Grant's Policy - Government Patronage.

It has become very fashionable for Conservative newspapers to announce that President Grant is favorable to their way of thinking and opposed to the Republican party. This is very silly. President Grant would prove false to the great majority of the American people who made him President, if he were to favor the Democratic party; he would be false to his record as the leader of the armies that crushed rebellion, if he now threw his great political influence against the loyal people of the South.

At the opening of his administration, President Grant honestly did some hasty things; for instance, the true position of affairs in this State was not fully comprehended, and in distributing the Federal appointments, several were given to the enemies of the Republican party. No allude more particularly to the Collector of Customs at Galveston, J. L. Baynes, and Longley, of Austin. As assessor of Internal Revenue. These men claimed to be Republicans, but were all the time in league with the rebel party, and have since fully shown their hands. We clip the following dispatch from the New Orleans Times, a Conservative sheet, which ought to be proof enough that President Grant's policy is to help, as far as Presidential favor goes, the party that elected him and sustains his administration:

WASHINGTON, July 17.—I have ascertained on good authority, that all the patronage of the Government is to be used for Stokes in Tennessee, Davis in Texas, and for the nominee of the ultra Radicals in Mississippi.

The Radical members of Congress and leading members of the National Republican Committee, have been here and urged this course, and obtained a promise that it should be followed. This is in direct contradiction to the policy very recently announced by President Grant.

The trouble with these Conservative politicians and papers, is they misconstrue Grant's politeness for his policy.

The Austin Republican, edited by Longley, the Internal Revenue man, calls the endorsement of the Houston Convention by the National Executive committee of the Republican party, "a blunder." It may look so to Longley, but to us it seems quite appropriate.

The Walker majority is coming down considerably and may probably reach the 15,000 figure if not less. The reports of 50,000 majority was the result of Democratic enthusiasm.

ANTI-HAMILTON.—The Lavaca Commercial, a very spirited copperhead sheet, pitches into the State Gazette and Hamilton coalition to the extent of columns of editorial. The Commercial won't wear Jack Hamilton's collar.

The Congressional Contest in this District.

Some time since, we advised the calling of a Republican District Convention, for the nomination of a Republican candidate for Congress, as well as for the more thorough organization of the Republican party in the West. The postponement of the election until the last of November, if we understand the telegrams aright, gives ample time for the holding of a District Convention. We know how difficult it is to secure the attendance of delegates from the distant portions of a district so large as ours, larger than any two of the Southern States outside of Texas, but we believe the promptings of patriotism and the great importance of the issue, will be sufficient to bring together a representative number of Republicans, and thus a victory made certain.

At present there are four candidates who have made public announcement. Judge Varnell, of Victoria, who is a Republican; Hon. Ed. Degener, of this city, who, in a card announced his willingness to submit his name to a Republican convention; Judge Thos. H. Strubling of this city, who is announced on the Hamilton ticket, and who has organized proper to spurn the regularly organized Republican party; and Col. B. F. Fly, of Corpus Christi, a straight-out copperhead.

Strubling and Fly will divide the Conservative vote between them, but we are of opinion that Colonel Fly will command the larger half not only because he is simon-pure, but he is more available as he does not labor under political disability, if we are rightly informed.

It only remains for the Republicans to select a candidate and concentrate their forces to secure an easy victory.

THE UNION OSGO. MOSE.—We are rejoiced to welcome the Houston Union once more; only a half sheet, but the proprietor assures us that the next issue will come out in its usual shape. The Union is a splendid paper and deserves the aid of every Republican, now that it is in distress. Speaking of the destruction of his office, Mr. Tracy says:

"Feeling lustily indignant at this outrage upon our property, yet we have determined from the first not to be thrown off our balance, and lay the blame upon our entire community. That a political opponent did it, we verily believe; but we believe just as strongly that the major portion of the best men among our political opponents denounce the outrage as heinous. It is no our political friends, and we give them the full credit of it."
"We have no desire to make political capital out of our misfortune. It would be ungenerous if not dishonest to do so, but we take the present occasion of reminding our friends everywhere that it is an exceedingly arduous and profitless business to print a straight out Republican paper in Texas. At best, we can scarcely make both ends meet, while, therefore, the damage inflicted upon us may be considered trifling, yet it falls heavily upon us at this time, and if the Republicans of Texas desire the continuance of the Union on a basis which will make it effective and useful, they must come to our aid."

