A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas a Convention between the United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, concerning the rights, privileges, immunities, and duties of consuls of either country residing in the other, was concluded and signed at Washington at their respective Plenipotentiaries on the eleventh day of July, 1870; which convention, being in the English and German languages, is word for word as follows:

The President of the United States of America and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, animated by the desire to define, in a comprehensive and precise manner, the reciprocal rights, privileges, and immunities of the consular general, consular, vice-consular, and consular agents, their chancellors and secretaries, of the United States of America, and of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy, and to determine their duties and their respective spheres of action, have agreed upon the conclusion of a consular convention, and for that purpose have appointed their respective Plenipotentiaries, namely: the President of the United States of America, Hamilton Fish Secretary of the United States; and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, Apostolic King of Hungary, Charles von Ledera, Knight of the Imperial and Royal Order of Leopold, and His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary in the United States of America; who, after communicating to each other their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 8.—The Democrats carry the election by about 30,000. All Democratic candidates to the legislature are elected.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Albany, N. Y., returned. Crosswell is here. Grant is here to close out the Bonwell-Plantation intrigue.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Last night Grant sent his private secretary to Pleasanton, requesting his resignation. Pleasanton declined to resign. Upon the President's determination to suspend him and appeal Douglas. The matter will probably be continued to-day.

New York, Aug. 7.—Richard Croker, another of the Westfield victims, died to-day making the number of deaths 64.

A Texas letter says the army in Texas, cavalry and infantry, to the extent of several thousand, took up line of march July 10, with the view to concentration at the head of the Wichita mountains, from whence, under Col. McKenzie, they proceeded to the chastisement of the Comanche and Wichita Indians. The troops, exasperated by the treatment of their lost associates, go for extermination.

New York, Aug. 8.—Cotton dull; uplands 19 1/4; Orleans 20 1/4.

Within the past few days one steamer and six sailing vessels have been quarantined, with yellow fever on board, from the West Indies.

Dublin, Aug. 8.—The royal visitors have left Dublin. Not a cheer greeted them as they passed through the lined streets. The silence was only broken by a few hisses.

VERMILION, Aug. 8.—Court martial for trial of Communists opened yesterday. Indictments read. Some of the prisoners treated the prosecution with levity.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—A dispatch from Dublin says the city is quiet, but the excitement of the populace is not yet subdued. Generally thought the sympathies with the Fenian prisoners have not given up the idea of holding another meeting, in spite of the prohibition of the authorities.

The sentiment of a majority of the people is in favor of granting amnesty to all Fenian prisoners, but violent opposition to the authorities is generally expected. The belief was that the royal visit would be made the opportunity by the Government for the release of imprisoned Fenians. The populace are very bitter against the Prince of Wales because he has not interceded for amnesty. The whole police force is still on the alert, and the military is concentrated at the barracks, to be ready if called upon to aid the police.

Thus far no deaths are reported, but it is thought from five to ten persons will die of injuries.

Have, superintendent of police, is in a great condition, and fears are entertained of his recovery.

It is yet uncertain whether the Government can legally prosecute Mr. Smith, and other leaders of the demonstrations.

VERMILION, Aug. 8.—A dispatch from Algeria says the insurrection is crushed.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Two and a half inches hail over Albion, Wisconsin, damage a quarter of a million.

SAVANNAH, Ga. Aug. 7.—A party of negro exonerated on the Savannah seaboard and Midway railroad took possession of the cars. After cutting loose two of the cars, near Sandy Station, they commenced fighting among themselves. The remaining cars, with a large number of India on board, came into the city. One negro reported killed. The negroes have possession of the road. The sheriff will go out to-night to arrest the rioters.

ARTICLE I.

Each of the high contracting parties shall be at liberty to establish consuls general, consuls, vice-consuls, or consular agents at the ports and places of trade of the other party, except those where it may not be convenient to recognize such officers; but this exception shall not apply to one of the high contracting parties without also applying to the other.

