Platform of the Republican party of Texas.
Resolved, That the Republican party of Texas heartily accepts the conditions of reconstruction embraced in the several reconstruction acts of Congress, and will in the future, as antecedents, fully sustain the same in word and spirit.
2. That the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, known as the 13th and 15th amendments, are necessary to the pacification of the country and the security of the equal civil and political rights of all classes of the people. The Republican Party therefore pledges itself to the prompt adoption of these amendments.
3. That the resolutions adopted by the Chicago Convention of May 20th 1868, where not modified by the proposed 13th amendment, are accepted by the Republicans of Texas as the embodiment of correct principles of public policy. That the Republicans of Texas especially, condemn the spirit of the additional resolutions adopted in that Convention at the instance of Hon. Carl Schurz; and will cheerfully accept the substance of such of our fellow-citizens as served in the late rebellion, but who now frankly and honestly cooperate with us in restoring the peace of the country, and reconstructing our State Government on the basis of impartial justice and equal rights.
4. That the payment of the debt incurred in preservation of the unity of the nation to the last dollar, is in our opinion the sacred duty of the American people, and the Republicans of Texas will condemn all attempts to evade in any manner, the payment of this debt according to the intent of the creators of the same.
5. That the Republican party of Texas expressly approves the encouragement of industrial improvement and immigration, and will as a party favor the adoption of measures looking thereto in view. That in Convention between us, we condemn the demagogical use of the term of "carpet-bagger," and other terms of reproach applied to strangers who may come among us, as designed to keep alive the prejudices of the ignorant and foster immorality.
6. That while the Constitution submitted to the people is in some respects imperfect and objectionable, it is believed by the whole to propose the main object of Constitutional Government viz: The equal, civil and political rights of all persons under the law. This Convention therefore recommends the ratification of the same.
7. That the preservation of the unity and the organization of the Republican party is essential to the safe progress of reconstruction in this State, and they believe that to effect this reconstruction, a great work has yet to be performed. They therefore warn the loyal people of Texas that opposition to the organization of the Republican party, is the result of an unwholesome and unchristian purpose, the practical surrender of the State to the rebel.
8. That the Republicans of Texas heartily express unqualified confidence in the administrative abilities, and integrity of the honorable head of our Government—President Grant, and in the patriotism and wisdom of the majority in Congress.
P. W. Hall, of Robinson, offered the following independent resolution which was adopted:
Resolved, That the commanding General of this military district, Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, deserves the approval of the loyal people the United States, for his activity in marching out and bringing to justice the members of the patronage of W. Smith, and for the measures he has adopted for the security of life and property, and the establishment of peace.
Johnson Reed of Galveston, offered the following, and moved that it be added to the resolutions, and he knows as resolution No. 9:
Resolved, That to this end we earnestly invite the co-operation and support of all good citizens, advocates of peace, law and order, and who believe in the principles of the party of union, progress, liberty and reform, which has done so much for the pacification and well being of this country. This resolution adopted.

WASHINGTON, July 8.
Important matters under consideration and visitors excluded from the White House. They are understood to refer, in part, to the operations of Lippitt in capturing Sannaco. The West India question is forcing itself upon the attention of the administration.
Cubans here have the following:—The Spanish troops attacked Jordan near Holston. After an eight hour fight the Spaniards were repulsed and compelled to take refuge in town. Cuban loss 200 killed and wounded, including 20 Americans. The Spanish loss about the same. The Spanish force consisted of two brigades, outnumbering the Cubans two to one.

Virginia Election.
RICHMOND, July 6.
The election, as far as it has progressed, is the quietest ever held in Virginia, and the city presents the appearance of Sunday. A body of troops is bivouacked in the public park, and the ambulances of the two parties, covered with national flags are driving about after the sick and injured, and are the only unusual scenes of the day. A number of blacks have openly voted the Walker ticket without any of the hostile demonstrations of their brethren which characterized last election. Whites up to 200 have 413 reg for the Walker ticket. The election here closed quietly; ballots are being counted, both parties claim the State. Returns show that a large colored vote has been given for Walker, and it is thought he has carried the State by a decided majority.

