 "Come, hurry there! Mind waste no time,
 For it don't matter, you know
 So you get her under the ground And covered—a foot or so!"
 "Careful! Nonsense, and why careful,
 Or tender and foolish, pray?
 She's a safer bed than last night,
 And then all the preachers say—
 Never a sparrow drops,
 Never a leaf let fall,
 Never a dust to dust,
 But God hath noticed all!"

"But I fling the lie in their cursed teeth,
 And the dupes who hear them whine!
 For what power hath noticed my prayers,
 Or what small token or sign,
 Said, all's well when my poor, poor child, Forgetting, with weary feet,
 Bought the foolish trade of the town,
 And sold her soul on the street!
 And all is black to me!"
 I sneer when preachers bawl,
 Nor heart nor soul gone mad,
 But God hath noticed all!"

"Beautiful! Yes, yes—all so!" High brow Which golden curls pushed away?
 Not a single semblance of sin!
 What pure blue eyes, did you say!
 Far away over the drift of years,
 Over the agony brought me,
 Such a one—but younger and pure—
 Made a heaven of my knee!"
 Finkle those pattering feet, While memory's voices call Unto his broken heart,
 And God is over all!"

"Ready!" For heaven's sake don't jest!
 Lower her careful I say!
 Wait till I go for a chaplain, There's no harm, at least to pray!
 "Pure blue eyes," golden curls, you said!
 Let down the lantern; there; so Poor thing! she'll sleep sound enough—Great heaven! my Mary—I know!"
 Heavily, under the stars,
 The clouds fall over two,
 Waiting the Judgement Day!
 And "Peace be unto you!"
 Never a sparrow drops,
 Never a leaf let fall,
 Never a dust to dust,
 But God "hath noticed all!"

An Old Album And Its Contents.
 The Portland Press says a lady of that city has in her possession an old album, filled with curious memorabilia of the time of ANDREW JACKSON. One of the contributors to this album was JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, who wrote in a trembling hand two complimentary stanzas, dated 1834.
 JUSTIN BURGESS contributes some elegant verses in the volume. The historian PRESCOTT expresses his indebtedness "to the fair owner of this little book" in a sufficiently legible hand, considering the state of his eyesight. J. C. CALHOUN expresses his best wishes for the health and happiness of Mrs. — in a sprawling hand that one does not anticipate and can hardly believe when he sees it. Then comes "Faithfully yours, CHARLES DICK-ENS," with that superfluity of flourish which seems so amazing to everybody who never saw his watch-chain and his waistcoat. This autograph was written at Washington, in 1833, at the time of the novelist's first visit to America. EDWARD EVERETT's signature and the quotation from Hamlet under which it appears are written in characters as clear and elegant, as clean and fastidious as the writer's finally chemical and classic face.
 But in most striking and ludicrous contrast with this there appears on the very next leaf the gem of the book, as follows:
 "WASHINGTON, 18th June, 1834.
 "Mrs. — of Main requests the hunter from the west—to write his name in her Album."
 "Her curiosity shall be gratified by a sentiment wishing her health and happiness and a safe arrival at her residence with her family and friends."
 "DAVID CROCKETT."

An engineer on the Pacific Railroad tells the following story of himself:
 One night while the train stopped to water and wood, I observed two green looking countrymen, in "humbug" inspecting the locomotive, and occasionally giving vent to expressions of astonishment. Finally one of them looked up at me, and said:
 "Stranger, are this a locomotive?"
 "Certainly. Didn't you ever see one before?"
 "No, I never saw one afore. Me'n Bill come down to the station to-night purpose to see one. Them's the biler, ain't it?"
 "Yes, certainly."
 "What yer call that your'n?"
 "We call this a cab."
 "And this big wheel?"
 "That's the driving wheel."
 "That big thing on top is the chimney, I suppose?"
 "Precisely."
 "Is you the engineer what runs the machine?"
 "I am the engineer."
 "Bill," said the fellow to his mate, after eyeing me closely for a few minutes, "It don't take much of a man to engineer, do it?"
 "All aboard!"

Gail Hamilton don't believe that women were made for toil, either in doors or out.
 Of household servants she says:
 "There are thousands of female cooks, and the largest majority of them are bunglers. There are not a great many male cooks, but what there are are good.
 I believe there are few who will not confess that a man servant at the table, at the door, at the cooking, and the sweeping is not only in better style, but is a more efficient member of the household staff. You are more sure that the work will be promptly, thoroughly, and quietly done with a man at the fore than a woman."

