REGULATIONS FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF LENT.—Archbishop McCloskey, of New York, has issued through his Chaplain, Rev. Father McNery...

1. All the week days of Lent, from Ash Wednesday till Easter Sunday, are fast days of precept, on one meal, with allowance of a moderate collation in the evening.

2. The precept of fasting implies also that of abstinence from the use of flesh meat but by dispensation, the use of flesh meat is allowed in this diocese at the principal meal on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays of Lent.

3. There is neither fast nor abstinence to be observed on Sunday of Lent.

4. It is not allowed to use fish with flesh meat at the same meal on week days of Lent.

5. There is no prohibition to use eggs, butter or cheese, provided the rules of quantity prescribed by the fast be complied with.

6. Lard may be used in preparing fish, vegetables, etc.

7. The Church excuses from the obligation of fasting but, not of abstinence from flesh meat, except in special cases of sickness or the like, the following classes of persons: First, the infirm; second, those whose duties are of an exhausting or laborious character...

Children and Feet tell the Truth.

We are told that the grandest feature of a fair constitution would be impartial suffrage, based upon some educational qualification.

About one negro in one hundred can read and write; and not more than one white man in twenty but what can read and write.

ter. He insults the intelligence of the freedmen, even. Why, the proposition is the holiest mockery we have ever contemplated.

Such "fair constitution" talk does no harm; it only disgusts the public, it might deceive a few into expecting something from the convention, when, in fact, there is no reason to expect anything.

We intend to watch the fair constitution talkers, just to see what they will consider a "fair constitution" about election time.

FOR SALE.

BLANKS for Butchers and Hide Dealers at this office.
The Maria will arrive this morning. Gamble and Dr. Shuman's Book Stores will have large deposits of papers, magazines, etc.
The Local of the Herald wrote his notice on the morning of the 22d about the Hall at Morgan's, and speaks of it in glowing terms. Funny—but he! He was salubrious at Braden's—Zeeck says.
The Report of the committee of the International Pacific Railroad, will appear in to-morrow's paper, we were unable to publish it in today's paper.
THE NEAR THE SAN PEDRO. A horse which was found under the San Pedro Tuesday afternoon, and destroyed a stable belonging to a German, burning all his hay stock food.

MR. JAMES SPANGLER wishes to purchase two large durable safes. His care is to be had at 1015 1/2 Main Street, or Colonel Peay's Stable.

PROFESSOR DELING gives a select party to-night at Dryden's Hall. This party is given by the scholars of the school. Gentlemen are not admitted unless they name themselves and bring a lady or two. Please take care of this, and gentlemen.

ANOTHER DIPLOMA. Mr. A. Hancock has received a beautiful Diploma from the Agricultural and Industrial Association, awarded to him for clothing made from the New Braunfels Manufacturing Company. Mr. Hancock has some elegant goods, suitable for suits and dress fits.

ATTENTION. A large trade sale takes place on Friday, at 11 o'clock. E. Sawyer & Co. announces in our columns to-day, that the above sale takes place on Friday, the 21st inst., all to be sold by Catalogue. An immense lot of assorted first-handles, to suit the wholesale and retail trade. Read their advertisement and profit by the same.

THE LOCAL has nothing of particular note or worthy of attention to inform the public of. Nobody has been killed or mangled. The Zeek, who travels by the electric rail, gathered up our items, informed us that Coy had committed a double tragedy upon a young, poor unfortunate, by cutting off one of his ears, &c. We do not, however, credit this, as Zeek sometimes deviates from the path of truth.

THE LOCAL has another piece of news, about a young lady in a certain school in the city, when asked by the teacher what a hand box was, replied that it was that thing that the merchants sometimes keep their clerks in, in this way gave circulation.

THE LOCAL is staying in our gutter, and dropping in groceries, and sometimes jumping higher.

THE LOCAL has faded caused by a large defalcation of one of its cashiers.

CONGRESS has passed the Copper Tariff bill over the President's veto.

A FLOVING JOURNAL.—A newspaper published the Richmond Herald is published on board the steamer Richmond, a huge passenger palace which plies between Louisville and New Orleans. National Colored Men's Convention. Adjournment Time.

Address to the Colored Citizens of the United States.

FELLOW-CITIZENS: We your representatives assembled in national convention...

At the outset of our address we would devoutly call upon you to join with us in thanks to Him in whose hands are the destinies of all his creatures...

As to our condition, we need not dwell long upon that, for you understand fully the necessity which prompted you to send to meet together in convention...

The camel labor, beneath the heavy load, and the wolf died in silence. Not bestowed in vain let such examples be...

Let us, girls, crowd up manfully and contend for the removal of those grievous...

But following brethren, let us not forget, let our grateful recognition of the noble services for our benefit and behalf...

In our present condition we are an unjustly degraded people; for we are stripped of all our rights...

"Exercites a freeman's will. As lightning doth the will of God."

Now, to deny such a right to one class of citizens while it is accorded to another...

MOUREAU & GROSS, NEW BRAUNFELL, TEXAS, Commission Merchants.

to be ephemeral, we should determine and insist upon it that a republican form of government is the deriving its just power from the consent of the governed...

We had purposed, fellow-citizens, to have invited your attention to the importance of education, and of establishing and supporting schools and colleges among us...

And we shall now conclude by returning with a Catholic's persistence to the all-important subject of universal suffrage...

As to our condition, we need not dwell long upon that, for you understand fully the necessity which prompted you to send to meet together in convention...
