Bailey County Sheriff Dee Clements said Monday that he had called the Roswell pathologist late last week, who performed the autopsy on the body of Bruce Little. The pathologist said no results would be known for at least two more weeks.

Little was found dead in his car parked near the VFW on Friday night, March 4. Precinct One Peace Justice, K.B. Martin, ordered the autopsy to learn the cause of death of the 29-year old local farmer.

Mrs. Corda Taylor of Muleshoe has returned home after spending three months in California with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Osborne in Milpedis.

Mrs. Taylor also spent time in Cloverdale, Calif., with Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Somers and Jennifer, her great-granddaughter. While in Cloverdale, she attended the Citrus Fruit Fair and observed the floats in the Citrus Fruit Parade.

Lee's Western

Wear Store Will Open

Construction got underway yesterday on Lee's Western Wear, which will be located at 1910 West American Blvd. Featured in the new store will be basic western clothing and tack. Lee Dunbar, who is opening the new store, said he will be carrying well-known brands, and will offer personal service and competitive pricing of all merchandise. Featured will be boots, hats, jeans, shirts, belts, down-filled coats and other items for our locale.

A&M Construction of Clovis, will be constructing the 60 x 40 foot metal building which will incorporate 2400 square feet into a display area, with a rustic western decor, office and storage space. The building will be fully carpeted and at this time, tentative opening date will be Monday, June 27.

A resident of Muleshoe since June 30, 1960, Dunbar has spent more than 22 years with Swift and Co., the time since 1960 at King Feed Lot as resident feedlot manager. However, he was notified that Swift and Co. was shutting down operations on May 31. He is leaving April 1. His wife, Ella, is secretary at Richland Hills Primary School.

"I have checked many western stores in both large cities and small towns, and have determined that a western store would serve our area very well," commented Dunbar. He said he has spent quite some time working out the details on the new building, and looks forward to opening the store.

DINNER THEATRE SCHEDULED . . . A dramatic comedy is scheduled Saturday night for the area when the drama department at Muleshoe High School presents their annual dinner theatre. Here is a scene from "A Servant of Two Masters". The dinner will be at 7 p.m. followed by the play at 8:30 p.m.

Team Championship Won By Muleshoe

Muleshoe's varsity track team continues to boost the school name, as they bring home trophies from track events. Last weekend was no exception. The Mules brought home the team championship with 178 points. They had competed in the Hereford Sports Festival last Saturday. Friona was in second place with 166 points.

Coach Gary Goodin said this is the first team title for the Muleshoe Mules in several years. "All members of the team competed with enthusiasm," he commented. "All the coaches are real proud of the whole team."

On Saturday, March 26, the Mules' varsity team will compete in Plainview. On Friday, March 25, the Muleshoe Junior High School boys track team will host a meet in Muleshoe. Field events will start at 12 noon; followed by running events at 1 p.m. and finals in running events at 3 p.m.

Jimmy Ybarra was individual high scorer in the Hereford meet with 30 points and is presently in second place in the long jump standings in the district. He was first at Hereford with a distance of 20 feet.

He was first in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.6 and a member of the first place 440-relay team and the first place mile relay team with a time of 3:38.0. Man Critical From Weekend Gun Wounds

A late Saturday night shooting southeast of Muleshoe near the Lamb County line left a man in very 'critical' condition with two gunshot wounds. In Methodist Hospital in Lubbock is Marvin Sandoval, 20, who recently moved to this county from Anton Chico, N.M.

Charged with aggravated assault with a deadly weapon was Antonio Camarillo, 44, who was released from jail following his arraignment Monday. Camarillo was released on a $2,000 bond after appearing for arraignment before Justice of the Peace K.B. Martin.

Two companions of Sandoval said they, along with Sandoval, had gone to Camarillo's home Saturday night for a small party. Early Sunday morning, an argument broke out between Sandoval and another man, not said to be Camarillo. The shooting followed.

