"Where did you Come From Baby Dear !"

BY GEORGE MACDONALD.

Where did you come from, baby dear !. Out of the everywhere late here. Where did you get your eyes so blue! Out of the sky as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and spin t Some of the starry spikes left in.

Where did you get that little tear? I found it waiting when I got here. What makes your forehead so smooth and high; A soft hand stroked it as I went by, What makes your check like a warm white I saw something better than any one knows

Where that three cornered smile of bliss ?

Three angels gave me abonce a kiss. Where did you got this pearly ear? God spoks, and it came out to hear. Where did you get these arms and hands Love made itself into hooks and bands,

Feet, whence did you come, you darling things?
From the same bex as the chernb's wings. How did they all come just to be you! God thought of me, and so I grew. But how did you come to us my dear? God thought of you and so I am here.

Ir is a bad sign when the people refuse to take active part in the politics of the country; and when this apathy has become general, then is the time that the liberties of the country are in dauger.

Every American citizen, that is an American citizen in the proper sense of the word, must feel a deep interest in the question, shall the liberty we now enjoy be perpetuated to our children? and it is a criminal act for him not to do his part in his own day and generation to hand down unimpaired the legacy which has been transmitted to him at a great price. Now the question arises immediately, what party is best calculated to preserve these republican institutions in their purity ? To state the case is to decide it. Which party is if that has attempted to de the National Government? History will answer it was the Democracy that nearly succeeded in uprooting our republican institutions, and it was the Republican party that sayed them after incredible sacrifices of blood and treasure.

McGary, of the Age, calls upon the lawyers of Austin county to organize a Democratic party, and intimates the brethren there are somewhat direlect in their Dumocratic duty. Pérhaps Mae has not considered the difficulties in the way. Austin is an agricultural county, and it is more than likely that there are not Democratic lawyers enough in any one place and of which to make the officers of a club. There must be three, you know,—at least—President, Secretary and Treasurer. We are naturally inclined to assist the weak, and would respectfully suggest that a few of the Democratic lawyers laying losse around Houston, be sent up into Austin county to assist the brethren there to organize.—Houston Union. The republicans at Anstin seem to have looked upon the matter in this light, as we notice that in the meeting of the 27th the Hamilton clique were totally defeated, and resolutions were drawn up which express the views of those present in a clear and forcible manner and instructing the delegate to act in harmony with resolutions.

This is the only proper and legitimate way to proceed in such matters.

But besides these two regularly announced candidates are two other Congressional aspirants, Hon. Jas. P. Newcomb and Wm. B. Moore.

These two last named gentlemen have mot actually "put in an appearance," but we believe ourselves justified in asserting that both are working diligently behind the scenes, or that their friends are doing so for them.

So far as Mr. Newcomb is concerned, the above paragraph, which is a translation from the Freie Presse, is neither just not true. He has manipulated to voters, and working "behind the scenes" is not his vocation. As to the working behind the seemes and manipulating the colored voters there is no necessity of saying anything in this community. We refer to the San Antonio letter to the Union, however, as evidonce that Mr. Newcomb's friends entertain different views from those attributed to him by the Journal.

whom he had recently performed the marriage service. Desiring to renew the ac quaintance (for the lady had interested him greatly at the time), he accosted her with the remark:

"Madam, did I not have the pleasure of marrying you a few days since ?"
"I was married a few days since, sir?"
"Yes, I thought I was not mistaken: I "I was married a few days since, sir!"
"I was married a few days since, sir!"
"Yes, I thought I was not mistaken; I senting the same appearance on both sides arried you."

A stitch of this character commends itself as especially appropriate for sewing woven material, and if suitable thread be used the seam will prove as strong and elastic as the fabric itself.

At the present time no less than 400 Machines are turned out daily, and each and every one is guaranteed perfect, and made for sale by of the best material.
