GOLD is steadily declining. The last quotation from New York is 118.

OUR telegraphic dispatches are very meager. - There seems to hap pen nothing of any interest in the world.

THE La Grange Democrat has ceased to appear. The presses and types belonging to this establish ment, are on route for Austin where they will be used to print a truly Democratic paper.

SENATE's disability bill has been passed by the house, amended by other lists of names. It now goes back to the Senate and will undoubfedly be acted upon at ouce. This bill will relieve several thousand citizens of their disability.

WE learn from our Austin exchanges that Gov. Davis has left Austin for his home, and will remain absent for three weeks. On his return way he will pass through San Antonio, when his many friends will have an opportunity to welcome him.

Tur Austin Republican has ceased to publish Morgan C. Hamilton's opinion of Davis and his position, which it kept a standing article in its editorial column, until it was manifest that M. C. Hamilton was to be the United States Senator. Whether it has answered the purpose it was published for in the Republican we are at a loss to find out.

THIS is the way the Austin Republican speaks of a supper given in Austin, in support of a church:

We fearn that several articles of table ware, loaned for the "Supper" last Thursday night, are missing; among them a valuable silver cake basket, which the ladies are very anxious to return to the owner but do not wish to send for. THE laborers association is to have an exhibition of flowers, fruits and vegeta-bles next May. We are glad somebody has taken this in hand. May is the time when our gardens abound in flowers and greens of all kinds, and when a gardner can proudly exhibit the products of his and nature's labor. The exhibition will take place in the Laborers Hall, and we predict a general participation and a gay time. Amateures of flowers have ample time to prepare for the feast and put the flower pots in good order.
