Deferred Dispatches.
France.
PARIS, Jan. 13.
There were 5000 workmen from the fabourgs who passed the boulevard to the funeral of Victor Noel. There were many ladies in carriages, that were dressed in mourning, who joined in the procession.
Henri Rochefort's presence at the funeral caused great demonstrations and frequent shouts of "Vive la Republique" occurred at the cemetery.
While Rochefort was coming down the Champs Elysees, with a great crowd, singing the Marseillaise a regiment of troops appeared and dispersed the crowd.
Rochefort, claiming the privileges of a deputy, was allowed to pass to the Chambers, where he arrived pale and much excited.
The crowd was finally dispersed, without resisting the police or the troops.
The police and magistrates were stoned to-day by the mob. The most intense excitement exists, but no serious trouble is apprehended. There are 100,000 soldiers quartered to-day in Paris, and the police force has been largely increased.
The Marseillaise appeared as usual today, and its tone is very violent. Rochefort's leader says the cry of yesterday was for justice, to-morrow the cry may come for vengeance.

A MARRIAGE NOT IN HOW LIFE.—Among
the fishermen and clam-diggers of Wick-ford, there are some rough specimens of humanity, and Dan Northrup is one of the roughest. He was married several years since, but the union was not proving a very harmonious one, the wife recently secured a divorce. Dan, in no wise daunted, immediately formed an alliance with another burlesque of his circle, and last week they were married by a clergyman of the village. The reverend gentleman supplemented the ceremony with a prayer;
but the groom becoming impatient under his rather extended petitions, interrupted him with, "Elder, ain't that 'bout 'nough!"
Wishing to express his wishes for Dan's prosperity, the Elder, as he was leaving,
said: "Be Northrup, as your first marriage was not a very happy one, I hope you may reap some comfort from this. I hope so, by G—d," hastily rejoined Dan, who never spares his profanity in any place or presence. An interesting feature of the afternoon of the evening was the presence of Dan's former wife, who danced and laughed as gaily as any of the guests.—

The Test Oath.

The Gal. Bulletin, taking the Falls county Pioneer to task, for advising non-action on the part of the Texas Legislature, because of the bad faith of Congress in the case of Georgia, remarks that "Georgia attempted a trick, and it was right that she should be checkmated; but had the Pioneer's article been predicated upon the proposed action in the case of Virginia, it would have been just. That State has attempted no trick, but has faithfully performed all her obligations, and ought to be at once admitted, but there is a proposition to exact new conditions—require test oaths, when the law demands none, and ask a pledge not to do certain things, which, if given, is no binding force whatever."

The Bulletin keeps up its old tactics. Whenever it strikes one blow for the Union it gives two for the lost cause. The Government has never, as we remember, made an effort to bind the faithless Sons of the South with oaths or constitutional guarantees, that its efforts have not been denounced by the Bulletin.

We had the same class of men north and South during the rebellion. The Government was helpless. It was unconstitutional to do anything to suppress the rebellion; and since its suppression is impossible for the Government in the opinion of these men, to control or govern the conquered rebels. Out upon all such arguments. They never emanated from a loyal brain. Besides the Bulletin states what is not true. The reconstruction laws from the first, required the test oath of all the incumbents in the Provisional Governments; but it was not enforced, because we had too many men in office like the editor of the Bulletin. It became necessary to re-enact the law in March last in the case of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas; and even then, by the opinion of a convenient Attorney General, the law was again set aside. Now, for the third time, the friends of the Union are trying again to make the Legislature of Virginia come to the Book; and we hope it will be applied to Texas also. Without some such guarantee we have no security.

Any man, who asserts, that the rebels of the South are not to be restrained in the full exercise of their will, and that the conditions upon which they, as communities, re-enter the Union, can be annulled and abrogated as soon as they get in, may be classed with the traitors, for whose benefit and in whose behalf he labors.

The Government has but half done its work in reconstruction, even if the laws proposed be passed and carried out to the letter.

Let Congress give a sanction to the State official oath by requiring it to be taken before some United States officer, so that any party taking it falsely can be punished in the courts of the United States, and we shall see whether the people will have any respect for it hereafter. We opine that Mr. Flack would come to the conclusion that many persons who have already taken it before Provisional officers, would be slow to offend a second time with the certain prospect of indictment before their eyes. The rebels have defied the Government only because they could do so with impunity.