Consuls general, consuls, and other consular officers appointed and taking office according to the provisions of this article, in one or the other of the two countries, shall be free to exercise the right accorded them by the present convention throughout the whole of the district for which they may be respectfully appointed.

The said consular officers shall be admitted and recognized, respectively upon presenting their credentials in accordance with the rules and formalities established in their respective countries.

The consular officers shall be delivered from arrest, free of charge, and upon exhibiting their credentials, they shall be admitted at once and without interference by the authorities, federal or state, judicial or executive, of the ports, cities, and places of their residence and district, to the enjoyment of the prerogatives reciprocally granted.

ARTICLE II.

The consuls general, consuls, vice-consuls, and consular agents, their chancellors, and other consular officers, if they are citizens of the state which appoints them, shall be exempt from military billings, from service in the military or the national guard, and from all direct and personal taxes, whether federal, state, or municipal, provided they be not owners of real estate, and neither carry on trade nor any industrial business.

If, however, they are not citizens of the state which appoints them, or if they are citizens of the state in which they reside, or if they own property, or engage in any business there that is taxed under any laws of the country, then they shall be subject to the same taxes, charges, and assessments as other private individuals.

They shall moreover, enjoy personal immunities except for acts regarded as crimes by the laws of the country in which they reside.

If they are engaged in commerce personal detention can be resorted to in their case only for commercial liabilities, and then in accordance only with general laws, applicable to all persons alike.

ARTICLE III.

Consuls general, consuls, and consular officers, if citizens of the country which appoints them, shall not be summoned to appear as witnesses before a court of justice, except when, pursuant to law, the testimony of a consul may be necessary for the defence of a person charged with crime.

In other cases the local courts when it deems the testimony of a consul necessary shall either go to his dwelling to have the testimony taken orally, or shall send there a competent officer to reduce it to writing, or shall ask of him a written declaration.

ARTICLE IV.

Consuls general, consuls, vice-consuls, and consular agents, shall be at liberty to place over the chief entrance of their respective offices the arms of their nation, with the inscription: "Consulate General," "Consulate," "Vice-Consulate," or "Consular Agency," as may be.

They shall also be at liberty to hoist the flag of their country on the consular edifice, except when they reside in a city where the legislation of their government may be established. They shall also be at liberty to hoist their flag on board the vessel employed by him in port for the discharge of his duty.

Our Congressional Platform.

In a former article in the Express, the suggestion was made that the nominating convention at New Braunfels establish a platform upon which the Congressional candidates will be required to place themselves, and on the occasion referred to we gave some hints as to our ideas of the character of the platform. We make the following suggestions for the benefit of delegates that will be present at the Convention, should they see fit to credit them:

1. Endorsement of the National Republican Platform.
2. Endorsement of President Grant and his administration.
3. Endorsement of Governor Davis and his administration.
4. Endorsement of all those administrative measures that are calculated to protect life and property, and to promote education.
5. Endorsement of the Governors veto in opposition to Railroad subsidies.
6. Protection of the frontier at the expense of the United States Government.
7. No session of the Legislature in September but State and municipal elections in that fall.

It is to be hoped that the Republicans of the Fourth District will give this matter serious attention and that the platform, as proposed, may be acceptable.

A CARD.

Editor San Antonio Express:
Some of my friends having expressed a desire of knowing the reasons why I did not take any notice of the questions propounded to me by the Austin State Journal, I will state that I consider the Delegates of the People in Convention assembled, the only authority which has a right to ask questions. I am fully prepared to satisfy the Convention before it proceed to nominate a candidate.

The inferences drawn from my silence by the "Journal" are altogether erroneous.
E. DEGENER.

Kerr and Bandera have wheeled into line for Degener. This makes 38 delegates who are pledged to support Mr. Degener. The flings of the Journal are not producing the effect that was anticipated. If Mr. Newcomb had only announced himself a little sooner, the number of un-instructed delegates would have been materially lessened.

