that the former decree of this Court be confirmed, as to the payment of claims and execution against the estate of administrator and sureties.

But insempch as it is hoped that the cason that the said C, V. Pique has already received, will be sufficient to cause him to be more careful in the future, in obeying the orders of Courts; and where as, it is also hoped that this matter will cause him to regulate his conduct by more correct standards in the future, and inas much as perhaps the effect intended by his imprisonment, has been accomplished, without literally carrying into execution the remainder of his punishment; he will not be remanded to the county jail, and that portion of the order relative to his imprisonment will be remitted.
