The following, though levelled at one of our leaders and a man whose abilities command the respect of even his bitterest enemies, we consider too good in point of wit to exclude from our columns:
HE COULDN'T TELL A LIE.

Alf. Burnett, in one of his letters to "The People," of Indianapolis, relates the following anecdote.
 —By the by, a good story is told of Ben. Butler and his notorious bouesty. A short time since, Ben Butler and Wendell Phillips had business with the President, and, arm-in-arm, proceeded to call upon him.
 The President was busy, and sent word that he would see them presently. Phillips and Butler strolled out into the conservatory, in the rear of the White House, thence into the garden. Butler and Phillips were engaged in an animated conversation upon some topic. Butler became slightly excited.
 A large hatchet belonging to the gardener was beside a tree; Butler casually picked it up, and, while talking, he made several deep gashes with it into some of General Grant's favorite trees. Just at this juncture, the President appearing, Butler hastily secreted it under his coat tails.

After the compliments of the day the President spied for the first time his mutilated tree, and, with tones of vehemence, he inquired who had been cutting and gashing that tree?
 After a few moments' pause, Butler stepped bravely up to the President and took him by the hand, saying,
 "Mr. President, I can not tell a lie;
 I cannot tell a lie, Wendell Phillips did it!"

How Much Should a Man of Leisure Know?
 This interesting question is opened by the Saturday Review, which says:
 When education becomes general, many buried truths will come to the surface besides the knowledge of the effects of fire, such as that the historical buildings and monuments of the country possess more than a mere monetary value, and that it is the duty of the class which owns them to preserve them from decay. A little more knowledge, and astounding results might be produced; a knowledge of art might become even fashionable, and statues might convey some impression to the mind besides that of stolid admiration at so hard a substance as marble being capable of so much indentation. The problem now is how to make the best of contented ignorance. The subject is one which is very difficult to deal with.
 The verdict of society depends greatly upon the position of offenders, and no one has ever ventured to fix the degree of intelligence required in a man of leisure, or the standard he must necessarily reach

Pure Brandy.
 The Boston Times says: Our State Agency of analyzed, pure and unadulterated brandy has had its quality illustrated in the western part of this State, as the following little incident will show: Not long since a man walked into one of the stores in a town there, and inquired of the proprietor if he had any more brandy like the last he got there, and was told he had. "Well," continued the customer, who was from a mountain town, "I want to tell you about the last pint you sold me. I went home late at night and hung the bottle up by the fireplace.
 It was a middling cold night, and when I got up in the morning I found the bottle had dropped on the hearth and broken into a thousand pieces; but" continued the mountaineer with animation, "the brandy was all right"—there it hung on that nail frozen solid than thunder!"

A WELL-KNOWN barrister once won a suit, at which the opposite party was so much enraged that he declared that whenever he met his legal adversary he would pitch into him. They encountered each other at an oyster-counter. The gentleman at once addressed him:
 "Mr.—, is there a cause so bad or an individual so infamous that your services cannot be obtained?"
 "I cannot say," replied the barrister, swallowing another oyster; and then, stooping over, he asked, in an undertone that everybody could hear: "What have you been doing?"

GRECIAN WIVES.—In the writings of Xenophon we have a charming picture of a husband who had received into his arms his young wife of fifteen. He speaks to her with extreme kindness, but in the language that would be used to a little child. Her task, he tells her, is to be like a queen bee, dwelling continually at home and superintending the work of the slaves.
 She must distribute to each their task, must economize the family income, and must take especial care that the house is strictly orderly—the shoes, the pots, and the clothes, always in their places. It is also, he tells her, a part of her duty to tend her sick slaves; but here his wife interrupted him, exclaiming, "Nay, but that will indeed be the most agreeable of my offices, if such as I treat with kindness are likely to be grateful, and to love me more than before." With a very tender delicate care to avoid everything resembling a reproach the husband persuades his wife to give up the habits of wearing high-heeled boots, in order to appear tall, and of coloring her face with vermilion and white lead. He promises her that, if she faithfully performs her duties he will himself be the first and most devoted of her slaves. He assured Socrates that, when any domestic dispute arose, he could extricate himself admirably, if he was in the right; but that, whenever he was in the wrong, he found it impossible to convince his wife that it was otherwise.—Appleton's Journal.

