THE PREPARATION OF THE GREAT SCIENTIST, Dr. Gottlieb Fish, of Germany, is based on the fact that, as all materials of the body are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, or Health, is derived from the Force stored up in Food. Dr. Fish's Bitters enables the System to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates at once appetite, cures Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility, Languor and lack of Nervous Energy; as tones the Stomach and Liver so to make Consumption and Biliousness impossible; acts as a Preservative, and Restorative of the System, so it can tide over bad results of changing climate, water, &c., and better endure and meet the demands often unexpectedly made on its Force and Energy. Ladies in delicate health, aged persons, and all unacquainted and weak after sickness, will rapidly strengthen by using this great preparation. (3-6-71d&w-2m)

The sweets of country life.
(DEPicted BY A MAN OF FEELING.)
This sweet at summer eve to revel
When brightly shines each twinkling star,
And strolling through the silent grove,
Calmly to smoke a good cigar.

This sweet upon the flowery mead
To see the leader latibkins play,
With pensive eye to watch them feed,
And note how plump to roasts are they.

This sweet to follow deer to view,
Contented mid the fern in tranquil group;
This sweet to hear the turtle's coo,
And meditate on turtle soap.

This sweet, from cares domestic free,
While wandering by the streamlet's side,
The speckled trout or perch to see,
And think how nice they would be fried.

This sweet to mark the plower's flight,
Lone on the moor, its nest depouled,
And with prospective mental sight,
To contemplate its eggs hard boiled.

This sweet, beside the murmuring rill,
The scented violet to smell;
Yet may a perfume sweeter still,
Attend the welcome dinner-bell.

Where mountains repose in their business,
Where the sun first lands in his newness,
Ere down to the vale he advances
With vigor erect, and rides swiftly
On the terrible night in his way,
And slays him, and with his sword deftly
Hews out the beautiful day;
Lay nestled the town of Henalis,
Famed for its maids, its silver mine,
And farther famed for its tall Alcoids.

WARD is on his way home.

Jeff has the shins and won't express his views as to the exigencies of the times.

Hard to heat but not hard to catch a boiled egg.

Be careful of your horse's feet when there is a fork in the road.

As the mule balked between the two stacks of fodder, even so balketh the Democracy between the departure and Jeff.

WILLIAM WEST killed Wm. Harris, not far from Fairfield. Cause, an old grudge; murder escaped, both very respectable.

EXTRAVAGANT.—A suit has been begun for $5000 damages, for being run over by a train of cars, by a man in Connecticut.

THE New York Times will consolidate the American and German vote, and strengthen the Republican vote in that city tremendously.

FRAGMENTS of persons blow into the air by a steamboat explosion are called by an Arkansas editor, "atmospheric phenomena."

THE New York Democracy tried to bully a small crowd of men and the United States troops made their heads swim. The Southern branch will make the same blunder some day.

Gen. Foster says that there are no Ku-klux, but a grand jury in Northern Mississippi found 45 true bills, involving 200 persons.

ONE of the Siamese twins is reported lying at the point of death, and the other is quite robust. In case the invalid dies, arrangements are made to sever the connecting link.

An Ohio legislator made a speech so charged with the electricity of eloquence that his spits tailed coat frequently stood out at an angle of 90 degrees, and trembled violently.

A water sport in Nevada lifted a passenger from the track.—Telegraphic.

WE wonder if that is not the kind of sport that is meant in the phrase of "going up a spout."

A MAN in New York is spending money to get the contract to put in one pane of glass on the new courthouse. The man who painted the lightning rod has retired from business, and is going on a European tour.

THE Republicans in the North do not forget the gallant soldiers who fought through the war. The nominees of the State convention of Ohio is the Hon. B. F. Newys, who served with gallantry and distinction through the war, and lost a leg in the service.

HE will be elected by at least 25,000 majority.

THE Republicans of California have blundered; they have put an anti-Chinese plank in their platform; they would have been better for them and more in accordance with Republican principles, if they had committed themselves the redress of the wrongs of the Chinese. Besides, it is a mistake commercially.

New departure cocktails are all the rage in the North. We said they would take their departure, and they even do it smilingly.

Union smokes are not fashionable just now. Jeff Davis toddies (toddlies) will be the rage next.

THE kindly Tatum should request the Government to issue kid gloves, to the "pets" when coming into Texas, so they will not soil their fingers in scalping women and children. If the government don't do so, Tatum can resign and the Kiowas will prepare for the war path.

The great danger which now threatens this country is centralization.—Galveston News.

The states rights doctrine means secession at the pleasure or convenience of the states. It means a denial of the right of protection and property. Copies will be sent to the friends of the Constitution and the national and mob law. No educated people in this age can be enslaved, and the talk about despotism has no significance whatever. The only risk that the people run of being enslaved is to be found in the undertakings of defeated traitors, to revive questions that are settled by the war.

To quote Jefferson on the question of the present day is about as appropriate as telling what our grandmothers knew about sewing machines.

This extreme anxiety about the liberties of the people was not observable during the actual despotism of the confederacy, on the part of the Democratic press.

The political salvation of the country is to be found in centralization.

