said about the advantage one man has over another, there is still a wonderful equality in human fortunes.

If the rich have wealth, the poor special desparences to the express.

Lave health; if the heiress has booty for her dower, the penniless have beauty for theirs; if one man has cash the other has credit; if one boast of his income, the other can of his influence No one is so miserable but that his neighbor wants something he pessesses; and no one so mighty but he wants another's aid. There is no fortune so good but it may be reversed; and none so bad but it may be bettered. The sun that rises in clouds may set in splendor; and that which rises in splendor may set in NEARLY 800 teachers are employed in the several public schools of Boston. Last year the total payments on account of schools and school houses were $1,329,237, of which $982,677 was for ordinary school outlays. Among the items was $11,906 for books for indigent children in the grammar schools. The Latin school had 268 pupils, and the cost per pupil was $111 80. In the English high school, containing 291 and lish high school, containing 291 pu-pils, the cost was $116 44 each, and in the Bigelow grammer school, with 1102 pupils, the cost was $27 72 each. These were the extremes in twenty-six schools.

Paris Correspondence

Panis, 13. August 1869. The commission appointed by the Senate to examine the Senatus. Consultum makes slow progress. On Friday last their first sitting was taken up by the reading of the reports of each of the members of the commission, on the dis ons previously undergone by the bill will transport supplies.

Each bid must be accompanied by a garbureaux. Monday was devoted to the rantee of at least two persons (whose responsibility must be certified by the Clerk of a Court of Record) that the bidder is competent to carry out the contract if awarded to him, and the residence and postoffice address of each bidder and guarantor must be stated. No lide enterties to the contract of the general discussion, as great many other articles remain to be disposed of as well as several in its passage through the several amendments to be heard so that, all things taken into account, it is not likely that the commissioners will have terminated their work before the 18th or 19th inst., which would oblige the general conneils of the departments to be put off till the month of September, in order not to interrupt the important measure actually under discussion in the Senate. A seens which has created quite a sensation occured in which Rouber took up the President of the council of State Mr. de Chasseloup Lanbert in the midst of his speech and undertook to explain the subject himself, at the same time taking the opportunity of displaying his spite against intriguing people who had supplanted him in the ministry. This attitude of the

of the ministry which took place on Sunday, a complaint to the Emperor on the part of Mr, de Chasseloup I ambert against the late minister of State, but the Em-peror, it seems, has too many irons in the

to go on in the same strain. The Emperor leaves to-day for the camp of Chalons, where he will remain a week. Towards the 28th of August the Empress, secompanied by the Imperial Prince will start on her journey to Corsica for the purpose of assisting at the inauguration of the monument which the town of Bastia has just raised to the memory of Napole I On ber return to Lyons, where splendie preparations will be made for her reception, the Empress will conduct her sen to Switzerland, where she will leave him in a residence belonging to the Emperor. She will soon proceed to Venice, where a magnificent reception awaits her at the royal palace. They say that the King, Victor Emanuel, will accompany her to that city. At Venice the Empress will embark for Egypt, where she is to grace by her presence the inauguration of the Snez canal, after which she will make an excursion to Jerusalem and the holy places. This journey will last about three months; orders have been given at the ministry of the navy and at othat of foreign affairs in order that the wight companies of marine infantry and the several vessels may be held in readiness as well as the several millions of france,

which the Emperor places at the disposal

the ministry in case M. Rouher continues

Marshall Niel, minister of war, is on his death bed; there appears to be uo chance of his recovery. The Emperor went to pay a last visit to his faithful servant on Monday last, and the Empress herself went to inquire after the health of the Illustrious General. A violent pen and ink, was has broken out between Vienne and Ber-liu. Whilst the journals of both places indulge in the most passionate attacks and in mutual recriminations in which they display rancorous feelings which Austria and Prussia entertain for each other, the statesmen of the two countries are scarce ly more reserved in the manner of their intercourse. The listing irony of M. de Beust contrast well, will the haughty and disdainful tone of M. de Bismark. this shows the extent of ill will felt on both sides and leads reflecting men to ask whether nothing dangerous to the peace of Europe may come of it. There is still nothing remarkable to relate coming from Spain; the Carllst journals pretend that whole Catalonia is in arms in their favour; but this requires confirmation. The authorities make continual arrest officers bearing commissions signed don Carlos; on the 17th inst. two Lieutenant Colonels were arrested, one of whom styled himself General Commander of Madrid, and the other Captain General of new Castill.

