This preparation of the great Scientist, Dr. Gottlieb Fish, of Germany, is based on the fact that, as all materials of the body are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, up in Food. Dr. Fish's Bitters enables the system to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates at once Appetite, cures Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility, Lazitude and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Constipation and Biliousness impos-

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has any thing been so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints.

of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known.
It is a powerful and potent, to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to relieve the most of the most distressing cough, it is also the most effective remedy that can be given for consumption, and the dangerous affection of the throat and lungs. As a preventive of sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are complicated with colds and coughs, it should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases are cured and the disease entirely relieved, after years of cure, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. It is a powerful remedy for the Bronchitis of the Lungs, and throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it.
When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they are relieved, and great benefit derived therefrom.

The Beacon Light.
A German Legend.
BY JOHN G. BAKE.

"Go seaward, son, and bear a light!"
Up spoke the sailor's wife;
"Thy father sails this stormy night In peril of his life."
His ship that sailed to foreign lands, This hour may never be again;
"O should it wreck upon the sands!
Go, son, and bear a light!"
He lights a torch and seaward goes,
"Naught boots the deed, I doubt;
The rain it rains; the wind it blows;
And soon the light goes out."
The boy comes back: "O, mother dear!
Bid me not go again;
No torch can live, 'tis very clear, Before the wind and rain!"
"No sailor's blood hast thou, I trow, To fear a stormy night!"
Let rains descend; let tempest blow!
Go, son, and bear a light!"
Once more he lights the torch, and goes "Toward the foaming main;
The rain rains; the wind it blows;
Out goes the torch again!"
The boy comes back: "O, mother dear!
The storm puts out the light;
The night is drear, and much I fear, The woman dressed in white!"
"No sailor's blood hast thou, I trow,
To tremble thus before A mermaid's face—take heart of grace, And seek again the shore!"
The boy comes back: "O, mother dear!
Go thou unto the strand;
My father's voice I sure did hear,
In tones of stern command!"
And now the mother lights the torch;
And, see! the kindling rays Have caught the shadow from roof to porch The but is all ablaze!"
"What hast thou done?" the archer cries;
"O piteous sight to see!
Cold is the night! O wretched sight!
No house nor home have we!"
"No sailor's blood hast thou, I wis; When torches fall to burn, A blazing house—such as this—May serve as good a turn!"
Joy to the sailor! See! he clears The shadows of his hand;
Thanks to the light—now now he steers In safety to the land! —N. Y. Ledger.

BLANK DEEDS, For Sale at this Office.

"Hark from the Toombs a dole-ful sound."

ROBERT TOOMBS, of Georgia speaks his piece somewhat as follows:

"When you can hear the live thunder from his home in the burning ether, and bind it a captive at the footstool of tyranny, then, and not till then, will I accept the situation."

This is the way Southern Democrats accept the new departure of the Democracy North. What a sweet political mess the impracticables are getting into. Jeff Davis, Bob Toombs, Frank Blair, A. H.
Stevens and Andy Johnson.

What a mixture!!!

HORACE GREELY was the recipient of a short visit from JEFF DAVIS while in Memphis. As Greely was one of Jeff's bondsmen at the time of his release on bail, it is supposed he felt under obligations.
There too, the friendship existing between Greely and the Blair with whom Davis is in some way related, opened in chance for the meeting of these two opposites.
The meeting was rather formal, made so by the constraint shown by Jefferson.
Horace, however, was as genial as a sunbeam. Politics were not introduced into the conversation at all. What a picture of sunshine and shadow the photograph of the meeting would make.

Andrew Johnson Swinging Around the Circle.

It seems as though a second Moses had led somewhere called into existence innumerable political vermin who are destined to prey upon the body politic for a season, and cause a decided stir among certain unclean and influential demog-ogues. JEFF DAVIS and FRANK BLAIR have given over to the cooties legend, and now comes that old fossil and political mountebank ANDREW JOHNSON, and in a speech at Knoxville, Tennessee, he openly advocates repudiation of the national debt.
His reasons show such a depth of logic that he deserves to be forever after considered as the fit emblem (a goose) of his original trade. Says Andy, with an oratorical wave of the hand, "No nation has ever yet paid a large public debt without repudiation." The debt contracted in the old revolutionary war, he maintains, was nearly all repudiated, hence we have no right to make the present debt permanent.
He wants all the payments of interest that have been made by the government reckoned as payments of the principal, and in this way he proposes to wipe out the public debt in sixteen years.