DURING the siege of Paris many workmen were forced to part with the only means they had for obtaining the necessaries of life. Late in February there were in pawn at the Mont de Piete 2,000 glovemaker's scissors, 400 sewing machines, quantities of carpenters' and smiths' tools, a large number of mattresses, and musical instruments belonging to the people who formed the orchestra of small theatres, and who were without employment for six months. The total number of articles in pawn was 1,100,000. By far the greater part of these pledges belonged to the laboring classes.
 Formerly there was no limit, and as much as $100,000 has been loaned to a single person on diamonds.
 Of late the limits has been 10,000 francs on a single article, though this was illusory, as ladies desirous of making a secret loan could and did break up diamond necklaces and effect a loan on each stone.
 The restriction to fifty francs necessarily broke up this trade, and the labors of the Mont de Piete have latterly been for the benefit of the poorer classes, many of whom are reduced to abject want.

In the Golden City a gentleman of the name of Jones recounts his experience of juries. He lived in the small town of Bloodland thur-derville, where he saw a man brought in "not guilty" of murder because he had shot the seducer of his wife. This gave him an idea.
 He remembered that in by gone days one Mr. McMichael had horse whipped him with impunity. Thirsting for revenge Jones went off and incontinently shot McMichael; he was brought to trial, and told the jury he once had a wife who loved him until the speller came, and the speller's name was McMichael. Instantly the jury roared "not guilty." Then he shot a man who had pulled his nose in days of yore.
 When the twelve heard him sob,
 "I had a sister once who—" they madly yelled "not guilty." Then he killed a man who had camed him.
 "Ah, gentlemen," said he to the quoddecimvir, "have you mothers in law? I had one once, but this viper, this asp, this cobra di capella this unscoundrel, this base conspirator, the deceased—" "Not guilty," they yelled in chorus. Mr. Jones had another enemy who had covided him. He murdered him also, but by this time all his dissolute relatives had been used up, and he sobbed, "Ah, gentlemen, I had a cat," the jury absurdly refused to render a verdict of "not guilty," and so his lawyer had to get a new trial for him, which he did, and thus cleared him. He is now afraid to do bloody deeds.

TESTIMONIALS.
 From Genie C. Scott's "Report of Fashions." Reading at the fountain-head of American enterprises, and knowing the interests of the laboring masses from many years' experience, we most unhesitatingly pronounce the shuttle-stitch, just invented sewing machine of Grover & Baker, one of the best machines—if not the very best in the world for tailors' use, or for the use of any trade requiring a tight seam in cloth or leather.
 We have used the Grover & Baker Shuttle Machine No. 1, and find it admirably adapted to our business. It runs lighter, makes less noise, and is in every way preferable to the Singer machine for either light or heavy manufacturing.
JOSEPH SCOTT,
 Manufacturer of Clothing,
 125 South 2d Street, St. Louis Mo.

I am the fortunate possessor of one of your new Shuttle Machines, which you designate as No. 1. I have used many different machines in my business during the past eight years, and it gives me great pleasure in asserting that this one is the superior in all points to any that I have ever used. I want no better.
SEBASTIAN BLISE, Boot and Shoe Maker,
 125 South 2d Street, St. Louis Mo.

Having used the different kinds of Sewing Machines in the market, including Leavitt's, Singer's and Howe's, have finally adopted your No. 1 Grover & Baker Machine; and having used it for the past two years, can truthfully say it proves to be the best machine, and superior to any we have used.

Ayer's Hair Vigor
For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.
A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. This hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances, which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