It was reported that Camarillo gave Bailey County Sheriff Dee Clements a statement following the shooting. He had been arrested at his home by Sheriff Clements after the shooting.

Sandoval was reported to have first been taken by private vehicle to the hospital in Amherst, but the door was locked. They were not aware of a button or buzzer to summon nurses to the door. They went on to Littlefield Hospital where Sandoval received initial treatment before being transferred to Lubbock. Bailey County officers were notified by Littlefield officers of the shooting around 5 a.m. Sunday.

While still investigating the first shooting, the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center dispatcher was called and told there was a bloody man lying at the edge of the highway east of Muleshoe toward Plainview. The man who called said the man was lying next to the highway three and a half miles out on Highway 70, and had been shot. However, a search, not only on Highway 70 to nearby Earth, but highways in all directions from Muleshoe failed to produce a second shooting victim. Officers determined that the second call was a hoax call, and discounted a second shooting.

Officers were very busy over

Harvey Addition; Other Streets Added

Well before time for a paving hearing to start Tuesday night, parking spaces around the city hall in Muleshoe were at a premium. Chairs in the meeting quickly filled and an overflow crowd waited to hear the verdict on various requests.

Starting off the meeting, Mayor Ken Henry explained the procedures of an assessment paving program. He said that an assessment program is where property owners pay their proportionate share of the paving cost.

He commented that residents of the Country Club Addition had petitioned the city council to pave their addition and that the city would be responsible for the payment of intersections and adjacent to any city-owned property.

In outlining the proposed program, he used four maps for emphasis. On the basic plan, Houston street east of Muleshoe would be paved to where it runs into Ithaca; Hickory Street would be paved between Gary and Joliet; Gum Street would be paved from Houston to Joliet

Farm To Market 3269 Extension Beginning Soon

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation expected to receive combined bids for two highway projects in Bailey and Castro Counties at the March 23-24 letting.

Work will include grading, structures, base and surfacing on Farm to Market Road 1524 in Castro County and FM 3269 in Bailey County.

Work on FM3269 will extend from US Highway 70 three miles east of Muleshoe, southward to US 84, for a distance of three miles. The Castro County project will extend from State Highway 86 to a point 10 miles west of Dimmitt, southward to the present terminus of FM-1524, a distance of 7.1 miles.

In Bailey County, an existing graded county road will be improved to a farm-to-market type facility with 20-foot wide two-course asphalt surface and 22-foot five-inch flexible base.

Rhea E. Bradley of Littlefield will be the department's engineer in charge of work, while Lubbock District Engineer George C. Wall will provide overall project supervision.

and Fir would be paved from Birch to Joliet. This project would cost an estimated $126,000, for 36 foot streets.

Option A would include all the basic plan, plus paving from Gary Street to East Birch, and would include strip paving (no curb and gutter) along the Little League Park area on Hickory. Estimated cost would be $153,000.

With option B, East Kola would be added, and the East Hickory project along the Little League Park would not be paved. East Kola runs off East Chicago to the Country Club entrance. This project would cost $175,000.

If option C was approved, it would include both East Kola and East Hickory along with Little League Park and would cost approximately $202,000.

He also explained that although the city council had applied for a HUD block grant to pave other sections of Muleshoe, the federal funds were turned down. Several residents of the Harvey Addition also requested that their streets be paved, and asked to be included in the paving project under the assessment program. Likewise, several residents from the southeast portion of Muleshoe have asked that their area be included in the assessment program.

TAMU Swine Shortcourse For Plainview

The second annual Texas A&M University swine shortcourse for High Plains producers has been set for Wednesday, April 6, 1977, in Plainview, at the Hale County Agricultural Center.

Dr. Gilbert R. Hollis, area swine specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Lubbock, says the one-day shortcourse will deal with various areas of swine production ranging from diseases and nutrition to equipment and buildings.

