TELEGRAPHIC

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXPRESS.

American News.
NEW YORK, June 17.—Several members of the Cuban Junta were arrested by Marshal Barlow and lodged in Ludlow street jail, on the charge of a violation of neutrality laws.

WASHINGTON, June 17.
Revenue to-day $26,000.
Creswell has made 400 postal changes within the last 48 hours.
Treasurer Spinner's wife is dead.
President Grant returns on Monday.

Dr. Brink, Mexican Consul sailed to-day.
PHILADELPHIA, June 17.—John M. Moriarty, President of the Irish Republican Association of Pennsylvania, has issued an address, saying the Republican party must sustain its principles.

Summer's speech says, the Irish will repudiate any pro-English party, and that the Irish convention at Chicago will declare in favor of a protective tariff, universal suffrage, and war with England.

News From Cuba.
NEW YORK, June 17.—The Cubans have the following advice: "Fight at Puerto del Padre is more important than first reported. The Spanish defeat is decisive and almost destroying the effectiveness of the Spanish forces in that portion of the Island, and opens a direct communication with the sea, enabling the Cubans to protect the landing of reinforcements from the United States."

The Cubans here are very solicitous to hear from Gen. Jordan's command. The last advice placed him in close proximity with the enemy, and a battle was imminent. Cespedes and Quesada both express themselves confident, as being the masters of the situation.

Every expedition from the United States has landed safely, joined the insurgents, and form a formidable force, and have proved successful in every conflict with the Spaniards.

It is stated by the Federal agent that there is a general indisposition on the part of Cuban leaders to entertain the annexation question, the Cubans attribute the inaction, if not the hostility of the United States government, to this fact, and are alarmed at the arrest of Cubans at New York. Leading Cuban partisans have left the Capital.

Foreign News.
MADRID, June 17.—The Cortes established a Regency under Serrano, by a vote of 193 to 145.

HAVANA, June 17.—Six hundred filibusters landed at Puerto del Padre unmolested, reached the interior and joined Jordan.

PARIS, June 17.—The city is tranquil.— The manager of La Raison, an anti-Imperial paper, was sentenced to four months imprisonment and fined 300 francs each; the printers in the establishment, one month and one thousand francs each, on a charge of contempt of the government.

A collision took place at St. Etienne between the coal miners and the military, several were killed, and five soldiers badly injured.

HAVANA, June 17.—The Intendente died of vomit.

Horrors of the Inquisition.

THRILLING DISCOVERY AT MADRID.

The 2d of May was celebrated in Madrid as the anniversary of the expedition of the French invaders of Spain. A new square called the Plaza of the 2nd of May, was formed by tearing down many buildings.
The Madrid correspondent of the New York Tribune writes concerning it under date of May 8th:

It has also a history, which adds to the interest one feels in visiting spots hallowed by patriotic deeds. Immediately adjacent is an area of high ground measuring some 300 metres in length by nearly the same in width. In order to connect two newly projected streets, a cutting was made through one end of this raised ground which, in fact, presented the appearance of a field varying in level. It bore—still bears—the lugubrious name of El Quemado, which cannot be translated save by a paraphrase. It signifies "a place where convicts are burned."

When the workmen had laid bare the cutting, perpendicularly, a peculiar stratification presented itself. Throughout its entire extent three distinct layers were observed of what appeared to be black, gray earth, at irregular distances apart. Upon closer examination, charred substances were discovered, which turned out to be calcined human bones. Further search brought to light lumps of adipose substance in various stages of conversion, according to the strata in which they were found. The searchers also lighted upon iron rings, burned and oxidized; an iron gag; bands of iron much corroded, but bearing traces of fire; quantities of charcoal portions of craniums, and other osseous remains; a tuft of hair two feet long, frizzled, as by flame, at the end nearest the head, and evidently having belonged to a female. A full ear-load of these relics was taken from one spot. They told of the awful scenes of which this field of blood retains the record. Here were burned the victims of the Holy Inquisition. After the ghastly horror had been perpetrated, the spot was covered over with earth, and as these horrible sacrifices to superstition and priestcraft were celebrated with some kind of regard to order, in course of time a first layer of dead men's remains was formed, then a second, then a third. It is demonstrated beyond dispute that the field of the Quemado has been artificially elevated to its present level, because the soil is composed of rubbish mixed with earth; and old wells have been discovered, the walls of which have been built up as the surrounding ground was raised. From these wells, it is supposed, water was drawn to give to the victims of the stake. The last auto da fe on this lugubrious spot took place in 1808, on the 10th of May, when 53 human beings suffered this awful death.