Andy was all right (if no doubt, until he came to the sixteen years, but why, oh, Andrew, why repudiate in sixteen years?
If evil is to be done that good may come, why stop half way? Why not repudiate at once?

The fact is, Andy is looking for a hobby, on which to ride into public notice; since he lacks the true worth that would call him into notice as a statesman or a leader or a great man, he proposes to become notionous as a fool, without a peer in the nation. With his repudiation doctrine in his mouth, his shovels in one hand and the fruits of years of rhabdomy in the other, he will become, he doubts, the original American Don Quixote, with this difference, that he will lack all the lucid intervals that the Knight of La Mancha was sometimes affected with.

[Translated.]

"In a few weeks we will be called upon to vote for acceptance or rejection of Mr.
Pierce's offer in reference to the building of the Columbus road. When we take into consideration the importance of the question, the indifference of many of our citizens becomes absolutely incomprehensible.
While our rival cities in the West are striding forward, and display unity and energy which is in glaring contrast with our indifference, to use a mild expression, of which we should be ashamed, we indignantly sell our arms, and walk, McCawber like, for something to turn up. The railroad has been agitated for twenty years, and what has been done yet? The answer to this question is absolutely disgraceful to us when we consider that the future of San Antonio depends upon our connection with other parts of the State, with other cities of the Union and with Mexico. Messrs.

Pierce & Co. have made us an offer that will give us railroad communication with Galveston and Houston, and on the road between Houston and New Orleans will be completed in less than eighteen months, with New Orleans also. For doing this they demand a donation of $500,000 in bonds with eight per cent. interest thereon, the bonds to be delivered and the interest to run on completion of the road, and in case the company does not comply with its contract they will forfeit a deposit of $100,000. The opponents of this offer make the following points:

1. That the sum asked is too large, and that the company will be compelled, sooner or later, to build the road to San Antonio anyhow.
2. That a railroad to Indianapolis would be more advantageous, as one hundred miles of track laying would be avoided.
3. The $500,000 demanded is sufficient to build the road from San Antonio to the county line, and therefore we would be building a road for Mr. Pierce & Co., and not for ourselves.
4. That the taxes, which are high enough now, would be increased by the railroad tax one-half per centum.

We believe the foregoing to be the principal objections. Others, such as that the wages of teamsters and laborers will be reduced, require no refutation, as is the universal experience that such is not the case.

As far as the demanded donation is concerned, at the first glance it may appear large, but upon a closer investigation it has a different appearance. If the company had only to build the road from the county line of Bexar county then we would be fools to make any donation at all, and could build that distance ourselves; but that we may have communication with Galveston, Houston and New Orleans, the stretch between Columbus and San Antonio must be completed, and this requires a heavy outlay of at least three millions.
The company must advance this for two years it is not more than fair that they should receive interest on their capital.

The great source of revenue to the company will be the transportation of cattle; wool, hides, and every other year a few bushels of pecans, amounting to nothing.
The company can secure the transportation of the cattle if they only build the road sixty or eighty miles from Columbus out in this direction, and the entire loss would fall on the city of San Antonio, as some other point on the road would receive all the advantages of having the cattle depot.

The hope that the company will sooner or later complete the road to San Antonio is very deceptive, and well calculated to confirm us in our sloth, at a period when every day is precious, and the rival city of Austin is laughing in her sleeve at our indolence and making extraordinary efforts "to get the cream of the milk." The little city of Austin has not only subscribed $75,000 for the Central road, but has also entered into an obligation to build a bridge over the Colorado that will of itself cost $500,000.

The foregoing lucid elaboration of the question of the hour is translated from a communication to the Free Press, and its conclusion will be found in our next issue.

Heavy on Tax Payers.