The first questions which will occupy Staple and Fancy Grocories the Cortes in October next, will be the election of a monarch, In our bumble opinion, there would be more important questions at hand than that. In short Spain is in a sad state, commerce is at a stand-still; the penury of the public preasure is so good that the Government would do well to accept the terms offered by the United States for the cession of ANOTHER MURDER .- We learn that man was found dead in White Rock bottom, about five miles from town, one day last week, evidently murdered by some unknown parties! We cannot obtain any of the particulars, but understand that the dead man is reported to be a Mr. Henderson, a gentleman from Kentucky, who brought out a lot of mules to this section last Spring. Beyond this, we can obtain no particulars— Dallas Herald, 28th ult.

A. SIEMERING,
Member of State Executive Committee for the 4th Judicial District.

"And with a charming haivete, the call (for a District Convention announces that only such Republicans as stand on the platform of the Honston Convention, and intend to vote the Davis ticket are invited."— Austin Republican.

You may as well call it an admirable honesty which prompted Prior to this, it was known to a few genthe wording of said call for the Republican party of Texas, as recognized by the President, the administration, the Executive Committee of the Republican party of the United States and the Republican press of the Union, in disavowing all connection with dishonest politicians and half-reconstructed so-called Re-

Now, about the honesty of your coterie. Your Hamilton runs as a Republican, of sourse, but he solicits the rebel votes to elect him and does all in his power to split and damage the Republican party, well was living in comparative clover, in a conknowing that he could not be elected justice of the peace in any country town in Texas without the aid of Democratic votes. No coma habitual drunkard. But with the assistance of the unreconstructed he believes he can become Gover-nor at a salary of $5000 a year and that is all he cares for. Having no property in the State he has, in his own words, to look out for something to make a living for his family. Such is the charming naivete of your "big injun."

SOLD,-The Austin Republican sol all its Democratic allies by publishing that Flamagan had refused to run as Lt. Governor on the Republican ticket, 'Col. Flannagan has accepted the nomination and the majority of our ticket in Eastern Texas will not be easy to crawl "his failings" and was discharged, some of over. The Austin Republican is altogether too much on the hot-house him, referred the Bulletin man to Matprinciple in producing electioneering lies; they are altogether too early in the season to come to any furniture in the "confiscated mansion" as thing. In the same connection the Republican published that the Tyler Index had abandoned the Republican party and taken down the ticket and that the Jefferson Radical had died &c. All of which is grossly untrue.

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUB-LIC INSTRUCTION.-There is but one institution in the nature of State Public Instruction in Texasthe penitentiary; as Rev. E. M. Wheelock gets $2500 a year as termaster here; but his natural kindliness Superintendent of Public Instruction would not let him push a matter that furtion, and does nothing to earn it nished trouble to poor devils, ex-officers in except to edit the Austin Republi. the volunteer service of the semp, and so can, a paper now in opposition to President Grant's administration. ought not Gen. Reynolds to assign him to duty as superintendent of the only institution of Public Instruction we have the penitentiary.

The Sherman Courier opposes a Convention of Democratic editors. So does the San Antonio Express.

Denton Monitor. You are mistaken, Mr. Monitor, we dont care a fig whether the Democratic editors get together or not. If Josselyn, and Webb and Flake and Longley, and on the Herald men are counted in and the meeting is held we think the concentrated essence of meanness and hypocriscy might be said to have congealed.

GALVESTON, Aug. 25th, 1859.

In the Saturday evening's issue of a je nal of this city, sclept Flakes Delletin appeared a violent and body written at tack upon three gentlemes, preminently connected with the Regulblish party are In the interest of justice and that "fair play" common to all Americans, your cor respondent desires to show, from the character of the attacking parties, bow much credence may be imposed in statements from such a source. "They who live in glass houses, should not throw stones."

