OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE UNITED STATES
OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF BEXAR COUNTY AND CITY OF SAN ANTONIO.
A. SIEMERING & CO., Publishers.

SUNDAY, JULY 23, 1871.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
AUSTIN, August 23d, 1870.

To A. Siemering & Co.,
You are hereby notified that I have this day appointed your paper, "The San Antonio Express," the Official Journal of the twenty-third Judicial District, and that I have signed my name to and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed to the city of Austin, this 23d day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the Independence of Texas, the thirty-fifth.
EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.
By the Governor:
JAMES P. NEWCOMB.

BLANK DEEDS, For Sale at this Office.

On the 14th of August the convention called for the purpose of nominating a Congressional candidate for this Fourth district will be held at New Braunfels.

It is not only essential that the coming candidate favor the promotion of the best interests of Western Texas, but also that his political views harmonize strictly with those who propose to elect him.

In order that the candidate may know exactly what political views he is required to subscribe to it would be advisable that the district nominating convention at New Braunfels lay down a platform which shall contain the fundamental principles of the party, and express the sense of the Republicans of the Fourth district in regard to the questions that agitate the public mind.

Without presuming to dictate, we would suggest that the first question which deserves attention is the settlement of the Indian outrages on the frontier; and it would be expedient that the convention propose some scheme by which protection can be secured to Western Texas. The general government certainly owes no effective protection, and it is equally true that we have not got it, and that there is but little chance of any improvement in our Indian affairs at present.

We make no reflections on the officers or men composing the United States forces in Texas, as attacking Indians is something for which they are not prepared. The officers are, of course, unacquainted with the country, and have had no opportunity of learning the mode of warfare to be waged against Indians, which can only be acquired by long experience and constant practice; the cavalry horses are entirely unfitted for protracted sprints, on which they have no courage but grace, and often not much of that. The only man who can fight the Indians successfully in Texas, are our native frontiersmen in the West, and we have abundant material to carry out a war of extermination with those red thieves and robbers had we but the money necessary to bear the heavy expense incident to such undertakings.

The convention should make a demand on the United States Government for the funds necessary to establish a permanent frontier organization. We have the right to demand protection, or else the Government has no right to demand the payment of taxes; we mean a bona fide protection, not one on paper.

The people pay already a large sum yearly to keep the internal white Comanches in order, but it is not to be expected that they can afford to wage war on hostile tribes.

The next topic that should receive attention in the convention is, whether we shall not have an election this Fall, and an expression of the sentiments of the convention on the members of the present legislature holding a third session.

The great majority of the Republicans of this district, and, we believe, of the State also, are of the opinion that another session of the legislature in 1871 is contrary to the constitution, and that the laws enacted during any such session would be null and void. It would be exactly in place if the convention at New Braunfels followed the course adopted by the Bexar county convention, and request the legislature to meet and adjourn immediately, sine die.

An expression of the opinion of the convention on the donation of the public square to private enterprises, and the shameless bribery that was carried on at the last session, would also be very appropriate.

Let the convention speak plainly and boldly, and it will receive the thanks and congratulations of all true Republicans.

The editor of the "Weekly Dispatch" is a Texas "Black Pomery" (without the wit). "The high-bred Southern gentleman" who edits the "Dispatch" has the following gem of Democratic journalism in his last issue. He calls Quick, of the "Houston Union" "the Scipio Naso, ink scur of that filthy newspaper."

His parting shot at the unfortunate Quick is: "The editor of the Union is a contemptible flop seed, and a bounder, beneath our further notice."

We quote the above from the "Dispatch" out of pity for the Democratic rascals of the Express, who can find nothing congenial to their tastes in the mild, non-partisan "Herald."

What a lie boy, the "Dispatch" editor must have been to go to school with.

The German poet Henry Heine predicted the destruction of the Vendome Column and burning of the grand palaces in France, more than twenty years ago.

Indian Marauders Overhauled.

AUSTIN, July 19th, 1871.
Last week, (Wednesday morning,) General Youngkin, by command of the Adjutant General, called a County Republican Executive Committee, and the meeting opened at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

On motion, Mr. H. H. Russell was appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting was then explained by Mr. Youngkin, viz: to appoint three delegates and three alternates to attend the New Braunfels Congressional Convention, to take place on the 14th day of August next.

On motion of the Hon. H. M. Shoemaker, a committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The chair appointed as such committee, H. M. Shoemaker, James Kies, J. M. Simpson, F. W. Fahrenhold and David Baily, who retired a short time, and on retiring presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted by the convention:

Resolved, That our Chief Magistrate, President U. S. Grant, has, by his firm and wise policy, merited the approval of all good and true men of the country, and we feel convinced that the interest of our party and the prosperity of the country require our re-election in the Presidency of the United States.