The New York Tribune

1871.
Through struggle and suffering, at the cost of millions of agonies, bereavements, deprivations, the American Idea embodied in the principle of equal rights and equal rights has triumphed. The noble, inspiring assertion that "all men are created equal," and endowed by their Creator with inalienable rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, is no longer a glittering generalization, a poet's fancy, a philosopher's speculation, but the recognized basis of our political fabric. The benign Revolution, which dates from the Boston Massacre of 1770, finds its logical conclusion, just one century later, in the XVII. Amendment, which gives to the equal political and civil rights of every man born or naturalized in our Republic the shield and defense of the Federal Constitution. The billows of Caste and Privilege may roar and rage around that rock, and may transiently seem on the point of washing it away; but its foundations are deep laid and steadfast, and the breakers of Reaction and Slavery are hurled against and dash their spray over it in vain.
We do not undertake the forces of Prejudice and Aristocracy. We do not forget that a very large minority of the American People still hold in their inmost hearts that Black men have no rights which White are bound to respect. We fully appreciate the cooperation wherewith all the warring elements of hatred to Republican achievement will be combined and hurled against the battlements of Republican ascendancy in the Presidential Election of 1872. We do not doubt that local success, facilitated by Republican funds and dissections, will insure the carrying back with a sanguine hope of victory, such as urged it to fight its utmost strength in the earlier stages of the contests of 1864 and 1868. Yet our faith is clear and strong that the American People still bless God that, on the red battle fields of our late Civil War, the Union was upheld and Slavery destroyed, and will never consciously decide that the precious blood thereon poured out was lavished in vain.
The Tribune believes in the prosecution of the great struggle by legitimate means to beneficent ends. To State Sovereignty; to indissoluble National Integrity; to Slavery for Blacks, Liberty for All; to Proscription, Entrenchment; to Popular Ignorance, "Universal Education; to Intensity and Spirit of Wrathful Hate, universal and invincible Good Will. It would fain do its utmost to hasten the glad day when the South shall live with the North in exultation and gratitude over the disappearance of the last vestige of that evil which impelled the Man to exult in the ownership and chattelhood of his fellow Man.
Profoundly do we realize that the contest is not yet ended—that Millions mourn, more or less publicly, the downfall of the slaveholders' Confederacy, and rear their children to hate those by whose valor and constancy its overthrow was achieved. If we ever seem to differ essentially from other Republicans, our conviction that sympathy is never weakness, that vengeance is never justice, and that devils are not cast out by devils, must serve to explain alleged eccentricities whose perfect vindication we leave to Time and Reflection.
THE TRIBUNE has been, is, and must be, a zealous advocate of Protection to Home Industry. Regarding habitual idleness as the greatest foe to human progress, the cause of human unhappiness, we seek to win our countrymen in masses from the ensnaring lures of Speculation, Trade, and of always overcredulous Professions, and to the pursuit of Productive Industry. We would gladly deplete our overcrowded cities, where thousands vainly jostle and crowd in misguided quest of "Something to Do," to cover prairies and plains with colonies absorbed in Agriculture, Mechanics and Manufactures, and constantly projecting into the blank void wilderness the homes and the works of civilized Man. Holding the Protection of Home Industry by disseminating duties on imported Wares and Fabrics essential to the rapid beneficent diffusion of production in all its phases and departments, and so to the instruction of our people in all the gainful arts of Peace, we urge our countrymen to adhere to and uphold that policy, in undoubting faith that the true interest, not of a class or a section and every useful class, is thereby observed and promoted.
THE TRIBUNE aims to be preeminently a Newspaper. Its correspondents, wherever battle-fields are early advised of every notable Court decision, observe the proceedings of Congress, the Legislature, and of Conventions, and report to us by telegraph all that seems of general interest. We have paid for one day's momentous advice from Europe by Cable far more than our entire receipts for the issue in which those advice reached our readers. If lavish outlay, unsleeping vigilance, and unbounded faith in the liberality and discernment of the reading public, will enable us to make a journal which has no superior in the accuracy, variety, and freshness of its contents. THE TRIBUNE shall be such a journal.
To Agriculture and the subervient arts, we have devoted, and shall persistently devote, more means and space than any of our rivals. We aim to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE such a paper as no farmer can afford to do without, however widely his politics may differ from ours. Our reports of the Cattle, Horse, Produce, and General Markets, are so full and accurate, our essays in elucidation of the farmer's calling, and our regular reports of the Farmers' Club and kindred gatherings, are so interesting, that the poorest farmer will find therein a mine of suggestion and counsel, of which he cannot remain ignorant without positive and serious loss. We sell THE WEEKLY to Clubs for less than its value in dwellings for waste paper; and though its subscription is already very large, we believe that a Half Million more farmers will take it whenever it shall be concluded to their attention. We ask our friends everywhere to aid us in so commending it.

To the Republicans of the 26th Judicial District.

The undersigned having been selected a member of the Republican State Executive Committee for the 26th Judicial District...

From the Freis Presse of April 8. The Feeling of the Republican Party of Texas.

The Republican party of Texas is in a good humor and has cause to be so. It has the kindest feelings towards all men...

What greater service, for example, could the Democracy have conferred upon the Republicans in general...

We want our neighbor of the Herald to keep in good spirits and not to flinch from elevating him. The Herald should take high grounds...

