BLANK DEEDS.

For Sale at this Office.

To the Milk-and-Water Fraternity.

Some of the milk-and-water, easy going gentry, who have imagined that Atlas-like, they bear the weight of a Republican world upon their shoulders, are startled to think we should call down the light of the noon-day sun of Progress upon them, and show up the dark spots that have festered, here and there, upon the party's surface. They think a paper should still be run in the grooves they cut out for it, and do nothing but shoulder abuse and party responsibility, while they look on as interested office holders, and pocket the benefits. Gentlemen, with weak knees, you are all barking up the wrong tree. We mean earnest, active work; we have got all our machinery in order; have faith in the eternal justice of integral Republican principles for a pilot, have run up the Stars and Stripes, and intend you to either show the same colors and stand by them, or we will board you as quick as we will the pirates that hang out the death's head and cross bones, and rip across our bows every now and then.

Sticking back in all the ease and complacency of office holding, you seem to have forgotten that the Express was the pioneer Republican paper of Texas, and was instrumental in putting you all into office, and by vigorous espousal of your cause and able defense of you, keeping you there. All this, Messieurs, with the weak knees, you seem to have forgotten, and now, when we throw a little daylight towards you, you shrink from it, and run off on your personal favoritism.

Let us tell you something we know. We know that we are earnest and honest in our desire to give the people the benefits of honest and able Republican rule. We know, they all instinctively feel that the Express is the people's champion, and they in sympathy, will follow its every endeavor to see justice done. You, who pride yourselves upon your official power, are but lily prepared to combat with the press, let alone the Republican non-office-holding masses, that stand at its back.

If you put yourself outside of party lines on account of your personal favoritism, we will wage war on your legitimate Republican warfare; while on the other hand, for duty well and faithfully done to the people and the Republican party, we will be your strong ally, firm, earnest and unshrinking in our battles for you, our, and the People's and Party's rights.

Many of you have allowed other than party considerations, to influence you to oppression, to proscription, to arraigning; three traits diametrically opposed to sound Republicanism. Continue with either of these dangerous qualities, and you cast yourselves adrift, without party aid or assistance. You have ignored the laws of party organization; you have refused to hold your party caucuses, and have violated the ties of Republican fealty by supporting men, whom you were paying, to oppose the party, and the success of true Republicanism, and yet you think we should stand by, and not utter a warning.

Gentlemen, you have mistaken your paper, mistaken the direction of it, mistaken the party principles, and the sooner you post yourselves upon what you owe to your party, not to a few personal favorites, the sooner you will be in a way to acquire strength, and get the shambling crooks out of your political kennel, which threaten hourly to give you a severe fall.

Centralization.

The indifference and levity with which the wholesale perpetration of the most revolting crimes is treated by the people generally, is one of the worst signs of the times. Human life is apparently of little more value than it is in China or Japan. The Democratic press calivens their columns with amusing jokes and facetious editorial hits about the Ku Klux. This is a convenient and pleasant way of evading the responsibility, and covering up the ghastliness of midnight murder, but they who imagine that the moral effect of these outrages has ceased to be felt among the people, and that the Democratic party will not be held accountable for the blood of the slaughtered republicans, are deceiving themselves woefully.

In the great coming Presidential election this very question of responsibility, will come up for solution, and the people will demand more substantial proofs of non-compliance, than can be found in the jokes and gibes that are tendered at present.— Then, the Ku Klux record of the Democracy, fortified by fact and figures, will carry conviction and defeat into the ranks of those who now affect to treat the matter lightly, than the glibly details of the hundreds of assassinations, scourgings and mutilations upon peaceful American citizens, at the dead hour of night, will be thundered from eloquent lips to the horror-stricken people, that the unteased human byways themselves shall turn pale.

It has become necessary for the perpetuation of the Democracy, that the public mind should be alarmed and directed to some false issue; the more the people ponder on the doings of the Ku Klux, the more fully the hideousness of the real sentiments of the party appear, and the more overwhelming the conviction that its success threatens the maintenance and perpetuity of free institutions. Hence the necessity of some new agitation, and consequently we hear on every hand, of the danger the people are undergoing from the ambitious views of the President, and we are gravely informed that republican institutions are endangered by the same party through whose instrumentality they were preserved. Now let us briefly examine the facts upon which this assertion is based, and see if they justify the conclusion which is drawn.

