SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE EXPRESS.

WASHINGTON, January 28.
Revenue to-day, 510,000.

The Territorial Committee have agreed to report a bill abolishing polygamy in Utah, and empowering the President to enforce its suppression by military force,
if necessary.

The steamer Songinole has been ordered to Sumatra.

House.—The Legislative, Judicial and Executive Appropriation bill came up.
Voorhees made a long speech upon the financial questions.

Butler made another response to Dawes. The latter replied that he did not desire to qualify anything he had said. He was willing to let the country judge.

The claim of Simpson, member elect from the Fourth District of South Carolina, was laid aside, he being unable to take the oath.

The Election Committee reported in the case of the claimants from Georgia, under the election of April, 1868, declaring them not entitled to their seats.

The session to-morrow will be devoted to debate. Only a bill providing for the election of public printer was passed by both Houses.

Senate.—The following proceedings occurred: Johnson presented himself.
Willey announced his presence.

J. M. Johnson, Senator elect from Virginia, stated that his disabilities were removed and he desired to be sworn in.

Edmunds suggested there might be some further legislation necessary. He had been informed that the disabilities of the gentleman had not been removed. He understood that the disabilities of J. M.
Johnson had been removed, but whether it was this Mr. Johnson, he was not certain and idently of course ought to be ascertained.

Willis read from one of the acts removing political disabilities, where the name of J. M. Johnson, Washington county occurred, and said this was the gentleman present.

Sumner said there would be no objection
of course, if there was proof of this fact.
The Senator elect then advanced and the oath was administered.

The bill abolishing the franking privilege was read twice, when Hamsey moved its immediate consideration.

Drake and Vickers objected, and it was referred to the committee on Post offices.
The bill involves the abolition of the free circulation of papers within the counties or parishes of publication.

The Judiciary committee are instructed to inquire whether additional legislation was necessary regarding Georgia.

Discussing an appropriation for the poor,
Mr. Hamlin said, to the credit of the Jews he said, that while they have contributed liberally, they have supported their own poor.

Currency bill discussed to adjournment.

At the close of the war of 1812, the late General Wool was taken home to be treated for terrible wounds received in battle. When convalescent he had to pay a surgeon's bill, which left him almost without a dollar. As soon as he was well enough the government sent him on a military mission to the west, where he remained five years, and never drew his pay in full, but took enough to defray actual expenses. At the close of his appointment the United States owed him $20,000. "This," said General Wool, just before he died, "was the only money I ever made in the whole course of my life!
But I always kept that out in safe investment at good interest. In fifty years this $20,000 has grown to $700,000!"

Three hundred immigrants have settled in Grimes county.

that, does all he can to show the

who possessed a very rubicund countenance, some one said, the other day, "I don't think he drinks;
in fact I know he does not, for he told me so; but he probably sleeps

RAMIE MACHINE.—A machine having been invented to clean the ramie fibre, this, the New Orleans Picayune says, removes the objection to its culture.

SUNDAY, JAN. 30, 1870.

The Army needs Reconstructing.

Now, that the work of reconstructing the Southern State governments begins to draw to a close, we desire to call the attention of the Congress of the United States, as well as the President, and all others interested to the imperative necessity of reconstructing the army.

As organized at present, our army, judging from the sample furnished us in Texas and throughout the South, is officered in the main by Andy Johnson Copperheads; we are perfectly aware that such an assertion will bring down upon us the condemnation of the army, but we treat the subject as one of public interest, if not of national importance.

One of the great primary mistakes of Congress was in trusting the execution of the reconstruction laws to an army officered by Andy Johnson's appointees, and all the lamentable consequences, which have grown out of "my policy" are attributable to this agency. In the late election in this State, (to go no further back in the history of reconstruction in Texas), we were treated to the spectacle of a military District Commander, compelled by his position to entrust the execution of his orders, in many instances, to subordinates, whose acts and sympathies were in direct contradiction of those orders. The truth is, that the rebel element has been, from the beginning, encouraged by army officers who shared with them in sentiment and feeling.