Through to the Pacific.
From the Cincinnati Times.
The enterprising capitalists who are pushing so energetically forward the completion of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad, and who prefer to build at their own expense that part of our Southern route which lies between the Tennessee State line and Chattanooga, are taking active measures to push their road to Houston, Texas, and ultimately westward to the Pacific Ocean. This will be the main Pacific road. Along it there is not a mile of land that is not adapted to cultivation, while on the Northern route no farms can be made, owing to the alkaline nature of the soil between Willow Island and Echo City, a distance of over 700 miles. On our Southern Pacific road there will be no trouble with snow, which on the Northern route is such a serious obstacle. When the road is built through from Cincinnati to Chattanooga, Meridian, Houston and San Diego, we in Cincinnati will be on a line of 400 miles nearer the Pacific than Chicago is on the Pacific road. This is such an advantage that trade will naturally flow through the shortest, best and direct channel. The effect this will have on Cincinnati trade can be imagined.
San Antonio, although not mentioned in the above recital of towns through which this road will run, is one of its next points beyond Houston. Cincinnati has voted to contribute ten millions of dollars to the enterprise. It's coming sure.

Washington, July 8.
The State, according to latest returns tonight, has gone by nearly 40,000 for Walker, and there is a Walker majority of 20,000 in the Legislature. The Walker ballot in the Legislature, except three, who are Platts, Porter and Morton, colored. This complete disaster to the Wells ticket results, first, from the unreliability of the negroes, who in country districts have gone largely for Walker; second, because of the failure of their calculations in some of the counties bordering on Tennessee and North Carolina where the white vote for Wells was chiefly expected to reach 200 majority, but went against him by 1000.
The Walker State Executive Committee telegraphed to President Grant this morning, congratulating him on the triumph of his policy in Virginia, and thanking him for his liberality.
Several of the Walker colored men have been elected to the Legislature.

Washington, July 8.
Commodore Peary succeeds Hoff in the command of the West India squadron. It is understood that his instructions indicate the prompt protection of American citizens and shipping.
The Chronicle in a bitter article on the Virginia election says that all is not lost in Virginia. Congress holds the key of the citadel; the rebel democrats may boast that they have elected their candidates, but there is an ultimate remedy.
New York, July 8.
There is much excitement over the fact that large numbers of brokers have been before the grand jury in regard to violations of the usury laws.
Wm. H. Sanford, cashier of the National Bank, has decamped. He is a defaulter to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars. Cause—unfortunate gold speculation. He leaves a destitute wife and children. His character for years has been unimpeachable. The Bank states that its business will proceed as usual.
Major Wofford was to-day authorized by Judge Dent to say he would accept the nomination.

Washington, July 7.
The government is waiting full correspondence which called forth Corley's letter, declaring that members of the Virginia legislature must take the iron-clad oath when these are received the whole matter will be referred to Hoar for his opinion, when the cabinet will decide.
Grant has arranged his summer excursions so as to be "within" easy reach of the capital, and will at no time be absent over two weeks.

What means submission at this time! It means submitting to the mercy of such Satraps as least Butler, or in this State, to Jack Hamilton. Daily Houston Telegraph March 11th 1864.
This has Jack Hamilton, the traitor to the South, the hated emissary of despotism, the new born abolitionist, sold himself.—Telegraph, 1864.
In what a beautiful situation have these men placed themselves; look at Judge McFarland and Judge Duval! Look at Jack Hamilton! Ungrateful rascals, who with murderous hands now seek the ruin of the people that once trusted them, and that they have to thank for all they enjoy. Meanness could not go further, and if such meanness should be successful, then we must indeed believe that Nemesis is dead, that Justice herself has taken refuge with brutal beasts, and that men have lost their senses. Then indeed, would there be reason to believe that the Gods, who shaped our fate, have abandoned their work and Satanic maliciousness has usurped their place, that the time has come, when Satan has, immediately before final Judgment, been let loose.—Telegraph of march 14th 1864.