The Washington editor of the New York Tribune, under date of July 12th, in mentioning Pense and Ochiltree's visit to the President, says:

"Pense and Ochiltree visited His Excellency as the representatives of the Hamilton party of Texas, for the purpose of securing an earlier day than the latter part of November, for the holding of an election in their State. They suggested September or October, before the cotton picking season begins, but the President refused to gratify them with a change. He said he thought it better that Mississippi and Texas should vote after the regular Fall elections in the Northern and Western States."

TRADE IN TEXAS CATTLE.—A dispatch to the St. Louis Missouri Democrat of June 20th, says:

"The banks of this city within the past two months have sold drafts amounting to nearly half a million dollars in value, for the purchase of Texas cattle, which find a market on the Union Pacific, west of Cheyenne, though several thousand head will be stopped east of that point."

A KIND physician living near Boston, wishing to smooth the last hour of a poor woman whom he was attending, asked her if there was anything that he could do for her before she died. The poor soul, looking up, replied: "Doctor, I have always thought that I should like to have a glass butter dish before I died!"

THE "red flag" elevated by the Parishan rioters, was a red crinoline, mounted on a broom. Five hundred thousand people flocked into the street to see it.

PARAGRAPHS.

It is said that the bodies of the soldiers killed in the memorable Fort Kearney massacre have been found to be petrified. The victims of that affair numbered eighty-one, and were buried in boxes, each box containing eight bodies.

MR. WM. LOWE, of Davenport, Iowa, owns a cow that from the 5th day of March to the 23d day of June, 1869, yielded one hundred and fifty-six pounds and ten ounces of butter.

A GUNPOWDER hammer, applied to pile driving, has been exhibited in Philadelphia. The cartridge contained one-third of an ounce of gunpowder, and the cylinder or gun 1500 pounds. This was loaded and fired 55 times in one minute and a quarter. The driving power is eight times that of the steam hammer, and the speed ten times.

ONLY ten years ago Chas. Langston, a colored man of Oberlin, was tried before the U. S. Court of Cleveland, upon a prosecution instigated by the administration of James Buchanan, for a violation of the fugitive slave law, found guilty and imprisoned in the county jail for 20 days. Now, we find this convicted criminal offered the position of U. S. minister to Liberia.

THE King of Prussia, accompanied by Count Bismark, is making a tour of North Germany, and seems to meet with a hearty welcome everywhere. He is the most popular monarch of Continental Europe. Possessed of a fine exterior, unpretending manners, frank, no sovereign could be better qualified to make a favorable impression upon the minds of his subjects.

MR. DANA considers it a wondrous exhibition of Christian good temper in Mr. Greeley, that he can support the present administration notwithstanding he failed to be appointed Minister to England. We commend Mr. Greeley's excellent example to Mr. Dana himself, who has not spoken a respectful word of General Grant since he failed to secure the appointment of Collector of New York.

A NEW monthly paper, entitled the Divorce, is about to be started in Paris, with the object of legalizing divorce. The prospectus states that there are not fewer than 35,000 separated men and women living in France, that the courts have at the present moment 1,533 demands for separation, and that, moreover, the number of couples separated voluntarily is immense.

THE Milan Pungolo lately announced that Andrew Johnson, ex-President of the United States, had arrived at a certain hotel in that city. An immense concourse of people soon after assembled in front of the hotel in question, and great curiosity was manifested to see "Andy." It was not ascertained until some time afterward that the "A. Johnson," to whom the Pungolo had alluded, was not the ex-President, but a very inoffensive tobacco merchant from New York, who was quite distressed at the notoriety which he had acquired against his will.

THE Colorado Chieftain says a tremendous hail storm passed over Pueblo county on the 30th ult. Hail stones of incredible size covered the ground and in some instances cattle were killed outright. Trees were stripped of their foliage and even their thick bark knocked off. Fortunately there were no crops where the fall of hail was greatest and comparatively little damage was done, except to stock. Its occurrence in the night doubtless prevented the loss of human life. A Mexican who was passing with a train of wagons was the principal sufferer, several head of his oxen having been killed and the remainder stamped.

A YANKEE school-marm writing to the Springfield (Massachusetts) Republican, gives the following symptoms of being out of New England:

"A second night of travel, and another morning finds you looking across the gray Ohio to the green and sunny hills of the Kentucky shore. Are you in the West now? The hazy cloud yonder hangs over the Queen City. The steamer in the river below you is marked 'Louisville, 12 at.' The children beside you say 'paw' and 'ainw,' a pall is a bucket, and any time after noon is 'evening,' and, verily, you are out of New England."