The City Council have taken action in several matters of interest during their last two or three meetings, and among other actions have restored the privilege to the City Marshal, Mr. Gregory, of collecting costs for "attending prisoner in court," which is all very right and proper, and the liberal spirit of which we commend. But the liberality of the Council did not stop there. They have passed a resolution paying Mr. Gregory back fees for all cases since April 11, 1871, which will make quite a sum to be drained out of,
at best, a depleted treasury.

Now, as a public journal, and one devoted to the people's interest, we question the propriety of this excessive liberality.
We know of no hard service that has endured upon Mr. Gregory that he should thus be presented with three or four hundred dollars, while we also know that in his monthly receipts of nearly two hundred dollars he ought to feel himself well paid without soliciting this bonus.

The Council confesses an error in first depriving the Marshal of these costs; but Mr. Gregory seized with avidity upon the position (leaving one that paid $150 per month) with those fees cut out. Hence it looks like crowding our people rather hard to thus present him with a large bonus, when every dollar is earnestly needed for improvements.

The fact is, "special favoritism" proves, and will prove, the gain of any party that ever lived, and Republicanism proper is dead against it. The City Council should recollect that they held their positions through the Republican party. They should recollect that economy has been one of the integral principles upon which the party has gained prestige and strength; hence where appropriations of money are asked, and no consideration offered in return, they should refuse. The people like Mr. Gregory well enough as a salaried officer, but when presents are to be made him, let us first have a show of his deserving it by some extraordinary execution of duty, etc., etc.

In the appropriation to Mr. Lyons for detective services, the Council did exactly right, for Mr. Lyons has worked up some most intricate cases. But the appropriation to Mr. Gregory is unwarrantably bordomeous to the taxed people and calls for the public criticism we thus have given it.

Austin Letter.

Little or nothing to talk about—Rangers, &c.

There is no topic worthy of a letter today—the weather is growing warmer and we are getting used to it. Austin has its excitements—a street fight—a church festival—a private theatrical performance—a bit of gossip or slander equally interesting and absorbs public attention. The approaching bridge question is gathering interest and all sorts of discussion is brought out as to the effect of the recent act of the Legislature—the act limits the voters upon this question to those who register at the special Registration, it is questionable, in the light of the constitution, if a voter entitled to vote under the constitution, presents a certificate of registration could properly be refused,—it would be safe to let him vote. At the same time it is safe for every citizen who wishes a voice in the matter to register under the law.
Our rangers are still on hand waiting to be settled with.

Ice cream saloons are multiplying.
Austin is building up rapidly and when the railroad reaches us we cordially invite the good people of San Antonio over to take a look at a live Texas town, and introduce them to that old fellow they have often heard spoken of so eloquently as the "Iron Hoax."

Honore Greeley for President.

The nomination of Horace Greeley as a candidate for the Presidency, and his acceptance, completes another "historic parallel." Andrew Johnson boasted of having filled every office from alternants to President. Mr. Greeley, on his part, may claim that he has been "nominated" for nearly as many places as Andy himself.
The "unkindest cut," however, is given him by another endorsement in the New York Star. That paper supported the philosopher for registrar, comptroller, congressman, etc., and now it wants to finish his work. When will Dana's remorseless friendship be satisfied? He has "nary bowel" of compassion? and that unkind contemporary, the Times, at the same time speaks of "universal amnesty" as a "policy which would instantly result in putting Jeff Davis back in the Senate." Does the Times mean to suggest that Greeley and Davis might come up as candidates on an "amnesty" electoral ticket? "If so, why not?"

LEAVENWORTH CITY, Kan., April 29.
Hon. Horace Greeley—Dear Sir: You many friends in Kansas desire to have your views in relation to your name being brought before the next National Republican Convention in 1872, for nomination for President. Without any disrespect to Gen.
Grant, we believe that no living American statesman has the claims of yourself for President.

