This preparation of the great Scientist,
 Dr. Gottlieb Fickler of Germany, is based on the fact that all the materials of the body
 are derived from Food, so all Force, Power,
 or Health, is derived from the Food stored up in Food. Dr. Fickler's Bitters enables the System to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates at once Appetite, cures
 Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility, Languor and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Consumption and Biliousness impossible; acts as a Preservative and Restorative; Reinforces the System as it candide over the result of changing climate,
 water, &c. and better culture and meet the demands often unexpectedly made on its Force and Energy. Ladies in delicate health and persons, and all emaciated
 and weak after sickness, will rapidly
 strengthen by using this great preparation.

 Parisian press union elected fifteen of its

 New York, July 5.—The weather at during the past week. Herald says Grant pardoned Bowen, bigamist of Congress-and official circles was shot and killed in a house of ill repute this morning. He is crease in the eastern States.

 Fortune Tellers.—Bank clerks.
 Of what trade are you?—They are comb-makers.
 Never got off till to-morrow what you did the week before last.
 To discover our own chief defects we have but to ask ourselves what we blame
 most in others.
 A very benevolent lady has taken the notion lately to benefit of her own a pair of hose for a fire-engine.
 The reason why the French have had such hard times is because they couldn't keep their noses straight.
 "Good morning, Smith, you look sleepy."
 "Yes," replied Smith, "I was up all night."
 "Oh! where?" "Up stairs in bed."
 Was the Roman senator, whose sons
 were leeches, a parrot? "No, my child;
 the Greeks were Democrats."
 "Mamma," said a little boy who had been severely hurt a week before the fire,
 "it'll do me when it's blown!"
 "Remember, my dear father," said an indignant parent to his fractious son, who replied, "I'm not to blame for that, am I?"

As the shadow of the sun is largest when his beams are lowest, so we are always least when we make ourselves the greatest.
 A New York merchant absent recently copied a love letter to his "heart's soul" in the letter book of the firm before sending it.
 "Here is an extract from a new novel:
 "The Countess fell back in a deadly swoon. When she revived her spirit had fled."
 Many ladies give an excuse for marrying for money that they seldom find anything else in a man now-a-days worth having.
 Atmospheric knowledge is not thoroughly distributed in our schools. A boy being asked what is mist? vaguely responded, "An umbrella."

A Connecticut school-boy had written a composition on the horse, in which he says it is an animal having four legs, "one
 at each corner."
 The High, Low, and Broad Church parties of England are designated as "Attending," "Platitudinarians," and "Lat-itudinarians."
 Old Moneybags says that a girl with an income of three thousand dollars a year or more is always an object of interest, because she has so much principal.
 A country paper says there is a man in that neighborhood so mean, that he sits on the door steps of the church on Sunday, to save the wear of his new spectacles.

An observant genius remarks that love
 may be blind, but he has always noticed whenever a man professes to be very desperate, he is always told to "see father."
 "Modesty asks: "What is the best method of supping the question?" It is a good deal like champagne—if it don't pop itself, there is something wrong about it.
 Census-taker out West reports eight thousand cotodiles in his district. "There used to be more in that part of the country," he says, "but a large number of them
 have been raised to generals." Anxious Traveler—"Hallo, there! What boat is that?" Captain—"Tow boat?"
 Traveler—"But what line is it?" Captain "Tow line." Traveler—"I want to get aboard." Captain—"get one of the fence."

One of Dierstedt's admirers, in speaking about him to John Bright, said: "You ought to give him credit for what he has accomplished, as he is a self-made man."
 "I know he is," retorted Bright, "and he adores his maker."
 What kind of pelt do you sell here, Mister? I asked a boy of stationer. "We keep all kinds, you young vagabond," was the rude reply. "Oh, you do, do you? Well, then, I'll take ten cents worth of pig pelt."