We hold it to be the duty of the General Commanding to require each member of the Legislature to take the oath before a United States Commissioner, before he takes his seat; and he should at the same time ask for a special term of the U. S. District Court for the Western District, with a competent Grand Jury sitting at Austin upon the assembling of the Legislature. Not a Grand Jury drawn from the old set of professional Jurymen, who congregate in and around Court houses, and idle lawyers and lobby agents, who desire to have their expenses paid to the seat of Government, but selected from the honest and upright citizens of the country, without respect to color. If an example or two could be made of men who have lost all respect for the sanctity of an oath, or whose love of office overrides their honesty, we should purge out much more bad material from the Legislature. Let him do this, and then where men have been voted for who are disqualified under the law, the vote is simply thrown away. The man having the largest vote who is eligible at the time of the election is the legally elected officer, and should be seated.

The rebels make a point on this. They say that in such cases the election must be held again, but upon what pretext, except to give them in the first place a chance to bully the Government by pushing one of their favorites, who is known to be disqualified, and failing in the attempt, then to bring in one less objectionable, but still greatly preferable to a Republican. It is a rule universal in its application, that when people persist in throwing their votes for persons incompetent, as for a minor, alien or rebel, that the vote counts for nothing. Suppose the people of Texas had voted for Jefferson Davis for Governor in the late election, would a majority of votes cast for him have defeated a loyal and qualified citizen having a smaller vote?

The Next Move.

The so-called conservative Republicans of Austin—professional politicians, who, wearing stove-pipe hats and carrying big sticks, delight in sauntering up and down Congress Avenue, talking politics with all they can button-hole, and occasionally refreshing themselves with a drink at one of the fashionable bar-rooms, have been losing time. They must now yield to the force of circumstances and must be up and doing—must be alert. As General Davis is appointed Provisional Governor and is declared elected constitutional Governor and has a clear majority in both Houses of the Legislature, it is useless for them to attempt to maintain an attitude of defiance any longer. Nothing can now be made by continuing to use such vulgar phrases as "we will fight them till h— freezes over, and then will fight them on the ice."

Men who cannot exist out of office and who are still possessed of an insane belief, that even yet somehow or other they will by hook or by crook manage to get into some sort of office, must lower their tone if they mean to succeed. They must wag the tail and fawn when they find that bullying will not win. They must change their tactics.

We wish to see the Avenue rid of their presence, and of their stove-pipe hats and big sticks. The bar-rooms can dispense with them as their credit is indifferent, and the people on the street should no longer be bored with their politics. Hence we advise them to change their tactics. In order to do so they must act in concert. Let them consult together, at Judge Bell's for instance, and alter their department and habits for the time being as may be agreed upon. Let them alter his blackguardism against Gen. Reynolds, as they could not buy him, because he was not for sale, and endeavor to worm themselves into the confidence of Gen. Davis and the Legislature. In order to prepare the way to do so, they must cautiously invent and promulgate all sorts of imaginary splits and differences among Republicans. They must be eminently inventive and suggestive. When they shall have induced the belief that such splits and differences exist they will have prepared the way to edge in themselves as peace-makers. This is their proper programme—their only programme, unless they choose to take the remaining alternative and to go over body and boots to the Democracy who do not trust them and remain exiles from place and power for ever long weary years, at least, with a dreary prospect yet in advance before them.

A little calm and sober reflection ought to convince them that this is the true course for them to pursue. They have been baffled at Washington. They have been beaten in Texas. They have been insolent to the Commanding General, and slanderous and abusive towards Gen. Davis. They have betrayed the Republican party and at the same time attempted to trick the democratic party. No man clothed with power and no political party reposes confidence in them. The people have pronounced a sentence of condemnation upon them.

They must at least appear to change their tactics, if they cannot change their characters, or they will sink beneath the surface. If they needs must, make a desperate experiment to "edge in" one of their number into the U. S. Senate, let them do so with decency.

Let them go to Judge Bell's and consult together. He is pliable and dextrous—is fresh from Washington, and though badly damaged in character, owing to his having been a lobbyist for "disreputable schemes, can counsel them to their mutual advantage.

Europe.

