would be here in a few days, with all the mules stolen from the quartermasters; but instead of coming in, nearly all the chiefs, with their young men, went into Texas...

The head of the Indian Bureau, General Parker, thus frankly and truthfully presents the case of the robber hords who have, since the war, scourged with blood our whole frontier.

Against the Kiowas and Comanches there is just cause of serious complaint, and I think that severe punishment should be meted out to them for the crimes they have committed in the face of their solemn treaty obligations...

Now that the government officials speak of these robberies in such unmeasured terms of denunciation, we hope that the closed ears at Washington authorities will be opened to our appeals...

Marguerite.

MANCHESTER, N.H., 1870.

The robins sang in the orchard, the buds into blossoms grew; Little of human sorrow the buds and the robins knew!

Sick, in an alien household, the poor French neutral lay, Into her lonesome garret fell the light of the April day.

Through the dusty window curtained by the spider's web and wool, On the loose-laid floor of hemlock, on oaken ribs of roof.

The bed-quilt faded patch-work, the tea-cups on the stand, The wheel with flaxen tangle as it dropped from her sick hand!

What to her was the song of the robin, or warm morning light, As she lay in the trance of the dying, heedless of sound or sight!

Done was the work of her hands, she had eaten her bitter bread; The world of the alien people lay behind her dim and dead.

But her soul went back to its child-time; she saw the sun overhead With gold the Basin of Minas and set over Gaspereau.

The low, bare flats at ebb-tide, the rush of the sea-at flood Through inlet and creek and river, from dike to upland wood;

The gulls in the red of morning, the fish-haw's rise and fall, The drift of the fog in moonshine over the dark coast wall.

She saw the face of her mother, she heard the song she sang, And far off, faintly, slowly, the bell for vesper rang.

By her bed the bare-faced mistress sat smoothing the wrinkled sheet, Peering into the face so helpless, and feeling the ice-cold feet.

With a vague response atoning for her greed and long abuse, By care no longer heeded; and pity too late for use.

Up the stairs of the garret softly the son of the mistress stepped, Leaned over the head-board, covering his face with his hands, and wept.

Outspake the mother who watched him, sharply, with brow a frown, "What! love you the papist, the beggar, the charge of the town?"

"Be she papist or beggar, who lives here, I know and God knows, I love her, and fain would go with her wherever she goes!"

"O mother, that sweet face came-pleading, for love so at home; You saw but the town-charge; I knew her God's angel at first."

Shaking her gray head, the mistress flushed down a bitter cry, And, awed by the silence and shadow of death drawing nigh.

She murmured a psalm of the Bible, but closer the young girl pressed, With the last of her life in her fingers, the cross to her breast.

The human family is so numerous that a death occur every moment. Every second a child is born; every second one dies...

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of multiform agonies, benevolences, devastations, the American idea embodied in the preamble of our fathers Declaration of Independence approaches its complete realization.

Do not moderate the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We do not forget that a very large minority of the American People still hold in their inmost hearts that Blacks have no rights which Whites are bound to respect.

THE TRIBUNE believes in the production of the great struggle by legitimate means to beneficent ends. To State Sovereignty, it opposes indissoluble National Integrity; to Slavery for Blacks, Liberty for All; to Proscription, Enfranchisement; to Popular Ignorance, Universal Education.

To Agriculture and the subordinate arts, we have devoted, and shall persistently devote, more management space than any of our rivals.

Herring, Farrel & Sherman, our Agents at Richmond, Va., have just informed us that they have just received from the late fire, the contents of the safe—$23,500 in bills, never received. It was a Herring safe, and a good one, certainly. Yours, truly, I. C. BARCOCK, Treasurer.

Messrs. Herring, Farrel & Sherman, New York Agents: The two Safes of your manufacture, which we had in use on the morning of the 24th inst., at the disastrous fire which destroyed the Spotswood Hotel and adjoining block of buildings, have given full satisfaction, and served to prevent the destruction of some $23,500 in currency, besides the valuable papers and books enclosed therein. It was impossible for workmen to penetrate the safe until nearly 24 hours after the fire. Respectfully, J. F. GIBSON, Asst. Sup't for Adams & Southern Ex. Co., Richmond, Va., Dec. 29th, 1870.

DR. SCHEENCK'S CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a person who has had cases of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose in winter, is Florida, well down to the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subjected to such variations as in more Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well. One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing. Merionville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Merionville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal. Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to do so. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will be felt those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a cure southern is certainly recommended. For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence, my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Scudder's Tonic and Mandrake Pills, and yet do if he does not avoid taking cold. In Florida, nearly all are using Scheenck's Medicine, especially Scheenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption especially of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one third, at least, of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about scarlet fever, small pox, &c. But they are not. They take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope for cure. My advice to persons whose lungs are affected even slightly is, to take a stock of Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Scheenck's Scudder's Tonic, and Scheenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action, I know that where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long. My plan is to give my patients, medicines, according with the printed directions, except in some cases where a fever, the Mandrake Pills necessary. My object is to give tone to the stomach, to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and the gratification of that relish, come good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs. Then the cough lessens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold. Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question here to be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point, by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record that Scheenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills and Scudder's Tonic, have cured very many of what is termed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use. So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and diarrhoea ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of Mandrakes and they will relieve you in ten hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them, they are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only. I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 N. SIXTH Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my business depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions. In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes. Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist. J. H. SCHEENCK, M. D. No. 15 N. SIXTH Street, Philadelphia. 1-11-70tdy.