 A city miss, newly installed as the wife of a farmer, was one day called upon by an neighbor of the same profession, who, in the absence of her husband, asked her for the loan of his plough for a short time.
 "I am sure you would be accommodated," was the reply. "If Mr. Stone was only at home; I do not know, though, where he keeps his plough." "But," she added, evidently anxious to serve, "there is the cart
 in the yard; couldn't your plough with that till Mr. Stone gets back?"
Valuable Hints.
 A REGULAR habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. None is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the rectum matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as the free passage of water of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.
 Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs,
 and one of its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous in itself, has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant
 breath, a yellow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headaches, loss of memory and general debility.
 Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all these evils by removing their immediate cause in the digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The consistent use of this preparation is the best preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an antispasmodic, or a nervine, or a blood purifier, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the sluggish canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membranes which line it, gently stimu-lates the liver, braces the nerves, and changes the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is a household characteristic that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker as with the stronger sex.
 Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass and engraved on the label, is the test of goodness. Beware of counterfeiters.

INDIANS.

We believe we may say safely that a crisis is about to take place in reference to our Indian affairs. The present state of affairs on our frontier cannot be maintained. Scarcely a week passes but we are called upon to record some attack on trains, on the road, to and from the frontier posts. Generally speaking, these attacks are successful in obtaining all live stock, and are not infrequently connected with the murder of teamsters.

The crowding act of daring and outrage is the successful capture of near two hundred head of horses and mules within four miles of the Military Plaza. It sounds incredible that this can be consummated, when it is considered that we number 18,000 in population.

On the night of the 3d instant, an unknown number of Indians made their appearance at the ranch of W. J. Locke, on the Olmos, four miles from this city; they stole five animals from Mr. Locke, and seven from J. F. Herrin's place, and two from some Mexicans; several animals were also killed with arrows in the vicinity. They approached within 200 yards of Mr. Locke's house, and the same night stole over 150 head of horses from Emil Meyer & Co., near the ranch of Mr. Horn. We noticed a scout going out in that direction on the morning of the 4th, but have as yet heard nothing from them.

A party of young men from San Antonio, fishing on the Leon, about eight miles from town, were approached by a party of seven, who were undoubtedly Indians. We have heard the opinion advanced that these outrages were committed by Mexicans disguised as Indians. There may be some truth in this, but the very audacity of this last raid leads to the conclusion that it was done by thieves who were unacquainted with the locality. The question can be settled if it ever happens that they are overtaken, and the prospect is hopeful.

The Celebration of the Fourth in San Antonio.

The failure of the people to exhibit any interest in the great political questions that are before the country, is one of the most unfailing signs of approaching danger to civil liberty. We have but to fold our arms and say we don't care anything about politics, and to continue this masterly inactivity for a short time and "Philistines will be upon us;" and if it is a fact that we have learned nothing from the four years' war which resulted from the ascendancy of the Philistines, then the sooner the Philistines, we mean the Democracy, makes us feel the rod the better. One more decade of Democratic domination may be necessary to ensure the perpetuation of Republican principles. A continuation of the apathy that seems to pervade our people in reference to the celebration of the great national holiday is exactly what suits the unreconstructed. Hitherto the Democracy have enjoyed a monopoly in the business of sneering at and treating the Fourth with contempt, but now they seem to be re-inforced by a heavy contingent from the ranks of Republicanism.

The little villages of New Braunfels and Eagle Pass had public spirit enough to organize celebrations worthy of the day, but in the Republican city of San Antonio, with a Republican administration, the only demonstration was made by two companies of colored State Guards, a few members of the League and some colored school children. These were almost the only representatives of the Republican party that honored the old flag by escorting it through the streets day before yesterday.

This Republican indifference rejoices the Southern heart as much as a speech from Jeff Davis.