It should keep the fact, that he attempted (and as usual failed) to raise a Brigade to be composed in part of colored troops...

It should take care never to mention names in connection with his name, lest that should cause unpleasant reminiscences on the part of colored voters...

The Herald should be bold and should take such grounds as the emergency calls for. We would suggest that it cannot do better than to assert that Judge Hancock ought to be elected over Mr. Degener...

We also feel a debt of gratitude towards the Democratic members of both houses of our Legislature, which we can scarce find words to express. They have rendered us invaluable services.

in, he sought to protect their best interests. The fact that the Democratic members and Senators almost unanimously voted to override the military veto...

Special Legislation.

The good example set by Illinois, in engrafting upon her constitution a section prohibiting local and private legislation...

The changes of laws which the Legislature shall not meddle with, are set forth, such as the altering of names, settlement of local boundary questions...

We have asked again and again that our Legislature would show its progressive nature by adopting, as have other States...

Watch the master architect in building an edifice. Firmly and strongly the immense rocks of the foundation are laid...

Remember yourselves to the action that your responsibility as exponents of the Republican party demands...

Upon such issues you hold the tenor of your position. With such planks in the platform you were elected. Can you not then appreciate the need of your fulfilling your part...

Gentlemen of the Legislature, the hour is not too late for reform. Prepare now that groundwork of the future, you have hitherto left untouched.

The Indiana Bulletin has the following, which is corroborative of the report that the Gulf, West Texas and Pacific railroad is to be run upon the narrow gauge.

The same paper has the following: "We learn from Col. Schleicher, the Engineer, that all the grading and earthwork on the railroad from Indiana to Victoria will be completed this week."

The writer should have added to still further enhance the value of the situation, that within those 91,000,000 acres, exist boundless resources of mineral and metallurgical wealth...

If a bee stings you, will you go to the hive and destroy it? Would not a thousand come upon you? If you receive a trifling injury, don't be anxious to avenge it...

young Victoria, some three hundred hands, after being trained and issued to the work, will have to be discharged and will disperse to their distant homes...

The following "incident" will have its charms for all of our readers; and the supreme wish at its close will find an echo in the heart of every honest citizen...

Some thirty-five years ago there were two youths entered at West Point for military education, one of them was from the State of Indiana and the other one was from her sister State of Kentucky...

A few years more west and came, and the unhappy rebellion divided the North and the South into hostile foes...

Many a hard fought battle told its tale of daring deeds, while each in his cause, rose from rank to rank, and station to station...

Time passed, the war ended, the Indiana cadet on the conqueror's side, Kentucky's in the conquered ranks.

Since Chickamauga's hostile ranks met face to face, those warriors never met again till the second day of this month, when by accident at the Exchange Hotel...

The credit and general situation of our State, seems to be appreciated abroad, for here is what the National Republican of Washington city says:

"Something of the size of Texas may be inferred from the fact, officially shown that after deducting all the lands ever patented to her citizens, and all subsidies to railroads, the State still owns 91,929,630 acres."

The writer should have added to still further enhance the value of the situation, that within those 91,000,000 acres, exist boundless resources of mineral and metallurgical wealth...

The banana trees do not seem in a flourishing condition this season.

LOUIS ZORK has a beautiful assortment of spring patterns for gentlemen's suits.

The New Braunfels peach crop this season, will be very large.

Now is a good time to re-sod those plots where it is intended to have fresh and thrifty green grass only.

The ladies are invited to an inspection of the rare articles of dress offered by that prince of merchants, Louis Zork.

Look out for a grand charge of the "mosquito corps" after this rain. They are sharpening their bills somewhere.

LACK sashes are becoming fashionable, and we learn there is a beautiful assortment in our town.

MAY 17TH was the date of a New York Tribune, received Thursday. Twenty-three days, is expediting matters in the carriage of the Texas mails.

J. H. FRENCH, 22 Commerce street, has just received his stock of Silks, Linen Lawns and Parasols. Go and see them.

ZORK has dress patterns of unique style. The dress trimmings are worked into the material. The most perfect article of beauty we have seen for a long time.

We call attention to the article elsewhere, which is translated from the Free Press, of our city. Democracy will therein find a return of thanks for their able efforts in advancing the cause of the Republican party.

FARTHINGERS are pairing off, and should not be hunted any more this season. To prevent such unimportant conduct though, requires a good system of game laws, which we hope Texas will have some of these days.