A $5 registration fee will be charged to help defray expenses, says Hollis. Participants will receive a copy of the day's proceedings.

"Last year, attendance was surprisingly large," Hollis adds, "and we have no doubt but that this year's shortcourse will also attract a large number of hog producers and industry representatives."

Paving...

Mayor Henry asked for a straw vote from the crowd on what portion of the Country Club Addition they would like to have included in the project. A few hands were raised on the plan to pave the basic plan and option A; more than half the crowd indicated they would like to see option B, which goes by the Little League Park included in the paving and little interest was denoted by the group in the entire plan which would include the street (Kola) which goes to the entrance of the Country Club.

Bill McMorries, city engineer, also explained the process necessary to acquire bids for paving, and said the city council first has to determine where the interest lies, and a cost estimate must be made to determine the city's approximate cost before presenting a bond election to the city. Several additional hearings will be necessary, he said, before a bond election can be called to ask for voters to approve the city paying their share of the paving.

He added that if the process starts now, a paving program could conceivably be concluded by the end of the summer.

It is estimated that the paving will cost approximately $670 for a 60 foot front lot, including paving, curb and gutter.

Following the paving hearing, the crowd dispersed, and the city council conducted a regular city council meeting. Most of the time was in discussion of the 1977-78 budget. City Manager Marr explained that he was in the process of attempting to cut the budget, and had slashed it nearly as far as he felt he could and still maintain necessary services to the city.

He said final figures will be presented as soon as figures can be balanced. The city council was unanimous in agreeing that although some cuts in the budget were feasible, the budget could not be cut 'thin' enough to hurt in years to come.

Also discussed was the summer sealcoating for existing paved streets, as council members attempted to decide the most practical way to handle the every-increasing costs of maintaining city streets.

Salaries and sick leave policies were also discussed by the council, with City Manager Marr instructed by the council to attempt to keep the salary schedule as 'competitive' as possible to maintain good employees, but not be in the highest pay brackets. To be revised will be the city's sick leave policy.

Also discussed were several upcoming meetings. Several council members indicated they would attend at least one of the meetings.

TEC Warns Laborers Of Shortage

The Labor Department has informed the local Texas Employment Commission office that the recent severe cold weather in Florida and the central states has retarded the crop season this year. Some entire crops will be lost this year, such as peaches in Southern Illinois.