2. That we heartily endorse the administration of our able and patriotic Governor, E. J. Davis. By his zeal and unwavering integrity in promoting the interests of our State, and in guaranteeing to us protection for our lives and property, we have fully realized our highest aspirations, and that we recognize him as the representative of the Republican party of the State of Texas.

3. That we fully appreciate the services of our late Representative in Congress, Hon. H. Degener, and we express our preference for his nomination at the coming convention at New Braunfels, we obligate ourselves to abide by, and support the nominees of the Republican party at the said convention.

4. That the Republicans of Lavaca county, in convention assembled, do fully realize the great importance of uniting all Republicans in the coming Congressional election.

5. That we recognize none as Republicans who do not heartily support the nominee of our District convention, to meet at New Braunfels on the 14th August next.

6. That we extend an invitation to and will cheerfully welcome all good citizens of our county who will unite and vote with the Republican party in the coming contest.

7. That we extend a vote of thanks to our able and worthy District judge, Wm. H. Burkhart, of the Twentieth judicial district, for the faithful and important manner in which he discharges his duties, and we also highly appreciate the services of our district attorney, Mr. S. C. Patten, and admire his ability and the tenacity with which he urges the prosecution of criminals.

8. That the above proceedings and resolutions be forwarded to the "House of Representatives," Austin "State Journal," San Antonio "Express" and "Freel Press," with a request that the same be published, and that a copy of these resolutions shall be furnished our delegates as credentials at the coming convention.

On motion, the following gentlemen were elected delegates to the New Braunfels convention: Hon. H. M. Shoemaker, F. W. Fahrenhold and Daniel Baily, Alternates—W. H. Terrell, James Rice and Claiborne Moore.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned.

H. G. YOUNGIN, Chairman.
H. H. RUSSELL, Secretary.

Fort STOCKTON, Tex., July 13th 1871.

At a meeting of the Republicans of Presidio and Pecos counties which was held at Fort Stockton, Texas July 13th 1871, for the purpose of electing one Delegate and Alternate to represent the counties above named in the Republican Convention to be held in New Braunfels August 14th 1871.

Mr. Clarence Etheridge was called to the chair and Mr. Joseph Friedlander selected Secretary. The meeting then unanimously elected W. E. Friedlander Esq., of Fort Stockton as Delegate and Mr. Moses E. Kelly of Fort Davis as Alternate. The following resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That the course pursued by the Hon. Edward Degener during his term in Congress is highly approved by the Republicans of Presidio and Pecos counties.

Resolved, That the Hon. Edward Degener is our favorite candidate for re-nomination as a congressman of the 4th congressional District and we hereby instruct our Delegate to cast his vote for him.

CLARENCE ETHERIDGE,
Chairman.
JOSEPH FRIEDLANDER, Secretary.

We have no doubt that Mr. Degener will cease to be a candidate for Congressional honors as soon as he learns what a dangerous man his opponent, Mr. Hancock is represented to be. Let him read the following extract from the Weekly Dispatch published at Lampasas, and tremble.

We congratulate the Judge on being so nobly defended.

"Birds of feather will flock together."

We learn that whenever he speaks the element who compose the party of broken-down officials, pan-snickers, and fleapups—soft Jaun-faced laziaries—pie-grabbers, ballot-stuffers, and wire-wrapping wool-pullers, quake in their knees, turn pale and their teeth chatter as if attacked with a back ague, at the enormities, the oppression and corruption that is practiced by the radical party, which are shown up by Judge Hancock in a truthful manner.

Come out every body."

Do no more.

In the Masonic portion of the Houston cemetery in the grave of Gen. Magruder, and the only thing to indicate the spot are two lines, written with a pencil on a board, "J. B. Magruder, Lieut. Gen. C. S. A." Exchange.

Gen. J. B. Magruder was one of the Texan, he was praised to the skies for saving Texas from the ravages of a hostile invasion; he was the object of sickening adulation as long as he had power, and yet he had not a friend to close his eyes or to decently mark the spot where his remains are placed.

CANDIDATES.

We are authorized to announce the Hon. EDWARD DEGENER, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the 4th District of Texas, subject to the nomination of the Republican Nominating Convention of this District.

The See advertisement of Dr. Batt's Dispensary, headed "Book for the millions' MARRIAGE GUIDE—in another column."

TRUTH.—The powers of Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children are as positive as the sunlight from heaven, and gentle and soothng as an angel's whisper.