A DRIZZLING FAIR set in after a hard blow, on Friday night. It comes very welcome, as it will serve to nourish and sustain the growing crops. We learn, however, that the wind did considerable damage to some of the peach orchards in this neighborhood, breaking the limbs, and in some cases uprooting the trees.

FREIGHTERS literally made a jam of Main street, yesterday. We are really wondering what becomes of the immense stocks of goods that are rolling in upon every side. The last month has been one continuous receipt of, we may say without exaggeration, millions of pounds of freight. San Antonio can safely challenge any other city of its size in population, to show as splendid a record of well directed business energies.

THE prices of admission to the lecture of the great humorist, AL. BURNETT, have been reduced to seventy-five cents for adults and fifty cents for children. We can assure the public, that from a careful scanning of the comments of the public press, at home and abroad, the entertainment will be fully worth the price of admission, and sixteen thousand three hundred times over.

THE schools will open again to-morrow morning, after the week's holiday, which we have no doubt, has been appreciated by both scholars and teachers. The public school system of San Antonio has undergone an immensity of improvement, and the end of this year will find our city schools fully up to the standard of those of any city of its size in the Union.

We invite attention to the handsome advertisement in this issue, of Messrs. Leroux & Congrove. That firm of energetic gentlemen offer inducements in their line of trade, that are unsurpassed by any other in our city, and they are making constant accretions to their stock. In the line of stores they invite especial attention to their list of excellent articles, and solicit a call from purchasers before deciding upon the merits of all others.

YESTERDAY a portion of papers and periodicals for Messrs. Leroux's Reading Rooms arrived. Go and examine them.

A GENTLEMAN, who knows, extends the advice gratis to the drinking public, to always take a mint leaf through a cigar, as by this means the top of the head is cooled. Curiosity led us to inquire of a medical student if this could possibly be, and we were assured the connection between the palate and the nerves of the top of the head is very intimate, and hence the idea is a correct one. This probably accounts for a "wee drop too much" weakening the head, before any other part of the system.

AT an early hour yesterday morning eggs were a scarcity, having been bought up by the people who believe in that old established custom of turning them into fantastically colored hen fruit. We suppose all the boys and girls in town will be provided with them to-day, when their strength (the eggs) will be duly tested. The custom is an old English one, and the eggs were, in primitive times, called pasche, or pasche eggs. The other superstitions and customs followed on Easter day in those times, seem to have been dropped, and it would not be amiss to drop this last one, it having no meaning in eyes religious or otherwise.

We were pleased to hear through Mr. Seale, of New Braunfels, of the promising state of the crops at that beautiful place. They have been luxuriating in strawberries, in all kinds of vegetables, and have planted out extensively this season, which promise well. It is well to remember, that New Braunfels has within its precincts men who have a knowledge of botany, of agriculture and floriculture, second to none in the world, and in time to come, we feel satisfied the work of their pens, in describing their life-time experience with Nature's choicest productions, will meet with the attention of the whole State, if not of the world. To Mr. Seale we extend our hearty thanks, for his graphic and pleasant description of our fair sister city, New Braunfels.

The District Court.

The proceedings in this Court since the Earhart trial have been of slight interest to the public. Nicholas Diller charged with unlawfully killing livestock was found guilty and fined $50.

Charles Bergstrom, charged with the same offense was found not guilty, but the jury composed of nearly the same men, found him guilty of failing to report the brand of the very same animal and assessed the fine at $50. This was a refreshing exhibition of that consistency which, from time immemorial, has been the supposed characteristic of enlightened juries.

John Elms was found guilty of grand larceny and assigned two years to the penitentiary. We are unable to give the facts in the case.

Siner Chase, charged with an aggravated assault, pleaded guilty to a simple assault, and was fined $1. It strikes us that there is danger of too much tenderness towards men who plead guilty. There seems to be no need of reminding juries that it is usual to treat with leniency those who acknowledge their crimes.

George Jagger was found guilty of unlawfully killing live stock, and fined $15. There were also several gaming cases—defendants pleaded guilty and were fined $10 each. Friday, being Good Friday was observed as a holiday, and no business of interest was done yesterday.

Origin of Plants.

