

The San Antonio Express is the appointed Official Organ for the 24th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Bexar and Wilson, also for the 25th Judicial District, composed of the counties of Medina, Bexar and Comal.

After the election is over the twisting and turning of the "Herald" of lies will be amusing to witness.

When it was written the "Devil is the Father of Lies" the San Antonio "Herald" was not in existence.

The riot at Groesbeck is more serious than the local would-be-murderers effect to believe. The day has passed when democratic buffoons can resist the authorities with impunity.

Mrs. Gov. Davis' Letter. Her Trials and Sufferings during the War.

From the Navarro Ranger. We are allowed to copy an extract from a letter written by Mrs. Davis to an intimate and esteemed friend of her deceased father, Capt. Furber Britton.

The remark above has always been my motto, and has proved a great blessing to me during the late war, for I know had I not possessed so much of my father's disposition (nearly) looking on the bright side of everything, I should have either been in my grave or in a lunatic asylum.

My husband left home (Corpus Christi) where we were living the first year of the war, and I remained with my mother, with my two babies, one seven weeks old the day my husband left, and the other twenty-three months old.

My husband left home (Corpus Christi) where we were living the first year of the war, and I remained with my mother, with my two babies, one seven weeks old the day my husband left, and the other twenty-three months old.

Well to return to my story. He sent me back with paymaster Lynch, C. S. A., and that man kept me a close prisoner all the way over, not even allowing me to stop at a ranch on the road to rest my children for five nights all the sleep I got was kneeling in the bottom of the carriage with my head on my hat box, my baby sleeping on the carriage seat, and my oldest boy on the ground under the carriage.

presence of my mother, made to a large woman with two hapless children, and my only and twin brother in the Confederacy. I thought it best to only reply to him that when my husband came for the purpose he mentioned I would be prepared, and he might come and cut it. After this he heard that my husband was organizing in earnest to come to Texas, and he sent me another pass.

I reached Brownsville after a long and tedious trip, and went to a friend's house until night, when I put a change of clothes for my children in a carpet-bag and threw a Mexican blanket on my shoulders, two friends carrying my baby, and I left for Mexico. I crossed the ferry in safety, the guards taking me for one of my friend's family.

I remained in Mexico from December 24 until the next March, before my husband could cross the Rio Grande to Matamoros. When he did come, we went to the mouth of the Rio Grande, but had to remain there several days until the vessels could cross the bar.

Well, for three days and nights I did not know where my husband was. I was the only one in Matamoros of our friends who would not believe he was living—I could not believe it!! I had too much faith in Divine Providence, to think that He would permit such a thing!

I had heard that he was living in the States, but I did not believe it!! I had too much faith in Divine Providence, to think that He would permit such a thing!

Well, for three days and nights I did not know where my husband was. I was the only one in Matamoros of our friends who would not believe he was living—I could not believe it!!

My husband wrote him that his own conscience must be the judge in this matter, not so far as his treatment to his wife and family was concerned, he never intended to retaliate on any one, but let his conscience be his guide.

worthy and useful association, I have an ambition to become the champion rider of Western Texas. If there were you should feel disposed to offer a purse sufficient to cover the cost of the outfit of getting together in advance of the time a sufficient number of good horses, and the use of a carb bit, and prepare myself generally for the feat, I shall be more than proud to undertake it another year; and I am willing to submit to all your rules and requirements, and will agree to desist from riding whenever two physicians shall say, that that my life or health is being endangered.

In making this request, I do not wish you to offer the purse exclusively to me, on the contrary, I invite competition, and only ask a fair contest for the Champion Rider of Western Texas.

