Section 14. That before any public or private sale, under order of any court, shall be had, due notice of such sale...

Section 15. That a person who shall be established before any court of competent jurisdiction, that the provisions of section 14, of this act, have not been complied with...

A Connecticut toll-gate keeper recently received twenty cents from a man, who said that thirty years ago he with two other boys got through the gate on false pretences...

A good old lady in Maine, who once commissioned her grocer to buy for her, among other things, a nutmeg in Boston, paid him the money before he started...

A FEW weeks ago a dentist arrived in Warren, Va., and advertised that he would "remove all of a person's teeth for $2, and insert a new set for $10, besides giving six months credit..."

A Paris correspondent writes: "The actors have been prominent in the ranks of the National Guard. The well-known comedian, Lassouche, who, from the time he has been before the world, cannot be a boy, was in the affair of Montreuil, and a net is attributed to him..."

Quill and his wife had a bit of contention the other day. "I own that you have more brilliancy than I," said the woman; "but I have the better judgement..."

If we had a voice as powerful as that of the great orator of one of our district courts, we should address the planters of the South, and cry out, "plant corn."

THE Louisiana State Library, which once contained about 60,000 volumes, now has only 15,000. The others have been either lost or stolen.

A HARTFORD sign reads thus: "Our entire stock at less than cost. No humbug." The exclamation point was in the wrong place this time.

WESTERN journal has an article on "the care of idiots." A contemporary says that paper is always dragging family affairs before the public.

OFFICIAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Third Session of the Forty-First Congress.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 34.]

AN ACT to amend an act approved May thirty-one, eighteen hundred and seventy, entitled "An act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of this Union, and for other purposes."

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That whoever, with or without any authority, power, or process, or pretended authority, or municipal authority, shall obstruct, hinder, assault, or by violence, solicitation, or otherwise interfere with or prevent the supervisors of election, or either of them, or the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, in the performance of any duty required of them, or either of them, or which he or they, or either of them, may be authorized to perform by any law of the United States, whether in the execution of process or otherwise, or shall by any of the means before mentioned hinder or prevent the free attendance and presence at such place of registration or at such polls of election, or fail and free excess and excess to and from such place of registration or poll of election, or in going to and from any such place of registration or poll of election, or to and from any term, where any such registration or election or canvass of votes, or of making any returns or certificates thereof, may be had, or shall molest, interfere with, remove, or eject from any such place of registration or poll of election, or of canvassing votes cast thereat, or of making returns or certificates thereof, any supervisor of election, the marshal, or his general or special deputies, or either of them, or shall refuse, or attempt, or offer so to do, or shall neglect to aid and assist any supervisor of election, or the marshal, or his general or special deputies, or either of them, in the performance of his or their duties when required by him or them, or either of them, to give such aid and assistance, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to instant arrest without process, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not more than two years, or by fine not more than three thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall pay the costs of the prosecution.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That whoever shall be appointed a supervisor of election or a special deputy marshal under the provisions of this act, and shall take the oath of office as such supervisor of election or such special deputy marshal, who shall thereafter neglect or refuse, without good and lawful excuse, to perform and discharge fully the duties, obligations, and requirements of such office until the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, shall not only be subject to removal from office with loss of all pay or emoluments, but shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year, or by fine not less than two hundred dollars, and not exceeding five hundred dollars, and shall pay the costs of prosecution.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the marshal, or his general deputies, or such special deputies as shall be thereto specially empowered by him, in writing, and under his hand and seal, whenever he or his said general deputies or his special deputies, or either of any of them, shall be forcibly resisted in executing their duties under this act, or the act hereby amended, or shall, by violence, threats or menace, be prevented from executing such duties, or from arresting any person or persons who shall commit any offense for which said marshal or his general or special deputies are authorized to make such arrest, and each of them is hereby empowered to summon and call to his or their aid the bystanders or posse comitatus of his district.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each of the circuit courts of the United States in and for each judicial circuit, upon the recommendation in writing of the judge thereof, to name and appoint, on or before the first day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-one, and thereafter as vacancies may from any cause arise, from among the circuit court commissioners in and for each judicial district in each of said judicial circuits, one of such officers, who shall be known for the duties required of him under this act as the chief supervisor of elections of the judicial district in and for which he shall be a commissioner, and shall, so long as faithful and capable, discharge the duties in this act imposed, and whose duty it shall be to prepare and furnish all necessary books, forms, blanks, and instructions for the use and direction of the supervisors of election in the several cities and towns in their respective districts; to receive the applications of all parties for appointment to such positions; and upon the opening, as contemplated in this act, of the circuit court for the judicial circuit, in which the commissioner so designated shall act, to present such applications to the judge thereof, and furnish information to said judge in respect to the appointment by the said court of such supervisors of election; to require of the supervisors of election, where necessary, lists of the persons who may register and vote, or either, in their respective election districts or voting precincts, and to cause the names of those upon any such list whose right to register or vote shall be honestly doubted to be verified by proper inquiry and examination at the examination at the respective places by them assigned as their residences; and to receive, preserve, and file all oaths of office of supervisors of election, and of all special deputy marshals appointed under the provisions of this act, and all certificates, returns, reports, and records of every kind and nature contemplated or made requisite under and by the provisions of this act, save where otherwise herein specially directed. And it is hereby made the duty of all United States and marshals and commissioners who shall in any judicial district perform any duties under the provisions of this act, or the act hereby amended, relating to, concerning, or affecting the election of Representatives or delegates in the Congress of the United States, to, from time to time, and with all due diligence, forward to the chief supervisor in and for their judicial district all complaints, examinations, and records pertaining thereto, and all oaths of office by them administered to any supervisor of election or special deputy marshal; in order that the same may be properly preserved and filed. Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed and paid to each chief supervisor, for his services, as such officer, the following compensation, apart from and in excess of all fees allowed by law for the performance of any duty as circuit commissioner: For filling and caring for every return, report, record, document, or other paper required to be filed by him under any of the provisions of this act, ten cents; for affixing a seal to any paper, record, report, or instrument, twenty cents; for entering and indexing the records of his office, fifteen cents per folio; and for arranging and transmitting to Congress, as provided for in section seven of this act, any report, statement, record, return, or examination, for each folio, fifteen cents; and for any copy thereof, or of any paper on file, a like sum. And there shall be allowed and paid to each and every special deputy marshal who shall be appointed and shall perform his duty under the provisions of this act, compensation at the rate of five dollars per day for each and every day he shall have actually been on duty, not exceeding ten days. And the fees of the said chief supervisors shall be paid at the Treasury of the United States, such accounts to be made out, verified, examined, and certified, in the case of accounts of commissioners, save that the examination or certificate required may be made by either the circuit or district judge.

"Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the nervous system, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,

CHAS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

26 Pine Street, New York, Nov. 21, 1867.—Udolphe Wolfe, Esq., Present: Dear Sir, I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps" with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

Chemical and Technical Laboratory, 19 Exchange Place, New York, Nov. 25, 1867.—Udolphe Wolfe, Esq., Dear Sir: The undersigned have carefully and thoroughly analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities. Respectfully yours, Ayer's Hair Vigor.

For Restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth.

Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed.

But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous.

Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness.

Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

The New York Tribune.

Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of millions of lives, the American people have achieved the noble and inspiring realization of their Declaration of Independence.

The noble and inspiring realization of their Declaration of Independence, which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the Federal Constitution.

The billows of Caste and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may, transiently, seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction and Slavery are hurled against and dash their spray over it in vain.

We do not underrate the forces of Progress and Liberty. We do not forget the brave and heroic struggle of the American People still held in their inmost hearts.

Yet our faith is clear and strong that the American People still hold that the Union was upheld and Slavery destroyed, and will never consciously decide that the precious blood then poured out was lavished in vain.

THE TRIBUNE believes in the prosecution of the great struggle by legitimate means to beneficent ends.

It is not for Slavery, for Slavery is a crime against God and Man, Liberty for All; for Prescription, Entrenchment; for Popular Ignorance, Universal Education; for Intemperance and Eternity of Wretchedness, Universal Good Will.

It would fain do its utmost to hasten the glad day when the South shall live with the North in exultation and gratitude over the disappearance of the last trace or taint of that spirit which impelled Man to exult in the ownership and chattelhood of his fellow-man.

Professors do we realize that the contest is not yet ended—that Millions mourn, more or less publicly, the doom of all the slaveholders' Confederacy, and rear their children to hate those by whose valor and constancy its overthrow was achieved.