The liberal journals of Paris claim that personal government is at an end in France, the Emperor having directed Ollivier to form a progressive cabinet, replacing the ministers who have just resigned.—The monster Traupman, who butchered the whole Kitch family some time since, was tried last week in Paris, convicted and sentenced to death; which being announced, he rose and smilingly thanked the court. He says he had accomplices, but refuses to give their names.—Another distinguished assassin, Carl Billaud, who attempted to shoot a clergyman in a Berlin church during service, has just been condemned to 12 years' hard labor.—Minister Zorrilla announces that if the Spanish Government cannot find a king it will accept the republic.—The Imperial Princess Christine of Naples was baptised at Rome on Thursday, with great ceremony, by Cardinal Patrizzi, Vicar of the Pope. His Holiness was represented as godfather by Cardinal Antonelli, and the Empress of Austria represented the dowager Empress as godmother.—A panic in a Bristol (England) theatre, Monday night, resulting in 18 persons being killed and many injured.—M. de Lesseps denies the London stories of dangers in navigating the Suez Canal.—Under the very nose of the Spanish authorities, a small paper is surreptitiously published at Havana, which is entirely devoted to the ridicule and denunciation of the Captain-General's party. An expedition has just started from Nuevitas, to make an end of the insurrection—perhaps.—The overthrow of Sahnave in Hayti is exceedingly probable.—From Mexico we hear of victories over bands of malcontents by the government troops, and the continuance of Mr. Seward's tour.—China concedes to Russia portions of her northwestern domains.—The Dominion Cabinet has decided to recall Gov. McDougall, he having relinquished all hopes of subduing the Winnipeg insurgents.

Crops in Texas.

The December report of the Bureau of Agriculture, which summarizes the agricultural information of the year, has the following items in reference to Texas: Corn.—Texas shows an increase in some counties the largest crop ever grown is reported. In one, Corvell, the average yield is reported at forty bushels. The only States reporting an increase of quantity are Minnesota, Missouri, Florida, Nebraska, Kansas, Texas and California.

Cotton.—The grasshopper, in some parts of Texas, injured cotton that was planted late. The drought affected it unfavorably in the Red River region, and worms, heavy rains and overflows were locally injurious. But for these drawbacks the yield would have been very large. Still the aggregate is much larger than that of 1868. Reports of five hundred pounds of lint per acre, where good culture followed a careful selection of seed, are not unfrequent. Some counties return an average of three hundred pounds per acre. The culture in Texas is extending far beyond its limits in 1869. One county which made no return at that date returning 4,300 bales, and others producing it for the first time at an average of 300 lbs. per acre. Product compared with that of 1868: North Carolina 95 per cent.; South Carolina 85; Georgia 95; Florida 167; Alabama 108; Mississippi 115; Louisiana 112; Texas 125; Arkansas 110; Tennessee 85. Yield per acre: North Carolina 145 pounds; South Carolina 125; Georgia 150; Florida 122; Alabama 176; Mississippi 201; Louisiana 206; Texas 275; Arkansas 254; Pennessee 160. The aggregate product in accordance with the returns received to this date is little more than ten per cent. above the yield of 1869 or about 3,700,000 commercial bales, or fully 3,000,000 bales of 40 lbs. each.

Statistics—Louisiana and Texas, have reduced their aggregate. The sweet potato crop is somewhat less than an average.

News from Mexico.

The news from Mexico, is most melancholy. The province of Cheapa has been visited by severe frosts and a loss of two hundred lives is reported. The injury to farms and the destruction of property is very large. Fear of a general revolution throughout the country prevails, and from the present insurrectionary display there is little doubt that the fear entertained will be realized.

Local Intelligence.

ELOPEMENT AND ARREST.—We consider it our duty to correct a misprint and error which appeared in our issue of the 13th. Speaking of the comments of a certain newspaper on the elopement, &c., as the ravings of a madman, vulgar and untruthful, whose insane passion and falsehood disgraces every intelligent reader, the manuscript reads Herald and the printer set Sheet.

SUPPOSED MURDER.—Between twelve and one o'clock, on Tuesday night, Nathaniel Henry shot and dangerously wounded Miss Vicenta Guerrero, at her residence on Laredo street, on the west side of the San Pedro. The ball entered her jaw, fracturing it and making a ghastly wound, from which it is feared she cannot recover. Henry has been arrested and is now in jail. Jealousy is supposed to have been the moving cause of the tragedy.