THE Democracy is the party for a federate soldiers to belong to if they do not mind being treated like fools.

Judge Hancock, the would-be commander of colored troops raised to invade Texas is the Democratic nominee in the Fourth district, and Conner, the dismissed commander of colored troops that helped stop the rebels, then bamboozled them into sending him to Congress, where he made himself their gullibility, defeated the proposal of Throokmorton's disability, come back and is now nominated again. Here is a check for the ex-Confederate soldiers to annul the party that has done wrong for them. They are good to stop bullets on vote for the party's candidate, but the Democracy can find better material for officeholders.

If the departure is to be honest, why do they not denigrate the devilish system of oppression and wicked and caustic relation they instigated and carried out? While the departure virtually acknowledges that the Republican measures are wise and beneficent, and that it is the safest party to entrust with the management of the government, they are very silent on the question of Democratic responsibility for all the misery that has befallen the country. Until they cut off their retreat, so to speak, by an official abandonment of their false doctrines and abominations, the departure will be considered nothing more nor less than a political dodge, the transparency of which becomes more apparent every day.

But then, it is their last hope.

THE Cuban cause is becoming more hopeful, as the South American States are fitting out filibustering expeditions of late, without any interference from the governments. Venezuela has contributed one successful expedition, and others are expected to follow. Any attempt to renew the war with any one of the South American Republics, will cause Spain to be involved with several others.

The Cubans deserve their independence, they have fought hard for it, and have received but little sympathy from anywhere. The Spaniards are becoming disheartened in the struggle, and will either be obliged to include several of the South American Republics in it, or abandon the island to those to whom it rightfully belongs.

BEFORE the war, but two per cent of the patents for agricultural implements were from the South, and ninety-eight from the North. Now the proportion of applications stands thirty per cent from the South and seventy per cent from the North. And that has been brought about under what the Democratic papers call "the signs of medical usurpation." It is a radical usurpation of idleness, ignorance and prejudice, by a healthy development of the intelligence and resources of the South. None but those who saw it, can help perceiving the disenfranchisement of the South by Republicanism.

THE coming post, Jéaquin Miller, whose real name is C. Hiner Miller, is from Oregon, went to California in 1852, and has at different times edited a democratic paper, flibustered with Walker in Nicaragua, run a pony express and practiced law. He ignored Boston and New York, and went straight to England, where he published his poems at his own expense. A prominent English critic thinks he is a second Byron.

[COMMUNICATED.]

By close observers of Texas climate it has been noticed that about the 1st of August it always rains in Western Texas, and rains abundantly. We would suggest to our farmers that during this week preparation should be made for a fall crop of millet, Hungarian grass, sorghum, for long forage. Three times as much of this forage as has ever been brought to San Antonio, will this winter bring good prices. Now is it too late to set out sweet potato slips, if the beds are all ready when the rain comes.

On land well prepared, corn sown broadcast thickly, about this time, will yield a heavy crop of forage, which will sell readily for $30 per ton, besides keeping your work oxen, milk cows, and horses fat all winter. Try it! And report results to the Agricultural, Industrial Association of Western Texas.

LINCOLN, the son of President Lincoln, died at Chicago of the dropsy, aged eighteen.

The grand jury system has gone out of use in Wisconsin.

The New York "World" thinks that Jeff Davis ought to be hanged. The Mobile "Register" wants to know "What guarantee have we that Jeff will all the while we will not be hanged, if the Democracy gets in power?"

Yes, so, the Democracy was very kind against the Confederates during the war.

A BURLINGTON shoemaker is advocating the revival of the Roman sandal for summer use, on the score of relief to the feet and economical practicality. This would be an improvement beyond a doubt, in a climate like that of Texas. There is a mournful and silent oblivion in suffering from warmer days of a warm day, caused by the use of boots, that favors the proposed device.

A man from near Belina reports the story of a little girl near there, who was laid out, but managed to crawl home to the people in that section are having peculiar breaks for the "pets," if they catch them they will go to the Penitentiary where it burneth with fire and brimstone.

Proceedings of the City Council.

SAN ANTONIO, July 24, 1871.
Adjourned meeting.

Present, his honor, Mayor Thielenape. Councilmen—MARRIS, NORTON, Bell, Barber, Moore, Callaghan and Gross.

A written agreement arranged by the Mayor with Messrs. Wagner & Hummel, as a settlement of the matter on which they petitioned the city, was read, and on motion, the protest issued by the Mayor, in connection with the action of the City Council of June 13th, last, was withdrawn, and the above agreement adopted.

On motion, it was voted to pay the Estate of H. Polley, fifteen hundred dollars ($1500) in gold, for 956-100 acres of land to donate to the General Government, and the incidental expenses incurred in procuring the right of the sale of said land; provided, said expense do not exceed one hundred dollars; and provided further, that unless the General Government accept the donation of said land, neither of the above amounts are to be paid.

An Ordinance providing for the erection and maintenance of a City Pound, was partly read and adopted, when, on motion, the Council adjourned until 3 p. m. August 1st, 1871.