We regret to learn that a daughter of Dr. Chev, living about eight miles below Sutherland Springs, was drowned in the Cibolo, at Womsham's school house, last Tuesday. The little girl was swinging on a grape vine that extended over the creek, the vine breaking, she fell into the water and perished before assistance could be obtained. She was a promising child of about 14 years of age. Our sympathies are tendered to the bereaved parents.

COL. James P. Hector with a number of surveyors has arrived in our city from Indiana; they have been engaged in locating the route of Indianapolis, San Antonio and El Paso railroad.

They have succeeded in laying out a very superior route for the cheap and speedy-building of the road. The enthusiasm along the route is unbounded and the citizens are donating liberally.

The necessity of San Antonio having a road to Indianapolis that is not controlled by Morgan is evident to all.

The route as laid out is about one hundred and forty miles.

BUTTERY family should have a sewing machine. A lady who has bought one says that she would as soon think of doing without her baby as her sewing machine, and that is saying a good deal. We expect, like with babies, each family thinks their the best, and the prettiest, and makes the least noise, requires the least trouble to manage, etc.

Those about to buy will find it to their interest to inspect the stock of Messrs. Norton & Deutz, on Commerce street, who have the celebrated Howe machine, which has taken various and sundry medals, and is durable, simple and complete.

THE case of the State vs. Josef Linn, for the murder of a little Mexican girl named Manuela, was decided day before yesterday in the District Court by the acquittal of the accused. The charge was, that the child had been killed by severe usage and neglect, the deceased being in the service of the accused. The witness for the State failed to testify to the same story that they related on the preliminary examination, and should be prosecuted for perjury. The evidence was wholly insufficient to sustain the charge, and so the jury thought, after an absence of about twenty minutes.

WHEN we say the weather is hot we feel that we have done the subject justice, indeed we acknowledge our inability to do it justice. We heard a man do it justice yesterday, but the publication of excessive profanity in a public newspaper, even as a quotation is not admirable. It is hot, hotter, hottest, hottest, hottest, hottest, hottest, hot as sun ever, hot as two oxen—hot as anything you please, it is too hot to talk about it.

The vegetables are a failure at present; the sweet potatoes in particular are not any better than they should be, not even as good.

They are just beginning to come into market, perhaps that is the reason they are so small.

We saw some on the Plaza yesterday morning, a venerable freedman had some for sale on a cloth laid on the ground, but they were not low for all that, he wanted a dime for five little ones about the size of a lead pencil. We asked him why they didn't grow any longer, he said, because he digged 'em up, he raised them himself; we told him he shouldn't raise them so high next time. Just then two Irish soldiers came along, they had been out on a spree all night, and one of them had a lovely black eye, he stopped in front of the abused potatoes and took a birds-eye view of them, with an expression of the most concentrated contempt; then his eye twinkled, he stopped down and picked one up by the end and said: "And what did you take the little worm out of its bed so airily in the morning for?"

"Old uncle" looked at the soldier and then at the miserable potato, with protruding eyes and opened mouth. "Why, bless the Lord dat aint no worm, dat is a poorest potator."

"And who was it that told you so, is that what yer teach'd in yer loyal lage, yer black-linen?"

"Look here, if you don't want my parsun you can just knif' em, but—"

"It wasn't my intention to have any dialog with you, and now repeat yer words ye blackguard, and I'll pull off my coat and thrash yer in less time than it takes a Jackson to whip a thistle!"

"Come on, Mike," said the other soldier, "don't be talking politics in the strate, ye have made the blackguard ashamed of him, and ye fight besides."

"Divv a bit," said Mike, "but it is a dymocrat that I am, and be insulted me."

Mike was removed by his more sober companion, and the potato replaced on its pile with the remark "Did the Lord ober see the like?" we paid our dime and took the pile.

We think we understand now how the New York fist started.

ALL men who work hard during the week feel glad when Sunday comes around, whether they go to church or not. It is a luxury to such to be oblivious to the toils and cares of their daily routine of business, a weight is lifted, so to speak, from their shoulders, and on the following Monday they go to their daily labor with renewed energy.

Many people in the New England States and in the South, who attend church on Sunday think that the day is not properly observed unless they shut themselves up in the house for the remainder of the day, and in some cities this has been carried to such a degree of intolerance that the bear gardens and coffee-houses, and all public places of amusement are closed by law.

We believe this was attempted in San Antonio a year or so ago, but was never carried out successfully. To attempt it is a piece of religious intolerance that should not be advocated in this country.

SCHOOL!

It is the intention of the undersigned to open a School in the commodious room under the Methodist Church, in San Antonio, on the first Monday in September, 1871.