There has existed for a period of years, through the entire South, an illegal, secret organization, composed principally of men who belonged to the Confederate army, who are banded together for the purpose of gratifying a cowardly blood-thirstiness, (one of the results of slavery), and of preventing the colored Republicans from exercising the right of suffrage. In their endeavors to carry out this programme they have murdered, mutilated and scourged thousands of peaceful citizens, and in some instances (as the last Presidential election) have succeeded in intimidating the colored population into passive submission and acquiescence.

We know that many influential journals of the party in the North, deny these charges in toto, or, admitting them, allege grounds of palliation or excuse; but these defenses are absolutely swept away by the cumulative evidence taken before the Congressional Committee, and before the coroners' inquests, and by the admissions or boasts of local Democratic papers, and the facts as we have stated them are established beyond controversy.

Now let us take into consideration the following points:

1st. That this secret warfare is causeless and wholly unprovoked. This is evident to every one who has any acquaintance with the African race; and this is seen nowhere more conclusively, than in the conduct of the slaves during the war, when, had they been vindictively inclined, they might have converted the South into a howling wilderness; but notwithstanding the many provocations they have received, they make no attempt at retaliation; it would, perhaps, be better if it were otherwise.

2nd. The perpetrators of the outrages are almost invariably Democrats. This is evidenced by the virtual endorsement of their crimes by the Democratic Representatives in Congress, and by the further fact, that the victims are always Republicans.

3rd. That no person is, or can be, punished by the courts. From the secrecy of the organization, and from the fact that they come from adjoining counties, degraded, and in large bands, no arrests can be made, and should any be arrested, their conviction is impossible, because the jury, the witnesses, and possibly, the judge, would belong to the organization, and would be obliged by the secret oath, to assist each other.

4th. The State governments are unable or unwilling to correct the evil, and secure to the citizens the rights guaranteed them under the Constitution. The truth of this has never been denied.

5th. The Democratic party has already established a precedent, sanctioning extraordinary legislation on this subject; see the fugitive slave law.

Not to dwell longer on this subject, we find that the fundamental principles of all government are here subverted; that no remedy exists but the one adopted by the Democratic party, when the object was not to protect life and property everywhere in the Union, but to drag back to servitude some poor trembling wretch, who was under the delusion that he was fleeing to a free country.

And this is what the cry of "centralized imperialism" is based on. We are free to assert, that were the choice between a cast iron military despotism, with courts martial and summary executions, and a Democratic mobocracy, with the inevitable Ku Klux administration of justice, that we should prefer the former; but as neither, therefore nor the other appears probable, we advise the leaders of the White Man's party to invent some new dodge, not quite as transparent as this last specimen of democratic statesmanship.

An Echo from the German Press.

We translate as follows from the Freie Presse (German Republican) of our city: "We have noticed lately in the Express complaints against Recorder Gamble, and feel that the time has arrived to pay some attention to this matter.

"He is reproached with being too partial to costs, and running a collector's office, rather than a temple of justice, and of standing in an unlawful position to his clerk.— To sustain the first charge, we have an instance, a fine was fifty cents, and the costs run up to some seven or eight dollars, which is rather out of proportion. It is immaterial whether the law imposing sanctions this or not; a judge that has a stated salary and fixes a fine as low as fifty cents, should certainly remit the costs.

"The bargain with the clerk admits of no excuse, and shows clearly that the whole thing hinges on the question of costs, and the recorder might, if so inclined, make similar arrangements with the police.

"We fail also to comprehend why it is that a Democratic clerk is so persistently retained in office, when much better Republican material is to be obtained. We believe we begin to see through all this. Republicans who feel outraged, when a Republican paper exposes the corrupt spots in the party, are of but little benefit to it. Whatever drains the light, has no place in our ranks.

It will be seen from the above, that our German fellow citizens feel the dishonor keenly, that has been brought upon the party by the outrages of a man who, claiming to be in the van of Republicanism, is so unmindful of his duty, as to bring it into disrepute, by making his official position pander to his personal greed and aims.

Common justice, if he possessed any ideas of such, would compel Gamble to tender his resignation, but until, heech like, he becomes gorged, there is no danger of his letting go the hold he has upon the public purse strings. He played the same trick as County Judge. He ran the county down to its last dollar, got matters and things into inextricable confusion, and then resigned; and to this day, the books wherein the records of his incapacity are found, are a disgrace to the party intelligence, that lent him his "little brief authority."

Some of his friends charge us with having a personal spite against him, because we were fined in his court. They mistake their man. We long since paid our fine, and ceased to even think of it. Perhaps some same friends of his will try and find excuses for the action of the German Freie Presse. To all such, we can say, that they are but wasting their talk, and making John-horses of themselves, for there is not a far-sighted citizen in San Antonio who does not feel thoroughly satisfied of Gamble's incapacity and unfitness, and what is criminal to eyes Republican, his personal greed, which has led him out of the path of integrity, as a Judge and man.