FIVE MEN HUNG.—Some time in May a posse of men pursued and caught a band of Apaches at or near the town of Tarrant, Hopkins county, and started back towards the west with them. They were seen to pass a small village near the line of Hunt and Hopkins counties, late one evening, having the prisoners with them. Next morning they were seen without them. A few days ago, in Turkey creek bottom, three skeletons were found hanging to the limb of a tree, and a fourth was a little below, where it had been drifted and lodged by the high water of the stream. The fifth had been also washed away, or carried off by some animal, but was not visible, although signs were remaining to show that all five of them had been hung to the tree. It is not known who the men were, or who the party that hung them—it would that they had been stealing horses from the citizens of some of the western counties.—Luluia enterprise.

The "Waco Register" states that by an agreement with the Houston and Texas Central Railroad company, the Waco & N. R. R. Company agrees to grade and tie the route to Smith by November 1st, and to Waco by July 1st, following. The H. & T. C. R. R. Company agrees to complete and put the road in running order from Brenham to Martin by January 1st, and to Waco by October following. An order for the necessary iron has been sent to Europe.—Houston Telegraph.

The agent of the Comanches and Kiowas of this post, Tatum, a most benevolent and conciliatory Quaker gentleman, has his agency near the fort. He called on the General soon after our arrival, and the first remark he made was that he had been able to accomplish nothing in civilizing the Indians. They paid no attention to his injunctions, and continued going to Texas, where they committed murder and lawless depredations upon the whites of that section, while at the same time they are being fed by our work to walk the Civilized States.—Correspondence Galveston Statesman.

Mr. John Angers, of the firm of Angers & Nagle, showed us, on Thursday last, a couple of "wads" which came from Falls Point county, of which the above firm bought 300 pounds, which they are now using in their foundry. Henry Nagle, a thoroughly practical blacksmith, pronounced it excellent for blacksmithing use. The same coal was used here some 12 or 14 years ago, by blacksmiths, and why it was not continued to be used we do not know. It can be delivered here at 24 cents per pound.—Dallas Herald.

Josh Billings says that a large policy of life insurance doesn't exactly make a man's corpse smile at his widow, but it helps amazingly to get another fellow to do it for him.

The "HOWE"

THEREFORE SELECT "Elias Howe's" NEWLY IMPROVED FAMILY SEWING MACHINE

which for simplicity and superiority of mechanism, beauty and excellence of stitch, economy of thread, strength of seam and variety of work is unsurpassed by any other Machine.

It will sew, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing, plain and ornamental, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, called the "Howe" Lock Stitch, which is formed by two threads, one upon each side of the material, sewed and locked together in the centre, forming an elastic seam, and presenting the same appearance on both sides. A stitch of this character commends itself as especially appropriate for sewing woven material, and if suitable thread be used the seam will prove as strong and elastic as the fabric itself.

The South Carolina Land and Immigration Association.

The South Carolina Land and Immigration Association—An Important Enterprise.—By reference to the advertising columns of this morning's Courier, it will be perceived that an important enterprise has just entered upon its inception in Charleston. Generals M. C. Butler and M. W. Gary, and our fellow-townman, John Chadwick, Esq., have entered into an association for the purpose of facilitating and promoting immigration into our State. The importance of this enterprise will at once be perceived, and it will be equally apparent that in order to make it a success, our people throughout the State will have to lend their cordial assistance to it. The Association proposes to establish agencies in the principal cities of Europe, and the North and Northwest, for the purpose of inducing immigration, and assisting such persons who may desire to come to the State, and become permanent settlers upon the soil. The land proprietors throughout the State, to whom particularly immigration is of the greatest importance, can facilitate the association by offering their surplus lands for sale on easy terms of credit.

JACOB BADER.

Consumption, Its Cure and its Preventive, By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away for whom death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proved means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends, are sleeping the dreamless sleep into which had they daily adopted

Dr. Joseph H. Schenck's simple Treatment, and availed themselves of his wonderful efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that when sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid, made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible times. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is un-failing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-acting, self-curing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbid action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of Consumption, The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophyllum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-purifying, alterative properties of colomel, but unlike colomel, they

"Leave no Sting Behind." The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are cleared. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It ascends from its torpidity. The stomach acts sympathetically, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A Supply of Good Blood. The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, purinates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more fatulence, no excoriation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impured and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and let us say again that the malady is vanquished, the rotten throats that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was Given up as Lost. The second thing is, the patient must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold with the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented, or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this season of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommended that course have their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much as an hour at a time; the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep his spirits up, be determined to get well. This is a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the greatest point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words: "Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physician thought that I could not live a week; then a drawing man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparation, which I sent for to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up mucus that a pinch of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

As soon as that began to subside my cough, fever, pain and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He is now at Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continues to attend to patients in their offices, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in milder doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the simple directions that accompany them; First takes appetite, it restores health, longer is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the dosing be as usual, as it will come, let Good Blood be renewed, the cough lessens, the night sweat is checked. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in all of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea-weed Tonic, $1.50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and Dealers. E. H. HART & CO., 73, 75 and 77, Tchoupillon street, New Orleans, Wholesale Agents. 1-11-70d1y.