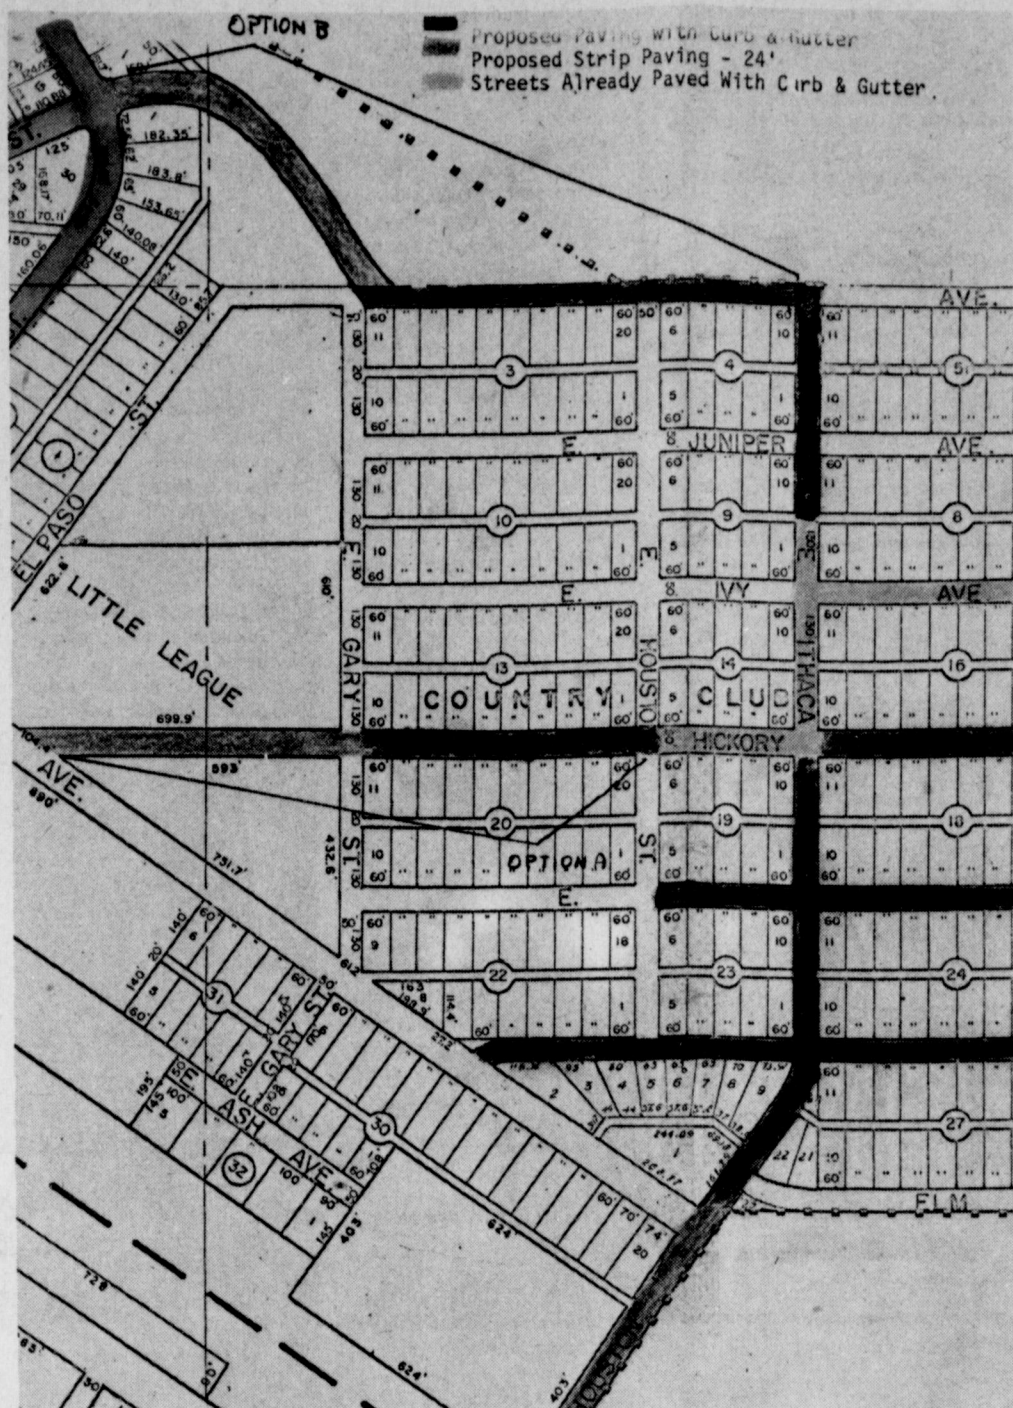

Lonnie Merriott, TEC Manager in Muleshoe, reports that migrant farmworkers should be alert to these conditions. Workers should not leave home for these areas unless they are assured of a job. Workers who have been assured of a job should confirm arrival dates with the employer before they depart from home.

County 4-H To Participate In Camping

Bailey County 4-H'ers will have an opportunity to participate in a summer camping program at the Texas 4-H Center at Brownwood, announces Spencer Tanksley, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The camping program provides an opportunity for youth to meet new friends, learn new skills and have a great time, he said. Among the many activities are fishing, archery, gymnastics, hiking, swimming, crafts, music, folk games and outdoor sports.

