Walker in Mearagua.

From the poems of Joaquin Miller, the new California Poet.]

WALKER. He was a brick and brave as a bear, As brave as Nevada's grizzlies are, As brave as Nevada's grizzlies are,
A Texan tigress in her lair,
Or any lien of anywhere;
Yet gentle as a panther is,
Monthing her young in her first fierce kass,
And true of soul as the north pole star;
Tall, courtly, grand as any king.
Yet simple as a child at play,
In camp and court the same alway,
And never moved at anything;
A dash of sadness in his sir. A dash of sadness in his air.
Born, may be, of his over care
And, may be, born of despair
In early love—I never knew; In early love—Ineves answ,
I question not, as many do,
Of things as secred as this is;
I only linew that he to me
Was all a father, friend, could be;
I sought to know no more than this
Of history of him or his.

Speak ill who will of him, he died In all diagrace; say of the dead His heart was bleak, his hands wego red Say this much and be satisfied, Gloat over it all undensed; I only say that he te me, Whatever he to others was, Was truer far than any one.
That I have known beneath the sun, And I have known beneath the sun, Man, maid, or saint, or Sadducee, Asboy or man for any cause. I simply say he was my friend When strong of hand and fair of fame; Dead and disgraced, I stand the same To him, and so shall to the end.

He lies low on the leverd sand, Unshelter'd from the tropic sun And now, of all he know, not or Will speak him fair in that far land. Perhaps 'twas this that made me seek Disguised, his grave one winter tide; A weakness for the weaker side, A siding with the helpless weak.

A palm not far held out a hand, Hard by a long green bamban And bent like some great bow unstrung,
And bent like some great bow unstrung,
And qiver'd like a willow wand;
Beneath a broad barans's lest,
Perch'd on its fruits that creeked hung. A bird in rainbow splendour sung A low, self song of tempered grief

No sed, no sign, no cross of stene, But at his side a cactus green Upheld his lances long and keen; It stood in hot red sands alone, Flat-palm'd and fierce with lifted spears; One bleem of crimsen crown'd its head. A drep of blood, se bright, so red, "Yet redolent as roses' tears. In my left hand I held a shell, " In my left and I held a suell,
All rosy lipp'd said pearly red;
I laid it by his lowly bed,
For he did love so passing well
The grand songs of the solemn sea.
Oh shell, sing well wild, with a will,
When storms blow loud and birds be stil
The wildest sea-song known to thee: I said some things with folded hands, Soft whisper'd in the dim, see sound, And crail knees knit in the warm sands

He had done more than this for me, And yet I could not well do more! The eaying that one must go away from home to hear news is verified by the account of a young female burning a man to death in San Antonio Texas about a year age. The following thrilling story is appointed by Act of Congress March 3d from the N. O. Picayune: frem the N. O. Picayune ;

"In going through the Parish Prison a few days since, the attention of the reporttew days since, the attention of the reporter was attracted to a young girl apparently not more than lifteen years of age. She had fair nut-brown hair, and a complexion fresh and white as milk. The mild blue eyes were singularly soft and intelligent, and her whole appearance indicated the free, joyous characteristics of youth and happiness. Yet this amiable looking creating fair, delicate Minesyan of slender from this fair, delicate Minerva of alender from and ingenious face, is said to be a devil incarnate. Burning with resentment and conscious of her inability to cope with him in physical waited until the next cal strength, she waited until the next night, when he was asleep, and then locking the doors of the room and closing every avenue of escape, also prepared for a work of herror almost impossible to conceive. On one pretext or another site sent all the immates of the house away, and ceive. On one pretext or another she sent all the immstee of the house away, and procuring paper and other inflammable material, built a foneral pyre around the bed of the sleeping man. This done, she sat fire to it, and locking the door behind her, fled the house. The man woke up when the house was full of flames, and is escaping from the room was literally roasted. One side of his body was burned almost to a clinder. He has never recovered from his injuries, and is to-day a hopsics invalid, suffering excraciating torture and centinual anguish. His generosity—perhaps his sense of atonement—prevented his prosecuting the girl, and she made her escape to New Orleans. Arriving here, she took apartments on Toulouse street, hetween Rampart and Burgandy, where she still resides. She is yet very young, certainly not mere than seventeen at farthest; her vindictive and savage fury when excited is a terror to all her acquaintance.