We quote from an exchange in Richmond is a negro who, eighteen years ago, bought his freedom of his master, and, working hard, early and late, soon was able to buy his wife. He has been prospering since, and he now owns the finest livery stable and hack-stand in the State, and is said to be worth $50,000. His old master, when Lee evacuated Richmond, in April, 1865, was worth half a million dollars. Thousands upon thousands were destroyed by fire, money went this way and that, and not long after he came back to Richmond, broken in spirit, ruined in property and tired of his troublesome life. His old slave found him, took him to his house, gave him the best medical skill that money could buy and every luxury. Presently the old man died, peacefully and happily. His funeral was a large and expensive one, and he was borne to a lot in the cemetery paid for by his old slave, who also paid for the funeral outlay. Over him was raised a handsome monument, paid for with the negro's money. The widow of the deceased slave owner lives in a house presented by the negro, who also supplies her with every comfort.

A CORRESPONDENT who recently had an interview with Ex-President Franklin Pierce, says:

"During the past two years the health of the general has been remarkably good; but with the exception of about three weeks during the past winter, he has been able to ride and walk out almost daily. During the interval referred to he was quite low for several days, and his medical attendants and his friends entertained serious fears of the result. With careful nursing and skillful treatment he overcame a sickness which promised to result fatally, and he is to day in the enjoyment of better physical health than he has possessed for years. In appearance he seems younger than when the presidential mantle rested upon him. Those who remember him in Washington would readily recognize him in Concord, however, for he maintains the smooth and clean-shaven face which always was one of his characteristics, and his broad forehead and beaver are still of the same spotless black and the same elegant and tidy fit. His step is as sprightly as that of a young man of twenty."

THERE has been much exultation on the part of the ladies because a woman was engaged to read the Declaration of Independence this year in Boston. A correspondent of the Springfield Republican gives us an account of the young lady who enjoyed this triumph, and of the manner in which she sustained her honors: "Miss Emily J. Harris, a graduate of the Everett School, daughter of Mr. William G. Harris, President of the Common Council, was selected to read the Declaration of Independence at the municipal celebration. By another year who knows but that a lady will deliver the oration? While she is advancing to the desk amid applause, I will describe her. She was dressed in a clear white muslin, with double skirt puffed and ruffled at the bottom and trimmed with two rows of satin ribbon, red and blue. Two rows of golden stars also embellished the skirt. Waist and belt trimmed likewise. Pearl necklace and bracelets, white kids, and beautiful brown hair, braided, with roses adorning. A pale face, deep brown eyes and intellectual head, denoting power and truth. She is the type of womanly graces, without a trait of that 'masculinity' of manners which men so dread and expect in strong-minded women. With a clear, cultivated enunciation, yet with a slight lisp, she pronounced the grand Declaration. She concluded the reading amid rapturous applause, an enthusiastic admirer throwing her a beautiful bouquet. 'Does much better than a man,' said one gentleman to another. 'And is much more attractive.' 'Yes,' was the reply, 'good idea—gives them confidence.'"

ARRIVAL OF TROOPS.—By Lt. Colonel Hall's company of the 10th Infantry have arrived for duty at this post. A SHOWER.—Yesterday, Friday, we were visited by a heavy shower of rain, the first since the flood, and quite refreshing. GREEN'S CHURCH FAIR.—Parson Green's Church fair came off on Thursday night. In consequence of the threatening attitude of the clerk of the weather, it was not a great success. The entertainment was very creditable, however.

BUT ONE DEFECTION.—We learn of but one defection from the Republican party in this county. Judge Thos. H. Stribling, whose name is conspicuous in the "people's ticket" at the next election of the San Antonio Herald. We regret this, as the judge was once a red-hot radical.

SMALL FRUITS.—We have received a descriptive and illustrated catalogue of small fruits, cultivated and for sale by D. C. Benton, Quincy, Illinois. Every farmer and gardener should try strawberries, blackberries, and raspberries. It is an easy and cheap way to get plants through the post office. Try it.

HEALTH AND HOME.—The excellent literary and family journal, the "Hearth and Home," comes to us with additional attractions every week. The last number begins a splendid new story entitled "The Romance of a Fish Young Man." This paper is a perfect home delight. Every family should take it. It is published by Pettengill, Bates & Co., 27 Park Row, New York.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Harriet Ward, aged 12 years, daughter of Chas. Ward, a colored man, died very suddenly on Thursday morning last. She complained of being sick, and the mother administered a dose of salts, she died a few minutes afterwards. The father says she had always been a puny child, but was not sick or complaining until Thursday morning.