The discovery has created a great sensation, and it has been made at a moment when the clerical party are struggling to enforce the unity of the Catholic church, and when it is strenuously denying the horrors of its past history, and asserting that Rome has always been the most tolerant of all other creeds. On this two hundredth anniversary of the last human sacrifice in Spain, a procession is to start from the Plaza Mayor, where similar public burnings used to take place, to the Que- madero, and here a Protestant religious service will be held, if not prevented. This is just possible, and it may be prudent on the part of the protestants not to make the projected demonstration, in order to deprive the priest party of an opportunity of creating a disturbance. These people desire nothing so much as to commence a war of religion, for it would be associated with Carism. They are mortified to find their influence so rapidly passing away.
Education being low here, they are excelled from the schools except upon certain conditions. Last Wednesday the religious liberty question was decided by a large vote in favor of the 20th and 21st clauses of the new constitution, as originally presented.

PAPAGRAHS.

DURING last month a charitable fair was held at Venice, organized by the ladies of the gem of the Adriatic. Under the privileged sky of Italy, where the winters are mild, these festivals, commenced in the early spring, are held in the open air, in the public promenades, over which the aristocratic Venetian ladies preside. At night the beauty of the scene is enhanced by the many colored lanterns that shed their soft light upon the picturesque surroundings.

THE Corpus Christi Advertiser says that the wool crop of extreme Western Texas is fast swelling to huge proportions. At the rate wool growing increases, it will soon rival the cotton crop of the east. The outlet of this wool is directly through Corpus Christi. The Advertiser says "we have yet millions upon millions of acres to be appropriated to the production of the fleecy staple. The time is not distant when, as in times past, long past, there will be seen one continuous flock of sheep from Casa Blanca to Laredo, a distance of one hundred and twenty-five miles."

FRONDE, the English historian, in his late Address as Rector of St.
Andrew's University, Scotland, said, "There are but three ways of living —by working, by begging or by stealing. Those who do not work, disguise it in whatever pretty language we please, are doing one of the other two."

Is there anything in the atmo- sphere of Texas that leads to filibus- tering and sympathy with rebels.

The Perit, lately a packet between Galveston and New York, made a successful run to Cuba, with men, arms, and munitions for the rebels, and it is now announced that another Galveston and New York steamer, the Tybee is detained on suspicion of intention to carry aid to the Cubans. She cleared flying the Dominean flag.

STIMULATED by the completion of the great Pacific railroad, emigrants are pouring westward in unprecedented numbers this spring.
The Mayor of Dubuque, Iowa, who has recently returned from a tour in the Northwest, says that in every direction, as far as the eye can reach, the prairie is literally dotted with canvas covered wagons, and many families are living in tents.
Reports from the South also speak of emigration to all parts in encouraging terms.

RANDALL Sylvester, of Freedom, Maine, a man thirty-two years old, has lain in bed for fifteen years, cannot speak above a whisper, and is a mere skeleton. He dreamed one night how to make a violin, although he had never seen one made. He was supplied with timber in rough, and such tools as he could use while lying on his back, and dug it out with an apple-corer. The instrument is very beautiful, ornamented with shells resembling pearls, and the tone is very fine. It is composed of ninety-two pieces, but appears like one piece till examined closely.

THE necessity for labor and population is making itself more and more felt daily in all parts of the south, and is not only softening the sectional spirit of the people, but leading them to seek immigration from every quarter in a manner that will eventually reconstruct the temper and character of the whole region. Virginia and Tennessee and North Carolina and Texas have been inviting settlers for some time. Alabama has joined them, formed a stock company to promote immigration, and issued an address to the people of Europe and the North, soliciting them to come and occupy.
There will be some result to this.

ALL things are ours, and all things are at work, building up this marvellous statue of the soul, and whatever can help to complete this structure, no matter if priest disallow it, or church disallow it, or custom disallow it, whatever will help the man within it, is your right; nay, it is your duty, that to have, and that to hold.

MR. DALTON, of England, by careful experiment has shown that where there is a mellow soil three feet under any crop, it can defy the weather and come to maturity without a drop of rain after the 1st of June. This shows that successful tillage husbandry on the arid plains of the Far West depends wholly on deep plowing.