The character of the proprietor of the Bulletin is known, apart from his complioity with the rebellion as a confederate Quartermator, etc.; as that of an unseru-pulous, greedy, avaricious, money getting man. Every journalist in Galveston has suffered somewhat from these striking traits of the ex-Confederate Quartermast-er, and "Annotated Paschall's" "original Unionist." Passing over the trifling peculiari les therefor, and omitting too, another charge, now being rather generally mooted throughout the town, that of "unfaithful friendship," in this, that a certain young Republican, prominent hitherto in the politics of Texas, but now absent from the State, leaving his "household Gods" in the custody of this "friend," has had the same desecrated, and to use the language of an old English play writer, " has had blows given him "I' the forehead," that will produce horns."

Passing over all this, let me come at once to the second character of the aforementioned journal-"the man who writes." This individual was in the year of grace, 1865, employed in the Educational Bureau of the Freedmen's schools of New Orleans. tlemen that Mathew Whillden had been a 2nd Lieutenant in a colored regiment under Gen. Muror, and that on account of his deplorable "failing," said Matthew was compelled to resign. Being in rather a destitute condition at the time, friends obtained for Matthew a situation as clerk in the Bureau. While there, baving been entrusted with funds to pay off teachers in the xicinity of Baton Rouge, La., said Matthew ." went on a spree" and lost during the bacchanal, considerable of the aforesaid money. Forthuately, for the " unfortunate" the officers of the Bureau, at the solicitation of a friend, consented to allow Matthew the chance to work out the sum of his indebtedness to the government. Mean while, "the man who writes" fiscated mausion of the Crescent city, using the furniture, piano and other fixings of "a rebel." In the early part of 1866, a change was made in the administration of the Bureau and Capt. H. R. Pease was munity of Republicans would stand placed in the Educational Department. Pease relieved our "writer" as a clerk, and made him a sort of chief fugleman, with powers to hunt up and confiscate buildings for school purposes. Behold then Matthew, on one of Uncle Samuel's borses, riding through New Orleans, engaged in such duties as involved the "pickings" of rebel houses. At this time, deeming his services invaluable, Matthew demanded of Capt. Pease a higher and increased monthly salary. This the captain refused to do, and gave the applicant the option to take whe he had or leave. Lending himself to the enemies of Pease, as he had sold himself to Pease against his former friends, Matthew was discovered, and relieved from all duty in the Bareau. About now the proprietos of the Bulletin sent to New Ofleans for an editor. Matthew having been employed before his advent in the Bureau, as a "local" for the New Orleans Delta, for a while, till he had one of "the man who writes" prepared to leave New Orleans, gathering up such of the was available. A journey was made to Galveston; and presto-look upon the acting editor of the Bulletin! Sometime in 1867, confiscated "rebel property," hav ing been turned over by our government, to former owners, a demand was made by the Quartermaster of the United States, at New Orleans, to the officer in charge of such a department here, to hunt up some

How Jim Wicker's Head Got Baid.

Jim Wicker was a comic-looking fellow, with a very young face, but by reason of having no hair, he look-ed very old from his eyebrows all the way round to the back of his neck. He was very sensitive about the de fect, and was somewhat celebrated, from a fight he had with a traveling agriculturist, who, upon being asked by Jim, "What would cause the hair to grow upon his shining poll," was advised to "cover the top of his head with guano, and plant it down in crab grass." But Jim wouldn't quarrel with Capt. Wild, for that gentleman was not only the host of the Fairy Queen, but also had the key of all "the refreshments" in his possession; so with hesitation he enlightened his auditor after this fash

You see the har always did grow rather scarce 'bout my scalp, and I was always rubbing one thing and another to fotch it out, though thar was little to see above ground. I'd heard of bar's grease, and bought a gallon in bottles, but I believe it was nothing but bog's lard and mutton taller; so I thought I would have the genuine article, and I got old Dan to go out and kill something for my es-pecial benefit. Dan told me it was in the spring, and that the bar was in bad bealth and out of season; but I believed he was trying to quiz me and wouldn't take no for an answer. A short hunt fotched a critter at ot in the vitals and Dan by a sh saved the varmint; but the bar was in a bad condition, for he looked as seedy as an old Canadian thistle, and he had hardly enough in hims to keep his joints from squeaking, but that he did have I got and used; and stranger, said Jim, looking sorrow-fully read on the company, in two days what har I had commenced fulling off, and in a week I was bald as a gunbarrel. Dan was right: the varmint was shedding himself, and nothing in him but har shedding ile and the consequence is, I can't in the dark tell my head from a dried gourd, if I depend on feeling."

