in the premitire our fathers Declara-tion of Independent approaches its com-plete realization. The moble, inspiring assertion that "ill men are created equal," and endowed by their Creator with inalien-able rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, is no longer a glittering gen-erality, a poet's famey, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized base of our political fabric. The bengin Revolution, which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical completion, just one 1770, finds its legical completion, just oue century later, in the XVth Amendment, which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man bern or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the Federal Constitution. The billows of Caste and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may transiently seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction. and Slavery are burled against and dash their spray over it in vain.

The President's Message.

We gave in our issue of yesterday a telegraphic report of the President's message calling attention to the non-security of life and property in some of the States of the Union, and declaring the power in those States to correct those evils as inadequate to the emergency. This plain statement of affairs going forth to the world, would cemingly need no comments, and in fact needs hone, save such as are intended to reach the people of the disaffected regions and rouse within them a better spirit of observance of laws, and the maintaining of peace, where now mob violence and disorler prevails.

The spirit of violence and disorder which was supposed to be neutralized by the reconstruction acts, has been brought into life again by the facit encouragement, afforded that spirit, by the Democracy. Political agitators have nursed the treasonable spark until it has become a flame, and a year more of the same spirit of mob rule in many of the Southern States would leave those States in the condition that nany of them occupied during the war, where a Union man or one not native to the State had no right save the right of being hunted down by a murderous gang, hung, shot or otherwise foully murdered. We have seen this spirit of desperadoisn extended even to the opposing of the holding of courts of Justice. We have seen of ficers of law shot down by a mob while in performance of their sworn duty. Senators and officers elect of disaffected States have had to flee for their lives and ask protection of the United States authorities, the power of the States they represented being neutralized by the fell spirit of mobilaw and sectional hatred. Men have been dragged from their beds and homes, ernelly aten and otherwise outraged, for no other offence than because they were black, and the Democratic party, the serpent of map, go for nought? And here allow me to smothered hate has reared its head and state that—as has been fully demonstrated threatened the welfare of the nation with its venomous fangs.

These charges are grave charges to bring against a people numbered by millions, but not only are we cognizant of them, but men of mild manners, men with yearnings for quiet and National rest, men who lead the respectable portion of the Democratic party, men who are represented through such particular it should be in THIS. Democratic papers as the Courier Journal and its ilk, feel them, see the evils these utrages are working and boldly take stand against them. In a measure their efforts have been futile. The overthrow of Republicanism in Missouri and the States rights policy of that political weather cock Frank Blair, have infused too much arrogance into the Democracy to make them heed words. Until they find that good laws and the proper ends of justice are subserved either quietly or coercively as the occasion demands, they will abate nothing of that mob spirit that now threatens the peace and safety of every Republican south. Until the next political canvass has proven that the masses look with disgust upon" factious opposition to good principles and wholesome measures, biatant agitators, and States rights extremists will not be silent. The spirit of opposition to national unity and advancement has not een knocked out of them; although they failed in their management of armies to resist the subducing influence of preservers of our national safety, they have resolved the struggle into a sort of guerilla warfare. dresa, and also communicate with the undersigned freely, in order to complete a Against such comes the timely myssage of therough organization of this Dustriet. SIR-I have never seen a copy of the new barter, but understand that it contains any very good provisions, and among the most praiseworthy is, that parties about to erect new fences or buildings, shall first make application to the Mayor for a permit. This; if properly enforced, would prevent the erecting of fences and other obstructions, in the streets, and in course of time, would add greatly to the appearance of our city. But how is it in regard to this matter? There is no attention paid to the new city map, and none at all to this provision The same old practice continues to be indulged in-"every man his own surveyor" as can be seen on all sides, by taking a troll around town; and in proof of this, I could call your attention to a fence just erected on South street, between Alamo and Water, eyery stick of which is unques everywhere, since the bold challenging of tionably in the street.