These reflections are forcibly suggested by the recent action of the Post Commander at Austin, in relation to the request on the part of the citizens of that town for the Post band to serenade the new Governor. After repeated applications, the following reply was made:

HEAD QUARTERS, POST OF AUSTIN, AUSTIN, Jan. 19th, 1869.

Mr. Schutze—Austin: I feel compelled to decline granting your request, that the Regimental Band, of the 4th Cavalry, may appear in the procession you contemplate organizing on Saturday night.

Yours Respectfully,
C. MAUCK.

Capt. and Bvt. Maj. U. S. A.

Governor Davis, representing the party that controls the nation, and keeps the army on foot, and recently elevated to the office of Governor of one of the States, and more recently appointed to the position of Provisional Governor by military authority, reaches the capital of the State, to enter upon the duties of his position, after the storm of political passion has subsided, and the compliment of giving him a serenade is vetoed by a Post Captain, notwithstanding the fact, that the same band, so we learn, has frequently honored copperhead turn-outs.

The loyal men of Texas have had a narrow escape between a hostile rebel element and also a hostile army.

The army needs reconstructing; the Andy Johnsonites should be dropped from the rolls and men having a proper appreciation of their positions as soldiers of the Republic, be put in their places, men inspired with patriotism and able and willing to discriminate between the friends and the enemies of the Government.

Congress must remember the fatal effect of having an army officered by adherents of James Buchanan. Andy Johnsonites are equally as dangerous. The army needs reconstructing.

The Real Causes.

The real causes of the attack made by the Austin so-called Republican upon the speech made by Mr. Alexander, the Attorney for the United States for this District, at the serenade, given to Governor

Davis are in a word as follows:

Mr. Alexander is known to favor the election of General Reynolds to the U. S. Senate, and, besides, has had the temerity to suggest in open Court, that freedmen should be summoned as jurors in our United States Court.

The Austin so-called Republican after making repeated attacks on General Reynolds, the military Commander of this District, is now attacking the Attorney for the United States for this judicial District.

It is but natural, that after attacking a U. S. military officer it should attack a United States civil officer.

Who are the Sore-heads?

Gen. Davis "soon connected himself with a little coterie of sore-heads and emasculated nondescripts, whose proper place would be a niche in some museum of natural curiosities.—Austin Republican, Dec. 5th 1868.

Who are the "sore-heads and emasculated nondescripts," Long-he!

To what party does Hamilton, Paschal, Pease, Haynes, Bell, Turner and the other "emasculated nondescripts" of the Austin Ring, now belong?

To what "niche" shall the "natural curiosities," including the unscrupulous, astronomical, Long-he be consigned? Reply, Long-he.

DEAD DUCKS.—Andy Johnson once said he had no powder to waste upon J. W. Forney, for he was a "dead duck," and it is now useless to waste powder upon those ignoble prototypes of the traitor Andy—the "Austin Ring." They are dead ducks.

"Big Injun"—dead; stuttering Pease—deader; philosophical Bell, lying Haynes, annotated Paschal, unscrupulous Long-he, and sneaking Turner—very dead. They died hard, however, and even now, Mr. E. M. Pease, Esq., (our Executive, who found the "Ring" hampered by military power), telegraphs to great "P" Paschal, that Davis—radical—had beaten Hamilton—opposition—by only four hundred majority and insinuates that Milam and Navarro counties will, if permitted to vote, elect Hamilton. "Dead ducks" don't kick.

Mr. Washburne is urging his postal telegraph bill. It is very singular that it excites so little interest in Mercantile circles. We believe, that under it the cost of a telegram of ten words between New York and Galveston would no exceed 35 cents.—Flakes Bulletin.

Mercantile circles in the South, like political circles are averse to the inspection of their dispatches by government agents or officers. That is all, Mr. Bulletin.