Very respectfully your friend,
WM. KARMORE.
NEW YORK TRIBUNE OFFICE, May 4.
My Dear Sir: I have yours of the 29th, asking pointed questions with regard to our political future. I must respond in great haste. I trust never henceforth to be an aspirant for any office or political position whatever; but I fully purpose, also, never to decline any duty or responsibility which my political friends shall see fit to devolve upon me, and of which I shall be able to fulfill the obligations without neglecting more imperative duties. I have not yet formed a decided opinion as to the man who ought to be the next Republican candidate for President, but it seems to me advisable that he should be a staunch, constant believer in the good old Whig doctrine of one Presidential term.

HORACE GREELY.
Finally, Mr. Beecher, in his Christian Union, quotes the following, as "calculated to arouse the sternest resistance of our nobler nature":

"Mary had a little lamb, It drank cold water fresh,
And looked so innocently wise, She called it Horace Greeley."

Whatever is, is right, except what's left.
Kentucky still bows with horned snakes and honey.

The census of London shows a population of a little more than 3,250,000.

It is said that there is not a citizen of Maine worth a million of dollars.

The daily paper printed at Wild Cat, Arkansas, is very appropriately named the Evening Caterwaul.

"Father, won't you buy me a fish pole?" said a plump boy. "You know the Bible says, 'spare the rod and spoil the child.'"

The reason why a ship is by common consent designated in the feminine gender, is because so much attention has been paid to her rigging.

An exchange mentions a case beyond the ordinary occultists. It is that of a young lady who instead of a pupil has a college student in her eye.

This is the way an Ohio paper announces an incident: Born April 17, to W. B. and Jennie O. Hearn, a daughter. Shall vote when she is 21.

Since the introduction of railroads in India the wealthy Hindoos go on their religious pilgrimages by rail over ground which their fathers toiled over on foot.

CANDIDATES.

We are authorized to announce LEWIS G. BROWN as a candidate for Congress from the 4th District of Texas...

We are authorized to announce DAVID R. DIFFENDERFER, of El Paso, as a candidate for congress, subject to the nomination of the Republican Convention of the Fourth Congressional District.

Caution!

We hereby warn everybody not to pay any money due to one R. F. Gosch, who for a short time acted as our agent...

THE OFFICE OF REGISTRAR IS ON THE MILITARY PLAZA, AT THE SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

THE city marshalship seems to be degenerating into a sinecure berth.

EVERYTHING talked about nowadays hinges on railroad.

We move that Kampmann's whistle be placed on the first locomotive run to this town.

THE HIGH winds that prevail nightly are unusual, generally, at this season of the year.

To-morrow is the sixth day allowed for the registration of voters. Our citizens will also remember that they cannot vote without having registered specially for the purpose between the 13th and 23rd of June.

SAN ANTONIO is to have two more policemen and a detective. The same number of police used to manage city affairs when the town was less peaceable, quiet, and clean than now—but then we had either Dan-Boinet or Captain Kempton as Marshal—men who understood their business.

GALVESTON has a new mayor and new city council and the people generally are pleased with the appointments. We don't want a new mayor or a city council, but we do need a change of other officers whose Republicanism or whose ability is questionable.

WE LEARN with extreme regret that the fire companies and societies, generally feel indisposed to parade, this coming fourth of July. The expenses of music &c. are very high and the city makes no provision to either aid or encourage a fourth of July celebration.

OFFICER KIRKMAN was fined in the Justice court for consulting an assassin upon a prisoner in charge. We think common Justice demands that the Chief Marshal, Mr. Gregory, dismiss him from the force. An officer who cannot keep the peace himself, is not to be trusted to control others.

642 is the number registered up to 6 o'clock yesterday. As the time extends through next Friday the 23rd it is probable that from 1500 to 1800 voters will be registered. The closing days are generally attended by crowds.

OUR OLD and well known fellow citizen W. D. MAY is pouring hot shot into the camps of the opposers to the Railroad and is as active and energetic in the Railroad cause as a young man of twenty-one. He is one of the oldest citizens of our place.

WE ARE pleased to note the arrival from New York of our young friend Alvarado Mays. As a young man of fine business talents, Alvarado has few peers and no superiors.

WE haven't received from 20,000 notices yet for advertising the Columbus route. The gentlemen who are asked we received it had better come forward, tell us where it is, and we will make a fair divide with them.