MS Read-A-Thon Underway

The MS Read-A-Thon being conducted in Muleshoe schools this spring will include approximately 400 participants in grades three, four and five. Xi Omicron Xi sorority is the director of the MS Read-A-Thon for the South Plains Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

The MS Read-A-Thon program, originated and developed by the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, is specifically designed to stimulate an interest in reading books among children in the elementary schools. It operates like walk-a-thons and bike-a-thons, with sponsors pledging so much for each book the child reads. The important difference with MS Read-A-Thons, however, is that, instead of just generating sore muscles and blisters, the MS Read-A-Thon gives youngsters an important incentive to read books for their own enjoyment -- an interest which, in many cases, lasts long after the project is completed.

All contributions by sponsors to the MS Read-A-Thon are forwarded directly to the local chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society to help in the fight against MS, and to aid research in finding the cause and cure of this crippling disease. A major health problem, multiple sclerosis is a disease of the central nervous system, which, with closely related disorders, afflicts an estimated 500,000 Americans. It usually strikes persons between the ages of 20 and 40, and is called the "mysteriouscripper of young adults."

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is the only nationwide voluntary health agency supporting worldwide research into its cause and cure.

Lambs Named SPARC Directors

Bailey County, along with all 14 rural counties of Planning Region II will soon have a plan to aid those who suffer from alcohol abuse, according to Joe B. Phillips, President of the Board of Directors of the South Plains Alcoholism Regional Council.

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Lamb have been named directors from SPARC from Bailey County, said Phillips.

SPARC, as the new regional organization is called, has in mind to aid in creating County Alcoholism Councils with local people heading alcoholism prevention, referral, youth program committees, and a committee on emergency care where the alcohol abuser may be helped in his or her own community, explained Phillips.

According to the Texas Commission on Alcoholism and the National Institute on Alcoholism and Alcohol Abuse (NIAAA), the nation's third largest killer disease, alcoholism, is on the rise in this county, according to figures released recently, added Phillips.

"We in SPARC feel that local people in each county should do what they think is best for the alcoholics and alcohol abusers in their own communities. SPARC stands as a friend with a staff of people dedicated to combat alcoholism. It will not be our intention or purpose to tell any county how to take care of its own alcoholism problems, but we hope that we can help counties organize councils where local people can have an active part in planning the type of local programs needed to help the young, the female, the male, the old, the rich and the poor who abuse alcohol," he continued.

"SPARC will have 15 board of district members and five officers," he added. "Each county will be represented in the SPAG (South Plains Association of Governments) Region. The regional council will have a part in helping local people, especially school people, county law enforcement agencies, churches, AA groups, and will coordinate with all area agencies that are trying to work with the suffering alcohol abuser."

The South Plains Alcoholism Regional Council, made up of local people, has a current counseling grant from the Texas Commission on Alcoholism. The staff of SPARC will be assigned to each county that creates a party council, said Phillips.

The next board of directors meeting of the South Plains Alcoholism Regional Council will be held at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 31, in the Smithtown Church of Christ building, located on the Tahoka Highway in Lubbock.

Gifford-Hill's 360.

Good to the last drop.

Whether first or last, that little drop of water is more important than you think.

Gifford-Hill came up with a fine, mist-like drop that penetrates the soil quickly.

In fact, the 360's entire sprinkler spacing and water pattern concept was computer designed to provide efficient distribution and a smaller drop that could virtually eliminate compaction, puddling and runoff.

But all that wasn't enough. They went ahead and built in more automation, more control and more plain old durability than you can find in any other system.

All things considered, Gifford-Hill's 360 Pivot Sprinkler System is the most sophisticated system available today.

Local Man Graduates From School

Sam Damron, a member of the Texas Board of Pharmacy, was a recent graduate from National Association of Boards of Pharmacy Drug Law Officers School, held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Damron, appointed to the board in 1974, was one of 40 select pharmacy regulators who participated in a program designed to offer educational reinforcement in consumer protection, law and administrative procedures for state officials on whom the public depends for intrastate governance over pharmaceutical supply and distribution.