All the "straddlebug" Republicans in Texas will be trampled to death between now and next January.—Houston Union.

We live in hopes that the Governor will yet put his foot on the vermin element in the Republican party, if he don't, we hope the United States government will.

Of all the bugs that infect the party to our notion, the "straddlebug" variety is the most offensive. If the "Union" wants to know what a straddlebug Republican is, we ask him what he thinks of Senator Mathew Gates for a black straddlebug Republican. We will stick a pin through a white straddlebug Republican shortly, and hold him up to public gaze.

The general theme of conversation is the New Braunfels Convention, and the chances of the different candidates. The Democracy hope for a split, and are so far as watching the signs of the times that they don't seem to observe the danger that is threatening them in the "new departures," and ignore the fact that Hancock is a "deputy" and the grand Democracy in danger.

As for the San Antonio Republicans are determined to see fair play. If Mr. Newcomb's friends abstain from the "ways and means" and the tricks that are vain and unavailing in nominating Mr. Newcomb, he will receive the unqualified support of the Express.

We regret to say that the Journal has already shown that should Mr. Degener be nominated, we have nothing to expect from that paper but detraction and misrepresentation.

The "Free Press" and "Express" have never objected to Mr. Newcomb as a candidate, and back numbers of both will show that all that was asked was that he should place himself on an equal footing with Mr. Degener, by announcing himself. Fair play is what we asked then, and that is what we demand now, and we will have it or else we will let the people know why we can't get it.

The Troubles on the Rio Grande.

Complaint has been made for the last twenty years by the people living on the American bank of the Rio Grande, that they were continually plundered of their stock by thieving bands of robbers from the opposite side of the river. These incursions have frequently assumed the shape of warlike invasions, and it will be remembered that in 1859, Cortina entered the city of Brownsville at the head of a band of cut-throats, looted possession of the town and committed a number of murders and other outrages. He then devastated this bank of the Rio Grande for the distance of 130 miles, and although frequently defeated, he always managed to recuperate his forces on the other side of the river, and thus waged a desolatory warfare on the American citizens for nearly a year.

He has sworn undying hostility to the Americans, and has let no opportunity pass to give vent to his hate. He boasted that he had never signed the treaty of Gaudaloupe-Hidalgo, and his sentiments then, as now, are "eternal hatred to the Americans."

This is the man that Juarez has sent to the Rio Grande frontier, and the natural consequence is that during the last few months the incursions into Texas have increased to an alarming proportion, and a renewal of the Cortina war is by no means improbable.

The cattle stealing has become an actual, unending vacation for hundreds of vagabond Mexican cut-throats and thieves from the Mexican side, who have their rendezvous and spies already at work on this side, and as the robbers can cross the cattle over at night, or at day-break, and when once on the other bank they can and do laugh at the plundered owners on the American side of the river.

The owners can never recover their property unless they cross over, and to do this would involve a conflict between the United States and the Government of Mexico, with which we are supposed to be at peace, but whose authorities on the Rio Grande protect and assist all thieves who threaten in Texas, whether they be Mexican thieves of the "usual snags" type or the more straightforward Kickapoo Indians. When the Indians raid within cannon shot range of the Alamo with impunity, it is not expected that the government will give any material assistance to our robbed and limited citizenries of the Rio Grande, and they appreciate the situation so fully that they are taking active measures to defend themselves.

We find no reflection on General Reynolds or his officers and soldiers. An American citizen and soldier it must be mortifying to them to see their countrymen despoiled by hordes of roaming vagabonds and themselves unable to give the adequate protection by reason of the smallness of their available force and the individual help.

General Reynolds in particular has been persistent in efforts to mitigate the evils of these incursions from Mexico by unceasing attempts to have the Santa Rosa Kickapoo removed to the Reserve, but his representations have not received that consideration at Washington which his position and the emergency of the occasion require.

Cannot the American Eagle at least show the Mexican Buzzard his talons!