SOME of the self-consequent gentlemen who are opposed, without reason, to the proposed extension to the Columbus railroad might have learned a valuable lesson in progress from two of the oldest German settlers of San Antonio who yesterday registered themselves for the purpose of voting aid to the Columbus road.

Twenty-five years ago, D. Bonnet & Jacob Harsbach, came with the first German Colony to this section of country. The country was then a wild waste. Steadily step by step they have established the town advance, and many a willing hand or sensible thought have they lent to its advancement.

For fifteen years, hope has burned steadily within their bosoms of seeing this country connected with the bay outside world by ties of iron and render a doubly vigorous by the infusion of some of the energy that through the arteries of commercial, manufacturing and other interests will flow naturally to it.

With weight of years upon them, and the honors of being the old landmarks of the original building-up of San Antonio, the crowning act of their duties as good citizens is in fostering and encouraging progressive enterprise, and as we looked upon their aged, yellowed forms yesterday we sincerely hoped that kind Providence would lengthen their span of life, beyond the time that they should see a consummation of their hopes, and the iron horse with his shrieks and snorts, rolling into San Antonio bringing with it rich freights, and new and bright hopes for the future.

THE boys in blue have evidently received their dues (in the shape of pay) from the United States. They seem to be having a good time generally.

"ONE of the most interesting scenes," says the New Orleans Times, "witnessed at the Texas State Fair at Houston, was the awarding of first premiums to the Grover & Baker Family Sewing Machine, and the enthusiasm displayed by the ladies who flocked about the exhibitors, extending their congratulations, and thanking the committee for their list and wise decision. Their expressions of joy formed a striking contrast to the gloom which overspread the countenances of those competitors who were so unfortunate as to represent machines of less merit and perfection."

Immense success for Grover & Baker. Seven Blue Ribbons for Grover & Baker. Best Family Machine, Grover & Baker. Best Plain Sewing, Grover & Baker. Best Ornamental work, Grover & Baker. Best shirt making machine, Grover & Baker. Best Piano Case by machine, Grover & Baker. Best Worsted Quilt by machine, Grover & Baker. Best Lady's Dress by machine, Grover & Baker. "Schnapps" is a remedy in chronic catarrhal complaints, etc.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimony to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommended it. Having a natural tendency to the gastric surfaces, with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant, 36 Pine Street New York, Nov. 21, 1867. Odolpho Wolf, Esq., Present: Dear Sir:

I have under a clinical examination of a sample of your "Sclidian Schnapps" with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substances had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that this sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors.

I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Sclidian Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

Chemical and Technical Laboratory, 19 Exchange Place, New York, Nov. 25, 1867. Odolpho Wolf, Esq., Dear Sir:

I have analyzed a sample of your "Aromatic Sclidian Schnapps," selected by ourselves, and have found it to be free from all organic or inorganic substances, more or less injurious to health. From the result of our examination we consider the article of superior quality, and suitable as a beverage, and especially in its medicinal qualities. Respectfully yours, (Signed) ALEX. TRIPPEL, Chemist.

Consumption, Its Cure and its Preventive, By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are shrugging the shoulders at such a fate, and they calmly adopted Dr. Joseph H. Schenck's simple Treatment, and availed themselves of the wonderful effects of his medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor. In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicine is as simple as it is unerring. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sarsaparilla and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in with all its distressing symptoms of Consumption.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Pederaphillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they "Leave no Sting Behind." The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It awakes from its torpor. The stomach acts responsibly, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last, a Supply of Good Blood.

The Sarsaparilla, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the curative work is at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in. Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It starts at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and repairs the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was.

Given up as Lost. The second thing is, the patient must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this season of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep in good spirits—he determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words: "Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time. As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I regained my strength, and have grown to flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He of his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continues to see patients at various times, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them; first create appetite. Of retaining health, hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, so it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once flows, the cough lessens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sarsaparilla, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. E. J. HART & CO., 73, 75 and 77 Tehoupinous street, New Orleans. Wholesale Agents, L-11-7021y.

Railroad Election Notice.
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Bexar.