ELECTION FRAUDS.—After the Austin Republican had so much to say about election frauds in El Paso County, it appears strange, he is so deadly silent on election frauds in Cameron, Falls and Lamar counties, although the facts in these cases are so near at hand at headquarters 5th military District. Stir this matter up, honest Longley, and let us have all about those frauds.

MEXICAN ITEMS.

The rebels of San Louis captured the mail from this frontier, which was on its way to the City of Mexico.

Gen. Carbajal was kidnapped at Cuernavaca. The robbers demand $100,000 ransom.

Several kidnappers were shot at the city of Queretaro on the 9th ult. in accordance with the law of the 13th of April.

The roads from the City of Mexico to Queretaro are now well guarded by the rural police.

The papers from the State of Morelos as usual are filled with accounts of robberies, murders and kidnappings.

A party of Indians was surprised at Gahullana, in the State of Sonora by government troops.

The State of Oaxaca contains 51 silver mines, 26 gold, 27 lead, and 14 iron ones. Four petroleum wells have been discovered.

A pronouncement took place at Pachuca, on the 27th ult., but was soon quelled by the forces of Gen. Kampfer. The leaders of the mob were all killed.

The farmers in the State of Jalisco are abandoning their crops from fear of the numerous bands of robbers, which infest that part of country.

The band under Remigio Parra is committing great depredations in the neighborhoods of Fundacion and Charcas Vedras. Whole herds of cattle are carried off by the band.

The stage from Guadalajara to the City of Mexico was attacked on the 16th ult., half a mile distant from the first named place. The passengers made a desperate resistance and the bandits fled.

The telegraph line between Vera Cruz and Tampico, has been extended as far as Tuxtilla, twenty-eight miles from Tampico.—Brownsville Ranchero.

Immigration.

The Houston Telegraph has the following:

"All Texas is delighted at the large number of immigrants who have poured into the State this season but there is yet room for millions more, and if our Legislature does its duty, we shall have during this year a larger accession to our population than any State in the world. That body should pass a law under which the Bureau of Immigration can be put to work with-out delay. There should be a joint Committee on Immigration raised in both Houses, composed of the most able members, to whom this subject should be committed, for it is eminently worthy of a joint Committee."

Propagating Murder.

One man had a feud with another, whom he finally murdered by shooting him with a pistol. Being suddenly overtaken with a fear of the consequences, the murderer immediately resorted to the expedient of saying that the victim had "seduced his sister" and thus the criminal deed of blood became a virtuous act of revenge. In another case, a man who owed $10,000, which he had promised to pay at a given date, found that he could not pay the note; and in order to make it unnecessary that he ever should pay it, he went to his creditor's house and shot him dead. This would have been a dangerous procedure but for the fact that the murderer immediately saved himself by alleging, under "uncontrollable excitement," the credit or had "seduced his daughter." Instead of his neck being endangered, he now became the object of ferocious admiration. In still another case, a man in a Western State had a quarrel with another, whom he shot through the heart, instantly flying from the place with the exclamation that the wretch had "seduced his wife." This put him beyond any fear of law, and insured him notoriety for the rest of his life. Our readers have already had the opportunity of learning the facts in all these cases. In what other country would such pleas be put forward or tolerated?—New York World.

Nsoso Excess.—A letter to the Baltimore Gazette from Culpepper Court House says: Many negroes are going South from Virginia almost every day. They get from $20 to $30 per month and board. They are hired as laborers, for most part, in Alabama, to work on the railroads and other public improvements, and to Mississippi, Louisiana, and Texas for the cotton fields, etc. The emigration from Virginia must necessarily increase the price of labor to a very great extent, and, unless it can be counteracted by an equal—indeed greater immigration into the State, must have a seriously depressing effect upon the price of lands in the State. A small number will leave this place to-day for Alabama, to work on the railroads. They get $25 per month and board.