If we ever seek to differ essentially from other Republicans, our conviction that magnanimity is never weakness, that vengeance is never politic, and that devils are not cast out by force, must serve to explain alleged eccentricities whose perfect vindication we leave to Time and History.

THE TRIBUNE has been, and must be, a zealous advocate of Protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human progress, the base of human happiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of Speculation, of Traffic, and of always overrewarded Professions, to the tranquil paths of Productive Industry.

We would gladly deplete our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in unalloyed angst of "something to do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies of virtuous, industrious, and self-reliant men, who, by their own efforts, can support themselves and their families.

THE TRIBUNE aims to be practically a Newspaper. Its correspondents traverse every State, and present on every important battle-field, an early advised of every notable Cabinet decision, observe the proceedings of Congress, of Legislatures, and of Conventions, and report to us by telegraph all that seems of general interest.

We have paid for one day's momentous advices from Europe by Cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advices reached our readers.

If we wish to do our duty to our readers, and to our country, we must have the most accurate and reliable information, and the most complete and comprehensive news.

THE TRIBUNE is published every day, except on Sundays and public holidays.

Austin, March 10th, 1871.

Our Senate and Immigration.

Our State Senate presents the very cheerful aspect of ease, indolence, and a peculiar state of indifference to the lapse of time that would be refreshing to the people it represents, if their services were voluntary services, and not paid for at the rate of eight dollars per day, per man. But inasmuch as thousands of dollars are being drawn as per diem of the members, the people justly murmur at the very small returns made in the shape of needed legislation.

If there is one subject more than another, where the people feel the neglect of their interests, it is on the question of immigration. Eagerly, day after day, the columns of the State Journal are perused, in hopes of finding that at last that important subject has been taken hold of, and a show made that the Senatorial inert mass is about to be moved to action, but it is all patient waiting and no promise or hopes held out.

Now as a Republican Journal, representing its best interests, and peculiarly sensitive to the popular feeling in this matter, we call for an innovation upon the easy-going customs of our State Senate. The House of Representatives have drifted out of the apathy that for the first two weeks hang over them, but their action in a majority of instances, remains unsupported by the Senate, and so we may term all efforts at legislation, for the present, futile.

The Senate of our State has a working majority of Republicans, and as such we invite to their notice the clause in the State Republican platform of 1868:

Resolved: That the Republican party of Texas earnestly desires the encouragement of internal improvements and Immigration, and will as a party, press the adoption of measures having those ends in view.

We deem this a party pledge that should receive due weight, and find Republicans ready to carry it out to the letter.

Moreover, Texas is supposed to be emerging out of the shadowy forms of the past, wherein every other State in the Union was fifty years in advance of her, in progress and in completion of systems for internal improvement, and this fact alone should weigh with the Senate, and set the machinery to work, to at least give us a base, upon which an effective system of immigration encouragement can be founded.

Two years more will find railroads traversing the richest portions of our State, but whose riches, whose latent resources if undevoted by labor will avail us nothing. It will be left for other men of other States to reap much of the advantage which we as a people can realize, if the assembling created and supported by the people will do its duty faithfully, as desired both by party and people. We know of no obstacles in the way of preparing, and at once, an effective immigration system. The State is supposed to already have a Superintendent of such a Bureau, and so confident are we of his understanding of the subject that we suggest his being called before a Senatorial committee to give his views as to what is the proper move in the case.

By all means make some show of action. Answer the people and the party in some other way than this dumb show. Shake off the apathy and indolence that seems fostered upon your legislature, and by meeting the wants and necessities of the hour, fulfil your obligations to the people, prove your fealty to party principles, and make sound political capital for the next election. We know the mental ability is not lacking in your midst, but the dulness and inertia which have gradually crept into your assembly have grown so weighty that only action, vigorous action as ever, will throw them off and place you right before the eyes of the people of the State.

Republican Management.

We desire to impress upon the minds of all good citizens irrespective of party, the necessity of stimulating all those local impulses of improvement that during the last twelve months have manifested themselves in our city, and are fast urging our community forward to its proper place of honor amid our sister cities of the Union. Already the eyes of the West, of every Louisiana and of Chicago, are turned this way and a race for the first line of railroads to strike our section is being vigorously prosecuted.

