ITEMS. An engine on the Central road, the other day, while under way, struck a cow and carried her a mile before she fell off. The Central track is laid to within 27 miles of Austin, but it is about 37 to the present running terminus of the road. Mrs. F. M. Caylor, of Grayson county, recently gave birth to three children at one time, altogether weighing 34 pounds. The depot buildings of the Central road are now going up in Corbans. The cars will soon be running to that point. Gen. Grant has found a rival; he is at last outstripped in one thing—Chicago can beat him smoking. An Iowa wife made an unpleasant mistake the other day; she put starch in her husband's beer, thinking it was arsenic. Reduction of the national debt and increase of Republican majorities everywhere are the gratifying notes of the day. A revolution has been attempted in the American-African republic of Liberia. One man killed; but it is believed they will do better next time. The collection made in fifteen Catholic churches, in New York, Sunday, in aid of the Chicago sufferers, aggregated $20,000, with eleven churches to be heard from. Louisville boys have attained great skill with the sling. They can hit an average sized nose or ear at a distance of a hundred feet nine times out of ten. From the Fort Smith Herald, we learn that trouble is brewing in the Creek Nation. Two parties are assembling and threatening each other with war. A sick man was told that his wife would probably marry again. "All right," said he, "for there will be one man to lament my death!" The opening of the European and North American Railway, from Hangar to St. John, which the President attended recently, shortens the distance between New York and Liverpool by thirty-six hours. The lease of the Camden and Amboy to the Pennsylvania Central has been decided constitutional and binding by Chancellor Zabriske. Thus New Jersey is dumped into Tom Scott's pocket. "Mansy" said a precocious little boy, who, against his will, was made to suck the cradle of his baby brother, "if the Lord has any more babies to give away, don't you take 'em."

A country girl writes to a male acquaintance: "Come over and see me; we have a new lamp at our house that we can turn down, down, down, until there is scarcely a bit of light in the room." An Indianapolis doctor treated a boy for catarrh, and consequent "bad breath," a week before he discovered that the "disease" was nothing but some crawfish the patient had unthoughtfully left in his pocket after a fishing frolic about two weeks before. A Lowell grocer, according to the Courier, has a dog which never sees a half-barrel of flour weighed out on the scales but he goes and puts one foot on the platform, carefully looking out of the door to avoid exciting suspicion. An Oklahoma hackman, the other evening drove a young lady to the wrong house. The mistake was not discovered until she had cordially kissed a young gentleman who had come down to the gate to meet the new arrival. The steamship Germania from Hamburg, Havre, Santander and Havana, took on at Santander two hundred Spaniards for Havana, and arrived at New Orleans with four hundred and forty German immigrants, of whom seventy-five are destined for Texas. The latest novelty in this "age of progress" is "boy suffrage." A paper edited by Wm. S. Hillier, has made its appearance in New York, called the Cornucopia, devoted to the interests of the boys and girls. The youthful editor maintains that as the schoolboy of eighteen now knows more than an "average man of twenty-one did in the old stage coach days," therefore they ought to vote at eighteen. The initiative and election of this assertion are worthy of Young America.

This is an interesting work of two hundred and twenty-four pages, with numerous engravings, and contains valuable information for those who are married or contemplating marriage; still it is a book that ought to be under lock and key, and not laid carelessly about the house.