BLANK DEEDS, For Sale at this Office,

Our Congressional Pintform.

In a former article in the Expuns, the anggestion was made that the nominating convention at New Braunfels establish platform upon which the Congressional candidates will be required to place them selves, and on the occasion referred to we gave some hints as to our ideas of the char acter of the platform. We make the fol-lowing suggestions for the benefit of dele-gates that will be present at the Convenshould they see fit to proft by them : 1. Endorsement of the National Repub-lican Platform.

2. Endorsement of President Grant and his administration.
3. Endorsement of Governor Davis and

3. Endorsement of Governor Davis and his administration.
4. Endorsement of all those administrative measures that are calculated to protect life and property, and to promote education.
5. Endorsement of the Governors veto in opposition to Railroad subsidies.
6. Protection of the frontier at the expense of the United States Government.
7. No assaion of the Legislature in September but State and municipal elections this fall.

It is to be hoped that the Republica of the Pourth District will give this matter serious attention and that the platform, as proposed, may be acceptable.

THE candid reader of the State Journal one come to no other conclusion from the narmal of late numbers of that "organ" but that the parties who edit it are so blinded by ignorance or rage as not to be aware of the fact that its exhibition of low-flung trickery, and mendacious bragadocio, is producing mingled contempt and aqueement smong all intelligent republi cans. We are unwilling to believe that any ectable portion of the readers of the Journal are so unsequainted with the character of Mr. Degener or the course of the Expense as to be decrived by the silly investive that pervades the columns of the paper in question. We are informed as an item of interest that "the Express is andly and strangely changed of late," and an attempt is made to prejudice the Governor ist us, which is of itself an insult to the common sense of that worthy functionary, and which is mentioned that it may be despised. The immunitien of any change ne of the Expunss is probably intended for those who are too ignorant to rend it. We have unceasingly defended every measure of the administration, and as to the tone of republicanism, the denunciations of the spemy are proof of its adee to the principles of the party. We have vindicated the State Police eyes. The platform on which Clark was not the lying malice of the rebel press, and opposed stronously any reduction in the number of these faithful public servante; we have advocated universal education and necessity of the free school systom, and this has been the conve of the open the eyes of all but those that won't Expanse in regard to all these measures that have reflected so much eredit on the administration, and, although aware or the grave defects that exist in the school law, in the militia law, and in the management of the financial affairs of the State, we have been content to wait for their removal and avoided consuring until it should become apparent that no reform was intended. 2d. Is it decent or honorable that, under these eirenmetances, the State Journal should propound questions in the interest of Mr. Newcomb to the openly aunounced republican candidate, Mr. Degener, and what opinion would the people have of Mr. Degener's discretion if he should pay them any attention whatever !

3d. Would it not be prudent for the Journal to wait until the people in Convention at New Brannfels assembled, are a little more explicit as to the understanding of the common term "endorsing the admin istration" before it assumes that the people have no referms to suggest to the school law or the militia bill for instance, and is not Mr. Degener's intention of ascertaining from the people themselves their views on this subject more proper than accepting the Journal as the mouth piece of the reople f

4th. In what wense of the word is a reusel to answer the questions of Mr. Newomb, his congressional opponent, an insult to "the simple dwellers on the prairies," and to which candidate do the words "aristocratic lordliness," "European hauteur," "great mogul and leader of the party/ most fittingly apply f

5th. Is is not well known that no other nan in the 4th district can beat Judge Hancock except Mr. Degener, and does not this attempt to prevent the election of the republican candidate give just ground for the inference that Mr. Newcomb is indifferent to the success of the democracy, and that his real object is to deteat Mr. Degeper f

The Journal says, however, "We tell Mr. Degener that the poorest citizen and most obscure republican votor in the district has the right to question the candidate who seeks his vote, and to receive a courtoous answer."