About ten o'clock the two companies of State Guards, A and B, commanded by Maj. Stanley Welch. After them, the members of the League, followed a colored company of State Guard from about the Martinez, followed by the colored children belonging to the public schools, and then some few white citizens in bonnets, took up the line of march through Commerce street, out in the direction of the Abat place, a short distance above the convent. There was a ball and concert at the San Pedro, and a grand ball at the Casino. The day passed off very quietly, and we did not see one drunken man. We are informed, however, that a most disgraceful row occurred at the Fireman's hall, which would have resulted in a fight of huge dimensions if Market Master Bennicke had not unexpectedly appeared, and by his courage and muscular development quelled the disturbance by arresting several of the most prominent actors. We suppress names no good can result from mentioning them, and the parties are under bond to answer before the recorder.

The Barbecue.

The barbecue of the colored people at the Abat place on the Fourth was a success in every sense of the word. The attendance was large, the enjoyment of the participants was intense, the locality well chosen, and the arrangements satisfactory.

As we gazed on the hundreds of sturdy forms of working men and heard the joyous laughter of groups of romping children, all neatly dressed, with their hundreds of dusky faces radiant with good humor and enjoyment, and saw the stacks of bright muskets that were arranged with military precision, the old prayer, which, however, is forever repeating itself in history, flashed across our mind: "Tempus cognoscitur et nos metumur in illis," and memory was busy with remembrances of the days of slavery.

Is it possible that it is only a few years ago that the bell at the Methodist church was rung at nine o'clock in the evening, and that the "rebel" men who were marching up Commerce street on the 4th of July, under the Stars and Stripes, with a musket on their shoulder, were obliged to be in their houses, and were whipped next morning in the jail, by the sheriff, if caught out after that hour?

But then, the difficulty of recollecting that picture with the one before us is not so difficult when we reflect that Jefferson Davis made a secession speech not more than three weeks ago, advocating the removal of a policy that would, if successful, restore things to their ante-bellum condition. Times have changed, and we have changed with them; and where is the man bold enough in mendacity or sufficiently debased in understanding, to assert that the change is not for the better.

Under the trees and along the banks of lovely San Antonio were scattered one thousand well-dressed, happy, independent men, women and children, who, seven years ago, were serfs. Here are the living trophies of Republicanism. The trophies of Democracy are to be found in the dust and ashes of the Confederacy, and while one party is building thousands of school houses to enlighten the ignorant white and black, the other is trying to raise money to build monuments to fallen traitors. Each party will, at some future day, reap as it has sown.

A stage had been erected near the banks of the river, and about half past eleven o'clock speaking began, after the Declaration of Independence had been read by a colored man named McGraw.

The first speaker was Mr. Uriah Lewis, a colored man from Ohio, who did very well. He was followed by Melhouson, also colored, who made several good hits; one in particular, as to who it was that supported the white folks during slavery, struck us as being a world of truth in it.

This speaker was followed by our efficient Secretary of State, who made a lengthy speech, full of good advice and sound views.

He was followed by Alexander E. Sweet, who addressed the audience for a few moments, and in his turn was followed by Major Stanley Welch, who was introduced to the audience by the Hon. James P. Newcomb. He made a short but pointed speech. Dinner was then served, and music and dancing were the order of the day. In the afternoon hundreds of our citizens visited the grounds, among them Gen. Reynolds. The whole affair passed off generally without an incident to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

Minutes

Of a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of Maverick, Dimmitt and Zavala counties, Texas.

EAGLE PASS, TEXAS, June 26, 1871. The meeting was called to order by Mr. George McKay, Chairman of the committee. It was then moved and seconded that Mr. Charles Gross be appointed delegate to represent the counties of Maverick, Dimmitt and Zavala, at the Republican Nominating Convention to be held at New Braunfels, Texas, on the 14th day of August, 1871, and that said delegate be instructed to cast his vote for the nomination of the Honorable Edward Degenor, for re-election, to represent the fourth Congressional District of Texas.

The following resolutions were then passed and adopted by the committee: 1st. Resolved, That at a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee, representing Maverick, Zavala and Dimmitt counties, Texas, they take pleasure in expressing their opinion of the good services of the Honorable Edward Degenor, our late representative in Congress, for the fourth Congressional District, and for his creditable efforts to give protection to our frontier.