THE TOTAL NUMBER of votes polled in Bexar County, 1894. Degen's majority is probably about 200.
The peach crop this year is very large, and will in some measure compensate for the very poor one last season. We look for large shipments.
The pleasure of mangling an apple on the street corner is now attainable, as several wagons with very inferior specimens of that fruit are to be seen in the streets.
Now is the time to buy a stove, and the place is at LEROUX & COMPANY'S. This enterprising firm have just received and are still receiving any number of them, all of the latest styles.
But that is not all. They have also wood-ware, cutlery, Astral oil with lamps to fit, and everything else that goes to complete a first class establishment.
The wide arch of our ranged Union may be broken, star by star her glories may expire, her capitals and columns may crumble and crumble in the dust, but CLAPP & CO. will still flourish. Doors open at 4 a. m., admittance free, children half price.
The many strange faces upon our streets give the town a very lively appearance, as though a long season had inaugurated itself.
Many of the incomes are in some way connected with headquarters of the army. We hope they will all find San Antonio a pleasant place to sojourn in.
Two Cocks with cut Combs.—The cock that was defeated at the Fair by "our Mr. Pollmar," and the other cock that was whipped by "our Mr. Degen." It is to be hoped the Herald will refrain from insulting the public by calling attention to either of these cocks any more.
Commerce street presented a busy appearance on Friday, in consequence of the arrival of numerous wagons and carts which have arrived from the coast laden with merchandise of all kinds.
Among those who have recently received large invoices of goods may be named the firm of Pentecost & Bensch. Pentecost's may be called the museum of San Antonio, and it will amply repay the labor of the beautiful to take a stroll through their establishment.
In the first place there is to be seen and admired the best collection of paintings and Chromes to be found in San Antonio, or even in Western Texas.
Business and residences of prominent men and other articles for the adornment of the parlor or the study, meet the eye on every side. There is, however, one speciality that is unrivalled in San Antonio, we refer to his Perfumery and Toilet Soap.
The follow will find at Pentecost's a display of these articles that will convince the possibility of their ever purchasing elsewhere.
Let the incursions call in and be convinced.
This Herald whistles very loud to keep up its courage. Those who have paid no attention to past columns know that this is the sure precursor of defeat. When Carothers and Fisher were defeated in 1890, they were jubilant until the last moment, and had even gone so far as to predict a sudden destruction of the Herald at the hands of the publishing club.
In a few days the cock that crows so loud will be on his back with his feet in the air.
The Lottery on Soledad Street should be abated as a nuisance and a swindle.

Another kind of the Times.—The Democrats who have been raised in the country, should be obliged to the Democracy, as it is due to the Democratic management that these proud Conventions were able to march (when they are required to write their names).
We call the attention of those who are afflicted with an insane admiration for the leading civility of the South, to the letter of Mrs. Gov. Davis to a friend, which we copy from the Journal. Insulting letters and creeps around the houses of men, that whipped them, with glass cutters made a few their faces at midnight, represent the civility rampant and the civility rampant. Let us defy this cowardly, glib, glib.
Owing to the quarantine we have been without exchanges from beyond Galveston for more than a week and the prospect is that this state of affairs will continue for some time to come.
This is hard on everybody but it is particularly hard on the poor devil who is required to supply the insatiable man of a daily newspaper. If the yellow fever does not increase in violence we hope for a removal of the quarantine during the coming week. So mote it be.

The "HOWE"
Is the most durable, simplest, most complete in all its parts, more the shortest and smallest needles, for the same sized thread, than any other Machine, which is far less liable to break; it is so perfect in all respects that with ordinary care, it will last a life-time without repair.
THEREFORE SELECT
"Elias Howe's"
NEWLY IMPROVED
FAMILY SEWING MACHINE
which for simplicity and superiority of mechanism, beauty and excellence of stitch, economy of thread, strength of seam and variety of work is unsurpassed by any other Machine.
It will sew, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, bind, and perform every species of sewing plain and ornamental, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, called the "Howe" Look Stitch, which is formed by two threads, one upon each side of the material, sewed and locked together in the centre, forming an elastic seam, and presenting the same appearance on both sides.
A stitch of this character commands itself as especially appropriate for sewing woven material, and is suitable thread and the seam will prove as strong and elastic as the fabric itself.
At the present time no less than 400 Machines are turned out daily, and each and every one is guaranteed perfect, and made of the best material.

