Mr. C. H. Heitz, ceases to be our Agent at New Braunfels, Comal county. A. SIEMERING & CO. San Antonio, July 27, 1869.

Concealing Discovery. The discovery that Jack Hamilton is on the Republican National Executive Committee, seems to be quite a source of consolation to Webb, of the Telegraph, and other Conservatives.

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE. A blackguarding letter from J. L. Haynes is published in the Austin so-called Republican, under the heading of "Editorial Correspondence."

"ALL QUIET IN TEXAS."—The Houston Times, in drawing a parallel between Gen. Escobedo and President Grant, says: "This is a parallel between the hyena of Mexico and the lazy, unglutted boa constrictor of America."

Elect a Republican Legislature. The position assumed by the Hamilton-Conservative party, upon the Legislature question, shows the entire want of principle and practicability of this coalition movement.

Now, what does all this prove. First, that the astute leaders of the rebel party have become convinced that the State can only be reconstructed by the Republican party.

If Jack Hamilton is all that is offered to the "down-trodden" whites, the thing is not worth even the expense of an hour's duplicity on the part of the humblest rebel.

Let us turn from this sickening display of demagoguism and view the position of the Republican party. It proposes no subterfuge, but places before the people its platform and full State ticket.

For our own part, we want civil rule established in our State as speedily as possible, and we desire that rule to be in the hands of true Republicans. If we cannot have this by a fair vote of the majority of the people, we are willing to put up with military rule.

Letter from a Loyal Man. We have received a letter from an original Union man in Gonzales county, from which we extract a few paragraphs:

"I have been favored by some friend of Gen. Hamilton's sending me the Herald of your city, and I am convinced that Hamilton is moving heaven and earth to win the election. I am one of those who lost my all for the cause, leaving my home and suffering exile. I have always been warmly attached to Hamilton, but I do not like the signs of the times—I do not like the company Hamilton keeps.

Please send me the Express and I will do my best to give it circulation. A number of Union men in this vicinity have been strong friends of Hamilton, and now upon the side of the regular nominees.

Such is a sample of the turning tide in favor of the Republican party. The gratuitous circulation of the Herald will do much good—loyal men can't help but shudder when that treasonable sheet unfolds in their hands.

Duff—The Rebel Butcher of Western Texas. His Whereabouts—His Chance for being Hung.

We learn from a letter from Austin, that Mr. Arlett, formerly a resident of our city, has just returned from a visit to the Hot Springs of Arkansas, and brings word of the rebel butcher Duff, which will interest all of our readers in Western Texas.

It seems that Duff has been keeping a store on the Arkansas river, until recently, when he murdered a negro, and is now in jail in Little Rock, awaiting his trial. The murder was a cold blooded one, and the feeling against the murderer is intense, so much so, that he is trying to obtain a change of venue to Pine Bluff.

When Duff fled the country, it was reported he had gone to Europe, and all traces of his whereabouts has been lost by the Union men, at least. Duff was the commander of the rebel troops that hung one hundred loyal men in the German counties—his troops took part in the Nueces massacre, and his deeds of murder and outrage form one of the blackest pages of the rebellion.

IN A NUTSHELL.—If the Democrats of Texas organize and carry the State at the approaching election, they will defeat reconstruction and perpetuate military rule. If they organize and get beaten they ruin the prospects of the party in Texas. Therefore ignore party organization for the present, and select men for office who are identified with our interests, honest and capable.—Houston Telegraph.

Political Jesuitism in its most unadulterated form. Forego a victory now in order to get into the wide sea of State government, and then begin a piratical warfare under the lead of Admiral Semmes Hamilton. Every honorable man in the State must repudiate such rascally duplicity.

THE plan of running a Democrat for Congress in Texas is a most impolitic one, and if successful will keep us out of the Union.—Houston Telegraph.

There is wisdom for you. Take down all of your doubtful signs and leave the track clear for the regular Republican Candidates. For a Democratic paper, the Telegraph is very candid about the weakness of its party. Webb is almost pristine in his simplicity.

TO THE POSTMASTER AT AUSTIN.—The Postmaster at Austin desires the name of our subscriber, who reported the loss of his paper. We will state to Mr. DeNormandie that the name will be given if he, DeNormandie, will deny the truth of the statement.

WHATEVER objections may be offered to Secretary Boutwell's Radicalism, one thing is very gratifying. Since he took charge of the Treasury Department, the public debt has been constantly and rapidly diminishing.—Houston Telegraph.

An acknowledgment from a Democratic source. Upon Secretary Boutwell's ability to show that we can pay our public debt, depends the next great political issue of the country. The Democrats will raise the cry of repudiation; the Republicans will stand by their platform, that the honest debt of the nation must be paid.

TEXAS BEEF.—The Phenological Journal, of New York, expresses the opinion that beef fresh from the sweet, rich grasses of Texas is the best and healthiest luxury of its kind in the world. It ridicules the Western cry of Texas "cattle disease," but begs manfully for better treatment of Texas cattle in transportation, especially during hot weather.