INDIANS AGAIN.—We are happily informed that an old man and a small boy, whose names we could not learn, nor any further particulars, were killed by the Indians on the 19th inst., near the Llano, or in Barnett county. About the same time a German farmer was chased by Indians between the Cibola and the Guadalupe, but made good his escape.

THE MAILS.—Our worthy Postmaster is in receipt to-day of a bundle of letters mailed at Indianola, on the 5th inst., and marked "misses from Victoria pr. Port Lavaca." The Victoria Postmaster must be a genius of the first water, or a greatly overworked official.

ANOTHER MURDER.—We are pained to hear of another brutal and unprovoked murder, committed some three miles from our city, not far from the Castroville road, during the afternoon of Tuesday. The facts as given to us are as follows:

Mr. Jas. Richards, a brother of Judge Richards of Dhanis, who lives upon the ranch of Mr. W. Wadenpohs, about three miles from this city, was out hunting cattle with the latter, when they espied a camp of Mexicans, and rode up to it. There were five Mexicans in the camp, engaged in dressing a beef they had slaughtered. Richards and Wadenpohs discovered the brand upon the hoof to be that of our townsman, Nat. Lewis, and very wisely prudently indulged in remarks not calculated to please these cattle thieves; and after they had left the camp some little distance, far enough to give the Mexicans a few minutes' contemplation, they were hailed to and summoned back. Unfortunately they rode immediately back towards the camp, when they were fired upon by the Mexicans, two of the shots taking effect in the neck and head of Mr. Richards, killing him instantly. Mr. Wadenpohs took flight immediately, and was fortunate enough to escape unhurt from the bullets which were flying around him. Not far from the scene of this brutal tragedy, he came upon some U. S. soldiers, who with him rode back to the camp, but the villains had decamped in haste, leaving, however, a cart, which it is said, has been recognized as belonging in this city, and from which, it is to be hoped, the parties may be identified, captured and punished as they deserve. We understand that active measures have already been taken for their pursuit and capture.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 1, 1870.
Ma. Editor.—I take the liberty to send you my illustrated catalogue of Seeds and Floral Guide. I do this partly from a love for the "profession," in which I spent many happy and, I think, useful days, and which I strive to honor for more than a quarter of a century. For the past ten years I have given my entire time to the introduction of the choicest Flower and Vegetable Seeds, in which I have been very successful, adding to my own pleasure and profit, and I feel quite certain doing quite as much for the pleasure and profit of my customers. I desire that every Editor in the country, or, what is better, every Editor of a newspaper or a prospectus, and catalogue should have a package of my seeds to help make good copies, and aid in securing the heart and lightning the tools of husband and father. I seek to scatter choice flowers all over the country, and above all I desire the neighbors of the "craft" who have such a tremendous influence in moulding the destinies of the nation, to become the lovers of flowers, and of every thing beautiful in nature. My Catalogue and Guide is sent to all who desire it for ten cents—not half the cost. Address: JAMES VICK, Rochester, New York. We have purchased from Messrs. Vick, during the last year, a fine assortment of Flower seeds, and take pleasure in recommending him to all lovers of Flowers.

A NEW DISCOVERY!! PHALON'S

"VITALIA;" OR, Salvation for the Hair.

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the "dyes," "colorers," and "restorers" (?) in use. It acts on a totally different principle. It is limpid, fragrant, and perfectly innocuous, precipitates no muddy or flaccid matter, requires no shampooing, and communicates no stain to the skin or the linen. No paper curtain is necessary to conceal its turbid appearance, for the simple reason that it is not turbid. It is, to all intents and purposes, A NEW DISCOVERY in Toilet Chemistry.

Phalon's "VITALIA" is warranted to effect a change in the color of the hair within 15 days after the first application, the direction being carefully observed.

IT IS AS CLEAR AS WATER AND HAS NO SEDIMENT. Price, One Dollar per Box, CONTAINING TWO BOTTLES. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

If your Druggist has not "Vitalia" on hand, write, enclosing $1.00, and we will forward it immediately.

In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Testimonials.
The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.
We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.
The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—Advocate and Journal.
Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Graham's Magazine.
MUSICAL DONOR.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not enticed, with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" conferred therewith, were even thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianos for sale in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. (Feb 19 '69d.)