THE CAUSE AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION.—The primary cause of Consumption is derangement of the digestive organs. This derangement produces deficient assimilation and assimilation. By assimilation I mean that process by which the nutriment of the food is converted into blood, and thence into the solids of the body. Persons with digestion thus impaired, having the slightest predisposition to pulmonary disease, or if they take cold, will be very liable to have Consumption of the Lungs in some of its forms; and I hold that it will be impossible to cure any case of Consumption without first restoring a good digestion and healthy assimilation. The very first thing to be done is to cleanse the stomach and bowels from all disease, mucus and slime, which are clogging these organs so that they cannot perform their functions, and then rise up and restore the liver to a healthy state. For this purpose the sweetest and best remedy is Schenck's Mandrake Pills. These Pills cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the dead and morbid clime that is causing disease and decay in the whole system. They will clear out the liver of all disease, a new and healthy action, by which natural and healthy bile is secreted.
The stomach, bowels, and liver are thus cleansed by the use of Schenck's Mandrake Pills; but there remains in the stomach an excess of acid, the organ is torpid, and the appetite poor. In the bowels the lactals are weak, and requiring strength and support. It is in a condition like this that Schenck's Scarcely Tonic proves to be the most valuable remedy ever discovered. It is alkaline, and its use will neutralize all excess of acid, making the stomach sweet and fresh; it will give permanent tone to this important organ, and create a good, hearty appetite, and prepare the system for the first process of a good digestion, and ultimately make good, healthy, living blood. After this preparatory treatment, what remains to cure most cases of Consumption is the free and preserving use of Schenck's Pulmonary Syrup. The Pulmonary Syrup nourishes the system, purifies the blood, and is readily absorbed into the circulation, and thence distributed to the diseased lungs. There it ripens all morbid matters, whether in the form of abscesses or tubercles; and then assists Nature to expel all the diseased matter, in the form of free expectoration; when once it ripens. It is then, by the great healing and purifying properties of Schenck's Pulmonary Syrup, that all ulcers and cavities are healed up sound, and my patient is cured.
The essential thing to be done in curing Consumption is to get up a good appetite and a good digestion, so that the body will grow in flesh and get strong. If a person has diseased lungs, a cavity or abscess there, the cavity cannot heal, the matter cannot ripen, so long as the system is below par. What is necessary to cure a new order of things—a good appetite, a good nutrition, the body to grow in flesh and get fat; then Nature—helped, the matter will ripen and be thrown off in large quantities, and the person regain health and strength. This is the true and only plan to cure Consumption, and if a person is very bad, if the lungs are not entirely destroyed, or even if one lung is entirely gone, if there is enough vitality left in the other to heal up, there is hope.
I have seen many persons cured with only one sound lung, live and enjoy life to a good old age. This is what Schenck's Medicine will do for your Consumption. They will clean out the stomach, ripen and strengthen it, get up a good digestion and give Nature the assistance she needs to clear the system of all the disease that is in the lungs, whatever the form may be.
It is important that while using Schenck's Medicine, care should be exercised not to take cold; keep in-doors in cold and damp weather; avoid night air, and take outdoor exercise only in a genial and warm atmosphere.
I wish it distinctly understood that when I recommend a patient to be careful in regard to taking cold, while using my Medicine, I do so for a special reason. A man who has but partially recovered from the effects of a bad cold is far more liable to a relapse than one who has been entirely cured; and it is precisely the same in regard to Consumption. So long as the lungs are not perfectly healed, just so long is there imminent danger of a full return of the disease. Hence it is that I so strenuously caution pulmonary patients against exposing themselves to an atmosphere that is not genial and pleasant. Confirmed Consumptive lungs are a mass of sores, which the least change of atmosphere will inflame. The grand secret of my success with my Medicine consists in my ability to subdue inflammation instead of provoking it, as many of the faculty do. An inflamed lung cannot, with safety to the patient, be exposed to the biting blasts of Winter, or the chilling mists of Spring or Autumn. It should be carefully shielded from all irritating influences. The utmost caution should be observed in this particular, as without it a cure under almost any circumstances is an impossibility.
The person should be kept on a wholesome and nutritious diet, and all the Medicines continued until the body has restored to its natural quantity of flesh and strength.
I was myself cured by this treatment of the worst kind of Consumption, and have lived to get fat and hearty these many years, with one lung mostly gone. I have cured thousands since, and very many have been cured by this treatment whom I have never seen.
About the First of October I expect to take possession of my new building, at the Northeast Corner of Sixth and Arch Streets, where I shall be pleased to give advice to all who may require it.
Full directions accompany all my Remedies, so that a person in any part of the world can be readily cured by a strict observance of the same.
J. H. SCHENCK, M. D., Philadelphia. (12-11-708d.)