Missed His Calculations.

In all ages, and in all nations, there have been men who anticipated their times, and as a consequence, missed their calculations. We need not go back far to find notable instances of politicians, keen, calculating men, who have missed their calculations, and are now sitting upon the penitential stool, mourning over blasted political hopes. Andy Johnson, perhaps, is the most notable, as he was one of our Presidents. Johnson wanted to be President again, but he saw that the Republicans had their hearts upon Grant, so he thought to break down the Republican party and to rally enough out of its broken ranks with the copperhead party, to make him President. Andy failed to destroy the Republican party, and as a consequence, the copperheads had no use for him, so he fell flat between the two great parties of the country—he became "neither fish nor fowl." There were many prominent men who followed Johnson, all of whom were wrecked in political reputation.

In our own State we have some notable examples of political miscalculators; we will only call attention to one or two. Every one will remember the exalted position enjoyed by Judge, or rather General John Hancock, immediately after the war. Like Jack Hamilton, he had fled the State in consequence of his Union sentiments; like Hamilton, he had held a commission as Brigadier General in the Federal Army, and proposed to raise a "nigger" regiment, in which he was a little ahead of Hamilton; like Hamilton, he had been a perfect blood thirsty Radical; like Hamilton, he never fought a battle; but unlike Hamilton, he was known as a man of more talent, more integrity and stability of character, and Hancock stood higher than Hamilton at one time in the estimation of loyal Texans. Hancock thought the time for seeking copper head influence and selling out the loyal people, had come, when he made his "mule" speech in this city in '65, and he began to trim and conciliate. He was "ahead of his time" and has ceased to call himself, or to be called, a Republican; in fact his name is forgotten among Republicans; and thus, a man whose talents and influence might have done much towards bringing us peace and reconstruction, was ruined by his blinding ambition.

Another instance: Jack Hamilton, aside from his habitual intemperance, was a power in the Republican party; he was loud upon the stump, fierce in his denunciations of treason, and altogether he was our great "blow gun." Who stood higher than Hamilton as a leader in the Republican party? From every section the answer comes, hardly any one. Even in Boston they overlooked his drunken spree and loose habits, taking it for granted that of such the kingdom of Texas was made up, and he was patted at the "Hub," and noted a great "blow gun;" but Hamilton, alas, desired to be Governor of Texas, and between railroad corruption and vaulting ambition, he took in 1869, the same false step Hancock did in 1865. He has simply missed his calculation, and if the democrats value their party organization worth anything, they will fall back upon some tried man of their own party, as they did in the last Presidential campaign.

Like Johnson, Hamilton hopes to ride into office amid the wreck of the Republican party, caused by his own defection. Like Johnson, every day is adding to the weight of public opinion which will consign him to political disgrace. What a pity that, in the very hour he was needed, such a man should fail and be ruined by his overreaching ambition.

The Virginia Election.

By the mail of yesterday, Wednesday, we have telegraphic news up to the 8th inst, in which it is broadly stated that Walker, the Conservative Republican candidate has carried the State by a large majority. No returns are given, and the exact result is not known. We take it for granted that Walker is elected, and the regular Republican candidate defeated. It is stated that the colored men voted for Walker. These statements and the exact complexion of the election, we will have to wait to learn the truth of.

There are some features of the Virginia canvass which deserve attention, such, for instance, as the defection of the rip-roaring Radical, Hunnicut, whose powerful influence among the colored men of the State was wielded in behalf of Walker. Hunnicut, and his adherents, will claim the result as a Radical victory, while the Democrats over the South will claim it as a glorious Democratic victory. This election will open the eyes of Republicans North and South. It will disclose the treachery and treason that lurks under this so-called Conservative-Republican movement. Already the Washington Chronicle fires a warning gun, which will awaken the Republicans to their danger.

Our contest in Texas is quite similar to that in Virginia; only that we have no defections like that of Hunnicut, to contend against. We must work, and not cease until we are sure of victory.