The editor of the Journal again makes an ass of himself by attributing unworthy motives to Mr. Degener's refusal to answer Mr. Newcomb's questions. Has the Journal forgot that there is such a thing as a Republican party, and that the entire republican sentiment of the district will be represented at New Braunfels? Does the Journal know that 38 votes are pledged to Mr. Degener, and does it not understand that when it vilifies Mr. Degener for asking the people what they want, it insults the intelligence and manhood of the republicans who elected Governor Davis and gave the State over into the hands of the Republican party? We are not aware that the republicans of the 4th district have authorized the Journal to represent them in this matter; and that paper may well say "all this has a sorry look to earnest men" when the people are treated with the contempt that the Journal has evinced toward the Convention.

The article in the Journal, headed "Bismarkian Masquerades," is too good to be slightly treated, and will be the basis of a few remarks, in which the California Ah Sin will be mentioned.

We see by the Journal that the Governor is about to take the stump in favor of Mr. Clark in the 3d district.

Now is the time for the republicans at their meetings to appeal to the Governor in person to order an election this fall. It has been argued that this is not exactly the proper way to go to work, but the disgrace and expense inflicted on the State generally by the last legislature is great enough to justify the most extraordinary measures to prevent their re-assembling.

If the rule of "ex necessitate rei" ever applied it does in the present instance.

Some people thought we were not in earnest when we said the Georgetown Watchman had 19 extracts from the State Journal, but we were not and can produce the paper. This instance of journalistic funkyness is almost unique.

In ten counties where no resolutions were passed endorsing the administration, but instructing the delegates to vote for Mr. Degener, second meetings have been held and another set of delegates elected.

The proverb of Fox Populi est Rex has been changed by an Austin statesman to read Fox Populi est Rex.

MELVING, the formerly Episcopal minister of San Antonio, who was supposed to have been married, or to have committed suicide, is reported to have been seen in a London newspaper, the Express.

Turning after the K. K. K. through with a not a moment's delay, but he heard a "turning" into the hands of the conservator of the law—the State police—Statesmen.

The Superintendent of the Penitentiary can inform you differently. You may know how it is yourself some day.

The Republican Convention at New Orleans seems to have a split according to the latest news—the Dunn and Warmouth wings each holding separate conventions for themselves.

That is the way to please the Democracy.

BOMBING.—Jim Leavelle's announcement in the Journal of the 8th, as a candidate for Congress, fell like a bomb-shell among certain classes in the city. They were not suspecting such a movement, but the HERALD was.—San Antonio Herald.

You are a suspicious character anyhow.

GENERAL JOHN HANCOCK will probably see the old San Antonio about the 25th. The radicals will please prepare to squawk.

WHAT IT IS TO BE A WIDOW.—"I think it must be a jolly thing to be a young widow." I heard this remark, the other day, in a group of laughing girls. I think I remember saying such a thing myself in the careless girlish times.
"Do you know, girls, what it is to be a widow?" It is far more open to comment than any demerit could possibly be. It is to have men pass as you pass, first at your black dress, then at your widow's cap, until your sensibilities being quivers under the infliction. It is to have one ill-natured person say, "I wonder how long she will wait before she remarries again" and another answer, "Until she gets a good chance, I suppose." It is not and then to meet the glances of real sympathy, generally from the poorest and lowest women that you meet, and to feel your eyes fill at the token, so sure that it is also a look that it is to have your dear, fashionable friend console you after the following fashion: "Oh, well! it's a dreadful loss. We knew you'd feel it, poor dear." And in the next breath, "You will be sure to marry again, and your widow's cap is very becoming to you."