The school was directed by Dr. Sidney H. Willig, a professor of drug and regulatory law at Temple University in Philadelphia. Dr. Willig, in his eleventh year as director of NABP's continuing legal education program, was assisted by Dr. Joseph E. McEvila, Dean of Temple's Law School, and representatives of the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Food and Drug Administration.

NABP's Drug Law Officers School is a continuous and intense course of instruction by Willig designed under a grant from the National Pharmaceutical Council, Inc. The four-day Philadelphia "Maxischool" is the major annual course for drug law officers. A series of one-day "Minischools" are also held throughout the year around the nation by Dr. Willig and NABP Counsel John F. Atkinson.

The Lazbuddie United Methodist Church will have a revival March 27 thru April 1. Services will be held at 7:30 P.M. Sunday night thru Friday night and breakfast and morning services at 7 A.M.

Rev. James Putnam, past of Bovina United Methodist Church will be preaching and Mr. and Mrs. Don Bell of Muleshoe will lead the singing and present special music.

There will be group prayer in the educational building 30 minutes before each evening service.

Time will cure all scars and wounds—if there's time.

It was announced that the final study will be the viewing of the film, "The Last Grave at Dinsbar" on April 13, 1:30 in the Chapel of the Methodist Church, Muleshoe.

Attending the meeting were visitors: Mrs. Axtell of Earth and Mrs. Jewell Anderson of Lubbock. Members attending were: Mrs. Frank Ellis, Mrs. Gordon Murrah, Mrs. J.A. Lifestyles May Spell Tooth Ails

People may be doomed to lives of tooth trouble if current patterns continue. Western society is switching from eating regular meals to increased snacking. Manufacturers are adding increasing amounts of sugar to more and more products to add flavor and bulk. These two trends mean increased cavities, one of the world's most costly and uncontrolled diseases, the Texas Medical Association monthly journal reports.

The February issue of Texas Medicine says frequency of exposure to sugar in food and foods (like caramels) that stick to teeth are big factors in tooth decay, a disease that is largely preventable. Putting fluoride on teeth, either by drinking fluoridated water, brushing with fluoride toothpastes or applying the chemical in dentists' offices, is a good way to help prevent decay. Avoiding extremely sweet foods also will help prevent cavities.

The article does not say to totally avoid sweets but recommends limiting them. Another article in the same issue stresses that excessive exposure to milk, tea, fruit juice and sweet liquids in baby bottles can be very harmful. Children can develop serious tooth decay if they are given bottles during sleep times, for long periods during the day or beyond the normal weaning time of 10-12 months of age. The article says normal feeding will not harm children's teeth as long as the sugar content is not excessive.

Methodist Women Continue Study On South Africa

United Methodist Women of the First Methodist Church, Muleshoe, continued their study on South Africa when they met Tuesday Morning in the Parlor of the Church.

Leading the study were women from the Methodist Women of Earth, Mrs. Norman Sulser and Mrs. Ed Dawson. In the study, "signs of hope" in Mozambique and Angola were looked at. Felimo, the liberation front is achieving independence for these countries. These new nations were become forces for freedom in the rest of South Africa.

It was announced that the final study will be the viewing of the film, "The Last Grave at Dinsbar" on April 13, 1:30 in the Chapel of the Methodist Church, Muleshoe.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,

When my children were small I stayed at home and took very good care of them although I had held a very good job before I was married. I am glad I did that as the girls are in college now and we are very proud of them.

My problem is this. Money has gotten scarce because of inflation and I decided to take a part time job. My husband seemed to think it was a good idea at the time but, here of late, he seems to resent my working outside of the home. Heavens knows I worked much harder in the home when the children were small.

He is always making remarks before others about how important I feel about my job and downgrading what I do.

Why do you think he is acting like this?
Puzzled—Va.

Answer:

Your husband was born in an era when the man was judged by his ability to provide for his family and when the wife was supposed to confine her duties to the home.

