You don't really have to be told about this, because you know it, but just the same we have been meaning for some time to tell you just what a fine person the minister of the Methodist Church is. He is a conscientious young man and an energetic one. We recall something which he said to us once, and we think it's a rather wonderful way for a person to believe. We thanked Rev. Lutrick for a visit which he made during our illness and he replied, "This is a small world and we should take care of one another." When that feeling becomes universal this will be a beter place to live

Bears Smother Underdog Carbon

The Baird Bears rolled to a 33-0 victory over their underdog rivals, the Carbon Wolverines, in the Bears Den last Thursday night. For the Bears, the win was the fifth for the season, four of which were District 13-B victories. The Bears now have a 4-1-1 record in District 13-B play.

Quarterback Paul Jones sparked the Bears on offense, scoring one touchdown and passing for another while kicking one extra point. Other stellar offensive Jones and Arvid Harris who made large gains when it counted the most.

The Bears scored their first over from the 2-yard marker. Tackle Kyle Meadows try for point after touchdown was good. George Jones racked up the second touchdown on a 3-yard plunge early in the second period. Meadows again converted to make it 14-0.

But the Bears scored again late in the second quarter on a 47yard run by Halfback John Bullock after he intercepted a Carbon aerial. Meadows missed this time to leave the score at 20-0 at the end of the first half.

Orville Taylor Bags Deer

Orville Taylor set a record in bagging a deer Monday afternoon. He and his son, Bryant, left about four o'clock Monday afternoon and was home for dinner. Orville offers a bit of advice for future hunters, "Kill your game close to the road and you won't have to carry it so far." He and Bryant had to carry the six point deer about two miles, for the country was so rough that it was impossible to get to it in the car. Incidently, this is Orville's first time to go hunting for deer, four legged urday with a dinner at 6:30.

Hi! Isn't this a beautiful day for this time of the year. Makes one want to go pecan gathering Used to have a lot of fun gathering pecans but now we just buy them.

We got through pulling cotton last Saturday. Glad we are Guess the old cows are glad we got through pulling cotton. Jim turned them in the field Sunday morning and of cours they had to go all over the field to find the least place to graze and finally came back to the first place they stopped at. Our daughter, Mildred, of Vernon came to see us last week were real happy to have her with us. One afternoon she decided she would go help her Daddy pull cotton. She was out in the field about two hours and pulled ninety-five pounds. She said she thought that pretty good as it had been fifteen years since she had pulled any cotton. She said she would have pulled cotton the next afternoon had she not wanted to go to see her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ramsey. who is in the Hospital at Baird now. Hope by the time Mrs. Mary reads this she is back home. I konw she is getting anxious to get home.

I just now got back from the field. Had to take some wheat down to the Park place. Jim is sowing wheat down there today.

We had a nice surprise last night. Uncle Jess Burnam and wife, Daisy, from Idalou, Texas came by and visited with us about two hours. Really was glad to see them. They had been to Brownwood to see their son. Clarence Burnam. Uncle Jess and Daisy used to live out here and were our closest neighbors and we used to have some mighty good times together. They really do look well. Jess says he didn't have anything to do but feed two cats. They really are taking life easy. Don't blame them. I would if I could. Oh yes. I must tell this on Mildred. She and I were ready to go to town and take the eggs. I was talking on the telephone as usual and Mildred said she would go to the cellar and get the eggs. So she did. RECIPE OF THE WEEK By Mary Lee Taylor Roast Chicken With Stuffing

Broadcast: November 21, 1953

Cook onion slowly in fat celery, 1 teaspoon salt, the pepper and sage. Then add milk and mix thorough sage. Then add milk and mix thoroughly. Sprinkle inside cavity of chicken with 11/2 teaspoons salt. Spoon bread mixture lightly into cavity of chicken. Sew cavity together or secure with tooth picks laced with string. Rub fat over outside of chicken. Place chicken on its side in shallow roasting pan. Do not cover. Bake on bottom rack in moderately slow oven (325) about 2 hours. At end of first hour turn chicken on other side and finish baking. Remove to warm platter. Makes 4 servings.