Celery originated in Germany. The chestnut came from Italy. The onion originated in Egypt. Tobacco is a native of Virginia. The nettle is a native of Europe. The citron is a native of Greece. The pine is a native of America. The poppy originated in the East. Oats originated in North Africa. Rye originally came from Siberia. Parsley was first known in Sardinia. The pear and apple are from Europe. Spinach was first cultivated in Arabia. The sunflower was brought from Peru. The nutberry originated in Persia. The walnut and peach came from Persia. The horse chestnut is a native of Thibet. The cucumber came from East Indies. The radish is a native of China and Japan. Peas are supposed to be of Egyptian origin.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

AVERT THE EVIL.—If mothers would give Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup to their children when sick, mortality would be less among them. It costs only twenty-five cents.

Consumption,
Its Cure and Its Prevention,
By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably good means of cure. Thousands and tens of thousands are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they timely adopted

Dr. Joseph H. Schenck's simple Treatment, and availed themselves of his wonderful effectual medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that whatever pulmonary complaint, whether it be a simple catarrh of the lungs, or a decided tubercular consumption, is unquestionably cured into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicine is as simple as it is successful. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-evident, self-acting.

The Sesquioxide of Iron and Sassafras Pills are the first step without which the cure of the disease is impossible. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally deranged liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating point, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of Consumption.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Polyphillium Felatum. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of calomel, but without its action.

"Leave no Stone Unturned."
The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It resumes from its torpidity. The stomach acts resolutely, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A Supply of Good Blood.
The Sesquioxide of Iron, in conjunction with the Pills, purifies and assimilates with the food. Chlorophyll is now progressing without its previous assistance. The patient becomes patient, and the cure is now to be at hand. There is no more feasting, no excoriation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest blood purifier ever yet given by an intelligent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its function and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It purifies and ripens the impured and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rattle thrown that it occupied is reabsorbed and made new, and the patient, in all the signs of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the new-blood or manhood that was.

Given up as Lost.
The second thing in the patient's mind may be a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. For air and riding-out, especially in the winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that country lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and so fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep his good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to be fairly of his own cure was in these modest words: "Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and as one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at a straw, I heard of and obtained the preparation which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time."

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only sixty-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has demonstrated his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirator will be charged $5. The Respirator declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines and no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them; first create appetite. Of returning health, hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough lessens, the night sweat is abated, in a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sesquioxide of Iron, $1.50 a bottle, or $5.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,
For Coughs of the Throat and Lungs, such as Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has any drug won so widely and so largely upon the confidence of mankind, as this simple remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long course of years, and among most of the great cities it has risen higher and higher in the estimation, and is now better known to the common character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against the danger of a cold, and a certain remedy for the most obstinate of these troubles, and a valuable agent in the treatment of all kinds of pulmonary affections. As a preventive against the attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed, as it is recommended by the highest medical authorities, it should be used with this confidence for them.

Although called a Cough Syrup, it is thought in medicine, still great numbers of cases where the disease is not confined to the lungs, but has spread to the throat, and the patient cannot find relief from the Cherry Pectoral, so complete is its efficacy over the disease of the lungs and throat, that the most obstinate of these troubles, once the Cherry Pectoral is used, are relieved and disappear. Croup and Pertussis, and all great pulmonary troubles.

It is always relieved, and often wholly cured by this medicine.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. In general, it is the virtues known, that we would best repeat the conditions of these here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,
For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chills, Malaria, Bilious Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodic or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic influences.

As its name implies, it does not cure, it does not fall. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Biocin, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it is never injurious, any patient. The moderate and important of its force in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. One single bottle is guaranteed by the manufacturer to relieve the patient of the radical cure of the malarious case, and where other remedies have wholly failed.

Exhausted persons, either residing in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily. For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

See full particulars and Liver Complaints, in an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, which other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

The great field trials at Sedalia, Mo., and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1883—where "The Clipper" met some 40 competitors including all the leading machines built, and was awarded the First Premium and Gold Medal—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain in the field their claims of superiority for "The Clipper" Machine over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft takes one-third of the labor of the team. The adjustability of the singletower, to cut high or low without stopping the team is worth $25 on any machine. It is the only mower that has the true center draft in accordance with correct mechanical principles.
In short, it is the lightest, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most symmetrical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers who charge in the Harvest, Friends, and you cannot afford to neglect this wonderful. Send for pamphlet—investigate. See or write to some one who has used "The Clipper." See the Machine yourself before you buy any other, and a DISCOUNT!