STATE TREASURER.—The candidacy for the position of State Treasurer, on the Republican State ticket, is vacant in consequence of Mr. Price's refusal to become a candidate...

"LET US HAVE PEACE."—The Herald of this city, the par excellence organ of Jack Hamilton, thus denounces the Republicans of this community: "a few white scallwags and a thousand thick-lipped, greasy newly enfranchised."

QUERY: What has become of Mr. Flake's solemn promise about six weeks old, that he would "never support Jack Hamilton or any other drunken man for Governor?"

JUDGE STIRLING.—The announcement of this worthy Republican as a candidate for Congress will be found among the miscellaneous announcements at the head of our local column.

AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The Houston Telegraph (Conservative Jack Hamilton in politics) says: "as both wings of the Republican party have now their full ticket in the field, we see no reason why an early election should not take place in Texas."

Flake's Bulletin has a long article on political affairs in Texas, which we published yesterday. Mr. Flake is sliding gently off the fence, but he has not quite reached ground...

this would be under the circumstances exactly the right thing to do, as their expressed principles are so similar as to be really identical. We will furnish Mr. Flake a piece of information which his informant forgot to give, viz: That Gen. Davis is the candidate for Governor of ninety-nine in a hundred of the Republicans of Texas...

The Republican State Ticket.

To-day, we place at the head of our columns the Republican State ticket as nominated at the Republican State Convention held in Houston on the 10 and 11th insts. It is unnecessary to enter into an explanation why this has not been done before. Sufficient it is to say that the EXPRESS being a Republican journal proposes henceforth to devote all its energies and influence to the success of that party...

Everything has been done that could be done for harmony and unity in the Republican party; those who were deemed extremists have yielded their pet ideas, and the Houston Convention acquitted itself with honor, thereby disappointing all those who hoped to see the strife between Republicans continue to their destruction...

Every good man in Texas must see the necessity for the success of the Republican party, and to this end we invite the co-operation of all who honestly desire reconstruction. In future issues we will discuss the merits of our candidates, confident of proving to a fair minded community that they are worthy of all the honor it is proposed to bestow on them.

ADDRESS TO THE REPUBLICANS OF TEXAS AND THE UNION.—In our next issue we will give the address prepared by the Committee appointed by the Republican State Convention. It will fully open the eyes of many unsuspecting Republicans and determine them to share with us the danger which threatens the destruction of the Republican party...

PARAGRAPHS.

THE opinion of Attorney General Hoar, sanctioning the legality of military commissions in Texas, proceeds upon the view, first, that the State of Texas was, during the Rebellion, so deprived of constitutional and lawful government as to be subject to military law; and, second, that the right to hold and govern it by military power was never concluded with the cessation of actual hostilities, nor with the President's proclamation declaring the insurrection at an end...

THE returns of the elections in France are still meager, but they indicate a verdict. Paris and Lyons, the two chief cities of the empire, have recorded their protest against dynasty. As these cities signify the best part of the public and popular spirit of France, we may assume that the verdict just given is in opposition to the regime of Napoleon. We are safe to say that the elections have brought France so far forward as to have secured at least the principle of ministerial responsibility.

ing mysteriously, and crushing those who oppose it. It must now give evidence of a sentient and liberal being, or cease to be France, which has taken a forced and unnatural, but somewhat necessary repose, under the rough blanket of the empire, shows signs of reawakening and restlessness. The convalescent will need better nursing than can be given it with a crowned head and a bayonet, and better doctors than those who speak from ministerial benches with a certainty that their patient will have to swallow their dose.

To show the effects of the Northern system of controlling immigrants, Gen. Tochan, the European Agent for Virginia, tried to induce seven hundred Danes and Norwegians to go to Virginia about two weeks ago. They had just landed here. They read his address on Virginia, and regretted exceedingly they had not seen it in Europe, as they were all prepaid to the West, some to California at an expense of four hundred dollars for their families...

DESPOTS ought to have thick skins. Your pachydermata only are fit for the rule of tyranny. A nervous, irritable fellow, who cannot bear ridicule, and flies into spasms of anger when the wits stick him all over with their tiny myriad darts, had better quit despotism and go into some other business for a living. The blows may not be deep, but they draw blood. No living thing can stand too many of them.