But is more than this to be a widow. It is to miss the strong arm that you have lashed upon; the iron fist that you knew could never fail you, though all the world might forsake you. It is to miss the dear voice that comforted your ear with a tenderness none other could give it. It is to hear nervousness the well known "goodbye" that you flew so gladly once to meet. To see more the face that, in your side-glancing eyes, seemed as the face of the "angel of God." To feel no more the twining arms that folded you so lovingly; the dear eyes that, looking into your own, said so plainly, whatever it might seem to others, yours were the fairest that earth held for him. It is to fight with a mighty sorrow as a man fights with the waves that overwhelm him, and to hold it at arm's length for a while, only to have—be—beams of loneliness and weakness—the instant rail meet you, while—poor storm-driven dove—you see no haven of peace in the distance but heaven.

The lady that wrote the above had probably lost her husband recently.

COMPTON, KERR COUNTY, Aug. 6, 71.

A meeting of the republican citizens of Kerr county, for the purpose of electing one delegate for the counties of Kerr and Bandera to the Republican Convention, to be held on the 14th of August at New Braunfels, was called to order by H. Ingham. After electing R. Vogt as Chairman and A. Rosenthal as Secretary, a committee of three was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions. The committee reported as follows:

Resolved, That U. Reed is appointed as delegate to cast his vote for the counties of Kerr and Bandera in the Republican Convention, to be held on the 14th of August at New Braunfels, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the 4th Congressional District in this State, and Hon. A. Faeller as his alternate.

And be it further resolved, That we fully confide in the ability and integrity of the Hon. E. Degener, our last representative in Congress, to present us in the same position and therefore give him the preference in the coming convention to any other candidate.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the meeting adjourned sine die.

A. ROSENTHAL, Secretary.
RUDOLPH VOGT, Chairman.

A correspondent writing from Paris, commenting upon the troubles that overtook the Omnibus Company during both sieges, gives the curious bit of intelligence that, among sixty officials of the company arrested by the Government authorities, two of them are drivers of omnibuses with the prefix "De" to their names; and that it is well known that many broken-down "aristocrats," unfortunates, and other bankrupts find a refuge from the storms of life in the company's employment.

The Communist leaders are said to have led a free and easy life toward the close. Like the Girondins of the first French revolution, they had their "farewell supper." Theological questions were occasionally broached among them, as the wife of one of them, General Baines, "covered herself with applause" by asserting, with horrible blasphemy, that "if a God existed it would be necessary to shoot him," as not being in consonance with the idea of the Republic—is in Commune.

We have received a copy of Mr. Grady's letters from Texas, done up in pamphlet form. Whoever reads those letters must conclude that Mr. Grady knows a little of practical farming, he has a higher and sterner appreciation of the advantages of the material interest of this country than any other man in it.

RECEIVED THE CROWN OF THE LEGION OF HONOR AND GOLD MEDAL AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, IN 1867, AND THE GOLD MEDAL AT AMSTERDAM EXHIBITION, IN 1880.

Larger than any other Sewing Machine manufactured in the United States.

THE
"HOWE" Sewing Machines

Received the Crown of the Legion of Honor and Gold Medal at the Paris Exposition, in 1867,

And the Gold Medal at Amsterdam Exhibition, in 1880.

And have invariably obtained the Highest Honor at all the great exhibitions; also, received, successively, the highest Premiums at our Texas State Fairs, in 1870 AND 1871.

The "HOWE" Sewing Machine

Is the most durable, simplest, most complete in all its parts, uses the shortest and smallest needle, for the same sized thread, than any other Machine, which is far less liable to break; it is so perfect in all respects that with ordinary care, it will last a life time without repair.

THEREFORE SELECT

"Elias Howe's"

NEWLY IMPROVED

which for simplicity and superiority of mechanism, beauty and excellence of stitch, economy of thread, strength of seam and variety of work is unsurpassed by any other Machine.

It will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind, and perform every species of sewing, plain and ornamental, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, called the "Howe" Lock Stitch, which is formed by two threads, one upon each side of the material, sewed and locked together in the centre, forming an elastic seam, and preventing the same appearance on both sides.

A stitch of this character commends itself as especially appropriate for sewing woven material, and if suitable thread be used the seam will prove as strong and elastic as the fabric itself.