Be it remembered that at a regular session of the Hon. Police Court, held in and for the County of Bexar, on the 1st day of June, A. D. 1871, the following proceedings were had, to wit:
The petition of more than fifty (50) freeholders of the county of Bexar, having been presented to the Police Court of said county, asking for an election to take the opinion of the electors of said county on the proposition that said county shall aid in the construction or extension of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway from the town of Columbus on Eagle Lake in Colorado county to the city of San Antonio, in Bexar county, by making a donation to the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company of the sum of Five hundred thousand dollars in the bonds of said Bexar county, in the manner and upon the conditions set forth in said petition, and which conditions are hereinafter more fully set forth.

And the court having duly considered the said petition, and being satisfied of the rights of the petitioners to ask and have an order for such election, by virtue of the act of the Legislature, entitled "An act to authorize counties, cities and towns to aid in the construction of Railroads and other works of Internal Improvements," approved April 12th, 1871.

It is therefore, hereby ordered by the Court that an election be held in accordance with said Act, at the Court-house of the county of Bexar, to commence on the 5th day of July, 1871, and continue for four consecutive days, to wit: the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th days of July, 1871, to take the opinion of the electors of said county of Bexar, upon the proposition above mentioned, which is as follows, to wit:
That the County of Bexar shall aid in the construction or extension of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway from the town of Columbus on Eagle Lake in Colorado county to the city of San Antonio, in the county of Bexar, by making a donation to the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company of the sum of five hundred thousand dollars in the bonds of said county of Bexar; each bond to be for the sum of one thousand dollars, payable thirty years after its delivery, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, payable annually upon interest coupons to be attached to each of said bonds, upon condition nevertheless, that the said Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company fully complete and equip their said Railway to the city of San Antonio within two years from the time when the qualified voters of said Bexar county shall have voted affirmatively on the said proposition; and that the bonds aforesaid shall be delivered to the said Railway Company when the said Railway shall be fully completed and equipped to the city of San Antonio and not before, and that the said bonds shall bear interest only from the date of their delivery. And further provided, that the said Railway Company shall execute and deliver to the said county of Bexar, within sixty days after said election, their bond in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful completion and equipment of said Railway within the time and to the place aforesaid.

The vote on the proposition aforesaid shall be by ballot for the proposition or against the proposition, as prescribed by the act aforesaid.
It is further ordered that J. W. Van Slyek, C. Wenzel and H. Frouill are hereby appointed managers to conduct said election in accordance with said Act, and to make a return thereof to this Court, on Wednesday, the 12th day of July, 1871.
It is further ordered that this order shall be published for three weeks previous to said election, in the city of San Antonio, in the county of Bexar; and it is also ordered that a special meeting of this Court be held on Monday, the 17th day of July, 1871, that being the first Monday after the return day of said election, for the purpose of ascertaining and recording the result of the election herein and hereby ordered.
I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original order, as entered upon the minutes of the Police Court of Bexar county, at its May term, A. D. 1871.
Witness, Mortimer Slocum, Clerk of the District Court of said county and [L. K.] Seal of said Court, at office in San Antonio, this 3rd day of June, A. D. 1871.

ed by its great reputation, has concluded to offer it to the public, and is happy to state that he has perfected arrangements for a regular supply of this wonderful Plant. He has spent much time experimenting and investigating as to the most efficient preparation from it, for popular use, and has for some time used in his own

The great field trials at Sedalia, Mo., and at Xenia, Ohio, in the Summer of 1869—where "The Clipper" met some 400 competitors including all the leading machines built, and was awarded the First Premiums and Gold Medal—proves that the proprietors have been able to sustain in the field their claims of superiority for The Clipper Machine over all others. Its extraordinary lightness of draft takes one-third of the labor of the team. The adjustability of the finger-bar, to cut high or low, without stopping the team, is worth $25 on any machine. It is a truly mower that has the true center draft in accordance with correct mechanical principles.
In short, it is the lightest, the most durable, the least complicated, the most perfectly constructed, the most symmetrical in design, of any implement of its class. Farmers you cannot afford to ignore their welfare—send for pamphlet—investigate—see or write to some one who has used the clipper. See the Machine yourself before you buy any other.