Out of the ashes of subversion and misgovernment, wherein corruption and carelessness robbed our city of all her improvements and all enterprise save that of a mercenary passion, our historic little city has sprung Phoenix-like, and with men of ability, financial strength and of integrity, San Antonio has fairly sprung upon the notice of the Great West, and today our eyes are turned with respect to the men from the various counties of business, some looking after their own interests, some looking after the interests of the community, and some looking after the interests of the State.

Our country might have been a great one had the same administration of the Lynch stamp been allowed to hold the reins of municipal government, and would today have been a city of the first rank, and a great and powerful State would have been the result of the same administration.

It may astonish some of our readers to know that more buildings of value, and more improvements in city property have been made in the last two years than in any ten previous ones.

Now we claim and we think justly, that all this improved state of things has sprung from Republican management. We know that few administrations could have been selected that would have done more for the city than this.

Our Republican friends have kept the city neat, and its streets, bridges, ditches &c. in good repair, and yet paid off an overhanging debt of nearly thirty thousand dollars. Two active principles of success accomplished this, Honesty and careful Economy.

A few short weeks since, the case of the city of San Antonio versus certain parties holding railroad bonds and coupons of the city, for considerations never received and obligations never fulfilled, was called in Supreme Court. Already the District Court, under the narrow mind and technical rulings of a previous Judge, had decided the case against the city, and thus foisted upon the people, contrary to all justice, a debt of fifty thousand dollars, and interest to nearly the same amount.

The judgment of the District Court was reversed. The Supreme bench held that the principles of justice, rather than legal technicalities and quibbles and thus a second time a Republican administration saved the city from a debt of one hundred thousand dollars.

Mark the other side though. The case of San Antonio was opposed by counsel obtained from outside the class leaders of the Democracy, who thought this to be a fine opportunity to test the Republican community interests, to their individual gain; for it was well known that a considerable loss of the railroad suit was to be two-thirds of the money realized, in the hands of the lawyers, or a portion of them, practicing in and around San Antonio. We know that lawyers are often called upon to defend bad cases, and a lawyer's office is as employed; but in this case, the entire matter was a prearrangement whereby the suit and industry of our working classes was to be drained, to the extent of nearly a hundred thousand dollars, for the benefit of a few lawyers, for the San Antonio bar is one of doubtful reputation.

We narrate all these facts, of the savings of the Republican party to our city, in no partisan light. We place them on file that everybody may read. They are facts that cannot be dodged, that even the most inveterate of falsifiers cannot gainsay without overbearing testimony against him.

We commend them to our people for study. To those who build, to those who labor, to those who make an honest living. They are pertinent; they strike every man where the blow is felt, his pocket. Many a hard-earned dollar has been saved to you by Republican management.

TO THE N. O. OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF San Antonio Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F. BROTHERS.

Your special committee, charged with drafting suitable resolutions expressive of the sense of the Lodge in regard to the loss which our beloved Order has sustained in the death of our beloved brother, Past Grand Wm. A. Menger, beg leave to submit the following for the consideration of the Lodge:

Whereas, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to remove from our midst our well beloved brother, Past Grand W. A. Menger, and although brother Menger did in May, 1869, withdraw from this, his parent Lodge, for the purpose of, uniting with other worthy brethren in the establishment of another Lodge of our beloved Order, working in the German language, his native tongue, in due appreciation of the great loss to the Order in the death of our departed brother;

Be it resolved by San Antonio Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F. That the loss sustained by our beloved Order in the removal from among us of our much beloved brother, Past Grand Wm. A. Menger, has created a void which will not soon be filled.

Resolved, That this Lodge deeply sympathizes with Schiller Lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F., in the loss of one of her brightest members.

Resolved, That the sympathies of this Lodge are hereby tendered to the sorrowing widow and the fatherless children of our departed brother, W. A. Menger.

Resolved, In appreciation of the great worth of our departed brother, and the great esteem in which our late brother, Past Grand Wm. A. Menger, was held by the members of this Lodge, that the members of San Antonio Lodge No. 11, I. O. O. F., wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that the Lodge room be also draped in mourning for the same length of time.

Resolved, That true copies of these resolutions, under the seal of the Lodge, and signed by the officers of this Lodge, be furnished to the widow of our deceased brother, and also to Schiller Lodge No. 104, I. O. O. F., of which Lodge our departed brother was last a member.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and that the city papers friendly to our Order are requested to publish the same.