Poor Napoleon, charlatan of rulers, has a hard time of it. His skin is not thick. The wits of France are keen and merciless. Not even the worst enemy he has on earth can help pitying his sufferings. For years, they have kept him in torture. At times he tries to keep cool and endure, but his skin is too thin and his nerves too sensitive. Then he gets wrathful, locks up some, banishes some, fines a great many, and stamps around generally in a manner laughable and yet pitiable to behold.

SEGAR Culture is extending upon the Trinity, particularly in the counties of Polk and Tyler. A correspondent of the Liberty Gazette says that sugar yields better pay to the acre and to the hand than cotton; and is a much more certain crop. The old idea that large investments of capital in the shape of costly sugar mills, &c., were required to grow sugar, is completely exploded. It is demonstrated that it does not cost as much money to put up a sugar mill, every way adequate to the wants of the grower, as it does to put up a cotton gin.

GENERAL Butler has the credit of saying that if England could get a good sound drubbing from somebody the cause of Christian civilization would be put forward a hundred years; and he would not seriously object to this country being the instrument of Divine Providence to administer the castigation.

BY the tenor of our news from Cuba, we judge that complete anarchy reigns in that quarter, and that the Spanish power is dissolving. One of the most significant facts of the crisis is that the Bishop of Havana, a cunning prelate, has left the island along with Gen. Dulce. A hint is given us from Spain that Dulce has been recalled on account of excessive clemency. We are amazed. If Dulce be accounted humane, what must Gen. De Rodas be?

THIS is what the St Louis Democrat says of Texas: The State called Texas is daily becoming of increased interest to Eastern and Northern seekers after homes in agricultural regions. Texas is a very large country, and is the greatest live stock producing State in the Union.

HANDKERCHIEFS made from the Ramie fibre are extensively sold and used at New Orleans. They equal linen in softness and fineness of texture. The cultivation of the plant has commenced in Louisiana on a large scale.

A LITTLE ARMY.—The city free school on the Military square, now contains two hundred pupils, and the one on the east side of the river one hundred. Our city is doing all in its power to spread the blessings of education.

DISTRICT COURT DOCKET.—Our District Court docket contains six hundred and twenty suits, which number will no doubt be increased before the 13th of December, the time the Court again sits. Our legal friends have plenty of time to study up their cases.

A PEACEFUL CITY.—The names of but two offenders against the peace of the city, appeared on the Police Court docket yesterday, Friday, morning. We are warranted in saying that no city of like dimensions in the Union, enjoys a greater immunity from crime and riotous acts, than ours. Locks and bolts are almost unused on private dwellings, and theft and burglary is almost unknown.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Mr. E. M. Wheelock, who has recently been performing the duties of editor of this paper, has closed his connection with the same, by the mutual consent of all parties interested. Mr. Wheelock is a scholarly gentleman, and has formed a pleasant acquaintance with many of our citizens during his editorship of the EXPRESS, who, no doubt, will regret to learn that his editorial duties have ceased. We hope he may find it to his interest to make our city his home.

THE HAVANA AND MEXICAN CIRCUS CO.—This famed troupe are expected to begin their performances in our city on Saturday next if the weather permits. We have Rio grande papers before us giving glowing accounts of this company, to the effect that "their performances are fearless, wonderful, desperate and remarkable, and that the Revels would be entertained in witnessing them,"—so our citizens, particularly the junior population, may expect a treat.

THE FOUNDATION.—The laying of the foundation of the pillars for the iron bridge across the river on St. Mary's street, is quite a work, the contract specifications requiring them to be seven feet below the level of the river, as at that depth the gravel bed is reached. This work is intended to stand at least a generation, or until our city so increases in size and changes in aspect that our foot bridges give place to larger structures, and our streets to great commercial thoroughfares.

THE MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.—We learn from Mr. S. P. Gambis, our efficient Postmaster, that he hopes to be able to accommodate all those who desire to take advantage of the money-order system, by the 1st of next month. This system of transmitting money from one end of our great country to the other, has proven not only a great blessing and saving to the people, but a means of revenue to the Government; one other great convenience remains to be established in connection with the Postoffice Department—the postal telegraph—which we confidently believe will be one of the measures of the next Congress.