New let the "demb" speak and deny that he is a candidate. His own friends say that he will run if coaxed a little, and a nest intimate friend, who speaks for 600 roters in Bexar county in a letter to the Houston Union, thought the Convention, rould nominate Mr. Newcomb unanimou

The democracy look upon him as their future opponent and his own organ runs down the popular republican candidate, and above all, his failure to deny that he is a candidate. Show your hand, Mr. Newcomb. There are too many right-howers out already for one straight pack, in this little game you do not understand.

Tun Houston Convention has met and minated Mr. Clark ay candidate for the 34 district. There are several other parties claiming to have been nominated, but their claims amount to nothing.

The Houston Union is actually beside itself with joy over the result, and if we could manage to understand the dissen-sions and differences in other sections of the State we might be able to indulge in a little more unequivocal satisfaction. Clark was left untrammelled by a previous cross-examination from Mr New comb, for the reason that this is the district upon which the Secretary has fixed inted is much more general in its construction than the one adopted by the Ex- sider the above and our previous interrog-PRESS and Mr. Degener; and the meral of atories as addressed to themselves likewise feet of the singular difference in the treatment of Mr. Clark and Mr. Degener will see, to the motives of this attempted political assassifiation of a candidate for whom 37 republican votes (a majority in a full Convention) are pledged.

In San Antonio we have but one Repubeither belters or bullios.

-AUSTIN is a cool place this hot weather. The following from the "Journal" is as cool as if it had fee in it: out one aditorial in which a departure from republicanium is to be observed?

out one elitorial in which a departure from republicanism is to be observed?

The New York Republican, The Times, The Sun and other Republican popers have consumented a time of solid shot and shell upon the supposed to be impregnable. The sun and the supposed to be impregnable from the supposed to be impregnable from the supposed to be impregnable. The sun is not a registered voter, and sherefore was not a registered voter, and sherefore was not an alone for carpeting enough to have nuclearly first class carpeting enough to have nuclearly first class carpeting to have nuclearly first class carpeting enough to have nuclearly first class in the subject of a first c 1870 nonings, which at the usual width of firmed. The District contains about 400. or feet would stretch I mile and one adult American citizens, and have elected a delegate to the New Braunfels conventille, and Mr. Newcomb, the 11th hour candidate above his appreciation of "the dwellers on the prairie," by refusing them representation, but then, to be sure, they instructed their delegate to vote for Mr "The Journal does want an

> A SCHOOLBOY'S ASPERSTON.—"Oh, how I wish I were a fountain, for thee I could always be playing."

MFELS, Aug. 4th solicitude Mr. Newcomb that able Republican might be elected se (see recent numbers of the State Johnnal,) would be touching in the extreme were it not self evident that his anxiety is but a pretence to weaken the influence of Mr. Degener, who has established his repu-tiation by thirty years of straight forward honesty, and is a dreaded rival of Mr. Newcomb in Congressional race.

The Republicans of Western Texas will show Mr. Newcomb in the Convention at New Braunfels that they honor Mr. Degeners tried Republicanism (unimpeached except by his rival) sufficiently to choose him as their candidate, even if he should have the misfortune to differ with the Secretary of States on some points, and although he refuse to answer at the ""nod and beck" of an irresponsible inquisitorial tribunal.

If Mr. Degener will only continue, to treat his open and secret chemies with the dignified silence he has heretofore regarded them with, until the meeting of the Convention, he will pursue a course that will raise him still higher above his open and secret enemies (Signed,)

A REPUBLICAN OF COMAL COUNTY.

THE State Journal has been black guarding us now for some time and we propose to give "the paper of many editors" a dose while we are at it. In the first place send us three copies of your valuable paper; for when we out out an article abusing the Express on one side, we find that we have spoiled (supposing that possible.) two other articles, on the opposite side, abusing Mr. Degener.

Now please let us know why it is no interrogatories have been propounded to Clark of the 3rd nor to Brown and Diffenderfer the 4th ? Take your time and answer alow. Mr. Clark how been nominated on a platform that is not near as specific as the one that stands at the head of our columns, and to which we referred you when you hurled your questions at Mr. Degener, and as a matter of course Mr. Degener would have no hesitation in enporsing that platform you think ample for Clark, except the boot-licking of some of the efficials at the end of it, we mean in the independent resolutions.

Now tell us what have you been raising such a row about.