It is to be seen if General Grant will order the election in this State, after the result in Virginia. He may wait the meeting of the next Congress before he takes such responsibility.

The Houston Union Office Destroyed.

We learn through the Houston Conservative papers, that the Houston Union office was entered during the night of the 4th inst. by some malicious persons, and the entire type of the paper taken away and destroyed.

This outrage will occasion a temporary stoppage of this sterling Republican paper. It is not surmised who the perpetrators are, and Mr. Tracy very generously says he does not believe it was on political grounds. The Union was the first paper in the State to hoist the Republican ticket, and its sprightly, able management, has given it a deserved prominence among the newspapers of Texas. It has resisted all persuasions to desert the Republican party, and has done much to keep the party together in its section. We hope it will soon be on its legs again in spite of its private and public enemies.

TEXAS ITEMS.

WE learn from the Houston papers of this morning, that the New Orleans and Texas Railroad was sold in that city at Sheriff's sale on yesterday, including the franchise roadbed and rolling stock, and was purchased by W. R. Baker, Esq., at the bid of $1550. Of course, he takes it subject to the previous encumbrances held by the State and bondholders.

FOR CONGRESS.—Col. B. F. Fly, of this city, has permitted his name to go before the people of this District as a candidate for Congress,

Mr. Fly is an old citizen of Texas, and well qualified for the position he seeks.—Corpus Christi Advertiser, 26th.

ARRESTED.—A man named Dodson was arrested here on Monday morning last by the military and taken to Waco. It is known here what the charge is against him.—Belton Journal, 30th June.

KILLED.—Capt. Welcher, a citizen of this country, was killed at Brooksville, Williamson county, on the 25th inst., by a man named Mullins. The difficulty occurred, we are informed, at a race track. Particulars not given.—J bid.

LAURA LENSING, of the Austin demimonde, was killed by a pistol shot on the 1st inst.

"TEXAS VOLKSBLATT" is the title of a new and well-printed German paper, established at Houston by Messrs. G. Duvernoy & C. H. Buchner; Gustave Duvernoy editor.

HOMICIDE.—We are informed that a colored man living below here Buffalo Bayou, forgetful of the scriptural command not to kill, knocked his wife on the head, on Wednesday night last, crushing in her skull, from the effects of which she died yesterday. The husband had been arrested and is now in jail.—Houston Telegraph, 4th.

THE State vs. Bob Malone, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, on two indictments, the first on his wife, was found guilty and sent to the penitentiary for six years. The second was for assaulting a freedman, found guilty, and assessed his punishment at seven years.—Ib.

AN OUTRAGE.—The office of the Union newspaper, in the Concrete building, was entered last night and the newspaper type in form piled, while that in the cases was carried away. It is not known positively by whom that outrage was committed, but certain circumstances would seem to indicate that some persons who were very intimate with the premises had a hand in it. None of the cases or other furniture of the office were disturbed. We understand the office is expecting the arrival of new type daily and therefore will not be much inconvenienced by the loss of its old type, if it really has been destroyed.—Times 4th.

A PRIVATE letter from Livingston, of late date, says the crop prospects in Polk county, notwithstanding the rains, are very good.

THE Bastrop Advertiser reports that there was a rapid rise in the river at that place on Tuesday and Wednesday last, sufficient to overflow the banks, probably fifteen or twenty feet. Heavy rains have fallen upon the country.

THE Advertiser, of 3d, reports crops, both cotton and corn, most promising.

In fact, we have to repeat, that the corn and cotton crop in Texas this year bids fair to be very large and profitable. Our exchanges from all quarters contain the most cheering accounts.

WOOL.—John McCulloch informs us that a lot of wool sheared by him, was sold to Mr. Judson, agent of the New Braunfels Woolen Manufactory, in bulk, at 20c. per pound. The fleeces embraced one hundred and fifty from the merino sheep, and two hundred from mixed breeds. The price realized was three cents higher than present quotations, having been sold under a previous engagement.—Seguin Argus, 3d.