PERSONAL.—General E. J. Davis, the Republican candidate for Governor, has returned from Houston since the adjournment of the Convention, and is spending a few weeks in our city, attending to some legal business. The General is cordially welcomed by all our loyal people, and in an unobtrusive manner, is being visited by his old and new acquaintances. He has expressed his determination to make San Antonio his future home, and our community will feel some pride in giving him the most unanimous support for Governor. The General is enjoying good health and is quietly awaiting the signal from General Grant to open the campaign.

REN OVER.—Two little boys, named Charles Ruff and Willie Green, attending the free school on the Military Plaza, during noon recess on Wednesday, ran over by an empty carriage, owned by San Pedro, but fortunately not driven by a driver. Several boys had gathered upon the carriage, which was approaching, and upon being ordered to get off, they were precipitated beneath the wheels. Dr. Cupples was called to the spot and took them in his carriage to their homes, instantly relieving the fears of the anxious parents by pronouncing the little fellows as not dangerously hurt. Parents should caution their boys against this bad habit of climbing up on wagons and carriages, and drivers should be more careful not to injure the little fellows who commit this offence unthinkingly.

WHAT A DEAD LETTER BROUGHT FORTH.—A copy of the following item from the National Republican of Washington, D. C.: "Last week, as one of the clerks in the dead letter office was pursuing his vocation of examining into the contents that accumulate upon that office, he came to a collar box, and was rather surprised to find contained therein a live horned frog, or toad. The box in which this traveler was encased bore upon it the following inscription—

P. O. San Antonio, Texas. This package came to this office in one of the El Paso mail bags. The wrapper was off, and the address gone. We therefore send the live frog to the dead letter office, Post Office Department, Washington D. C.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The National Republican Party of the United States, assembled in National Convention in the city of Chicago, on the 20th day of May, 1868, made the following declaration of principles:

FIRST. We congratulate the country on the national success of the reconstruction projects of Congress, as evinced by the adoption, in a majority of the States lately in rebellion, of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the duty of the government to sustain their institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

SECOND. The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men of the South, was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained, while the act of outrage in all the rebel States, properly belong to the people of those States.

THIRD. We denounce all forms of nepotism as a national crime, and national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home or abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

FOURTH. It is due to the laboring nation that taxation should be equitably and reduced in proportion to the national debt, and that the national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can possibly be done.

FIFTH. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

SIXTH. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for a Radical reform.

SEVENTH. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for a Radical reform.

EIGHTH. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be repudiated as every hazard by the United States, as a rule, of the feudal times, not authorized by the laws of nations, and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born, and no citizen should be deprived of his natural rights.

NINTH. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war, there were none called to more arduous honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperiled their lives in the service of their country. The bounties and pensions provided by law for those brave defenders of the nation, are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

TENTH. Foreign immigration, which in the past has done so much to the wealth and development of this nation, and the increase of power in this nation, "the asylum of the oppressed of all nations," should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

ELEVENTH. This Convention declares its sympathy with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

On motion of General Carl Schurz, the following additional resolutions were unanimously adopted as part of the Republican platform:

Resolved, That we highly commend the spirit of magnanimity and forbearance with which the men who have served in the rebellion, but who now frankly and honestly cooperate with us in restoring the peace of the country and reconstructing the Southern State governments upon the basis of impartial justice and equal rights, are received back into the communion of the loyal people; and we favor the removal of the disabilities imposed upon the rebels in the same measure as their spirit of loyalty will direct, and as may be consistent with the safety of the loyal people.

Resolved, That we recognize the fresh principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence, as the true foundation of Democratic Government, and we will with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality as every man of American soil.

Resolved, That we recognize the fresh principles laid down in the immortal Declaration of Independence, as the true foundation of Democratic Government, and we will with gladness every effort toward making these principles a living reality as every man of American soil.

WATERS' New Scale PIANOS, With Iron Frame, Overstrung Base, and Agraffe Bridge. Melodions and Cabinet Organs, The Best Manufactured; Warranted for Six Years. Fifty New and Second-hand Pianos, Melodions and Organs of six first-class makers, at low prices for cash, or one third cash and the balance in Monthly Installments. Second-hand Instruments at great bargains. Illustrated Catalogue mailed. Warehouses, 481 Broadway, New York. HORACE WATERS. Testimonials. The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist. We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer. The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal. Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodions and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine. Medical Doctors.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodions. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before "Expansions" and "honors" connected therewith, were even thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianos—fortes now in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce its superior and first class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. (feb 19 '69)dy