2nd. Resolved, That this meeting instructs our delegate to be elected to-day for the New Braunfels convention, to be held on the 14th day of August, 1871, to use his influence in behalf, and give his vote in support of the re-election of our much esteemed fellow citizen, Edward Degenor, as representative in Congress from this district. It was then moved and seconded that a copy of these resolutions be published in the "San Antonio Express," and the "Press Press," carried.

Moved and seconded that the meeting adjourn, carried. GEORGE MCKAY, Chairman. Wm. Cook, Secretary.

The Buchanan News of the 17th inst. states that a Cherokee Indian named Bligh was shot and killed on Red River the week previous by some unknown parties. Two or three months previous Bligh, who was in the woods, was shot with a pistol by an unknown party, and was recovering when shot the last time. He was shot late one evening in his yard, between forty and fifty bushes, and he died in his bed. He lived three or four days—Sherman Patriot.

We learn from the Monitor that the name of the party killed in Denton last Monday week, an account of which we published last week, was Thomas Barrie. He was stabbed by Harvey Munn fourteen times, and lived only twenty minutes. Munn then ran off and mounted a horse of London's and fled, pursued by two or three parties, but at last accounts was not arrested. Barrie was about sixty years of age and Munn about twenty-five. Both were intoxicated, and were quarreling over a game of cards—Sherman Patriot.

We learn that on Saturday morning, the 17th inst., six or seven miles east of Whitesboro, in this county, a difficulty occurred between two men, named respectively Robert Draper and Charles Sweeney, about the breaking of some prairie which Sweeney was doing for Draper. During the quarrel between them Sweeney picked up a stone (but made no attempt to use it, as far as seen), when Draper ran into the house of J. J. Jarrk, where the altercation occurred, and a fight ensued, and that Sweeney, from the effects of whiskey died in about two hours. Draper then made his escape, and up to this time has not been taken, though every effort has been made by the officers of the law for his capture. We learn that both Draper and Sweeney had been but a short time in the county—Sherman Patriot.

The above extracts are from one issue of the Sherman Patriot, and need no comment. And yet some people say we need no State policy.

We are informed that on the 14th inst., about sunrise, three desperadoes, Joe Parker, formerly of Collins, Dick Johnson, step-son of Jack Dixon, and one name unknown, were secreted near the house of Lewis Peacock, in Fannin county, two miles from Pilot Grove, and as Peacock came out to get some wood these parties fired upon him. He fell at the first fire, riddled with buckshot, and it is said the desperadoes, or one of them, fired on him as he lay on the ground and filled him with balls from his feet through his entire body. It is said these parties rode off after the shooting towards the Indian Nation, and told persons in the vicinity that they had killed Peacock. It will be remembered that Peacock was one of the principal parties who figured in the Bob Lee and Peacock warfare, some two or three years ago, in that vicinity—Sherman Patriot.

They never will get done abusing Mr. Greeley's handwriting. The other day he wrote a puff for "Anna Dickinson's lecture on Joan of Arc." The compositor (says an exchange) set it up. Any Dutchman can't play a jewsbarg. There is no wonder the good old man gets soured against humanity, and often speaks out in meeting.

The Savannah Republican says: "The new amendments to the constitution are practically and utterly destructive of everything wearing the favor of States' rights. It therefore follows inevitably that no true Democrat can subscribe to the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments, or consent to accept them as irreversible facts."

The city is filled with Indian rumors of all various degrees of atrocity. They are mostly unfounded, as is the case with the rumor of the killing of soldiers at Gallagher's ranches. At the time of our going to press nothing had been heard from the scouts that recently left our city.

This morning the polls were crowded to such a degree that it was almost impossible to get closer than ten feet, and at twelve o'clock 400 had voted; 390 were in favor of the donation and ten against it. There will probably be about 600 votes cast today.

Consumption,

Its Cure and its Preventive, By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of asthma and indisputably proven means of cure.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions, can be quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works.