PREVENTIVE AGAINST COTTON WORMS.—A planter of this county offers to wager a wagon that should the worms destroy the cotton crop this summer they will not molest his. As to the manner in which he will keep them out he will not inform us; he has promised to do so, however, should his experiment prove successful.—Gonzales Inquirer, 3d.

CROPS IN DEWITT COUNTY.—A citizen of our town who has just returned from a trip to DeWitt informs us that as a general thing the cotton is very promising indeed, whilst an abundant supply of corn has been secured.—Ib.

THE CROP.—It is estimated that there are from 3,500 to 4,000 acres of cotton planted in this year. Fixing the quantity at 4,000 acres, and estimating half a bale to the acre, and we have 2,000 bales of cotton, which will bring $200,000.—Liberty Gazette, 2d.

NOT POLITICAL.—Mr. J. G. Tracy, proprietor and editor of the Houston Union, authorizes us to say that he is satisfied that the outrage perpetrated in his office on Sunday night was inspired by personal malice, and that political differences had nothing whatever to do with it. As some of the extreme Radicals in the North and South may feel inclined to make political capital of transaction, we take pleasure in giving publicity to Mr. Tracy's statement.—Ib.

COMMENTING on the outrage, the Telegraph says: Those who committed the act are enemies to our city, to our county, to our State and to our whole people. Not a single citizen approves it. On the contrary, it is universally denounced by white and black. It can only do harm and make capital against us abroad. None but the very meanest, most wicked Radicals in Texas will rejoice at it. All others, whether Radical, Republican, Conservative, loyal, rebel, white or black, will mourn that we have any one among us capable of it.

It is a shame, a disgrace upon the guilty, and all our citizens will rejoice if swift and rigid justice can be meted out to him or them.

MURDERED.—A correspondent of the News, under date of Sumpter, July 1st, writes:

On the night of the 10th instant, a foul murder was perpetrated at Pennington, in this county, about 9 o'clock at night—four persons rode to the house of Jas. A. Thomas, called him out, assuring him that they wanted a friendly talk with him relative to some difficulty. As soon as Thomas stepped outside of his gate he was felled to the ground by a blow over his head with a six-shooter, then was cruelly beaten, after which was allowed to get to an erect position, when he was shot through the heart—living only to exclaim "you have killed me." The assassins were all recognized by the wife of the deceased. They are Green Lane, William Tellos, Marion Poston and Richard Brownlee, principals; and Dr. Jas. H. Poston, and Willoughby Tellos, accomplices. The four first have fled and are pursued, and it is hoped that they may be overtaken and meet their just doom. The last two have given bail for their appearance at our next District Court. The assassination was the result of accusations of theft and too much bad whisky.

THE Times says the testimony in behalf of the prosecution of the Jefferson prisoners has closed.

The Waco Examiner of the 2d inst. alluding to the District Court and the departure of nine convicts for Huntsville, says there has been no lack of promptness and rigid application of legal penalty for crime on the part of the juries during this term of the court. We are glad such a spirit prevails and hope it may pervade the bosom of every citizen of the State who may become a juror for his country.

MAIL ARRIVAL.—A heavy consignment of twenty sacks of mail matter was received by our Postmaster on Wednesday evening, to the infinite delight of the public.

MR. WEBER AND THE HERALD.—Mr. Weber desires us to state that the apology of the Herald for its slander upon his establishment, is neither fair or honorable. Mr. Weber applied to the editor of the Herald to publish a statement retracting his slander and he refused him this favor.

SLANDERING THE DEAD.—Not content with slandering the living, the San Antonio Herald persists in calling a Mexican who was drowned by the recent flood, a "pauper," when there is no evidence that he was ever a pauper; most certainly he was not a "pauper" of this city, and it may be he was a man who has friends and even fortune. The coroner failed to give any other information than that "he was unknown."

WHO BURIED THE DROWNED MAN.—The following is a copy of the receipt of the person who attended to the burial of the drowned man:

Received, San Antonio, July 12th, 1899, of Mr. Wm. Helmer, payment for coffins and burying of a man found drowned in the San Pedro creek.
(Signed) AUGUSTIN RODRIGUEZ.