The famous Pantheon of Paris has escaped serious injury, although the dome and outer walls bear marks of the bombardment.

The French departments not occupied by the Germans are ravaged by bands of frayed tirours, who are pillaging travelers and houses.

LETTERS FROM COLONEL J. L. HAYNES.
HE REVIEWS A PLANK IN THE DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM—HE STANDS BY THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The following letter was written for publication in the Austin Republican, and was sent to Maj.
 Longley for that purpose, but that paper having suspended, it affords us peculiar pleasure in admitting it to our columns:

LA JOYA, HIDALGO Co., Tex.
 February 12, 1871.

DEAR MAJOR:—The newspapers received by the last mail contain the platform adopted by the Democratic Convention at Austin. This platform proposes "to restore the government to the principles upon which it was founded." If declares that the Constitution was formed by the States. It re-asserts the extreme dogma of State rights by an unauthorized interpolation on article ten, of the constitution; declares that the regulation of suffrage and elections belongs to the respective States; and, finally, it graciously accepts the abolition of slavery "as a result of the war." This platform is but a re-echo of those adopted at Waco and Houston before the war, which announced the right of peaceable secession, and if it means anything, it means continued resistance to all the principles really established "as a result of the war," as it carefully, although covertly, denies the validity of the constitutional amendments adopted during and since the close of the war.

My views upon the fundamental principles of our government are too well known to the readers of the Republican for me to again assert them. I am an American citizen, and will never consent that my rights, privileges and immunities as a citizen of the United States, shall ever be subject to the local whim or caprice of any State government or municipal corporation, nor will I ever consent that the rights, privileges and immunities of any other citizen shall be controlled by any local law; hence I cannot support any platform or any party which denies the validity and binding force of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments; for the moment I admit the right of the local law to deal with the rights of any citizen of the nation, white or black, that moment I admit the power of the local government to deal with my rights and those of every citizen of the nation whose interests or necessities bring him within the operation of the laws of any of the respective States.

As soon as I return to Austin I shall address a circular letter to the members of the committee appointed by the August Convention of 1868, who have not formally withdrawn therefrom, in which I shall suggest that we waive all discussion of right with the committee represented by Mr. Tracy, and request that gentleman to issue his call for any convention of the Republican party that may be hereafter held, in such terms as to include all Republicans who support the principles of the national Republican party. This will leave every Republican in the State free to follow the dictates of his own judgment as to the party which he may feel it his duty to support.

As for myself, I have determined to withdraw from all political controversy and discussion. During the late canvass in this State a large body of the Democracy gave me a generous support for Congress and it might seem ungrateful in me to wage war upon their organization; but I cannot sacrifice those principles of government to sustain which I took up arms during this late war to retain the good will of those who supported me. And, on the other hand, during that canvass, the opo-sition between myself and many of the Republican leaders degenerated into a personal and bitter controversy, which would probably prevent any cordial co-operation between us in the future. I have felt keenly many of the unjust and un-generous charges against me, but as I tried to keep up my corner, many of them doubtless are urging their wrath against me.
 Besides, I have business engagements which will occupy me for some time to come, and this duty and interest unite in deciding my future course.
 In parting from the patrons of the Republican, my heart is filled with emotions of gratitude at their confidence and encouragement during my editorial connection with your journal, but I must bid them a grateful farewell. Hoping that you may receive that support to which you are entitled by your energy and perseverance, I remain, as ever, your friend and companion in arms,

 J. L. HAYNES.

Broom Corn Seed for Feeding.

At a recent meeting of the farmer's Club of the American Institute, a communication was read from H.
 C. Toose, Hagerstown, Md., asking what would broom corn seed be worth for grinding and feeding cattle, with corn at 90 cents, oats 45 cents, and rye 80 cents per bushel.
 Mr. Reade said: "Unquestionably, the best way to dispose of broom corn seed is to feed it to cows. The next best mode is to give it to sheep; they are fond of it, and fatten upon it nearly as fast as on Indian corn.
 Ground with corn, rye, oats or barley it is profusely fed to cattle, and when mixed with wheat bran it is good for milk cows.
 The Shakers frequently feed it to horses, and at the season of the year when this grain is not only abundant but at hand, they use it exclusively. My judgment is that with corn at 90 cents, oats 45 cents and rye 80 cents, for grinding and feeding to cattle, broom corn seed is worth between fifty and sixty cents a bushel, although it would be more valuable to dispose of it in some other way."