Gamble calls himself a Republican. We know that we are Republican to the hilt, now, next week, and for all time. We know enough of its principles to know that they are more important than all personal considerations, and when Judge Gamble as a Republican office holder, went astray and prostituted his official powers to his personal ends, that it was our duty to call for, and urge his removal; nay, even more, to demand it. We hope our articles reach the Governor's eye. We know that he is honest and incorruptible, and that he will listen to the grievances of our people, and remove a man who is their oppressor, who would grow fat upon public spoils. Gamble may count his official hours as numbered, for Republicans, to a man, will insist upon his removal from the position he daily disgraces.

Austin Letter.

The passage of the Southern Pacific Subsidy Bill over the Governor's Veto—Members leaving—Recess until September.—Horace Greely.

AUSTIN, May 20th 1873.

On Wednesday the Governor returned the Southern Pacific R. R. Subsidy Bill to the House of Representatives, with his veto. The reading of the veto was listened to with impatience as the majority had made up their minds to pass the bill anyway. One member remarked that it was not for showing disrespect to the Governor he would move to read by caption and dispense with the reading of the message. Then was no debate and after a little parliamentary skirmishing a vote was had resulting in 62 yeas and 14 nays. Of the twelve who voted to sustain the Governor two were Democrats. The following is the vote in both Houses:

Vote Upon the Veto of the Southern Pacific Railroad Subsidy Bill.

The following is the vote upon the question whether the Southern Pacific Railroad Subsidy Bill should pass over the Governor's veto. Names: Democrats in italics.

The tremendous job being over the Legislature began to dissolve and to day a joint resolution was named to take a recess from the 31st of this month until 16th of September. The people will ask why did they not adjourn sine die. Have they not done mischief enough? Besides the subsidy to the Southern Pacific the present Legislature has made appropriations for its own support and for the other purposes besides the support of the State Government, amounting to the enormous sum of $420,227.99. As far as the figures can be arrived at now, add this amount to the general appropriation and we have the sum of $2,665,319. The Governor's veto of the Southern Pacific is an able State paper, and the want of proper consideration at the hands of the Legislature should meet rebuke at the hands of the people.

The reassembling at so early a date as 16th September, is an outrage upon the State, brought about by those advocating a fall election and by the Railroad men. They might as well sit in perpetual session and gobble up the State.

Some excitement was caused to-day by the anticipated arrival of Mr. Greeley, but we were disappointed.—He failed to arrive, a dispatch was received by the Governor to the effect that Mr. Greeley's baggage had been left accidentally—and a storm of rain prevented Mr. Greeley extending his visit. This looks like a conspiracy to keep Mr. Greeley from seeing the Governor, and the country. The Philosopher has been urged by Jack Hamilton and other conservatives.

The Southern Pacific.

The bill providing an immense subsidy for this road, has, in spite of the earnest and decided opposition of our incorruptible Governor, been passed by both branches of the Legislature over his veto, and to all intents and purposes, become a law. From earnest, honest convictions of right, we have steadily discouraged the passage of the bill, and find our efforts of no avail. It is with sorrow we look upon the work which the Senate and House of Representatives has placed as a burden upon the Republican party of Texas, for notwithstanding Democracy stands thoroughly committed to the subsidizing policy, Republicans, or the party in power will have to stand the blame of the five hundred thousand dollars that is yearly added to the people's tax list.

The leading men of the Senate and House who favored the bill, feel confident that the next year will settle the question, by popular ballot, of giving the school lands of the State to railroads, and the proviso or clause in the Southern Pacific bill, giving so many sections of land in lieu of every thousand dollar bond, will allow the lands to be given and thus no money will be required for sinking fund and interest upon bonds.

While their hopes are no doubt well founded, we cannot see the policy of being penny wise pound foolish. The unlocated lands in this State, open to location by the Southern Pacific, will in but a very few years after the intersection of the State by the international road, be worth twice the value at which they are given away to the Southern Pacific, while the granting of so much land is but giving a monopoly a hold upon our State that will never be loosed as long as an acre of land remains, or a dollar can be drained out of the State Treasury.

A precedent, dangerous in the extreme to our State credit, has been set, and we fear the day is but too near at hand when our State will have gone the way of Louisiana and become hopelessly involved in a burdensome debt of millions. Perhaps with the very same Legislature we now have, the gathering storm might be weathered; but a few short months and they will give way to others, less under control of the right principle of not venturing too far, and they will go in beyond their depth, the things will gather and the staunch old ship of State that has once proudly out-riden the storm of corruption that howled and shrieked through its rigging, will be come a financial wreck for the waves of monopolizing greed to toss hither and thither like a playing of straw.

