CITY BREVITIES.

The Coupe will depart at 8 o'clock. Now is a good time to put on wood, and overcoats. Lenoux & Cosgrove have lamps, paints, and stoves "that fit everybody". School-boys are beginning to pucker their mouths with green persimmons. Turn is generally the season when the wedding crop begins to come in. A portion of our exchanges received yesterday were well waded. The cold walls of the Cathedral on the Plaza, are looming up. Mr. FENTENHEDER has the most elegant stock of fancy goods ever brought to San Antonio.

Can money, wagered on the result of the election, be called "change for the better," when the other party wins? Jurors by the number of prisoners yesterday morning, the Recorder's Court is properly called "a hall of justice." On Sunday the Gaudaloupe was dangerous, and the miles of the Victoria stage came near being drowned in the Ohio. The rumor about the little boys being killed on the Illinois, was an atrocious fabrication. ANDERSON SMALL, ordered, charged with aggravated assault on his wife, will be examined today before Judge Klocke. A Mexican cart-load of wood has been sold as high as $10 specie within the past week. AUSTIN has oyster-saloon, where the delicious bivalves can be obtained fresh at all hours. ROSENTHAL & Co. deal in wines and liquors of the first quality at the lowest prices. STRANGERS are warned, not to attempt to cross Federal street in the vicinity of the Commercial Club; the ford is about one hundred yards above.

As soon as we have a heavy frost, we will get a few remarks about "falling leaves, rust and yellow," and "the Autumn of life," "quiet shadows of the past" etc. On reflection we have concluded to instruct the Mayor, and send them cigars and champagne to Chicago, we don't care for them anyhow. W. D. MAY, in command of a company of 50 men, made the trip to California from this place by the way of El Paso and Los Angeles, in 1848. These were the first white men who succeeded in accomplishing it.