The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unerring. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-evident, self-convincing.

The Sarsaparilla and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver.

With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of Consumption. The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Purgative Pelletum. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"Leave no Sting Behind." The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A Supply of Good Blood. The Sarsaparilla, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Oxygenation is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless and the cure is seen to be at hand.

There is no more asthenia, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in. Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs.

In the form of expectorations, it prepares them for expectoration, and in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is removed and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manifold or wondrous that was.

Given up as Lost. The second thing is, the patient must stay in a warm room until they get well. It is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased.

When a cure cannot be effected, fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter seasons, are all spring. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and so fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood.

The patient must keep in good spirits—he determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility is the worst error, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time."

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed an uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck by discontinuing his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continues to see patients at their office, No. 78 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Tuesday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them: First create appetite. Of returning health, hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough, looseness, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a curative cough and asthma, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sarsaparilla, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and Dealers.

Railroad Election Notice.
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Bexar.
Be it remembered that at a regular session of the Hon. Police Court, held in and for the county of Bexar, on the 1st day of June, A. D. 1871, the following proceedings were had, to wit:
The petition of more than fifty freeholders of the county of Bexar, having been presented to the Police Court of said county, asking for an election to take the opinion of the electors of said county on the proposition that said county shall aid in the construction or extension of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway from the town of Columbus or Eagle Lake, in Colorado county, to the city of San Antonio, in Bexar county, by making a donation to the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company of the sum of Five hundred thousand dollars in the bonds of said Bexar county, in the manner and upon the conditions set forth in said petition, and which conditions are hereinafter more fully set forth.
And the court having duly considered the said petition, and being satisfied of the right of the petitioners to ask for and have an order for such election, by virtue of the act of the Legislature, entitled "An act to authorize counties, cities and towns to aid in the construction of Railroads and other works of Internal Improvements," approved April 18th, 1871.
It is therefore, hereby ordered by the Court that an election be held in accordance with said Act, at the Court-house of the county of Bexar, to commence on the fifth day of July, 1871, and continue for four consecutive days, to wit: the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th days of July, 1871, to take the opinion of the electors of said county of Bexar, upon the proposition above mentioned, which is as follows, to wit:
That the County of Bexar shall aid in the construction or extension of the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway from the town of Columbus or Eagle Lake in the county of Colorado, to the city of San Antonio, in the county of Bexar, by making a donation to the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company of the sum of five hundred thousand dollars in the bonds of said county of Bexar; each bond to be for the sum of one thousand dollars, payable thirty years after its delivery, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum, payable annually upon interest coupons to be attached to each of said bonds upon condition nevertheless, that the said Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway Company fully complete and equip their said Railway to the city of San Antonio within two years from the time when the qualified voters of said Bexar county shall have voted affirmatively on the said proposition; and that the bonds aforesaid shall be delivered to the said Railway Company when the said Railway shall be fully completed, and equipped to the city of San Antonio and not before, and that the said bonds shall bear interest only from the date of their delivery. And further provided, that the said Railway Company shall execute and deliver to the said county of Bexar, within sixty days after said election, their bond in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful completion and equipment of said Railway within the time and to the place aforesaid.
The vote on the proposition aforesaid shall be by ballot "for the proposition" or "against the proposition," as prescribed by the act aforesaid.
It is further ordered that J. W. Van Slyck, C. Wurzbach and H. P. Small are hereby appointed managers to conduct said election in accordance with said Act, and to make a return thereof to this Court, on Wednesday, the 12th day of July, 1871.
It is further ordered that this order shall be published for three weeks previous to said election, in the "San Antonio Express," a newspaper published in the city of San Antonio, in said county of Bexar, and it is also ordered that a special meeting of this Court be held on Monday, the 17th day of July, 1871, that being the first Monday after the return day of said election, for the purpose of ascertaining and recording the result of the election herein and hereby ordered.
I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original order, as entered upon the minutes of the Police Court of Bexar county, at its May term, A. D. 1871.