A lady was passing along a street the other day, when she was met by a young man full of bad whisky, who in staggering past stepped on her dress. Turning to the lady he remarked apologetically, "Hoops take up too much room." To which the lady quietly replied, "Not so much as whisky, sir," and passed on.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. This hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

The New York Tribune.

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of manifold agonies, inconveniences, deprivations, the American Idea embodied in the principle of our national Declaration of Independence approaches its complete realization. The noble, inspiring assertion that "all men are created equal, and endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," is no longer a glittering generality, a poet's fancy, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized base of our political fabric. The benign Revolution, which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical completion, just one century later, in the XVIIth Amendment, which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the Federal Constitution. The billows of Costs and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may transiently seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction and Slavery are hurled against and dash their spray over it in vain.

We do not underrate the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We do not forget that a very large minority of the American People still hold in their inmost hearts that Blacks have no rights which Whites are bound to respect. We fully appreciate the desperation wherewith all the warring elements of hatred to Republican achievement will be combined and hurled against the battlements of Republican ascendancy in the Presidential Election of 1872. We do not doubt that local successes, facilitated by Republican funds and dismissions, will inspire the charging host with a sanguine hope of victory, such as never existed in the darkest days of the earlier stages of the contest of 1854 and 1856. Yet our faith is clear and strong that the American People still bless God that, on the red battle fields of our late Civil War, the Union was upheld and Slavery destroyed, and will never consciously decide that the precious blood thereon poured out was lavished in vain.

THE TRIBUNE believes in the prosecution of the great struggle by legitimate means to beneficent ends. To State Sovereignty, it opposes indissoluble National Integrity; to Slavery for Blacks, Liberty for All; to Proscription, Emancipation; to Popular Ignorance, Universal Education; to intemperance and intemperance of will, it would fain do its utmost to hasten the glad day when the South shall vibrate with the North in exultation and gratitude over the disappearance of the last trace or taint of that spirit which impelled Man to exile in the ownership and chattelhood of his fellow Man.

Profundly do we realize that the contest is not yet ended—that Millions mourn, more or less publicly, the downfall of the slaveholders' Confederacy, and rear their children to hate those by whose valor and constancy its overthrow was achieved. If we ever seem to differ essentially from other Republicans, our conviction that magnanimity is never politic, and that devils are not cast out by Beelzebub, must serve to explain alleged eccentricities whose perfect vindication we leave to Time and Reflection.

THE TRIBUNE has been, is, and must be, a zealous advocate of Protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human progress, the bane of human happiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of Speculation, of Traffic, and of various overcrowded Professions, to the tranquil paths of Productive Industry. We would gladly deplore our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in misguided quest of "Something to Do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies absorbed in Agriculture, Mechanics and Manufacture, add constantly projecting into the blank, void wilderness the homes and the works of civilized Man. Holding the Protection of Home Industry by discriminating duties on imported Wares and Fabrics essential to the rapid beneficent diffusion of Production in all its phases and departments, and so to the instruction of our people in all the gainful arts of Peace, we urge our countrymen to adhere to and uphold that policy, in unshaking faith that the true interest, not of a class or a section and every useful class, is thereby observed and promoted.

THE TRIBUNE aims to be preeminently a Newspaper. Its correspondents traverse every State, are present on every important battle-field, are early advised of every notable Cabinet decision, observe the proceedings of Congress, of Legislatures, and of Conventions, and report to us by telegraph all that seems of general interest. We have paid for one day's momentous advice from Europe by Cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advice reached our readers. If lavish outlay, unsleeping vigilance, and unbounded faith in the liberality and discernment of the reading public, will enable us to make a journal which has no superior in the accuracy, variety, and freshness of its contents, THE TRIBUNE shall be such a journal.

To Agriculture and the subservient arts, we have devoted, and shall persistently devote, more means and space than any of our rivals. We aim to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE such a paper as no farmer can afford to do without, however widely his politics may differ from ours. Our reports of the Cattle, Horses, Produce, and General Markets, are so full and accurate, our essays in elucidation of the farmer's calling, and our regular reports of the Farmers' Club and kindred gatherings, are so interesting, that the poorest farmer will find therein a mine of suggestion and counsel, of which he cannot remain ignorant without positive and serious loss. We sell THE WEEKLY to Clubs for less than its value in dwellings for waste-paper, and, though its subscription is already very large, we believe that a Half Million more farmers will take it whenever it shall be commended to their attention. We ask our friends everywhere to aid us in so commending it.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.
 For all the purposes of a laxative medicine.