Just the book needed in every family, and so cheap that all can afford it. It is a handsome octave of 542 closely printed pages, containing the matter of a $5.00 volume, but is sold at $2.50. It differs from all similar works, by giving the different modes of treatment—the Alopathic, Homeopathic, Hydropathic, Eclectic, and Herbal, thus rendering it available where other books rendering it available where other books are of no use. Agents find it by far the best selling book of the kind ever published. Over Two Thousand (2,000) copies have already been sold in the city of Chicago, where the author resides. Sand for Circulars, giving full particulars, terms, etc. Address C. F. VENT, Publisher, 38 West Fourth Street.

In our item yesterday on Main street the word "West" is used instead of East.

Tue back bone of the summer has been broken. No more hot weather this year.

PLOVER Our sporting gentlemen are bringing plenty of plover.

FRUIT.-The peach crop is about ended it was one of the facet in quantity and quality ever raised in West Texas. Figs. are still displayed from the fruit stalls

Tip: Reason.—The reason the premise evening luminary does not appear, is, that they are waiting for an extra font of the capital "I." The coalition party is particularly hard upon this letter.

on Tursday next, the 9th inst. These better. gentlemen are striving to build up a first class auction business and their success augers well.

SPORT .- The country is full of quail and all sorts of small game. A few miles to west are wild turkey and deer in abundance. If we could place ourselves in railroad connection with the rest of the world, Western Texas would be considered the sportman's heaven and a large imsigration would take place immediately from the eastern States.

BEAUTIFUL SUNSETS. The most glorious globe, are to be witnessed during the tive town for twenty-three years, autumn season in this section of Texas; and it made my heart come up even our oldest inhabitants step out and my mouth when you did so." enjoy the flood of golden light that circumstance doubtless made him streams from the occident and bathes the unusually communicative. He said whole landscape in splendor. In summer, Fexas is noted for its clear skies and flowery prairies; in autum for its unrivaled climate and unmatched sunsets.

THE PAST SUMMER.—The past summ was a most remarkable one in Westers Texas ; marked with very few hot days ; by an unprecedented fall of rain; by a great deal of fine weather. The crops have been very fine; the prairies have not only worn a great wealth of grass but have displayed great loyeliness in wild flowers. The cattle are everywhere fat and plenty has been the lot of all. Good health has been general and only a little sickness, in the shape of fevers growing out of the floods, along the river bottoms, has marred the picture of happiness which our section presents upon the opening of this delicious autumn season.

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 5th 1869. At a meeting of Fire Cy. No. 1, the death of Andrew Langes, Eq., late a member of said company, having been brought to the notice of the meeting, upon motion of the Secretary, a committee of four, conenaloza, Frank Rose and Frank Ruchezer, ere appointed to prepare suitable resolu-ons expressive of the feelings of the any, who presented the following were unanimously adopted:

a, in the good providence of that, NORTON & DEUTE. A. Laager, a member of our company, has been removed by death from among us, and the company our soften his decease, and to express our sense of his worth as a govilleman and an old member place in the regard of the members of the company, and that we have his less as a member and friend.

That we tender to the officed acids of the deceased our warmer representation.

That the newspapers of the direct be requested to publish these lifetimes and that the Speciary furnish the femily of deceased with a copy.

FRITZ SCHEINER, Chairmad Attent: FRANK RUCHEREER, Sec.

Money Lost .- Uncle Issae lost on Main treet yesterday, a package of U. S. of rency amounting to $20. It was the amount carned by an old colored woman in two mentas, by washing for the Hospital. The person who has found it will do a deed of justice and charity by leaving it at this office. It was lost about 4 o'clock, near the post office.