In this hour, our sympathies are with our noble hearted Governor. We know how he has thrown himself into the breach and sought to turn the swelling tide of unthinking, unreasonable subsidizing. We know the hours and days passed, now in earnest hope, that principles would sway the members rather than persuasions more directly personal, now in almost utter despair of saving the good old ship of State from the crash to come. Knowing this, it is to him our sympathies return, and while we deplore the necessity we earnestly hope a plea may be found wherein the whole matter may show itself unconstitutional, and the fiat of the legislature, badly influenced, be counteracted.

The people of West Texas are all in sympathy with the Governor. The east with its corruptive influence has been in only for spoils. In the hour of trials and disheartening influences like these, the West looks forward to the division question, even with the same anxious hope with which the mariner watches the twinkling orb that shows him the way to steer for a haven of safety. May this last act of the legislature unite us to a man in asking and demanding it from the balances of the State.

The color of the wind was discovered by the man who went out and found it blue.

The hide business is looming up again in large proportions. A large train of carts, well laden left yesterday for the coast.

STOCKMEN and Stockraisers all favor the Columbus route. It will carry beaves to New Orleans at $2.50, while the Steamer freight from Indiana to the same point are $18.50 coin. Ten dollars saved on every head of beef is considerable.

WHEN SOME of our local so-called republicans refer to themselves as the party and talk of cutting others off from the party we are reminded of the little boy who being accused of cutting the pig's tail off, defended himself by saying that he did not cut the tail off the pig but that he cut the pig off the tail. In the present instance the superior appendage is cut off the better, we fail to perceive any beauty or utility in it. The comparison is unsavory but exceedingly appropriate.

MORE than 500,000 people bear testimony to the wonderful curative effects of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. For palpitation or irregular action of the heart, all severe acute or lingering Coughs, and for "Liver Complaints" or "Biliousness" it is unequalled. Sold by all druggists. (30-71-d2t.)

We call attention to the translation to be found elsewhere, from the Free Press of our city, regarding the acts of the recorder of our city. Our german republicans feel keenly the indignity the party has sustained in the arbitrary and dishonorable actions of recorder Gamble.

It is a real pleasure to drop into Willie Kellners neat Ice Cream saloon on an evening, and partake of the delicious cream which he prepares. A saloon of double the capacity of his, would receive immense patronage, if a few lights to the streets were scattered here and there, throughout the city, after night.

The Columbus route is in great favor amongst the poor hard working mechanics and laborers. Four and five dollars saved on every barrel of flour, and the same amount on every hundred pounds of coffee and sugar, will amount to a considerable saving for them every year.

ONIONS, Radishes, Green Peas, Snap Beans, New Potatoes, Green Corn, Cucumbers, Cabbage, Turnips and Lima Beans are a few of the vegetables that are plentiful in market, and that daily delight the gourmands of this city—and yet people sometimes assert that San Antonio is not a favorable agricultural country.

WE LEARN that some bright genius is about to open a buttermilk drinking saloon on Main street. Nothing stronger than lemonade or buttermilk is to be dispensed, while chess, checkers and ten pins are to usurp the places of billiards and cards. We like the idea of the buttermilk and the ten pins, and shall drop in at the "opening."

WE WERE favored yesterday with a call from Mr. J. A. Daly of Saint Louis, who pays our historicality a visit for the purpose of attending to any business in his line that the people may entrust to his supervision.

Mr. Daly is at the head of one of the largest stationary houses in Saint Louis, and is prepared to fill any and all orders for articles in his line at as low a rate as they can be procured in any other city in the Union. He comes to us with the highest endorsements as to his business solidity and capacity and we earnestly commend him to the courteous attention of our merchants and people generally.

OUR enterprising friend and neighbor, A. STAECKE, has filled his immense wagon yard full of the finest kinds of well made, snugly jointed wagons, of all descriptions. Some from WILSON & CHILDS; plenty of the "our best" of the FERRIS WAGONS; that old and favorably known STUDEBAKER, and the Espenscheid, while the balance of his space is taken up with handsome light spring wagons, cart wheels, drays, wheelbarrows and everything in fact in the line of one, two, or four wheeled vehicles of transportation. His prices are the lowest in the market, and his stock unrivalled for quality. Call and see him. His yard looks like an artillery encampment.