Standards of living and attitudes as to marital relationships have changed a great deal since World War II. Marriage is considered a partnership between a man and woman, now-a-days, and there is no reason for your husband resenting the fact that you are bearing some of the household expenses. I think you did the right thing to stay with the children when they were small but there is no reason why you shouldn't work now if you both need the money.

Louisa.

Bail Measure Amendment By Senate

Senator Jack Ogg (D-Houston) today announced the passage of Senate Joint Resolution Three, an amendment to the Texas Constitution which would allow judges to deny bail to repeat offenders. "At the present time, a person can repeatedly break the law and still be released on bail to go out and commit further offenses against the public. This bill would allow judges, under certain circumstances, the right to keep a person in jail when he finds substantial evidence that a person is guilty, provided certain Constitutional safeguards are met. This bill will go a long way in reducing the crime rate, especially for burglary and theft. Too many people, after committing crimes, have gone out and committed burglary to raise the cost of a bail bond or to feed a drug habit. This will end that merry-go-round and put repeat, habitual criminals in jail," Senator Ogg said.

If the resolution is successful in the House of Representatives, it will be put to a vote of the people in the 1978 general election. If adopted by the electorate, the provision would amend Article One, Section 11a of the Texas Constitution.

"I am convinced that the people of Texas will strongly support this measure, since it does provide safeguards to prevent persons from being arbitrarily or unjustly held in jail. It provides that a person must have his bail denied within seven days of his first arrest or he has an absolute right to bail. Furthermore, a denial of bail can only be effective for 60 days: If a person does not come to trail within that time, he must be released. Finally, an order denying bail must be given top priority if it is appealed," the Houston Senator concluded.

From The Pastors Desk by Rev David Evetts

THE ADVENTURE OF MARRIAGE: Matthew 19:1-12. One of the greatest problems we face in our Modern Society today is constituted by the most Sacred Institution we know; I'm talking about the Institution of Marriage. This was not a problem in the beginning - and it does not have to be a problem today. Not everyone is married - but marriage affects the Life of every person we know in one way or another. The Home and Family-Life are tremendously important to all of us: Both as individuals and to the world in which we live. And whether we recognize it or not - we owe certain duties and responsibilities to it. I believe that an understanding of what Real Marriage is like - is perhaps the most needed counsel we could receive today.

FIRST OF ALL: LET'S ASSUME THAT MARRIAGE IS A GAMBLE: But let's not jump to conclusions now. Don't misunderstand or get the wrong impression about what the preacher is saying. Seriously, I think we will all have to agree that there is a certain element of risk involved in marriage, call it by any name you will. Take for example - here are two people of different sex - whom God designed with different natures - yet they take a Solemn Vow to live in the most intimate of relationships until death do them part. When you view this undertaking from a pure physical and material point of view - you must agree that a certain risk is involved. But marriage does not have to be - nor did God ever mean it to be - as blind a gamble as so many people have made it today. A movie actor said recently that many a man has fallen in love with a girl in a light so dim that he would not dare try to select a suit of clothes by it. When the Institution of Marriage is considered - each partner should recognize that he or she will have to give up some things of value. The young woman loses her name - her independence - and possibly the opportunity for further study and the making of her own money. The young man forfeits certain freedoms of movement - privacy - and the ability to give his entire attention to his business. For this reason Paul the Apostle said that he could not take a wife because it would divide his attention to the Lord and His Kingdom. Both partners take the risk of involving themselves in much suffering. And many times they are more unhappy after marriage than they were before. Real suffering comes to a home by the death of a companion. Sometimes it comes in the form of serious illness - or the death of Life itself. This is true when life seems no longer worth living. Infidelity on the part of a partner brings with it real suffering - and living trouble comes when a companion goes to pieces. I have witnessed many times heart-ache and real trouble because of an unsuitable marriage where proper caution and spiritual insight was not considered in the very beginning.