THE LOCAL PRESS.

Many a good thing has been said in behalf of the local press, but nothing so palpably true and correct as the following from the New York Tribune:

Nothing is more common than to hear people talk of what they pay for advertising, etc., as so much given to charity. Newspapers, by enhancing the value of property in their neighborhood, and giving the localities in which they are published, a reputation abroad, benefit all such, particularly if they are merchants or real estate owners, thrice the amount weekly of the meagre sum they pay for their support. Besides, every public spirited citizen has a laudable pride in having a paper of which he is not ashamed even though he should pick it up in New York or Washington. A good looking, thriving sheet helps property, gives a character to locality, and is in many respects a public convenience. If from any cause the matter in the local or editorial columns should not be up to your standard, do not cast it aside and pronounce it good for nothing, until satisfied there has been no more labor bestowed upon it than is paid for. If you want a good, readable sheet, it must be supported. And it must not be supported in a feeling of charity either, but because you feel it a necessity to support it. The local press is the power that moves the people.

AN INGENUOUS YANKEE.

At the time when American statesmen are investigating the merits and demerits of the Canadian fishery question, and with good cause demanding a reformation thereof, at least one ingenious Yankee is engaged in reaping a golden harvest out of the complications. He has turned up in Ontario, and is at present engaged in a scheme which the loyal Canadians bitterly denounce, but cannot very well do away with. Having engaged over two hundred Simon pure citizens of the Dominion, he has set them to work catching trout in the Ontario waters, which trout he ships with great profit to the markets in the United States. The people of the region are furious in the premises, but as they cannot prevent the Canadian fishermen from fishing in the Canadian waters, and as the noble two hundred prefer to work for the American rather than walk about in patriotic idleness, they do not know how to interfere with the shrewd speculator.

As Indiana boy went hunting with a two dollar gun.

The breach pin was dug out of his forehead, and the surgeon's and undertaker's bills made the sport more expensive than if he had used a more costly gun.

"DICK," said a young lawyer to a countryman who was considered more fool than knave, "what would you call the two greatest curiosities in the world?" "Why," replied Dick, "an honest lawyer, and a river on fire."

Once again that "little lamb" comes to the front, led by a rural biographer, who tells that: "Mary's sheep was once a lamb, she found it in a gutter. It did not give milk worth a dime, but it frequently did bite."

Wiggle King William is about to assume the imperial purple, the Emperor Napoleon is weighed down by the imperial "blues."

Be Guided by What you Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and falling turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it for themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its salutary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hand and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada, and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

Agents for the Clipper Mowers and Reapers.

The great field clipper, made in Mo., and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1869, where "The Clipper" met some 20 competitors including all the leading machines built, and was awarded the First Premium and Gold Medal—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain the "fact" their claims of superiority for "The Clipper" machine over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft takes one-third of the labor of the team. The adjustability of the finger-bar, to cut high or low without stopping the team, is worth gold on any machine. It is the only mower that has the true center draft in accordance with correct mechanical principles.

In short, it is the lightest, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most symmetrical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers

"The Clipper" is the "Horse's Friend," and you cannot afford to ignore their welfare. Send for pamphlet—investigate. See or write to some one who has used "The Clipper." See the Machine yourself before you buy any other.

WONDERFUL RAPIDITY.

Perfectly Regular and Even Distribution of the Seed, Caboon's Broadcast

Seeder. For Sowing all Kinds of Grain and Grass Seed.

The unprecedented success of this Seeder the past season is without a parallel in the history of Agricultural Implements. The farmers of the Country have no longer got to wait in the hurry of seeding time for the imperfect process of Hand Sowing, nor for the "Slow Cooker" called "Combined Seeders." A Hand-Cooked Seeder will sow as fast as a "Faster Caboon's" Seeder as fast as twelve of them, and the work will be done better than it can be done by any means whatever.

Farmers save your money and your time.

Look to your own interests and not to the profits of interested dealers and manufacturers.

selor to the married or those about to marry, on the physiological mysteries and revelations of the sexual system, with the latest discoveries in procreation and preventing offspring, preserving the complexion, &c.

This is an interesting work of two hun-dr and twenty four pages, with numerous engravings, and contains valuable information for those who are married or contemplate marriage; still it is a book that ought to be in every household, and not laid carelessly about the house.