At the present time no less than 400 Machines are turned out daily, and each and every one is guaranteed perfect, and made of the best material.

We have constantly on hand a full assortment of these celebrated Machines. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere.

CANDIDATES.

We are authorized to announce the Hon. EDWARD DEJENER, as a candidate for re-election to Congress from the 4th District of Texas, subject to the nomination of the Republican Nominating Convention of this District.

FRUIT. The powers of Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children are as positive as the sunlight from heaven, and gentle and soothing as an angel's whisper.

A RATHER promising looking man by the name of John G. Holt, was arrested yesterday and committed to "jail" because he represented himself as a member of the State Police, and arrested a deserter from the United States Army, but kindly released him for twenty-seven dollars. The released man was subsequently arrested by the city police, and then Mr. Holt's treachery was revealed to Justice Kloeske.

THE STATEMENT in the local column of yesterday in reference to the non-arrival of letters posted to New York, should have read March 1st; instead of May 1st. It is bad enough under any circumstances.

WE CALL attention to the card of Messrs. Green, Teel & Cocke. The gentlemen composing this firm are able lawyers and we have no hesitation in saying that any business entrusted to them will receive prompt and efficient attention.

Messrs. Teel & Cocke had a large practice previous to the accession of N. O. Green to the firm, and we have no doubt they will do a still greater business, civil and criminal.

They are all old residents, Mr. Green in particular, being one of the longest residents in this city.

May they prosper.
 ATTENTION is called to the card of the Hon. E. Degener, by which it will be seen that he still refuses to be cross-examined by the Hon. Jas. P. Newcomb, and reiterates his intention of dealing with the people of the district in the Convention.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, Aug. 10, 1874.
 Editor of the San Antonio Express:
 By Sec. 157 of the City Charter, the city of San Antonio shall compose a school district for all purposes of taxation. This is not inconsistent with any Section of the new School Law; therefore the city has no reason whatever to make herself subservient to the County State's school authorities.

By Section 158 of the City Charter, the City Council is authorized and required to levy a school tax, provided the aggregate school tax in no year shall exceed 4-10 four tenths of one per cent, on the taxable property of the city. By the State School law the Directors have the right to levy a tax of one per cent on the property.

By Section 154 of the City Charter, the city school fund is vested in the City Board of Education, which, by Section 141 shall have sole control over the school and school property of the city. By transferring the city school administration to the State authorities, the City Charter would be violated, and without any reason, because the State law in no regard touches the privileges of the city.

JULIUS BERENDS.

Help for the Nervous.
 Where is it to be found? cries the trembling victim of nervous debility. Not in the tavern dram; that fires up the circulation for a moment, and is succeeded by collapse. Not in purgative pills, or a Lenten diet; but in an invigorant and restorative in which the tonic elements are united with gentle aperient and alterative properties. When Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was introduced nearly twenty years ago this important object was first attained. This powerful and active vegetable specific is as justly celebrated for its cures of nervous diseases, as for the absolute certainty with which it relieves dyspepsia and biliousness. The hot weather toward the close of summer generally aggravates diseases of a nervous type, creating a degree of febrility which is beyond measure distressing. Under such circumstances rally the bodily energies with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Of all tonics, it is the most satisfac-

toy in its operation, and the least enfeebling. It braces the nerve up to their natural tension, but not beyond it, so there is no reaction. It has other properties, however, than those of a nerve, and as a blood purifier and moderate aperient, is superior to any other medicine of the day.

It is, however, in the restoration of the celebrity of the original medicine has given rise to scores of counterfeits and imitations. Examine the label, and for a sign of the signature of the firm; and then the spelling is all correct, and thus make sure of the genuineness of the article you buy.

It is Hostetter's Bitters are never sold in kegs or barrels, but in bottles only.

Nearly a quarter of a million of people visited the New York Central Park on Sunday.

Charley Way of Philadelphia has been swindling Philadelphia merchants in a $30,000 way.

Patience surpasses learning.