ARRIVALS FROM COAST.—H. B. Jones.
ARRIVALS FROM AUSTIN.—Miss T. D. Rette, Henry Murray.
Monday was nearly an autumn day. A cool breeze prevailing from the north.
AUCTION.—Fish & Hammerstein offer a fine lot of goods to day.
FALSE ALARM.—Quite a little excitement was caused Monday noon by the burning out of a chimney in Braden's Hotel.
DOG LICENSE.—Six hundred and sixty-five dog licenses had been taken out up to Monday noon.
TIED UP.—It is certain that several thousand dogs are tied up to keep them from the rope of the pound man.
LOOK OUT FOR BARGAINS.—Sampson, Sawyer & Torrey sell a large stock of miscellaneous goods to-morrow.
VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE TO-DAY.—See the advertisement of Thos Whitehead, who sells valuable property on River St., near the bridge, to-day, in front of the County court house.
ARRIVALS AT MENGER HOTEL, July 29.—Col B. A. Risher and son, Wm. Rock, Austin.
Aug. 1st—Henry Walker, Erskine Miller, Zan E. Miller, Seguin; Chas Babcock, Fort Concho; J. C. Trawill, Gal; S. Shary, U. S. A.
The following is appropriate in these days of canine persecution. We recommend it to all who have lost a dog.
No dog to love, none to caress,
How can I ever my sadness express?
My dog is defined, dead as a nail;
Hush'd is his barkin' and still is his tale.
CHROMOS.—Mr. F. Simon has received an advance assortment of the splendid stock of goods he is shortly to offer to the public. Our attention was directed to a choice selection of chromos. These pictures adorn the halls of the wealthy and can be had for a few dollars.
WHAT IT COSTS TO FEED OUR DOGS.—A careful calculator estimates that each dog in the city consumes half a pound of meat per day—or other food that will amount to the same thing. Say we have only 1000 dogs, which of course is not half the number, they consume at least 500 pounds of beef per day, or 175,000 pounds per annum, which at five cents per pound yields the sum of $8,750 specie. We believe it a low estimate for even the worthless canines kept in the city.
NOTICE.
On Tuesday, the 3rd day of August, 1869, will be sold in front of the Court-house door of Bexar county, two valuable city lots, near the corner of Soledad and River streets, one 25 by 98 feet, fronting on Soledad street, the other 33 by 100 feet, fronting on River street; the property of Emily and Wallace Mitchell, Minors. For full description see advertisement on Court house door.
THOMAS WHITEHEAD,
Gentl. & W. Mitchell,
315-3431.
ICE ACCORDING TO GUENTHER.—The ice wagon of Mr. Guenther made its appearance on the streets on Monday, supplying the city with the best quality of ice. The picture on the wagon of the Esquimaux killing a white bear on an iceberg, caused a perfect shiver. No doubt the appearance of Guenther's ice wagon was the cause of the cool breeze on Monday. Guenther for Guenther, he is a public benefactor.
REAL ESTATE.—The following transfers of real estate were recorded by the County Clerk during the week ending July 31: Anton Strassen and wife to Adams & Wickes, the undivided half of lot on the east side of the river, and fronting 55 varas on New Braunfels street..... $50

WHAT BENEFIT IS THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS TO DERIVE FROM THE ELECTION OF HAMILTON? Who are the men who are to follow him, and to whom the principal offices of the State will be given? Bell, Pease, Caldwell and others. What good those men done the people of Texas? They are the authors of all the lies told in Washington against our people. They are the authors of the "Lawlessness and Crime" report. Among all the radical politicians with which Texas
and the South has been cursed, none
have been more violent, proscriptive,
mendacious and vindictive;
and yet we are asked to vote for
such men for our future rulers.—

office.
PREPARATIONS FOR THE ECUMENICAL COUNCIL.—Late foreign advice by mail give the following:
"The arrangements of the Ecumenical Council begin to assume shape.
There will be a certain number of preliminary councils held, according to the perseverance, each of which will be presided over by a cardinal specially named by the Pope as his locum tenens, and the results will then be proclaimed as canonical laws in the sessions, presided over by the Pope himself. There will be about ten of these sessions, but they are not to be a clerical parliament," but assemblies, to which certain propositions will be read, and which will vote upon them by acclamation
and without discussion whatever.
The programme, as at present fixed,
gives for the respective sessions the following subjects: 1st, pantheism, rationalism, naturalism, absolute rationalism, in nine theses; 2d, moderate
rationalism, in seven theses; 3d, indifferentism, toleratism, in four theses; 4th, socialism, communism, secret societies, Bible societies,
liberal clerical societies, in six theses;
5th, errors on the church and its rights, in twenty theses; 6th, errors on society and its relations to the church, in seventeen theses; 7th, errors on natural and Christian morals, in ten theses; 8th, on the Christian marriage, in ten theses; 9th, on the sovereignty of the Pope of Rome,
in two theses; 10th, on modern liberalism, in four theses."