Do you require to suit your own special interest something more binding on Mr. Degener than you require from Mr. Clark. Mr. Newcomb will now be obliged to trump up something else, otherwise Hancock will be defeated.

As Mr. Dogener still persists in his studied silence in reference to the questions propounded to him by the two leading republican papers of the West and we have to request the Convention at New Braun fels to insist upon answers, to our own five questions in particular.

We have two additional questions which we suppose, he will treat with his usual "imperial arrogance" but which, as " as humble dweller on the prairie," we have the right to ask.

Mr. Degener! 1st. Do you favor fe male suffrage, if so, how many ? 2d. Do you favor paying the fer-male teachers as large unlaries as you do the male, if so how many? -Will Mr. Brown, who has recently been induced to reconsider his motion to withdraw, and Mr. Diffenderfer of El Paso c Show your colors, gentlemen. How pitiful! The Journal attempts to prejudice the Governor against the Ex-PRESS by falsly stating that we took no notice of his able speech before the convention at Austin, when, in our issue of Aug 3d, we give the Journals comment lican party and have little sympaty for on the speech, and again, in last Sanday's issue make it the subject of comment with the remark that it will be published this chines are turned out daily, and each and week in full. The different county conventions, that request the immediate publication of their preceedings and the long report of the Indian meeting at Boerne, have prevented us from giving the apeech entire in one issue as we desire to do. The Journal reports to a falsehood, sol desperate is its present disgraceful position. The Journal needs an editor badly, it is so sadby and strangely changed of late.

Thu Telegraph, pretends to think we favor the Commune, showing thereby that the editor failed to read our denunciation thereof to former numbers, or willfully and maliciously perverts our remarks on that subject. Since the New York riet and the investigations of the Ku Klux Committee everybody knows what party it is that forem the Commune.

As to the remarks in the Telegraph on the Declaration of Independence and Jefferson, we reply that the Declaration was a flaunting lie until the Republican party freed the negroes and thereby@made all men really free and equals

Careful persons lift their feet high, and place them down alowly, pick up some lit-tle obstruction and place it down quickly by the side of the way.

BEST QUALITIES OF Consumption.

Its Cure and its Preventive, By J. H. Schenck, M. D.

OF BREEZE IT

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other feason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cur. Those near and dear to family and friend are eleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderful of meacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Joseph H. Schenck's simple

fallen.
Dr. Schenck has in his own ease proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful viger.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is sumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unifalling. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convicing.

The Suaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills The Suaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathise" with the stomach. They respond to the morbins action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in with all its disc-treesing symptoms of

Communitiem,

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peliatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike exlamel, they

"Leave no Sting Behind,"

The work of cure is now beginning. The vittated and nuccus deposits in the how-la and in the alimentary canal are spected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A Supply of Good Blood.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tertures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier Now comes the greatest Bleed Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenecks Pulmonle syrup somes in to perform its functions and to haston and complete the curs. It enters at unce upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripms the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time that it occupied is removated and made now, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to empty the manhood or womahood that was.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get, well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure samet be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter engage, are all arcing. Physicians whe lecommend that course less their patients, it their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk shout the room as much and as last as the atrength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patient must keep in good spletis—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words; Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drawning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now after to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. Given up at Lost.

catching at straws. I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now affer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

As soon as that began to subside my cough, lever, pain and might sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I seem gained my strength, and have grown in fiesh ever since."

'I was weighted shortly after my recov-ever since.

"I was weighted shortly after my recovery," added the Doster, "then looking like a mere skeleten I my weight was only since ty-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted heatth.

hundred and iwenty five (225) pounds, and for years I have onjoyed uninterrupted health.

Dr. Scheuck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Scheuck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office, Mo. IS North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every flaturday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. R., Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be abarged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable at not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that is some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines seed 'no other secompany them; First greate appetite. Of returning health, bunger is the specime when anyle instructions that accompany them; First greate appetite. Of returning health, bunger is the specime, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough logsons, the highit sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Scheeke's moditined are constantly, kept in tens of thousands of families, At a laxative or pu gettre, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Symp, as a carge of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactric against communities in any of its towns.