IN PURSUIT OF HORSE-THIEVES.—Last Wednesday Mr. Henry Poyet and Arthur Legay, from Bryan Station, on the Central Railroad, arrived in this city in hot pursuit of three horse-thieves. The thieves were only some half day's ride ahead; here the pursuers horses gave out, and they had to give up the chase, as they could get no assistance. The thieves were heard from on the road to Comstock; the party consists of a Turk, named Arenious, a negro, and a Mexican. They ride the stolen animals.

A PETITION.—A petition, endorsing the present city administration, is being circulated and generally signed by our business men, property owners and principal citizens. This petition we learn was started in order to prevent, if possible, any injurious interference in the municipal government of our city. It is well known that the present administration, while faulty, no doubt, in many particulars, possesses the confidence of a large majority of the people. It has brought city credit to par, and the introduction of a new set of officials for the few months intervening before an election, would be injurious to the material welfare of the city, to say nothing of the injustice of the act. And, also, to assure the Commanding General of the satisfaction of the people with his appointments, and if possible, put an end to the miserable attempts of designing men to disturb the community. The removal of the present administration would be an incalculable injury to the city, and every body knows it. In a few months the people can have a chance to express their preferences at the ballot box. "Let us have peace," until then.

JOINT MEETING OF COUNTY AND CITY.—The hide question came to a terminus on Thursday evening by the joint consultation of the county and city authorities. The General commanding, referring the whole matter to their joint consideration. A meeting was held at the county court room. There were present Judge Gauble, Mayor Thielepape, Sheriff Blake, County Clerk Peyton Smythe, Mr. Nat Lewis, our largest cattle raiser, some butchers, and one or two individuals who are neither officials, cattle raisers, "butchers, or capote stick makers," but whose sage presence seems always desirable. While it was admitted that the law made it the duty of the police court and county clerk, yet the satisfaction given for a long time by the city taking the hides under its care, that the removal of these interested was irresistible, and Capt. Bennett, city marshal, offered to take the hides, with extra fees, and the Mayor to delay the matter before the city council. Some interesting speeches were made, which we have not the space to give. Some very queer legal opinions were put forth, which ought to be bottled for further use, but we hope the question is settled, and the city, through its police, will look after the hides, leaving the county officials to pursue higher occupations.

Proceedings of the City Council.
REGULAR MEETING.
July 19, 1880.
Present—His Honor, Mayor Thielepape, Aldermen—Messrs. Artzt, Hertsbarg, Buchetti, Newcomb and Gross.
The minutes of the meeting of July 13th were read and adopted.
The petition of Fire Company No. 1 to be paid the amount of rent they have paid, $55 specie, read and granted.
The petition of John James in regard to removal of wooden building of G. Wuest, granted.
The petition of G. W. Brackenridge for the privilege of keeping a private shooting gallery in the rear of the National Bank, granted conditionally.
The petition of E. Deitrich to reduce the rent of coffee stand in Market, laid on the table.
The committee to consider the matter of entering a law suit against certain parties, as suggested by city attorney, Paschal, reported against the suggestion.
"Council adjourned."

CALLED MEETING.
SAN ANTONIO, July 9, 1880.
Present—His Honor, Mayor Thielepape, Aldermen Artzt, Gross, Callaghan, Norton, Hertsbarg, Newcomb, and Buchetti.
The object of the meeting was explained by the Mayor, to take into consideration a communication of the District Commander in regard to a petition of sundry citizens in relation to the inspection of beef hides. The following resolution was adopted as the sense of the Board upon the question: Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Council after due deliberation, in answer to the communication of Bvt. Major General James H. Carleton in relation to a petition of sundry citizens upon the question of the inspection of hides, &c., that by sections 3 and 4, chapter CLXXIX of said Act to regulate the sale, alienation, removal or transfer of animals in this State, and to require butchers to report to the Police Court all animals slaughtered, and for other purposes, passed Nov. 13, 1860, it seems to be the duty of the Clerk of the County Court and of the Police Court of each county, to do, and perform all acts necessary to prevent the evils complained of in the petition addressed on the 17th instant, to Bvt. Maj. Gen. James H. Carleton, by Wm. Hoefling, Nat. Lewis, and others, and that, if such evils now exist, it must be because said Clerk and said Court do not properly attend to the duties imposed upon them by said act.
That the city authorities have nothing whatever to do with such evils, excepting only the city marshal, who may, instead of the clerk of the county court, be called upon to inspect hides, and so forth, but who, in our opinion, while thus engaged is to be considered a county official rather than an official of the city.
That the city stands ready to fulfill the mandate of the military authorities, which it regards as above the State law, whatever its decision in this and any other matter.
That the Mayor send a copy of this resolution to Bvt. Maj. Gen. James H. Carleton, commanding the Post.