A Case Presented to the President.—Recently a colored man, named James Richardson, presented to the President a beautiful case, the history of which is given in an accompanying letter as follows:

"This case was made by the donor with a common penknife from a young cedar tree cut in front of Vicksburg, Miss., about the time of General Pemberton's surrender. The first star of the ferrule was made from a piece of floating battery used by the Confederates in the attack on Fort Sumter in 1861; the centre star from a piece of cedar cut from a stump near to the spot where General Grant stood at the surrender of General Lee, at Appomattox Court-house, Va.; the top star from the ball extracted from the "dead line" at the Andersonville prison Ga. By pulling the tassel a gold pencil will be seen."

At least three hundred immigrants have stopped in Grimes county. They have all found places for cultivation and are busy in preparing for the coming crop. We notice among them a large proportion of girls, future wives for the numerous young batchelors about.—Houston Telegraph.

Local Intelligence.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of welcoming our friend Schlickum, from Cameron county, in our sanctum. Mr. Schlickum is on his way to Austin, to contest the seat of Plato, Representative from Nueces, who is said to be elected by gross frauds.

On our trip to New Orleans, we had the pleasure of making the acquaintance of Judge B. M. Moore, who is travelling in the interest of Thos. B. Bodley, of New Orleans, and who will visit San Antonio in a few days. The house of Thos. B. Bodley is well known in Texas, and his Agricultural Implements are used to a large extent. We hope Judge Moore will find his stay in San Antonio a pleasant one.

THE HERALD.—As it appears that the Herald is not inclined to quit its slanderous attacks on its political opponents, we intend to hold the concern that controls the columns of said paper, up to the public, in all its glory, by republishing the letters of Judge Palmer on Logan, senior, and a communication from Mr. Newcomb concerning the Thompson family. If Logan and Thompson want war, they shall have it. At least we shall let the public know who the men are that continually dare to slander and abuse their betters.

Those of our readers who fail to read the forthcoming story of Marion Hatland, which is to commence next month in the St. Louis Home Journal, will lose the perusal of the greatest story of the age. The proprietors of the Journal are very fortunate in securing the services of so talented an author, and we trust that the public will show their appreciation by subscribing. Single subscription only $2.50 and $1.50 in clubs of twenty. Send for specimen copy.

Self Advertisers.—Phalen's VITALIA or Salvation for the Hair carries with it its own best advertisement. As the light shines through the bottle you see that the liquid is clear as the azure of heaven. You smell it and find the odor agreeable. You apply it and it changes gray hair to any natural shade without soiling the scalp or producing headache. Nothing can be more harmless.

Facts for the Ladies.
My Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine has been in almost daily use. Sabbaths excepted, for over ten years, doing the work, both coarse and fine, for a family which, for seven years, consisted of more than forty persons. During the whole ten years it has needed no repairs of any kind, and its condition is so good now that I would not exchange it for a new machine. So perfect is its running order that it has not required a second needle in over three years.
Mrs. W. A. OBERTON.
Union Point, Ga.

TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION AND SERMON.—The new Secretary of State, Mr. Jas. P. Newcomb, was on Thursday night honored by a torch-light procession and serenade. Although it had rained nearly all day, the tars, never caring for bad weather, marched in closed columns to the residence of Mr. Newcomb, each carrying a torch-light on a long pole. The sermons by Rev. J. M. G. O'Brien, produced some of its finest songs, after which Judge Siemerling delivered a short address to Mr. Newcomb. The latter answered by saying that he considered this honor paid to the Republican party rather than to his person, and gave a short sketch of the policy of the new administration. Three cheers for Gen. Davis were then offered and given with a good will, whereupon the procession marched to the Turner's Hall. A social gathering was afterwards had in the Casino Hall, where several hours passed to the satisfaction of all concerned.