THE LARGEST AND MOST ATTRACTIVE SALE OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE that has occurred in San Antonio, is the one progressing during the present week at the house of Messrs. Fish & Hammerstein. The extensive business of this house runs like clock-work, and they tell us that the Great Sale will continue to-day, and will include several thousand yards of the finest Merinos; 300 dozen Cassimere Hats; 2,400 dozen Spool Thread and 95 bales Printed Jacquets, French Prints, Muslins and Organdies. The sale will also continue on Saturday, embracing a class of goods which cannot fail to attract the attention of all.

ANOTHER PETITION.—We learn that some inventive genius has started another petition in order to annoy our Military Commander. This time it is about the doing away with the office of city market master. The best way for these matters to be settled is by a strict application of the law, and if the law is not understood by the authorities, let them appeal to the interpretation of some capable lawyer, not to both our Military Commander with petitions. Fortunately, any cases of controversy arising in this community are referred to Gen. Croshaw, who will find an impartial hearing, and a strict application of the law, as the result.

KILLING OF A MAD DOG.—Policeman Croshaw was called upon on Thursday to kill a mad dog on Acequia street. The officer proceeded to the spot and found the animal had been fastened in the hall of a public house, which he entered, and with an eye and his revolver managed to kill the brute, but not without a hard, desperate battle. Mr. Kinahan escaped with a dog bite, and deserves credit for his courage and promptness on the occasion. The dog was evidently mad and terrified the whole neighborhood by his force ravings and attempts to bite persons, fortunately no one was bitten.

A LIE WELL STUCK TO.—The Herald, after slandering the Mayor about the burial of a dead man, proves that it slandered him by publishing certificates from a German and a Mexican. Briggs swearing he furnished the Herald with its local news, and the Mexican that he helped bury the body but was ignorant on whose account he did it. And the editor winding up the following gingerly acknowledgment: "It seems that our kind-hearted Mayor declined to take any action in the matter until he was officially informed of the information reaching him on Monday, when, with a majestic wave of his hand he ordered the man interred immediately." The dead man was properly interred by the city, as the Mexican who superintended the work and received pay for the same will testify.

A CARD.

Editor of the San Antonio Herald.
My character having been calumniated in yesterday's issue of the San Antonio Herald, I would most respectfully beg you to insert in your esteemed paper the following facts:

Towards the latter part of March last on my transit from this city to Chihuahua, my wagon-master found two mules on a desert, distant at least fifty miles from any settlement, which I allowed to remain in my train. The owner should claim them. On my return to this city Mr. B. F. Ficklin claimed one of the mules and it was delivered to him, I telling him at the same time, that the other had remained sick at Presidio del Norte. Mr. Ficklin, however, undoubtedly with the intention of saving a reward, which I ought to have had a right to claim for taking up the mule and taking care of it for over three months, not only not even thanked me for my trouble, as would have become a gentleman, but in the most infamous manner sued me as a thief.

It is my good fortune and Mr. Ficklin's bad luck, that my reputation in this city, as well as in my native country, is so well established, that the accusation, he made in an attack of frenzy, which characterizes him, cannot injure it.

Is it not as clear as daylight, that if I had intended to steal the mules, I would certainly have left them in Mexico, instead of bringing them back to this country?

Yesterday this case was tried in the Justice's Court of Mr. Briggs, where I proved to the entire satisfaction, and with more evidence than Mr. Ficklin expected, by persons of established good character and standing, who have known me ever since my youth, how fallacious and infamous his accusation was.

I abstain from making any further remarks about Mr. Ficklin, whom I do not deem worthy of any further notice, and in conclusion only wish to state, that my train on account of above mentioned facts, has been delayed four days, causing me many expenses, and I hope, that if the laws of this country protect an honest man against calumny, Mr. Ficklin some day will have to pay me all my expenses and losses, caused by his foul action, to the last cent.
F. SAMANIEGO.