THE SERVICES in the Catholic church are at present nightly. One of the Reverend Fathers attached to the travelling missions, nightly holds forth in discourse upon the faith, which together with the presence of the Bishop, makes the occasion unusually interesting. Monday evening the church (St. Mary's) was crowded with persons of all denominations. The strangers to the faith speak highly of the eloquence and favor of the Reverend Father. The balance of the week is devoted to the holding of meetings. The services commence at half past seven, P. M.

WE TRIED our last years Dodge for comfort yesterday, and found it fully as pleasant and refreshing as ever. As some of our readers may desire to be comfortable this hot weather, we describe the modus. Direct yourself of all flesh, and set to work in only your bones and have a small boy pour a pint of ice water down your back bone (it is hollow) every half hour. Notwithstanding Solomon's asseveration that "there was nothing new under the sun" we are convinced this is one of the things he knew nothing about.

THERE IS NO EXCUSE for those who drag their weary and disordered bodies into our company, when a few doses of Ayer's Sarsaparilla would cleanse their murky blood and restore their health and vigor. Ye muddy victims of bilious disease, have some regard for your neighbors, if not for yourselves.

Ambition and religion should both be in harmony. The symbol of both is a spire.

GIRLS always love those boys best who are the kindest, best natured, most considerate and "manlike" in their behavior; and who are not coarse, profane, and loaf-crisp in their talk. The boys who are by their school and playmates loved the most make the best men.

THE colored Laborer's Association will celebrate the coming 9th of June by a procession and picnic at Gunther's Mill. All Associations and individuals who feel an interest in the matter, are invited to attend.

With much respect, your obedient servant.

CHAS. A. SEELY, M. D., New York.

26 Pine Street, New York, Nov. 21, 1867.

Udolpho Wolfe, Esq. Present: Dear Sir: I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schnapps" and have found the same free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination we consider the article one of superior quality, healthful as a beverage, and effectual in its medicinal qualities. Respectfully yours, (Signed) ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist.

Consumption,

Its Cure and its Preventive,

By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friend are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Joseph H. Schenck's simple Treatment,

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigour.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unerring. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sarsaparil and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of Consumption.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's subtlest gifts—the Pepsiphilum Felletianum. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they "Leave no Sting Behind." The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the b. w. l. and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsibly, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A Supply of Good Blood.

The Sarsaparil, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more dyspepsia, no excoriation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man, Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gathering, it prepares them for expectoration, and in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was Given up as Lost.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it can be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and bright sun, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter seasons, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despise of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words: Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week. Then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me, it seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

As soon as that began to subside my cough, (severe, pain and night sweats) all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown to be as ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," said the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits in New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., will continue to see patients at their office, No. 25 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them; First create appetite. Of returning health, hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood as once follows, the cough lessens, the night sweat is abated, in a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a curer of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sarsaparil Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

The Great Fire in Richmond.
Herring's Safes
IN THE SPOTSWOOD.
$23,500 in Currency,
 and the Books, Papers, Silver and Valuables of the Spotswood Hotel and the Adams and Southern Express Companies, are SAVED IN HERRING'S SAFES.

OFFICE OF ADAMS EXPRESS COMPANY,
 No. 22 Broadway,
 New York, Dec. 21, 1876.
 Messrs. Herring, Farrell & Sherman—Our Agent at Richmond writes: "We got through to-night drying and fixing up the money from the late fire. The contents of the safe—$23,500 in bills, we recovered. It was a Herring Safe, and a good one, certainly. Yours truly,
 L. C. BABCOCK, Treasurer."
 Messrs. Herring, Farrell & Sherman, New York
 Gentles: The two safes of your manufacture, which we had in use on the morning of the 26th inst., at the disastrous fire which destroyed the Spotswood Hotel and adjoining block of buildings, have given full satisfaction, and served to prevent the destruction of some $23,500 in currency, besides the valuable papers and books contained therein. It was impossible for workmen to excavate the safe until nearly 30 hours after the fire.
 Respectfully,
 J. F. GIBSON,
 Asst. Supt. for Adams & Southern Ex. Co's
 Richmond, Va., Dec. 26th, 1876.
LETTER FROM J. M. SUBLITT & CO.,
 Proprietors of the Spotswood.
 Richmond, Va., Dec. 29, 1876.
 Messrs. Herring, Farrell & Sherman—Gentle:
 On the morning of the 26th inst., we were fortunate enough to have one of your Herring's Patent Champion Safes, which fell into the cellar among a burning mass of ruins. After the fire, to our utmost surprise, we found the contents, consisting of valuable papers, money and some silver ware, all in good order. Had it not been for your Herring's safe we would have lost everything.