THE first inhabitants of the earth would hardly know their old home, should they now revisit it. Changes have been going on in every part; mountains have been lowered in some places, and lifted up in others; great lakes and rivers have disappeared; the plants of different sections are not the same as formerly; old breeds of animals are gone, and new ones have appeared, and everywhere the great work of improving and finishing the world is going on. Every summer's sun and wfater's frost does something to change the face of nature; rocks crumble little by little, are washed down the hillsides, and help to fill up the valleys. The streams are wearing away their banks, and earrying earth to de-posit in new places. The ocean slowly advances on some coasts and retires from others. Now and then a volcano or an carthquake in a few hours sweeps away all old land marks, and a large district is thus at once made over.

Equally great changes are going on among men, in their appearance, habits, customs, laws, and character. Whole races have passed away and left only here and there a mark to show that they existed, and new nations are coming forward to rule the progress of the world It is remarkable that in all these particulars there is, on the whole manifest improve-ment. Nature and men are less flerce than formerly. The ages of fearful mousters and ferocious natious have nearly passed. Peace, order, beauty, and happiness are gradually advancing; the world is being finished by its great Creator. The six days work in the Bible was merely the bringing together of materials and putting them together roughly. The adjusting and polishing have yet to be completed. All have a part to do in the great work. The sun that enlivens a little plant by the wayside helps to make the world better; the boy or girl who lives right is like a whole sun scattering light on every hand, and will as surely do his or her work in GREAT AUCTION SALE.—We call attention of the public to the trade sale of Messre. Fish & Hammerstein to come off up the world by making somebody

One of Life's Contrast.

Three years ago, while breakfasting at a mining restaurant Bear the Oregonline, a stranger, with n neomb ed hair, huge gray whiskers, and tatered cost, took his seat at the table. By accident, I was relating to the landerd an incide t which had occurred some years previously in the Confecticut Valley. After I had left the table and was walking slone the unshern stranger accosted me. You are the first man," said he masts to be seen in any part of the whom I have heard mention my nahe was living in the mountains, ten by hunting, and visiting the settlements two or three times, a year. This statement was afterward corroborated by other evidence. What induced him to lead this hermit life he did not see fit to explain. In his early boyhood, on the banks of the Connecticut, he and the present Chief Instice of the United States lived on adjacent farms, and attended the same public school. What a sharp contrast has marked their subsequent lives -the one having filled the most responsible stations in the gift of the American people—the other a hermit unknowing and unknown, amid the wild and almost inaccessible fastnesses of Southern Oregon.-Boston

PLANTATION BITTERS

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article---a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world-be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.

HORACE WATERS.

Testimonials. The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.

We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian intelligen.

The Waters' Pianes are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.— Advocate and Journal.

Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortiment of Pianos Melodeons and Organa to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.

MUNICAL DOINGS—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons.

facture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been mer rates, and his Planos have recently been rwarded the First Premium at saveral Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are at racted, if not confused, with the fisming advertisements of rival plano houses, prohably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments served him a good reputation long before Expositions and 'honors' consected therewith, were even thought of indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Planofortes now in our residence (where it has sloed for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be prond. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is ne doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated planists, have performed on the same plane, and all promouses it a superior and first class inframent. Stronger, godorsement we could not give—Homa Journal. (feb19'69dly.

INTERESTING TO PLANTERS. H. J. Baker & Bro., Castor Oil Manufac-turers, 215 Pearl street, New York, furnish ne with the following information in regard to the usefulness of the Palma Chtisti, or Castor Beau Piant, besides the oil properties of the bean.

It is said to be a preventive against the destruction of the ention plant by the army or cetter worm, by planting it as a fence around the field in which cutton is planted. The fibre of the caster bean plant is also said to be good for making paper and the leaves good for the silk worm to feed on.

We are also informed that the leaves are a paraces for rheumakism, and for promoting lactation by a local amplication.

H J. Baker & Bro., bave published a pamphlet on the cultivation of the castor bean, which they furnish gratis to those who addr. ss them to Box 2434. New York Post Office; or 215 Puri Street, New York. 31-2-44.