SEPTALINE OIL.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Chas. Elmendorf & Co., who are the sole Agents of Septaline Oil, for the city and surrounding country. This oil is far preferable to the kerosene oil; and compares well with it in regard to expense. In the first place it does not explode; then it contains neither grease nor soot; it does not smoke and consequently it never blackens the chimney; it emits no odor while burning. It has been in constant use since August, 1866, and since that time no injury to life or property has occurred to any of its consumers. As we have tried it ourselves, we challenge the world to produce a purer, cleaner, safer and more brilliant light than that produced by the Septaline oil. Remember it can be had at Elmendorf & Co.

UNHEARD COMPLAINTS.—Under this head the Evening Star complains of a good many things which the Mayor did not accomplish, and of a few he did accomplish. Any man with any sense of justice, will admit that the present city administration has done more for the improvement of our city, than any previous one, without incurring the city with debts. But these Conservative soreheads will not be satisfied with anything short of an installation of Lyons as Mayor.

A fool can ask more questions than wise men can answer; if the Mayor were to at once grant all petitions which the Star and its supporters can possibly lay before the administration, we much doubt whether it would satisfy their appetite for fault finding.

The San Marcos Pioneer bears of a number of immigrants on their way to that fine section of our State. Several worthy families have lately purchased property near San Marcos attracted by the flourishing Institute at that place.

TEXAS ITEMS.

The Indianola Bulletin of the 22d inst. says: The timbers for the Indianola railroad bridge across Chocolate Bayou have arrived, and sent out to the depot for transportation to Chocolate. From the progress that is being made from the laying of the ties and rails, we may expect communication with Victoria about the middle or latter part of March.

The Indianola Bulletin of the 22d inst. learns from Lieut. Quimby, A. Q. M. & C. S., that the Government freights will be received at that port and forwarded to the interior, as formerly, after the 1st day of February next. Messrs. Adams & Wicks have the contract, as previous to its removal to Galveston, of the forwarding of the same to the various points on the frontier.

We learn that the Indians were in Burnet county this week attempting to drive off a number of horses, but were overtaken by a company of residents, when a fight ensued, resulting in the recapture of the horses. No whites hurt and no reds known to be killed. We did not receive the full particulars. White men are reported to have been with the Indians.

We copy the following from the Henderson Times:

On Friday last, in obedience to the sentence of the District Court of Rusk county, pronounced at the last term, Ben Tompson, colored, was executed in this place for the murder of Thos. Melton.

GAVE HIM SOMETHING.—One evening a somewhat unusual scene occurred at the wharf on this side of the East Boston ferry. A gentleman had left his horse and carriage unattended while he went to transact some business, and on his return found a fellow seated in the carriage and just on the point of driving off. "Where are you going with my team?" demanded its owner.

He was answered that the horse was running away. "I just got in to stop it for you; aint you going to give me something?"
"Yes, I am," said the gentleman; and to the great amusement of the lookers-on, he administered to the ingenious youth a severe horse-whipping. Such disinterestedness deserved a reward.

"Them soldiers must be an awful dishonest set," said an old lady, "for not a night goes to pass that some sentry is not relieved of his watch."

What is that which a man does not want, and struggles against having as long as possible, but which, when he once gets it, he would not part with for all the world? A bald head.

PLANTATION BITTERS

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Wherever it is introduced it becomes a standard article—a medicinal staple. It is to-day the best and purest tonic, and the most popular medicine in the civilized world—be sure and get the genuine. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Country Stores.

Testimonials.
The Waters' Pianos are known as among the very best.—N. Y. Evangelist.
We can speak of the merits of the Waters' Pianos from personal knowledge as being of the very best quality.—Christian Intelligencer.
The Waters' Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material.—
Advocate and Journal.
Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store
the very best assortment of Pianos, Melodeons and Organs to be found in the United States.—Cincinnati Magazine.
Merrill: Dunbar.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has served his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons.
He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs.
Many people of the present day, who see a piano, if not confused with the flaming advertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith, were even thought of;
indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianos located now in our residence (where it has stood for years), of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this,
some of the best amateur players in the city,
as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument.
Stronger endorsement we could not give.—