WE MIGHT ALSO ASSUME THAT MARRIAGE IS RISKING EVERYTHING WE KNOW TO

BE WORTHWHILE: Marriage is not a mere contract in which we may risk a little in order to gain a little. But marriage is a commitment in which two people of different worlds vow to give themselves to each other. This sort of arrangement can involve only two people. For no person can give himself or herself to more than one and find real happiness. You may perhaps disagree with what I am about to say - but I sincerely believe that a happy marriage is possible only between equals. I do not believe that a person can give himself or herself to another person whom he or she believes to be inferior. In the Sacred Bonds of Matrimony - two people are so united that they become one flesh: Therefore Faithfulness and Fidelity are reasonable and logical consequences. And the only means of making this arrangement permanent is to make the two become one.

CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE IS NOT BASED ON A GAMBLE OR ON CHANCE - BUT ON THE BASIS OF FAITH: In Genesis 1:27-31 God says that He created man and woman for one another. And the text says that "... what therefore God has joined together let no man put asunder." Thus we learn that Christian marriage constitutes an act of worship. When you stood before the marriage altar - you made certain vows to each other. But you also made these vows to God. And when you pledged to one another certain duties and obligations - you also pledged yourselves to God. Christian marriage then involves the Christian community. And it cannot be successful without Divine Help and guidance.

IC AND LONG TERM ACHIEVEMENT: The love that a man holds in his heart for a woman - and the love that a woman holds in her heart for a man is the most thrilling experience that the world has ever known from a pure human level. But the wedding day regardless of its greatness is not the High point of any marriage. Only after trouble comes - and problems - and disappointments - and only after these have been solved together with God - can real happiness and the real joy of marriage be realized. I suppose we will all agree that marriage is constituted upon the basis of certain successive stages: there is physical attraction - then partnership - but then the devotion of living for one another makes marriage real and abiding. No true husband and father would save his own life if it meant the death of his family. Every marriage is unique - and a new masterpiece in the world.

WTCC Opposing New Refinery Tax

In a letter to the 56 members of the Texas Legislature representing portions of West Texas, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce has expressed its opposition to H.B. 1200 that proposes a tax Texas refineries at five percent of the value of the crude oil and distillate processed.

Texas has 45 refineries located in 27 counties. The refineries employ 36,900 workers with total wages of about $613 million a year. Secondary related jobs, such as petrochemicals, retailing, banking, etc. would run into the hundreds of thousands. All of these jobs would be in immediate jeopardy if the refinery tax were imposed. Refining in Texas ranks as the second largest manufacturing industry in Texas. Largest is the chemical industry which exists in Texas because refining is the source of its principal feedstock. W.H. Collins of Midland, WTCC president, says that "this tax cannot be 'passed on' as sponsors glibly claim. Nor can it be absorbed by Texas refineries. It would immediately penalize all Texas refineries with a five percent price handicap with out-of-state competition. Texas does not have a monopoly on refining. In fact, 74 percent of U.S. refining is done in other states."

"Competition would probably force Texas refineries to move or to divert their refining operations to other states that do not have a refinery tax in order to meet national and world competition. Profit margins are now in the fraction of a cent range and certainly provide no margin for absorption of such a tax.

"Too many West Texans have worked too hard and too long to create more and better job and profit opportunities in West Texas to allow the Texas Legislature to torpedo future industrial development, job and profit opportunities and present refinery jobs and related jobs."

C.L. Cooke of Fort Worth, chairman of the WTCC's State Affairs Committee, says that "the imposition of the refining tax would immediately bring to a halt projects creating new and better jobs and profit opportunities bring to a halt projects creating new and better jobs and profit opportunities for almost all Texans. Ultimately, Texas refineries would probably be forced to move their operations to other states or shut them down."

"This bill would set a very devastating precedent of a manufacturer's tax, which isn't used in other states, if it were extended to all Texas manufacturers."