Perhaps no one is so generally benefited by every body as a cathartic, nor was ever any better medicine so generally used in every country, and for every ailment, as Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The reason is, that it is more reliable and far more effective than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that it cures their own ailments. It does always—that it never fails through any fault or defect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of testimonials of its reliable efficacy, and the following complaints, but such cases are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, it contains neither opium nor any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate into healthy action the organs of digestion of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their regular action to health, and by correcting, when ever they exist, such disorders as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Flatulency, Nausea, Langnor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore it to healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Humors, Sick Headache, Jaundice, Swelling of the Liver, Dropsy, etc., they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Hemorrhoids, Gout, Gravel, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be judiciously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For suppurations a large quantity should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

A Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to produce a healthy action of the bowels.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is generally resorted to when any morbid condition exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Incurable cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system is generally saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in each great number in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is often of the most destructive character to our race. Often, this unclean and unfeeling tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, great ulcerations, or other marks of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Ringworm, Itch, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Elix, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long-continued use of this medicine will cure a complete cure. Leucorrhoea or Whites, Chlorine Discharges, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute directions for its use are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of excrementitious matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Sciatica, PARIOLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and listless, Dependent, Sleepless, and troubled with Headaches, Nervousness, or Pains, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

advices to go to Florida in Winter.

Moving from the East thirty years ago, I devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, and I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a thoroughly bad case of consumptive lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose is winter in Florida, where the temperature is regular and not subjected to such variations as in more Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point of sea-levelment. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicine, were getting well.

One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, the temperature is more even and the air drier and bracing, Merriamville and Martinez are located there. I should give a decided preference to Merriamville. It is two miles from river to lake, and it is almost impossible to take cold there. The ladies in Florida might be better and patients complain at times but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Union City, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frosts or cold winds certain to die shortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a rapid liver, a disordered stomach, a cough, or are threatened with consumption.

For those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern place is recommended. I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence, my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Scawed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly all are using Scheenck's Medicine, especially Scheenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption especially of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one third, at least, of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about scarlet fever, small pox, &c. But they are not. They take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope for cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected even slightly is, to lay in a stock of Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Scawed Tonic, and Scheenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is to give my three medicines, in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a fruit the Mandrake Pills necessary. My object is to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and the excitement of that relish, some good blood, and with it more flesh, which is necessary for the healing of the lungs. Then the cough lessens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy nights cease, the hunger increases and finally, and the patient gets well, provided he perseveres in taking cold.

Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point, by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room, by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record that Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake pills and Scawed Tonic, have cured vast many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on liver better than castor oil, and hence none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and glaucous substances, a dose of the Mandrake will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of Mandrake and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 13 N. SIXTH Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer determines the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions. In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not likely to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs, or with a sudden change of atmosphere, should take any quantity of greater or less medicinal the bronchial tubes. Full directions in all languages, accompanied by my medicine, are supplied, and after this any one can use them without consulting me, and need be troubled from any druggist.

The great field trials at Sedalia, Mo., and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1869—where "The Clipper" met some 40 competitors including all the leading machines built, and was awarded the First Premium and Gold Medal—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain in the field their claims of superiority for the Clipper Machine over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft takes one-third of the labor of the team. The adjustability of the finger-bar, to cut high or low without stopping the team, is worth $25 on any machine. It is the only mower that has the true center draft in accordance with correct mechanical principles. In short, it is the lightest, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most symmetrical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers use CLIPPERS is the Horse's Friend, and you cannot afford to ignore their welfare. Send for pamphlet—investigate. See or write to some one who has used the CLIPPER. See the Machine yourself—before you buy any other.

WONDERFUL RAPIDITY.
Perfectly Regular and Even Distribution of the Seed. CAHoon's Broadest Seeder. For Sowing all Kinds of Grain and Grass Seed.
This unprecedented success of this Seeder the past season is without a parallel in the history of Agricultural Implements. The farmers of the Country have no longer got to wait in the hurry of seeding time for the imperfect process of Hand Sowing, nor for the "Blow Coaches" called "Combined Seeders."
A Hand Cahoon's Seeder will sow as fast as five, and a Power Cahoon's Seeder as fast as twelve of them, and the work will be done better than it can be done by any means whatever.
Farmers save your money and your time. Look to your own interests and not to the pockets of interested dealers and manufacturers.
